For the information of the Bureau, inquiries conducted in the vicinity of 121 West 88th Street, under the pretext of looking for one M. LOGAN, a white female in her [redacted] (a suitable photograph answering this description was exhibited), [redacted] resulted in [redacted] all New York City, advising that MARION LOGAN, wife of Dr. LOGAN, was a light-skinned Negress in her late 30's, who was highly respected in both the white and Negro communities, that she and her husband were very active in civic affairs in the New York City area (chiefly those connected with medicine) and that their home was visited frequently by prominent white and Negro sports figures, persons active in the theatre and entertainment fields, artists and national as well as local politicians. All the above repeatedly stressed the excellent reputation of Dr. LOGAN and his wife. b6 b7C

The 1963 American Medical Directory lists Dr. ARTHUR COURTNEY LOGAN, 1865 Amsterdam Avenue, New York City, born 1909, a resident of New York State and a graduate of Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons in 1934, as being a current member of the American College of Surgeons.

The records of the Marriage License Bureau, New York City Department of Health, Municipal Building, New York City, reflect that 1934 Marriage License number 1170 shows that ARTHUR C. LOGAN, 130 West 130th Street, New York City, age 24, Negro, occupation medical student, born in Tuskeegee, Alabama, and WENONAH BOND, 175 West 137th Street, New York City, age 27, Negro, no occupation, were married on 1/5/34, in New York City.

NY file [redacted] reflect that one Miss IONE SMITH, a children's nurse at the residence of one JOSEPH GENNIS, a Veteran Administration's doctor in b6 b7C

New York City, made available a list of names secured from the telephone directory of Dr. GENNIS which names she (SMITH) believed to be the names of members of the CP. Included on this list was the name Dr. ARTHUR C. LOGAN, residence 2171 Madison Avenue, New York City, with offices at 994 St. Nicholas Avenue, New York City. Upon recontact, Miss SMITH advised that the names she had previously furnished were the names next to which a check mark had been placed in the physician's section of the NY Telephone Co. Classified Directory. Miss SMITH advised during this recontact that she did not know the significance of the check mark.

The Philadelphia Office is requested to review its indices for information relative to MARION S. TAYLOR, Mrs. MARION B. JACKSON and Mrs. MARION LOGAN for information of a subversive or derogatory nature and will submit any pertinent information in a letterhead memorandum to the Bureau, Atlanta and the NYO. The Philadelphia Office is cautioned to make no contacts which would reveal the Bureau's interest in the SCLC or MARTIN LUTHER KING. SECURITY IS PARAMOUNT.

Re: Marion B. Logan
Member, Executive Board
Southern Christian Leadership Conference
Information Concerning

The "Atlanta Inquirer", a weekly Negro newspaper of Atlanta, Georgia, in its issue of November 7, 1964, carried an article captioned "Southern Christian Leadership Conference Adds 6 New Members" in which it reports that Mrs. Marion B. Logan of New York City was added to the Executive Board of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference during the recent annual convention in Savannah, Georgia. Mrs. Logan is described in the article as the wife of a prominent physician, Dr. Arthur Logan, and as an individual who had, for a long time, been very active in the civil rights movement.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, as made available by Pauline DeFiore to Investigative Clerk Patrick R. Cooney on December 17, 1964, reflect that Dr. Arthur Courtney Logan, wife Marion, resides at 121 West 88th Street, New York City (prior residence - 2171 Madison Avenue, New York City) and that he is a physician and surgeon who graduated in June, 1934, from Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons. Dr. Logan is the Assistant Medical Director of the upper Manhattan Medical Group Plan. Credit rating favorable.

Re: Marion B. Logan
Member, Executive Board
Southern Christian Leadership Conference

The records of the Marriage License Bureau, New York City Department of Health, Municipal Building, New York City, reflect that 1958 Marriage License number 5515 shows that Arthur C. Logan, Negro, 2171 Madison Avenue, New York City, born September 8, 1909, at Tuskeegee, Alabama, occupation physician, father - Warren Logan, born USA, mother - Adelia Hunt, born USA, former wife - Guinevere Durham (divorced February 8, 1958, in Mexico) and Marion S. Taylor, Negro, 330 West 84th Street, New York City, born December 8, 1909, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, occupation secretary, father - William H. Taylor, born USA, mother - Clara Saddler, born USA, former husband Romuel Jackson (divorced May 6, 1949 in Pennsylvania), were married on March 28, 1958, in New York City.

On Page 22, the July 8, 1964 issue of the "New York Times," is a news article which reports that Dr. Arthur C. Logan, who is described as a Harlem Surgeon, had been appointed as chairman of the Board of Directors of Haryou-Act, the agency created to administer the Federal, State and Municipal Government Anti-Poverty Program in the Harlem area of New York City.

The records of the Bureau of Criminal Identification and the records of the Bureau of Special Services, both of the New York City Police Department, failed to reflect any information of a subversive or criminal nature identifiable with either Dr. Arthur C. Logan or Marion B. Logan.

A review of indices of the New York Office fails to reflect any information of a subversive or derogatory nature identifiable with either Dr. Arthur C. Logan or Marion B. Logan.

MORTON STAVIS
SECURITY MATTER - C

The attached Associated Press release appeared in the "Washington Post and Times Herald" 1/12/65. It set out that a group of 21 lawyers planned efforts in Mississippi to seek the ouster of that state's five members of the United States House of Representatives. The group, headed by subject, calls the project "Deposition Caravan" in that they seek depositions from citizens of Mississippi in an effort to prove that Mississippi has violated the conditions under which it was re-admitted to representation in Congress in 1870.

Stavis was born Moses Isaac Stavisky 5/26/15 in New York, New York. He changed his name legally to Morton Stavis in 1939. Stavis resides at 203 Kotes Street, Elizabeth, New Jersey, and maintains a law office at 744 Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey.

He was reported by confidential informants as a member of the Communist Party (CP) in 1945 and 1946 in New York and New Jersey. In 1950 he was reportedly a member of the Union County New Jersey CP, and in 1952 he was considered within Party circles as a lawyer who was a real leader and a good speaker and was considered a member of the Lawyers Club of the New Jersey CP. Information regarding CP membership may be released without compromising informants but the identity of the informants cannot be revealed. The following information is from public sources:

Stavis has served as counsel for communist members in court and before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) hearings. He has been active in the affairs of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) from 1955 through 1964 during which time he has been a member of the National Council. OTHER Per COURT ORDER The ECLC and the NLG have been cited as communist fronts by the HCUA.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that this memorandum be referred to Mr. DeLoach for possible use in his contacts with sources on racial matters. It would be helpful if his sources know the identity of the remaining 20 lawyers reportedly involved in "Deposition Caravan."

"Turn Toward Peace - the largest single force in the peace-pacifist movement-has Norman Thomas, former head of the American Socialist Party, as its head, and Robert W. Gilmore, one-time New York peace secretary of the American Friends Service Committee, as its executive secretary ..."

The attorneys have for some time been very close to the communist movement. The unidentified individual is apparently active in the civil rights movement and, because of his contact with the Washington attorneys, his identity should be determined.

As Atlanta and New York are aware, several individuals associated with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference were in Washington on 1/11/65. They included Martin Luther King, Jr., Andrew Young, Robert Abernathy and Randolph Blackwell.

Efforts should be made to identify the individual in question. For possible additional assistance, note that according to WFO the visit of the unidentified male to the Washington attorneys was from 3:45 p.m. to 4:08 p.m.

It is suggested that if the unidentified individual's identity is not readily determined, Atlanta should set out leads to other southern offices in view of the southern background of the individual as reported in reairtel.

NICHOLAS KOURAMBIS;
ANTHONY CASCONE

Kourambis stated that on January 8, 1965, at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, a statewide campaign would be initiated to raise the social, political and economic level of migrant workers in New Jersey.

NK T-2 advised on January 11, 1965, that an estimated 17 persons, including Nick Kourambis and Tony Cascone, attended a meeting at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, on January 8, 1965, to initiate a campaign to raise the social, political, and economic level of migrant workers in New Jersey. Considerable discussion concerned the conditions of workers at Port Norris, New Jersey, where the main industry is fishing.

NK T-2 advised further that the group decided to send a telegram to Governor Hughes of New Jersey urging him to reject a bill requiring a one year residency before persons could be eligible for relief. The group also decided to form a new organization to be known as "The New Jersey Conference for the Rights of Migrant Workers". The next meeting of the group was set for 10 a.m., February 6, 1965, at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, the building of the United Packinghouse Workers of America, according to NK T-2.

NK T-3 advised on January 11, 1965, that he estimated that 22 persons attended the above meeting on January 8, 1965. NK T-3 stated that Kourambis presided over the meeting and appeared to control the meeting. The name of the new organization, as obtained by NK T-3, is the "New Jersey Conference to Improve the Rights of Migrant Workers".

The following information was furnished by WF 1491-S*, a highly sensitive and delicate source that furnishes confidential and delicate information to a restricted degree on the activities of JOSEPH FORER, Attorney-at-law, Washington, D.C., who has represented the interests of the Communist Party, United States of America, in the courts in Washington, D.C. Under normal circumstances, information furnished by this source, if used in a communication going outside the Bureau must be classified "~~Secret~~" in order to protect the source. This information should not be disseminated outside the Bureau except where obtained from an independent source.

JOSEPH FORER is one of the attorneys who has represented the CP, USA, in the courts in Washington, D.C.

In September, 1959, NY 694-S* advised that a member of the National Committee of the CP, USA, had referred to JOSEPH FORER as "one of the most important communists in Washington, D.C."

On 8/23/55, HERBERT FUCHS, an admitted former member of the CP, USA, from 1934 to 1946, who was active in secret government CP groups in a leadership capacity in Washington, D.C., and Denver, Colorado, from 1936 to 1946, advised that REIN was a member of a secret government CP group at the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) during the period October, 1937 to mid-summer of 1942. FUCHS was unable to give the exact dates of this membership, but stated it comprised almost the entire period that REIN was employed by that agency. The personnel files of the NLRB indicate that REIN was employed by that agency at Washington, D.C., from 3/16/38 to 7/20/42.

On 1/11/65, an unidentified male (UM) visited JOSEPH FORER. (The man was from Atlanta and has had some publicity in the newspapers since FORER had read it.) He was greeted warmly by FORER. The man was a college professor for nine years, is married, and has one child. He said he is not a member of the bar in Georgia or North Carolina. He apparently is teaching in North Carolina and Alabama. DAVID REIN, FORER's partner, mentioned that he met HERNDON (not further identified), an associate of the UM in San Francisco once. The UM goes to New York sometimes. FORER gave him "her" address and phone number as 372 Central Park, West, RI (sounded like Riverside) 9-7086. FORER said "she worked part-time during the day." REIN commented on a wonderful show on Mississippi. The UM told them about their citizenship training program. Most of the people in the Freedom Democratic Party were discovered "through our training program" according to the UM. He talked about training schools and students, and said there were 14 in a class in Atlanta. He said their program is a success. He mentioned their staff and said some on the staff are white. He said HARRY BOYT is (PH) one of them. He said they got a rebellion going on the University of Alabama campus now on academic freedom. He mentioned a program to bring negroes and whites together for the first time in neighborhoods.

The source said that it sounded like the UM's office was the office of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in Atlanta.

The source was unable to ascertain how the appointment was arranged with FORER or what, if any, previous connection there was between the UM and FORER. The visit seemed to be social. FORER gave no advice or guidance to him. The man was on his way to the airport when he stopped in FORER's office.

As recipient offices are aware, the Bureau is very much desirous of obtaining as much factual information as possible concerning the relationship between Martin Luther King, Jr., and Stanley David Levison. These individuals have occasionally had personal meetings and discreet coverage has obtained desirable intelligence. Attention is invited to the most recent Bureau communication relating to this specific matter, Buairtel 12/16/64.

Buairtel 1/14/65, copies to Atlanta, forwarded a letterhead memorandum of same date which reported a contact between Clarence Jones and Stanley Levison on 1/13/65. Jones instructed Levison to set aside the date of the 29th (presumably 1/29/65) on his calendar because a meeting of King's advisors would be held in New York City on that date. Recipient offices should be extremely alert to all information obtainable from sources available relative to the forthcoming meeting of King and his advisors. New York should commence making plans for most discreet coverage of principals involved so that in the event Levison does meet with King, the desired intelligence will be forthcoming. Of course, no action should be taken which could cause embarrassment to the Bureau or in any way alert unauthorized individuals of the Bureau interest.

Keep the Bureau promptly advised of all pertinent developments.

On 1/13/65, the "Cincinnati Post and Times Star", a newspaper of general circulation in the Cincinnati, Ohio, area published an article regarding MARTIN LUTHER KING. This article stated that KING will deliver the commencement address at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, on 6/19/65.

The article stated that Dr. KING of Atlanta is married to the former CARETTA SCOTT, who attended Antioch in the 1940's prior to her transfer to the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston.

The article states that Mrs. KING has returned to Antioch in Yellow Springs since her marriage but this will be the first visit for her husband.

Cincinnati will follow developments and submit LHM after the appearance of KING at Antioch College.

MISSISSIPPI FREEDOM DEMOCRATIC PARTY

DECLASSIFIED BY SP8 CTA/Bmj
ON 6/12/86 #260,152

We have learned that a number of lawyers from the San Francisco, California, area plan to travel to Mississippi to assist the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party in its efforts to unseat the members of Congress elected from that state.

The initial group of five lawyers which departed San Francisco on January 19, 1965, included Alvin H. Goldstein, a former Special Assistant to the Attorney General; Benjamin Dreyfus, a member of the Communist Party, USA, in San Francisco until 1949 and the National President of the National Lawyers Guild from 1962 to 1964; and Edward Stern, a member of the San Francisco Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild. The National Lawyers Guild has been cited as a communist front organization by the Committee on Un-American Activities of the United States House of Representatives.

The "San Francisco Examiner" contained an article on January 19, 1965, which indicates that Congressman Phillip Burton has written a letter to you requesting that United States Marshals and FBI Agents protect this group of lawyers while they are in Mississippi.

A characterization of the NLG is contained in the appendix hereto.

The letter addressed to "Dear Colleague" set out that in connection with the challenge filed by the Mississippi Democratic Party contesting the seating of those persons elected to Congress from Mississippi, the Mississippi Freedom Party has made a request for lawyers to come to Mississippi for a period of a week to ten days during the latter part of January and the month of February, 1965. The lawyers would participate in the taking of depositions from "Freedom Fighters" and county officials. All NLG members who can are urged to participate in this operation.

The letter indicated that lawyers who volunteer should be in position to defray their own travel expenses. NLG members were urged to advise the New York office of the NLG regarding their availability.

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York. U

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954, to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League. U

The Labor Youth League has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. U

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain Communist Party leaders as being to the "left" of the Communist Party in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. U

Meetings of the Ad Hoc Committee in Support of the MFDP were held on December 2-5-8, 1964 which meetings discussed support for the seating of delegates from the MFDP in the United States House of Representatives and the challenging of the regular Mississippi delegates. The December 2, 1964 meeting of the Ad Hoc Committee in Support of the MFDP was held in the office of the Harlem Parents Committee, 514 West 126th Street, New York City, N.Y. and was chaired by Mrs. Thelma Johnson of the Harlem Parents Committee (HPC). Stanley Aronowitz, [redacted] gave an explanation of the entire challenge procedure. He explained that the opening of the challenge would occur on the opening day of congress, January 4, 1965 and that this was only the first of many actions that would last until July, 1965. One of the immediate objectives of the Ad Hoc Committee was to get local congressmen to support the "challenge." (U)

ReNHlet, 1/15/65, copies to recipients instant communication.

The specific matter involved in the phase of captioned investigation discussed in relet is that pertaining to the identification of one Al (LNU) who is an apparent close associate of Martin Luther King, Jr. This Al had been in contact in November, 1964, with King relative to furnishing King some speech material. Al had also indicated at that time that he had just written an article for King and that it had gone all over the world. Bureau investigation has been directed to identify the Al involved and to obtain specifics concerning any article he had written for King.

The New Haven investigation to date, as outlined in relet, points to one Allard K. Lowenstein as possibly identical to Al (LNU). Investigation disclosed that Lowenstein has apparently moved from Connecticut to California and lead was set out in relet for the Los Angeles Office, at Hollywood or Los Angeles, to discreetly attempt to verify the presence of Lowenstein. If presence verified, a lead is also set out to ascertain the circumstances surrounding his affiliation with the film industry, it being noted that Lowenstein is reported to have recently completed the writing of a novel and that a motion picture company had offered to produce the novel.

It does not appear to the Bureau, on the basis of the facts known, that there is sufficient justification for the investigation requested of the Los Angeles Office. Los Angeles is instructed to disregard the leads set forth in relet. New Haven, if it believes these leads are fully justified, should furnish such justification to the Bureau after which the Bureau will further consider this matter.

New Haven also note that relet sets out a lead for the New York Office to ascertain whether Lowenstein is identical to Al (LNU) "who was to write an article regarding Martin Luther King." The Bureau is unaware of any prior information to the effect that Al (LNU) was to write an article regarding King. The reports known to the Bureau were that Al was to be a contributor to a speech being prepared by King and that Al had written an article for King which had reportedly "gone all over the world." In the event the New Haven Office has any information to the effect that Al was to write an article regarding King, such information should be furnished the Bureau.

Fund Raising Committee — No chairman designated; Committee members included James Haughton of Harlem Unemployment Center, 139 West 125th Street, New York City; Maxine Green; Robert Z. Lewis, 99 Hillside Avenue, New York City; Robert T. Washington, 70 Lenox Avenue, New York City (E)(W)

Confidential source number two on December 23, 1964 furnished a printed flier which was circulated at a rally held on Sunday, December 20 at the William's Institutional Church, 2225 7th Avenue, New York City. The circular indicates that this rally was sponsored by the New York Committee for Support of the MFDP Challenge, 514 West 126th Street, New York City.

An article in the New York "Amsterdam News", December 19, 1964, page 53, entitled " Harlem Rally To Help Mississippi Freedom Party", reported that the above rally would be held at the William's Institutional Church, New York City, and identified William Strickland as Chairman of the New York Ad Hoc Committee For Support of the MFDP Challenge."

Confidential source number three on January 4, 1965 furnished a mimeographed sheet entitled "Organization Objectives For The Freedom Democratic Party Challenge", which set forth the objectives as follows:

1. To disseminate to as wide an audience as possible the real issues and conditions that are at issue in the challenge.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

2. To create the kind of home-town interest which will influence congressmen to support the challenge at the various points where this kind of support will be necessary in Congress.

3. To build closer relationships between MFDP and northern community groups particularly the Negro community, trade unions, liberal and civic organizations.

The circular stated that a committee should be formed in the local community to support the "Challenge." The first tasks of the committee will be:

1. To contact the congressmen from their area and inform them of the challenge and their interest.

2. To organize a delegation to visit the Congressman at home urging that he support the challenge before Congress reconvened on January 4th.

3. To develop a campaign of letter writing, petitions expressing support of the challenge to the Congressman and to the House Committee on elections, of the Administration committee and organizing public meetings and rallies designed to demonstrate community support for the project.

The second stage of the "Challenge" (after January 4, 1965) entails the following program:

A. Statements from prominent local leaders in churches and unions, for example, should be procured as part of the campaign within the community. Most of these people will not participate in direct forms of pressure but may be persuaded to support the challenge in the press, letters to their constituents, or in public meetings.

B. A major fund-raising activity should be planned in support of the challenge.

C. Arrange speaking engagements for members of the MFDP to important local organizations. A speaker will be available for mass meetings, union and civil rights affairs provided that transportation and expenses are available from the sponsors.

D. Contacting the local press and acting as a liaison for placing press statements in local papers concerning the development of the challenge.

The circular requested the local committee to maintain contact with the MFDP, 1017 Lynch Street, Jackson, Mississippi, or 1353 Fourth Street Northwest, Washington, D.C.

Confidential source number four furnished information that Ella Baker was in contact with Stanley Levison in late 1956 and early 1957. (U)

Confidential source number five advised that Stanley Levison was in contact with Ella Baker in the later part of 1958. (U)

Confidential source number six advised in April, 1964 that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he critized the Communist Party for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain Communist Party leaders (U) as being to the "left" of the Communist Party in his position on civil rights. Levison's differences with the Communist Party, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (C)

Jesse Gray

Confidential source number seven advised on November 20, 1958 that Jesse Gray had been the former organizer with the Harlem Region of the Communist Party but this position was terminated during November, 1958. N.Y.

Confidential source number eight advised on January 24, 1964 that according to William L. Patterson, Chairman of the New York District Communist Party, Jesse Gray is no longer a Communist Party member but is friendly to the Communist Party.

New York file 100-136585, the file on MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., has been reviewed in an effort to determine if in the past KING has been in contact with anyone named AL who is a writer, but this review did not reveal any pertinent information.

The file concerning ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN (Bufile [redacted], which was mentioned in referenced letter dated 1/6/65, was reviewed. The case is entitled, "ALLARD KENNETH LOWENSTEIN; IS-SPAIN; RA-SPAIN". The following information was obtained:

The 3/20/60 issue of "The New York Times" contained an article entitled, "Campuses in North Back Southern Negro Students". In the article, it was stated that ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN, a lawyer of 25 West 81st Street, had recently returned from a fact finding tour of the South. He arrived from Alabama on 3/11/60, at Yale University, where he explained the issues and urged the students to return to their college communities and organize demonstrations and protests.

On 4/2/63, Lieutenant RICHARD M. CARLSON, United States Army, Recruiting Station, 201 West Cabarrus Street, Raleigh, North Carolina, advised SA [redacted] that ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN was an attorney, teacher, and writer. He also advised that LOWENSTEIN is an outspoken opponent of racial segregation.

It is to be noted that LOWENSTEIN wrote a book entitled "Brutal Mandate", which was described as a prolonged editorial against the South African apartheid program.

The Department advised in July, 1963, that the information furnished failed to reflect sufficient evidence to warrant soliciting LOWENSTEIN to register under the provisions of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938; therefore, the case was closed.

According to an article which appeared in the 4/21/64 issue of the "Raleigh Times", a daily newspaper published at Raleigh, North Carolina, AL LOWENSTEIN, Professor of Social Studies at North Carolina State, was the dinner guest of Senator and Mrs. J. WILLIAM FULLBRIGHT of Arkansas, this past weekend in Washington, D.C. President and Mrs. LYNDON B. JOHNSON, Secretary of Defense ROBERT S. MC NAMARA, and ADLAI STEVENSON were also guests of the FULLBRIGHTS.

According to an article which appeared in the 8/26/64 issue of the "News and Observer", a daily newspaper published at Raleigh, North Carolina, LOWENSTEIN, a professor at North Carolina State College, Raleigh, resigned from the faculty at State College effective 7/1/64. The article revealed that Dr. GEORGE GULLETTE, Chairman of the Social Studies Department, who announced the resignation, declined to discuss the reasons LOWENSTEIN gave for his resignation but stated he believed LOWENSTEIN wanted to work in the presidential campaign and write another book later in the fall.

The Bureau's attention is directed to the fact that ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN has been an outspoken critic of segregation and has been a professional writer who has written on the subject apartheid. It is also to be noted that LOWENSTEIN spoke at Yale University, New Haven,

Connecticut, on 12/8/64, on the subject the Freedom Democratic Party in Mississippi. [redacted]

Serial [redacted] pulled from this file under court order of U.S. District Judge John Lewis Smith, Jr., and sent to National Archives. [SEE BELOW]

It would seem, from the information set out above, that undoubtedly ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN is identical with AL (LNU), mentioned in reBulet.

JAN 26 1965

Both men indicated they had volunteered their services to Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party for a number of days in order to secure depositions from persons in 4th Congressional District of Mississippi for purpose of challenging Mississippi delegation. They claimed that they were two of several attorneys from San Francisco area working in the State. They claimed to be working out of an office located in the Evers Hotel(Negro) in Philadelphia, Mississippi, where they expected to be living while in Mississippi.

LOHSTROH requested that Agents furnish them with any information relative to flagrant violations in voter registration in order that they could secure depositions from such victims. LOHSTROH was advised investigations of the FBI are confidential and conducted at the request of the Department of Justice for their benefit. LOHSTROH and WADLEIGH stated they and their group were presently in the process of attempting to secure information through the Department of Justice. They said they hoped to secure such information and even complete FBI reports pertaining to voter registration matters.

They stated they were holding a mass meeting at 7:00 p.m., 1-20-65, at site of burned MT. Zion Methodist Church near Philadelphia, Mississippi, which is site where three murdered Civil Rights workers visited prior to their death. LOHSTROH requested FBI protection at this meeting and further requested protection for himself throughout his stay in Mississippi. They were advised that the FBI could not afford protection to them.

Synopsis:

Miami CP members reportedly did excellent work in soliciting registration among Negro voters in order to mobilize sentiment against Senator BARRY GOLDWATER. Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) has plans to solicit Negro members by posting notices on bulletin boards in laundromats in Coconut Grove, Fla. PLM also planning newspaper which would contain articles on conditions of Negro in Fla. Coordinating Committee of the Jewish Cultural Center, Miami Beach, Fla., sent $300 to Mississippi student organization which was attempting to register Negro voters there.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Head of

B.) Progressive Labor Movement (PLM)

The PLM is characterized in the appendix of this report.

On November 12, 1964, MM T-1 advised that JOHN FREEMAN is reportedly planning to place notices about the PLM on the bulletin boards in the laundromats in Coconut Grove, Florida. These notices would request that anyone interested in the PLM should write to the PLM in care of its post office box in Coconut Grove. According to FREEMAN, this type of recruiting might be successful with Negroes in Coconut Grove as these Negroes have a higher standard of living than other Negroes in the Miami area.

On October 30, 1964, MM T-1 advised that JOHN FREEMAN is considered the head of the PLM in Miami and also is a member of the State Organizational Committee in Miami. H.B.

On November 22, 1964, MM T-1 advised that one of the goals of the PLM in Florida is to organize a newspaper which would contain articles on conditions in Florida and in the South among Negroes, Cubans, workers and exploited groups.

On October 30, 1964, MM T-1 advised that the PLM chapter in Miami was formed in April or May, 1964, is an affiliate of the National PLM located at New York, New York, and receives guidance and instructions from the National organization.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A.) November Elections

On October 12, 1964, MM T-2 advised that according to ISAAC DANTZIG, the Miami Communist Party members did excellent work in soliciting the registration of voters. This was in accord with previous plans of the Miami Communist Party to help influence the November Presidential and Congressional elections by increasing voting registration among Negroes and other voters and in this way mobilize sentiment against Senator BARRY GOLDWATER.

On December 17, 1964, MM T-2 advised that ISAAC DANTZIG, former Organizer of the Miami Communist Party, was recently chosen as financial secretary and treasurer of the Miami Communist Party.

B.) Mississippi Student Organization

On November 4, 1964, MM T-3 advised that the Coordinating Committee of the Jewish Cultural Center (JCC), 429 Lenox Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida, recently sent $300.00 to the student organization which is in Mississippi attempting to register Negro voters.

The JCC is characterized in the appendix section of this report.

Is it the Party's plan to budget approximately two thirds of the originally planned $250,000 for the work relating to the Negro freedom movement and the South? Also, does the informant know what division of the sum of money involved will be made relative to (1) Negro freedom movement and (2) work in the South? How much of the work in the South will be pertaining to Negroes?

The above data is desired so that the Bureau may better evaluate the emphasis being placed by the CPUSA on racial matters generally.

Reurairtel 1/20/65 which enclosed a letterhead memorandum (LHM) of same date reporting on a meeting that George Meyers, a functionary of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), had had on 1/14/65 with Cordy T. Vivian of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

The LHM should be revised in accordance with the following observations.

Meyers is characterized by information revealing that a source had stated on 4/5/64 that Meyers, "Chairman of the Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia and North Carolina Communist Party District, was named as a member of the National Board of the CPUSA...." It is believed significant, because of Meyers meeting with Vivian in Atlanta, Georgia, to show Meyers's position of responsibility for the Party as including the State of Georgia. In this connection your attention is directed to the fact that Meyers is head of the Southern Region of the Party which includes Georgia. Specific data in this regard is available in the following reports, copies of which your Office has. New York report of SA Joseph V. Waters 10/20/64 "CPUSA, IS-C" identifies Meyers on page six as the District Organizer for the Party's Southern Region. New York report of SA James F. O'Connell 10/20/64 "CPUSA, Southern Region, IS - C" reports on page two the fact that Meyers is head of the Party's Southern Region.

Buairtel 1/18/65 advised that the Party functionary, George Meyers, resides at 1002 Beaumont Avenue, Baltimore. Inasmuch as the question of identity has obviously been resolved, it is believed that the LHM should be worded in a manner which would not raise any question as to whether George Meyers who contacted Vivian is the same individual who is a Party functionary.

By letter dated 1/15/65, the Department forwarded for Bureau's information a letter received by the Department signed "Dave." Enclosed for recipients is one Xerox copy each of the letter in question. Also enclosed is one Xerox copy each of the envelope in which the letter was received.

The letter is addressed to either "MINE" or, possibly, "MIKE." In the lower left hand corner of the envelope appears a name which could possible read "MIKE KELLEHNER."

The contents of the letter relate to matters which have recently come to the Bureau's attention, and with which the New York Office is familiar, concerning the Revolutionary Action Movement. It also appears from the contents that the writer is acquainted with the person for whom he was intending the letter. The letter was postmarked 1/13/65 at Bellmore, New York, which is located in Nassau County.

It is noted that SA Maurice A. Kelliher was assigned to the New York Office from September, 1952, to August, 1962, when he was transferred to the Seat of Government. Since 1/11/65 SA Kelliher has been assigned to the New Orleans Office. While assigned to the New York Office, SA Kelliher was engaged in criminal-type investigations and also handled confidential informants and similar other such sources. There is a likelihood that the individual who prepared the letter in question is a former contact of SA Kelliher and intended the letter for him.

New Orleans is instructed to immediately have the enclosures thoroughly reviewed by SA Kelliher who should then advise the Bureau and New York Office of the identity of the writer, if recognized by SA Kelliher. Thereafter, the New York Office, in the event the writer is identified, should promptly interview the writer for all factual information he may have relative to the matters discussed in the communication.

In the event SA Kelliher is not able to shed any light as to the identity of the letter writer, the New York Office should review the letter for the purpose of determining, if possible, its author and thereafter have him interviewed.

Keep the Bureau promptly advised of all developments in this matter.

NOTE:

The letter which was forwarded to the Bureau by the Department contains information concerning a large group of Negroes allegedly having an arms cache. This information is similar to a similar allegation we have been running out in connection with our investigation of the Revolutionary Action Movement.

OM T-1 said that CORE has been inactive during the past three months and he knows of no activities in which the group has participated. OM T-1 said that there has been no use or distribution of communist propaganda by the Des Moines Chapter of CORE, and he knows of no other persons with subversive backgrounds who are known members of CORE or exert any influence in the group other than EDNA MAY GRIFFIN.

OM T-2 advised in February, 1957, that EDNA MAY GRIFFIN, Des Moines, Iowa, had stated to the informant that she had been a member of the Communist Party for a period of over twenty-four years.

1601 44½ St., Des Moines, Iowa

This same source advised in August, 1957, that EDNA MAY GRIFFIN had recently paid $10.00 for Communist Party dues for her and her husband, Dr. STANLEY M. GRIFFIN. OM T-2 stated he had learned that EDNA MAY GRIFFIN intended that she and her husband remain in good standing in the Communist Party and would contribute $10.00 for dues per month and for Communist Party literature which she was receiving periodically.

OM T-1 advised that he is well acquainted with EDNA MAY GRIFFIN and her husband who is a Des Moines, Iowa, Osteopathic Physician, and he does not believe EDNA MAY GRIFFIN orher husband have been active in Communist Party activities or causes for many years.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

Plans, strategy, Party line, including expressions by national leaders.

ROBERT TRUJILLO, Chairman, Denver Communist Party (CP) group, made arrangements with National CP Headquarters to have HENRY WINSTON visit Denver in October, 1964, while WINSTON was on a tour across the United States.

WINSTON arrived in Denver on October 13, 1964, and attended closed and open meetings sponsored by the CP. On October 13, 1964, at a closed meeting of the CP attended by only members of the CP, there was discussion on how the members could contact and how they should proceed in contacting individuals to attend an open meeting sponsored by the CP group for the purpose of hearing HENRY WINSTON. At both of the closed and open meetings of the CP at which time HENRY WINSTON was the principal speaker, he was introduced by ROBERT TRUJILLO as a spokesman for the CP as well as a leader for the CP.

During the evening of October 15, 1964, which meeting was open to the public, and which was held at the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, 3460 West 38th Avenue, Denver, Colorado, HENRY WINSTON stated that the struggle for peace is first on the CP program and that the CP advocates the common struggle with people all over the world for the abolishment of exploitation of man by man. WINSTON spoke on the riots in Harlem and attributed them to the substandard living conditions in Harlem and the attitude of the Police. When WINSTON was discussing the election campaign, he stated that the term "white backlash" was to cause conflict between whites and blacks, thus keeping the two races fighting each other, which would result in both races being unable to fight for common goals. WINSTON said that the CP wants to unite the white and the black races for the betterment of both and that this will come about only through unity of the working class, both black and white.

B. OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS -
SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

The Socialist Workers Party (SWP) has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A characterization of the Denver Branch, SWP is part of the Appendix hereto.

Plans, et cetera, made at District and lower level meetings, including expressions by local leaders and rank-and-file members.

Action Committee for Equality

A characterization of the Action Committee for Equality (ACE) is a part of the Appendix hereto.

As of August 22, 1964, there were several members of the Negro race who are not members of the Denver Branch, SWP participating in the activities of a civil rights group known as ACE.

At the meeting of the Denver Branch, SWP held on November 1, 1964, there was a discussion regarding the civil rights group known as ACE. There was general discussion and it was the concensus that this area of Party work has fallen short of its goal.

This was attributed to people being too busy with the election campaign and also to failure on the part of the "Comrades" assigned to this area to perform their jobs. It was decided that now that elections are almost over, some effort should be made to rejuvenate ACE.

At the October 11, 1964, meeting of the Denver Branch, SWP, held in Denver, BARBARA TAPLIN, a member of the Branch, announced that the Branch had taken up $70.58 at the Militant Forum, which featured a panel of speakers on the Mississippi Summer Project. BARBARA said that the Branch donated $39.00 of this amount to SNCC.

ALLEN TAPLIN, Organizer of the Denver Branch, SWP, read a letter at the Denver Branch, SWP meeting held on October 25, 1964, which the Branch had received from the Denver Branch of Friends of SNCC, thanking the Branch for the part it played in presenting the Freedom Now Rally on Mississippi on September 28, 1964.

ALLEN TAPLIN reported at the Denver Branch, SWP meeting held November 29, 1964, that he attended a meeting at the home of MARY WALTER and present were a group of individuals who called themselves Friends of SNCC. He stated that among those present were MARY WALTER and HARRY NIER. He stated that this small group planned the picketing of the Denver FBI Office to protest J. EDGAR HOOVER's remarks about MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. The planned picketing was to take place November 30, 1965. ALLEN stated there was not much support for the idea from other organizations so the whole thing fell through. COLO

DN T-2 (12/1/64)

HARRY NIER and MARY WALTER were the Chairman and Secretary, respectively, of the Denver Chapter, Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC).

DN T-1 (12/1/64)

A characterization of the Denver Chapter, FPCC is a part of the Appendix hereto.

ALLEN TAPLIN reported at a Denver Branch, SWP meeting held December 13, 1964, that there would be a meeting held at the Shorter AME Church on December 20, 1964. He stated that this meeting will include a group of people making an effort to form some Friends of SNCC in Denver. He stated that the speaker will be JOHN PERDEW and some other young people connected with SNCC in the South. A proposal was made at this SWP meeting that members of the SWP Branch make some effort to meet with these young SNCC people and get them in contact with some of the young contacts of the Branch.

DN T-1 (12/18/64)

A Freedom Rally to protest "frame-up justice in Georgia" was held at the Shorter Community AME Church, Denver, Colorado, sponsored by the Denver Friends of SNCC on December 20, 1964.

Eight members of the Denver Branch, SWP were present.

COLD Gas

JOHN PERDEW of Denver was one of the speakers and he spoke on his experiences in the Civil Rights Movement, and his being in jail. PERDEW stated that the new Civil Rights Law is not the answer to the problems of discrimination and poverty and the Civil Rights Movement would continue.

DN T-1 (12/30/64)

On January 1, 1965, JOHN PERDEW was a guest of honor at a party held at the residence of HOWARD WALLACE in Denver, Colorado. HOWARD WALLACE is a member of the Denver Branch, SWP. PERDEW stated he would return to Americus, Georgia, to work on a freedom newspaper. PERDEW stated he did not believe the new Civil Rights Bill helped the situation in the South very much.

ACTION COMMITTEE FOR EQUALITY

A source advised that at a meeting of the Denver Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP), held in Denver, Colorado, on November 3, 1963, it was announced that a meeting of a Negro discussion group was held on October 30, 1963, in Denver, which was attended by ten persons, including three members of the Denver Branch, SWP. This group was started by the Denver Branch, SWP, as a means of establishing the SWP in the Negro community in Denver with Howard Wallace, Norman Hodgett and Nelle Garcia, all members of the Denver Branch, SWP, designated by the SWP to control and direct its activities.

The purpose of the group, other than to further the aims and purposes of the SWP, is to function as a permanent civil rights organization, to participate in picketing and other demonstrations to further the cause of Negro rights.

Until August 9, 1964, the group had no officers or official name but on this date temporary officers were elected which included Nelle Garcia as Secretary-Treasurer.

At a meeting of the Denver Branch, SWP, held August 23, 1964, in Denver, it was announced that the name of this organization would be the Action Committee for Equality.

The organization is not incorporated under the laws of the State of Colorado or any other state, and no official headquarters are maintained.

Since the inception of this group, no official membership list was compiled and meetings are open to anyone wishing to attend.

As of November 1, 1964, the group has held no further meetings, engaged in no demonstrations of any type, or elected permanent officers.

UDA HANSON, a reported Communist Party (CP) member, has been in contact with STEPHEN HOLBROOK, who assisted in Negro voter registration in Mississippi during the Summer of 1964. A meeting was held at home of JOSEPH R. DI SANTI, a reported member of Utah State Board of CP, to hear a speech by DALE GRONEMEIER, an officer of National Committee To Abolish The House Un-American Activities Committee, who had worked during Summer of 1964 in Mississippi in the voter registration drive. ROBERT ARCHULETA, reported Secretary-Treasurer of CP of Utah, attended a Police-Community Relations Liaison Committee meeting. ETHEL HALE, a reported CP member, attended a National Association For The Advancement Of Colored People (NAACP) meeting in Salt Lake City, Utah, improperly. NAACP, Salt Lake City, seeks to discourage participation by Communists in its demonstrations. Some reported CP members are present members of Salt Lake City Branch of NAACP but do not hold office in NAACP.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

National Association For The Advancement Of Colored People

The Salt Lake City Branch of the National Association For The Advancement Of Colored People (NAACP) has periodically sponsored demonstrations and other activities designed to further the rights of Negroes. JOHNIE M. DRIVER, an Engineer at Sperry Utah Corporation, Salt Lake City, Utah, was elected President of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP on December 7, 1964. There have been no demonstrations since he took office, and none are presently planned. DRIVER, other officers and members of this branch are aware of the fact that Communist Party (CP) members and sympathizers could use demonstrations and other activities for their own purposes. DRIVER hopes to be able to discourage such activities on the part of Communists and sympathizers but has been in the Salt Lake City area only a little over a year and has no knowledge with respect to the tactics of the CP or its members in the Salt Lake City area, nor does he have any present information pertaining to the identities of CP members or sympathizers. He intends to seek the guidance of ALBERT B. FRITZ, the immediate Past President of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP, in such matters. FRITZ continues to be a member of the Board of the NAACP in Salt Lake City.

The Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP has from time to time sponsored demonstrations and other activities designed to further the rights of Negroes. Officers and members of this branch are aware of the fact that CP members and sympathizers could use such demonstrations and other activities for their own purposes. Every effort has been made to discourage the participation of CP members and sympathizers in all activities of the NAACP in Salt Lake City. This has been relatively successful in the past because of the knowledge that ALBERT B. FRITZ, Past President of the organization, had pertaining to Communism and its members. The new President, JOHNIE M. DRIVER, does not have such knowledge but is expected to receive guidance from FRITZ. There have been no demonstrations by the NAACP in the Salt Lake City area during the past three months and none are planned for the immediate future.

Miscellaneous

UDA HANSON of Spanish Fork, Utah, on September 10, 1964, dined at the Hotel Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah, with STEPHEN HOLBROOK as her guest. HOLBROOK had spent the 1964 Summer in Mississippi assisting in the registration of Negro voters. HANSON desired that HOLBROOK address some group in Provo, Utah, at an undisclosed date.

(SU T-2, 9/29/64)

UDA HANSON was a member of the CP of Utah in July, 1963.

(SU T-3)

The Utah Council For Constitutional Liberties (UCCL) held a meeting at the residence of JOSEPH R. DI SANTI, Granger, Utah, October 7, 1964. The purpose of this meeting was to listen to a report by DALE GRONEMEIER, who had spent the 1964 Summer in Mississippi helping in the Negro voter registration drive. GRONEMEIER spoke as an officer of the National Committee To Abolish The House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC).

(SU T-4, 10/14/64
SU T-5, 10/22/64)

A characterization of the UCCL is included in the appendix hereto.

A characterization of the NCAHUAC is included in the appendix hereto.

JOSEPH R. DI SANTI was a member of the State Board of the CP of Utah in July, 1963.

(SU T-3)

DALE GRONEMEIER in December, 1964, was the full-time Administrative Assistant, NCAHUAC, Los Angeles, California.

(SU T-6)

ROBERT ARCHULETA was one of those attending a meeting of the Police-Community Relations Liaison Committee in the City and County Building, Salt Lake City, Utah, September 21, 1964. The principal purpose of the meeting was to consider problems involving Negroes, but other racial and minority groups were also considered.

(SU T-2, 11/5/64)

ROBERT ARCHULETA was the Secretary-Treasurer of the CP of Utah in July, 1963.

(SU T-3)

The Nominating Committee of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP held a meeting at Salt Lake City on October 12, 1964. One of those attending the meeting brought ETHEL HALE to the meeting. The committee was reminded by the President of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP that only members of the Nominating Committee were permitted to be present at its meetings.

(SU T-2, 11/5/64)

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

The Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP has approximately 300 paid-up members. Its President is JOHNIE M. DRIVER.

Among the members at the present time are BERNICE CURTIS, JOSEPH A. CURTIS, ROBERT ARCHULETA, UDA HANSON and JOSEPH R. DI SANTI. ETHEL C. HALE and MARCUS PARR have been members in the past but are not at the present time.

JOSEPH A. CURTIS attends meetings infrequently and ROBERT ARCHULETA has attended one or two meetings within the past two years. The others have not been in attendance at meetings of the NAACP within the past two years.

None of the above have any influence in the policies of the organization, and none are officers, nor have they ever been officers.

The NAACP on a national basis is opposed to Communism and known Communists are not supposed to be accepted as members. It is difficult, however, to challenge a person on this basis, since CP membership is almost impossible to prove. For this reason, membership is seldom challenged on the basis of Communism, but care is taken wherever possible to keep persons suspected of being Communists from getting in policy-making positions. The NAACP, Salt Lake City, considers that it has been successful in this respect.

The organization has also been able to avoid the distribution or use of what it considers to be Communist propaganda.

The Public Affairs Forum of Utah County (PAFUC) and the UCCL are considered by NAACP officers in Salt Lake City to be Communist front organizations. Mr. FRITZ, the immediate Past President of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP, has in the past periodically received invitations to speak before these groups. He has made it a policy not to accept speaking invitations from the UCCL since it is located in Salt Lake County, but about once a year accepts an invitation to speak before the PAFUC, since he considers that presenting the NAACP program to that organization might be of some value to the persons who attend. It is not known what policy the new President, JOHNIE M. DRIVER, will adopt in such matters, but it is expected he will seek the guidance of Mr. FRITZ. Mr. FRITZ made it a point to be careful so that he would not be placed in a position of advocating Communist viewpoints.

A characterization of the PAFUC is included in the appendix hereto.

ETHEL HALE, BERNICE CURTIS, JOSEPH A. CURTIS and MARCUS PARR were all members of the CP of Utah in July, 1963, and members of the Utah State Board of the CP.

SUBJECT: CIRM
(OO: NEW YORK)

Re New York letter to Bureau, 10/28/64.

Enclosed for the information of the Bureau and New York are copies of an LHM dated June 30, 1964, concerning the background and activities of RUDOLPH JOSEPH LOMBARD. Information also indicates that RUDOLPH LOMBARD is graduate student of Syracuse University.

An article appearing in the Kansas City, Missouri, "Times," a daily newspaper, under date of 7/6/64, quoted JAMES FARMER of CORE at the conclusion of CORE's National Convention in Kansas City as stating, among other things, that RUDOLPH LOMBARD, residence New Orleans, Louisiana, and Syracuse, New York, had been elected Vice-Chairman of CORE.

An article appeared in the "Post Standard" newspaper of Syracuse, New York, on 6/29/64, concerning a march by members of the Syracuse Congress of Racial Equality which called for prayers for the three civil rights workers missing in Mississippi. This article also reported that one of the speakers during this prayer march was RUDY LOMBARD, National Vice-Chairman of CORE and a graduate student of Syracuse University.

On 8/28/50, Mr. JAMES DENN, Commissioner of Elections, Albany County, Albany, New York, furnished photostatic copies of Communist Party nominating petitions for Albany County for the 1941 elections. One of these petitions contained the name GEORGE WILEY, [redacted]; however, no further information was available to identify him with the GEORGE WILEY of Syracuse, New York, mentioned in referenced New York letter of 10/28/64.

An article appeared in the Syracuse "Daily Orange" newspaper on April 11, 1961, which, among other things, reported that GEORGE WILEY, assistant professor in the Chemistry Department, Syracuse University, who was at one time on the California faculty, was in agreement with a group of students who had viewed the film "Operation Abolition" and felt the student demonstrators in the film were acting independently as opposed to the group in favor of the film.

Another article in the Syracuse University newspaper the "Daily Orange" dated 4/22/63, reported that Dr. GEORGE WILEY, assistant professor of Chemistry, Syracuse University, had distributed CORE leaflets during the picketing of the Woolworth Store in Syracuse, New York, by Negro high school students.

An article in the Syracuse "Herald Journal" newspaper issued 9/14/63, indicated that members of the Syracuse Committee on Racial Equality (CORE) are expected to resume picketing and direct intervention to halt the city's urban renewal project. GEORGE WILEY, Chairman of the Syracuse Branch of CORE, was reported as attending the meeting concerning this matter.

One GEORGE ALVIN WILEY of [redacted] b6 b7C
[redacted] and professor, was reported as arrested by the Syracuse, New York, Police Department during the period 9/13/63, through 9/20/63, in connection with a civil disobedience demonstration held in Syracuse.

[redacted] reported that at the anniversary dinner b7D held by the Syracuse Peace Council on 1/30/64, GEORGE WILEY received the Peace Award of the Year for his direction of the civil disobedience held in Syracuse during August and September, 1963.

An article in the "New York Times" daily newspaper dated 7/29/64, at Syracuse, New York, quoted Dr. GEORGE WILEY, a Negro professor of Chemistry at Syracuse, as advising the Sheriff of Onondaga County, PATRICK CORBETT, during a meeting of Negro leaders in a Baptist Church that if the authorities in Syracuse did not show the proper concern for the solution to the Negro problem, CORE and the N.A.A.C.P. might lose the leadership and situations could occur such as in Harlem and Rochester, New York.

Information in Albany files as of August 17, 1964, indicates that Dr. GEORGE WILEY, Professor of Chemistry, Syracuse University, is the leader of CORE in Syracuse.

MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT;
RACIAL SITUATION, STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

The Syracuse, New York daily newspaper "The Post-Standard" of June 29, 1964, on page 6, contained an article entitled "Pray in Clinton Square, CORE Marches for 3". This article reported that about 150 members of Syracuse Congress of Racial Equality marched without incident to Clinton Square yesterday with placards calling for prayers for three civil rights workers who are lost and feared dead in Mississippi. The prayer march that began at CORE Headquarters, 609 East Adams Street, led to the shaded steps of the U.S. Post Office Building where the marchers, mostly white, prayed and sang and talked of freedom. According to the article one of the speakers was bearded Syracuse University graduate student, Rudy Lombard, National Vice Chairman of CORE. Lombard, who reportedly was leaving for Mississippi on June 29, 1964, to "coordinate civil rights groups" made an urgent plea to end racial hatred in the South. Lombard stated "There will be more atrocities this summer in Mississippi...this march is part of many marches to federal buildings across the nation. We are calling for federal support of all (civil rights) volunteers and reaffirming our commitment to nonviolence."

The article stated that Lombard will work with the Council of Federated Organizations for registration of Negro voters and the establishment of community centers and private freedom schools in Mississippi.

On June 29, 1964, Miss Linda Savage, Identification Division, Syracuse Police Department, Syracuse, New York, stated that Rudolph Joseph Lombard, born [redacted] was arrested [redacted] for [redacted] He was released on [redacted] by District Attorney Melvin M. Slotnick. His occupation was listed as student and his residence was disclosed as [redacted]

A review of DRF-66640 concerning above arrest disclosed that Lombard was among seven pickets arrested on December 1, 1962, at 105 Comstock Avenue, Syracuse, New York. The vacant apartment building at this address was being picketed by CORE in protest of the owner's alleged refusal to rent an apartment to an African student. The pickets were placed under arrest when they refused to leave the building. The report disclosed that all persons arrested in connection with this picketing signed a certificate of release on December 3, 1962, when they were discharged from the custody of the Syracuse Police Department.

On June 29, 1964, Miss Gloria Martin, Syracuse Credit Bureau, Syracuse, New York, stated her files contained no record identifiable with Rudolph Joseph Lombard.

According to police records Lombard is described as follows:

Race:	Negro
Sex:	Male
Height:	6'4"
Weight:	210
Eyes:	Brown
Hair:	Black
Scars and marks:	None
Education:	Six years college

A review of the 1963-64 Syracuse University Directory lists one Rudolph J. Lombard as a graduate student residing at [redacted] His permanent residence is listed as [redacted]

Synopsis: Communist Party, USA (CP) and CP of Illinois held various meetings during period to evaluate results of November, 1964, national elections. CP's analysis of elections emphasized role of CP and CP concludes conditions now exist for achieving breakthrough for civil rights movement and expansion of CP's program for a Negro-labor alliance. CP leadership calling for support of Negro-American Labor Council (NALC) "State of the Race" Conference scheduled for New York City, January, 1965, where representatives of major civil rights organizations expected to attend. NALC program for conference calls for exclusion of communists; however, CP supporting conference notwithstanding. CPUSA youth meeting held Chicago December, 1964, claims CP rejects all theories that lead to violence in civil rights struggle including program of Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM) and Progressive Labor Movement. CP purportedly rejects "one big action theory"" and "the one big organization theory" in civil rights struggle and instead calls for a united front approach around issues on all levels and with all organizations. CPUSA youth program recommended wherein there will be increased civil rights activity on college campuses; a program to assist working class youth in its struggles for jobs and against job discrimination; the building of unemployment workers students groups and the influencing of W.E.B. RAM members Chicago receiving instruction in Marxist philosophy from ISHMAEL FLORY, CP of Illinois member and head of AAHA. During period Chicago Chapter Socialist Workers Party relatively inactive in the civil rights struggle. CP of Illinois members' presence at sit-in demonstration, Chicago Board of Education, January, 1965, noted. Communist penetration and influence in racial and other organizations noted where pertinent. Chicago Chapter, National Lawyers Guild (NLG), in January, 1965, held a "briefing session" for lawyers interested in going to Mississippi to participate in taking depositions from Negroes deprived of their voting rights. NLG proposed task force of 100 lawyers will attempt to obtain evidence sufficient to unseat Mississippi delegation in U.S. House of Representatives. Task force of lawyers to attempt this action in Mississippi between 1/25-2/12/65.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY (CP), USA

1. Plans, Strategy, Party Line and the Like, Made at National Meetings, Including Expressions by National and Other Functionaries

On November 7, 1964, the CPUSA National Negro Commission held a meeting at the Chelsea Hotel, New York, New York. (U)

Among those attending the aforementioned meeting was CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, the Chairman of the CPUSA National Negro Commission. LIGHTFOOT was also the first speaker at this meeting, and having called the meeting to order noted that the meeting itself had been called hurriedly following the results of the national elections, and that he had no formal report to give but intended to "throw out" a few proposals to see what reactions he might obtain from the group and hoped to prepare a basis for a report to be made at a later meeting. (U)

LIGHTFOOT then took note of the death of BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, former CP National Secretary, and the fact that DAVIS formerly was the one with whom LIGHTFOOT worked very closely in the work of the CP National Negro Commission. LIGHTFOOT stated that with the death of DAVIS a steering committee was needed to lay out a program of action. LIGHTFOOT then proposed that the steering committee consist of five persons and he suggested that CP members JAMES JACKSON, HENRY WINSTON, WILLIAM PATTERSON and himself be on this committee. (U)

Following LIGHTFOOT's proposal, some objection was raised to the fact that no white person was on the committee and subsequently GEORGE MEYERS was proposed and accepted. (U)

LIGHTFOOT next suggested that the CP National Negro Commission change its name to the Civil Rights Commission of the CP. No conclusion was reached after some discussion, and it was decided to leave this question of a name change to the steering committee who would in turn discuss the change of name with the CPUSA National Board. (U) ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

There next followed a report on the recent national elections, which among other things emphasized the fact that more Negroes had voted in the recent national elections than ever before in the history of the country. (U)

Following a lunch recess, the commission reconvened and at the outset CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT advised that A. PHILLIP RANDOLPH, head of the Negro American Labor Council (NALC), had proposed a national conference of top Negro leaders and that after several postponements this conference was to take place in Washington, D.C., during January, 1965. (U)

LIGHTFOOT then proposed that CP members should attend this conference. LIGHTFOOT directed that 40 persons attend from the State of Maryland and the Southern United States; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, was directed to furnish 10 persons; Detroit, Michigan, five persons; Chicago, Illinois 10 persons; and Boston, Massachusetts, five persons. (U)

(CG T-1, 11/9/64) (U)

In regard to CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, mentioned above, it is to be noted that CG T-2 on November 22, 1964, advised that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, in addition to being Chairman of the CPUSA National Negro Commission, is also Chairman of the CP of Illinois. (U)

During the period November 18-21, 1964, a meeting of the CPUSA National Board was held at the Hotel Martinique in New York City, New York. Among those attending this meeting were the following: (U)

GUS HALL	HENRY WINSTON
CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT	JACK KLING
JAMES JACKSON	GIL GREEN

At the first session of this CP National Board meeting held November 18, 1964, the announced agenda for this three day meeting indicated, among other things, that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT would report on the status of the racial conflict. (U)

At this first day's session on November 18, 1964, a report and discussion were had on the role of the CP in the recent national elections. During the discussion that followed (U)

this report, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT spoke and noted that the 1964 national elections reflected that the people in the United States not only voted against something but also for some things. He stated that the conditions now exist for achieving a breakthrough for civil rights during the next four to six years. LIGHTFOOT stated that to accomplish this, certain subjective factors need to be brought into play. He said that for some time the Negro civil rights movement alone stood out as a protest; today, this is not only one issue by itself but covers an entire spectrum of people and demands ranging from the broad issue of peace on into other areas. LIGHTFOOT stated that the Negro people are now no longer alone as the results of the elections have shown. LIGHTFOOT stated that the goals of the two million Negro voters in the South, when realized, will result in a realignment and the retirement of the Dixiecrats.

At the session of the National Board meeting held November 21, 1964, the first report delivered was that by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT on the status of the racial struggle. In essence, LIGHTFOOT reported as follows:

The main problems confronting the Negro today in his struggle for racial equality are: first, how to expand the Negro-labor alliance; and secondly, how to place working class leaders at the helm of the Negro freedom movement.

A. PHILIP RANDOLPH is calling a conference on "State of the Race" as a result of a resolution of the NALC. This will be a summit meeting of Negro leaders dealing with the subject of how to move from the present level of struggle to higher forms and how to raise the issues and what methods and tactics are to be used. This State of the Race conference will include all Negro leaders, including Muslims, but not the communists. Originally, the date set for this summit meeting was October, but, in order to carry out the struggle against GOLDWATER, there was a postponement of this conference until sometime in January, 1965. We want our Party primed to participate in this conference at its maximum capability; districts should begin to work on this at once.

One of the chief characteristics of the Negro freedom movement now, after the election, is that it has no dependence on LYNDON B. JOHNSON. There are no illusions, even if JOHNSON's intentions are questioned. The January conference will be the first general pattern of things to come and the beginning of the renewal of the struggle for Negro freedom although other Negro organizations [illegible] are holding some meetings now. The character of the conference will help to unfold the initiative of the workers even if it is an all-class conference. This conference can place the central problem of the Negro liberation movement.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

In the South there is still the de facto Jim Crowism today even though there is a civil rights law. The economic issues still remain and the Negro there has made little progress in this regard. The class outlook will determine some of these issues.

The Negro freedom movement in the North has, in some instances, gotten embroiled in school segregation and other issues like bussing, etc., but its general direction was not unsatisfying. On the issue of jobs and discrimination, little has been accomplished although there are some exceptions. For example, in Chicago 200 additional jobs for Negroes have been secured at Motorola as well as jobs with the railroads. In San Francisco there has been some similar success. In New York there is a serious struggle now for jobs in the breweries. Although recently 300 job complaints were placed before the President, there has been no mass struggle on this issue.

The Negro summit conference (State of the Race) will organize a real struggle for economic demands. We should not underestimate achievements in this connection even if they are not always visible. However, the job fight will not happen of itself and the conferences can even result in very little or nothing if there is no organization on lower levels and in each city. The question is then how to translate conferences' decisions into reality. The NALC is not just A.PHILLIP RANDOLPH, it must include all the people. Anti-communist exclusion clauses, like those of the NALC, will mean little if there is a struggle. There must be local followups to dramatize the job question. They must depend upon us not as Monday morning quarterbacks but as initiators.

A CP, USA national youth meeting which was organized by the CP National Youth Commission was held in Chicago, Illinois on December 19 and 20, 1964. In attendance were 23 delegates including 4 individuals representing the adult members of the CP, USA. The adult representatives were as follows:

GIL GREEN, representing the CP,USA national leadership

DOROTHY HEALEY from the CP, Southern California District

EARL DURHAM and LOU DISKIN, both from the CP of Illinois

Present as a member of the CP, USA Youth from the CP of Illinois was TED PEARSON.

On Saturday, December 19, 1964, this meeting began with a report from MIKE ZAGARELL, a CPUSA youth representative from New York City, and ZAGARELL's report dwelt mainly with the results of the November, 1964 national elections and the meanings of these results for the CP, USA youth program.

During his remarks ZAGARELL made mention of the fact that the various united fronts which had developed during the election campaign on every major campus throughout the country had represented a potential for continuous activity among students for progress. It was ZAGARELL's opinion also that the united front effort had weakened racism which caused the white backlash to fail as a major feature in the election campaign.

ZAGARELL also reported that from the standpoint of the CP program the level of Negro-white unity must be raised even higher. ZAGARELL stated that the CP rejects all theories that lead to violence in go-it-alone theories; rejects the ideology of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM); rejects the jump about guerrilla warfare as expounded by ROBERT WILLIAMS, and also rejects the proposed line of the Progressive Labor Group.

ZAGARELL indicated that the CP was for the unity of Negro and white based on a concrete struggle for the equality of the Negro people. ZAGARELL reported that the CP line says that the CP cannot win without the unity of Negro and white and the CP emphasizes that the self-interest of white America is directly connected to the Negro struggle for equality.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

ZAGARELL noted that within the over-all struggle of the Negro people certain ideological problems had developed within the ranks of the Negro people and their organizations. ZAGARELL stated that for lack of political characterization he would describe these ideological problems as (1) the "one big action theory" and (2) the "one big organization theory".

ZAGARELL continued and noted that some people feel that the struggle for the economic needs of the Negro people is the only path for mobilizing and radicalizing the Negro masses. ZAGARELL stated that the CP did not accept this theory and that although the issue of economics is correct, there must also be struggles around other aspects of Jim Crow oppression.

ZAGARELL stated that the one organization theory seems to think that if the CP can come up with one big organization, the CP will be able to mobilize all of the youth into one big center and from there, win the struggle. ZAGARELL stated that the one big action theory says that if the CP can come up with the one big action that they will mobilize all the youth such as the old time socialists proposed when they came up with the idea of the general strike. ZAGARELL stated that the old time socialists felt at that time that if they could just get all of the workers to agree on a general strike, it would break the back of capitalism and establish socialism.

ZAGARELL noted that both of these theories negate the uneven development of both organizational and political understanding among the American youth. ZAGARELL's position was that the CP's approach must be one of a united front around the issues facing the masses and developing struggles on all levels and with all organizations.

At this same session ALVA BUXENBAUM, also a CP youth representative from New York City, delivered a short report on the civil rights struggle.

(U) ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

BUXENBAUM in her report stated that the civil rights movement is still the dominant movement in the United States today. She stated that the unity that was presented in the defeat of GOLDWATER represents an advance in the building of Negro-white unity. BUXENBAUM claimed that the CP made contributions to this struggle. She noted that the CP had warned of the danger of the ultra-right and that the Party had also emphasized the struggle for the alliance of the Negro people with labor and although other sections of the "American left" were split on how to approach the election, the CP had developed a consistent position.

BUXENBAUM then noted that the CP is still not reflecting in its membership the tremendous struggles of the Negro masses. She stated that the issues that are facing the Negro people fall into the category of both objective and subjective issues. She identified the objective issue as relating to such matters as jobs and job discrimination. She stated that this issue is a basic question that will decide the economic future of the Negro people. BUXENBAUM stated that the additional issues such as police brutality, discrimination in education, public places, etc., although important, are subjective issues.

BUXENBAUM noted however that the CP must have an approach to mobilize around all of these questions. BUXENBAUM then proposed the following program as the program of the CP, USA Youth Commission in the struggle to end discrimination in America.

BUXENBAUM stated that the CP, USA Youth Commission proposed relative to college campuses that attempts be made to end all forms of discrimination on college campuses such as housing, discrimination in fraternities and sororities, discrimination in regard to faculty hiring policies, textbooks and some form of scholarship for Negro and working class students. BUXENBAUM stated that the CP should also organize a program to assist the working class youth in its struggles for jobs and against job discrimination specifically. Efforts should be undertaken for building unemployment workers groups among the young workers and to try and influence the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs to bring out a consistent policy on the job and job discrimination questions. The program should also work in the high schools for quality education and the improvement of the racial composition and further a struggle should be developed for democracy in textbooks.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

Relative to the south, BUXENBAUM recommended that the CP Youth Commission's program propose the development of a struggle for federal intervention to guarantee the rights of the Negro people; render support to the right to vote movement in the south with particular emphasis on support to the SNCC.

BUXENBAUM continued and stated that the status of the CP in the civil rights movement is still inadequate. She noted that the struggle for civil rights has been the main area of work by the CP but that the CP was still lagging in many respects. BUXENBAUM noted that one point for emphasis would be the involvement of white youth in the Negro struggle for equality. BUXENBAUM also stated that the CP must overcome the inconsistencies of its work where its members float from one organization to another. She also noted that the CP must answer the question as to why the CP has not won large numbers of Negro youth to the CP. She noted that one possible reason was because of a lack of the CP in the Negro community and because of this the Negro people did not know the program and the struggles of the CP and the Negro youth therefore have no way of finding out about the CP's program. BUXENBAUM also noted that the CP had spread its Negro cadre too thin and that in the future the CP must allow the CP's Negro cadre to concentrate on building in the Negro community. BUXENBAUM noted that the CP should build the unity of the Negro-white within the CP so as to set an example for the rest of the civil rights movement. BUXENBAUM stated that the CP must change its attitude towards certain of the less active Negro civil rights organizations such as the NAACP Youth Council and that the CP must determine where its Negro members work so that they may develop a balanced approach to building a base among Negro youth as well as participate in inter-racial policy organization.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

BUXENBAUM's report concluded with the proposal that the CP step up its program for the recruitment of Negro youth and schedule a conference of youth to deal with the problems of the Negro youth movement so that by summer the CP could try and make arrangements for its cadre who are students to work for the national office of the CP in some organizing capacity or so that some comrades could be encouraged to go south in connection with the Mississippi project. 2. Plans, Etc, Made at CP of Illinois Lower Level Meetings, Including Expressions by Local Leaders and Rank and File Members

a. General

At a meeting of CP of Illinois members active in the NALC held in Chicago, Illinois, on November 25, 1964, EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, stated that the CP is faced with several problems in trying to continue activities following the November national elections. DURHAM stated that there appeared to be an estimate that the JOHNSON victory in the November elections was positive; however, the civil rights movement is, at the present time, floundering as to what steps should be taken now. DURHAM reported that in no organization in Chicago, Illinois, is there even a definitive program established and generally there are no leads being given by any of the national civil rights organizations. (U)

DURHAM reported at this meeting that the outlook of the CP is [illegible] the maintenance of the coalition that came into existence to defeat GOLDWATER. DURHAM stated that labor was the weakest link in the JOHNSON victory. However, significant members of labor played a role in the JOHNSON victory. DURHAM stated that the Negro voters were almost unanimously against GOLDWATER. He noted that these two forces, labor and the Negro, could now be brought together for further advances. (U)

DURHAM continued and indicated that it was his opinion that it was important for the CP to re-establish its concentration on the working class. He stated that there must be no other activity that detracts from the CP members who were working to build a working class orientation, particularly for Negro communists. DURHAM stated that the Negro communists must find ways of becoming active leaders in the Negro community. It was DURHAM's opinion that the civil rights organizations that exist now in the civil rights movement still have no proper base in the Negro community. DURHAM continued and noted that the NALC which has been the CP's primary concentration for winning Negro workers to the struggle for freedom is, for all practical purposes, non-effective. DURHAM said it is not certain whether the organization (NALC) can play a progressive role at its present level of activity. However, DURHAM stated it would be premature to write the NALC off as a factor at this point. He did note, however, that it was important for the CP to change certain perspectives relative to the NALC. (U)

DURHAM continued and said that he did not believe it possible to build a mass organization in the NALC, but it was possible for the organization to act as a force in welding a coalition in the trade union movement for civil rights. (U)

b. CP of Illinois State Board

On October 13, 1964, the CP of Illinois State Board held a meeting at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. Among those attending this meeting were GIL GREEN, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, EARL DURHAM, LOU DISKIN, JAMES WEST, JACK KLING and HERB WRIGHT. (U)

The first report on the agenda was a report by GIL GREEN who reported on his attendance at the Illinois State AFL-CIO convention which he attended along with LOU DISKIN. (U)

During this report GIL GREEN mentioned that the AFL-CIO state convention had passed several resolutions dealing with civil rights, but that there was only a minimum amount of discussion on the significance of the civil rights movement at the convention. It was GREEN's opinion that because of this type of thing, there seemed to be a playing down of the civil rights struggle and there seems to be word out in labor that labor must avoid the backlash and therefore not make a big issue of the civil rights question. (U)

In connection with his report on the AFL-CIO convention, GIL GREEN referred to an incident wherein he and LOU DISKIN were chased from the hall where the convention was held when they were identified as communists. GREEN's statement included the fact that because of the commotion created when he and DISKIN were identified as communists, he left along with DISKIN on the first day of the convention and therefore did not stay for the remaining three days it was held. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

Also during this State Board meeting, EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, who was in attendance, spoke and stated that there were several problems in the civil rights movement that had been called to his attention. DURHAM then referred to certain splits which had developed between national leadership in the civil rights movement and field workers in Mississippi and other places. DURHAM characterized this situation as dangerous and stated that the CP should be aware of it as the CP develops its program. (U)

(CG T-4, 10/14/64) (U)

On November 10, 1964, the CP of Illinois State Board held a meeting at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. Among those present for this meeting were EARL DURHAM, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, DAVID ENGLESTEIN, MILT COHEN and NATALIE MYERS. (U)

The main item on the agenda for this meeting was an evaluation of the results of the November, 1964, national elections. During a discussion of this topic, DAVID ENGLESTEIN commented and indicated that there must be a sober estimate of what the elections meant to the American people. He noted that in his opinion it meant that there was a mandate for peaceful coexistence, disarmament and the processing of the struggle against discrimination. He noted that in his opinion there was one question flowing through the "left" and that is that any new movement among the left will, of necessity, have its best success among the new young radical Negro militants. ENGLESTEIN noted that this very question is being debated in the left movement. ENGLESTEIN stated that these questions should be discussed in more detail by the CP. (U)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois, next spoke and indicated that the previous week end a meeting of the CPUSA National Negro Commission had taken place in New York City and that during this meeting it was the estimate that the role of the Negro vote was, in local elections, the decisive issue that defeated GOLDWATER candidates. LIGHTFOOT stated that the so-called backlash scared a few Democrats who were running for office but those who were not scared ended up victorious. (U)

LIGHTFOOT continued and noted that the question before the CP, in Chicago particularly, is how the CP can develop an initiative in the struggle for civil rights. LIGHTFOOT stated the CP must also raise the question of a Negro in President JOHNSON's Cabinet but the most important question is how to put the heat on Mayor DALEY. (U)

EARL DURHAM next spoke and indicated that he was in agreement with the estimate presented so far and said that among certain of the civil rights leaders in Chicago there was a gratitude for GOLDWATER's defeat but that these leaders feel very strongly that the defeat of GOLDWATER has entrenched the Democratic Party machine in the City of Chicago more than ever. DURHAM stated therefore the task before the civil rights movement has become more difficult. DURHAM indicated that a blind spot had developed as to the struggle for civil rights and the role in this struggle of the Democratic Party. He noted that it was sometimes difficult to discuss an issue without first clearing the air on how the Democratic Party machine in Chicago should be approached. DURHAM called for an immediate discussion within the CP to try and help solve these problems. (U)

On November 24, 1964, the CP of Illinois State Board held a meeting at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. The main item on this meeting's agenda was a reading and a discussion on a draft statement from the CPUSA National Board on the evaluation of the November, 1964, national elections. (U)

During the course of this meeting LOU DISKIN, who was in attendance, read from this National Board draft resolution, and item six of this draft statement said that the Negro freedom struggle is still the most significant and militant struggle in America today and because of its economic base the alliance between Negro and labor is a natural consequence. The resolution stated at item six that when this alliance "jells" then progress will proceed by leaps and bounds. (U)

Item eight of this resolution as read by DISKIN indicated that a new phase had opened up since the national elections and that the tasks of the CP are clear. This item then proceeded to designate these tasks and subparagraph D, under item eight, stated that federal protection in the South for the Negro people and guaranteeing their civil rights was one of the tasks of the

CP for the future, and further the CP was to press the JOHNSON Administration to withhold federal funds from those areas that failed to comply with federal laws. (U)

(CG T-3, 11/25/64) (U)

On December 1, 1964, the CP of Illinois State Board held a meeting in a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. (U)

It was indicated at the outset of this meeting that the Board would consider, among other things, a report from CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT on some changes in the draft resolution of the National CP. (U)

LIGHTFOOT then spoke and indicated that in the main the draft resolution was accepted with only minor editorial changes by the National Committee of the CP. LIGHTFOOT, after briefly indicating the changes, stated that it was hoped that the CP of Illinois could organize a full round of discussion on this resolution and that an effort should be made to have non-Party people not only read the resolution but offer critical comments. LIGHTFOOT further indicated that flowing from the resolution will be a five point program which will be the CP's program for 1965. LIGHTFOOT indicated that the five point program would include, among other things, a paragraph two which would call for the end of Jim Crowism and flowing from this several specific issues which would deal with discrimination in the United States. (U)

Also following a general discussion at this meeting on the issues presented, LIGHTFOOT referred to the issue of civil rights and stated that Negro representation in various legislative bodies was not advanced at all in Illinois during the November, 1964, national elections, and that there should be discussions of why Illinois Negroes did not gain. LIGHTFOOT noted that a special CP meeting would take place on Friday, December 4, 1964, which would involve, among others, [redacted], EARL DURHAM, GUS SAVAGE, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and BOB WINBUSH, to discuss certain implications of this problem. LIGHTFOOT noted that GUS SAVAGE had written two editorials in a bulletin trying to explore why Chicago Negroes are losing politically. (U)

ILL

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

LIGHTFOOT next referred to the fact that A. PHILLIP RANDOLPH, of the National Office, NALC, had called a conference to be held in Washington, D.C., in January, 1965. LIGHTFOOT stated the CP has a task of trying to bring to this conference approximately 200 "progressives" in order to try and guarantee some type of followup. (U)

LIGHTFOOT also noted that the CP still feels that the NALC should be built, and that the CP should try and stimulate the struggle for jobs for Negroes. (U)

[(CG T-3, 12/2/64)] (U)

On December 8, 1964, the CP of Illinois State Board held a meeting in a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. (U)

During this meeting JACK KLING, CP of Illinois State Board member, reported on a recent meeting he had had with RICHARD CRILEY wherein he had invited CRILEY to meet with the CP of Illinois State Board in order to discuss ways that CRILEY and his organization, the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR), could assist in the over-all civil rights struggle. (U) MEMBER

According to KLING, CRILEY indicated that he had no serious ideological differences with the CP; that his main reason for not being willing to meet with the CP of Illinois State Board was the security of himself and his organization. According to KLING, CRILEY indicated he is taking great pains to guarantee that no government informer can link him to the current organized CP. According to KLING, CRILEY stated he trusted the individual members of the CP of Illinois State Board but past experiences show that the State Board is not infallible in matters of security, therefore he felt that he would not like to expose himself to the entire Board. (U)

KLING reported, however, that CRILEY indicated his willingness and desire to meet with individual CP leaders from time to time to discuss both the civil liberties movement and also some valuable experiences CRILEY is obtaining from his community activities. According to KLING, CRILEY understood that he, KLING, may differ with CRILEY on his estimates, but that the Party would receive his feelings on the matter and hope that the CP could work out a more consistent regular relationship based on CRILEY's feelings. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

KLING then reported on CRILEY's plans relative to the abolishment of the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC). During this discussion KLING reported that it was CRILEY's opinion that if the progressive forces are able to level a labor bloc against the HUAC it would advance the civil rights struggle tremendously. (U)

Following his report, KLING indicated that he believed the CP should think through how it could assist CRILEY in financing his anti-HUAC drive. (U)

During the discussion that followed, one of the suggestions advanced as to how CRILEY's organization and activities could best be helped was that the CP should be specific as to what it could contribute to this campaign and it was further suggested that perhaps the Negro leaders in the Chicago area who had signed a petition recommending the abolishment of HUAC could be influenced in the direction of getting more Negro sponsors and perhaps placing an ad in the "Chicago Defender." (U)

[(CG T-3, 12/9/64)] (U)

A characterization of the CCDBR is appended hereto.

Concerning RICHARD CRILEY, it is to be noted that as of March, 1963, CRILEY was a member of the CP of Illinois Garfield Club.

c. CP of Illinois Negro Commission

On September 16, 1964, a meeting of members of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. (U)

At the outset of this meeting EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, indicated that he, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois; and JAMES WEST, Organization Secretary, CP of Illinois, had met several weeks previous to take a new look at the CP of Illinois Negro Commission and at that time decided that the CP was not getting enough interest out of the people belonging to this Commission. DURHAM stated that it had been decided that a different approach should be taken and that a Party club should be formed consisting of members of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission to include, among others, LESTER DAVIS, GUS SAVAGE, BRENETTA HOWELL and ROSIE SIMPSON. (U)

LESTER DAVIS, who was in attendance at this meeting, stated that he did not agree with this type of setup, and he pointed out that ROSIE SIMPSON had moved from Chicago or was in the process of moving to Kankakee, Illinois. Further, he noted that relative to GUS SAVAGE, SAVAGE was quite cynical and lacking in discipline. Relative to BRENETTA HOWELL, DAVIS said that HOWELL was always difficult and did not attend meetings regularly. (U)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and EARL DURHAM both criticized DAVIS' approach as negative. DAVIS' response was that in his opinion the CP of Illinois Negro Commission should consist of the "hard core" people who were directly involved in the civil rights movement. (U)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT after some discussion announced that a future meeting should be held which would include people like GUS SAVAGE and BRENETTA HOWELL where the whole problem could be discussed. LIGHTFOOT also directed that LESTER DAVIS continue his activities within the National Association for the Advancement of Colored (NAACP) since LIGHTFOOT felt that DAVIS was in a position to be of valuable service to the Party in connection with the NAACP activities not only in Chicago but in the State of Illinois. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

In late October, 1964, EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, reported that he had met with AL RABY, prominent Chicago civil rights leader. It is understood that DURHAM met with RABY and that RABY understood that DURHAM had been active in the civil rights movement for a number of years mainly from the "left position." RABY also understood during this contact that the reason DURHAM was not publicly identified with a civil rights organization is because of his CP background. It is understood that the reason DURHAM met with RABY was because RABY held a prominent position in the civil rights movement and was one of the most accepted civil rights leaders in the Chicago area. (U)

During this contact by DURHAM it was understood that DURHAM desired to discuss the base of the entire civil rights movement in Chicago with RABY which DURHAM considered extremely weak. It was further understood that DURHAM met with RABY in order to discuss the civil rights movement in Chicago and to exchange opinions and discuss how both RABY's position in the Negro community and civil rights movement in general in Chicago could be strengthened. (U)

It is also understood that during his discussion with RABY, DURHAM suggested the names of certain individuals who are active in the civil rights movement in Chicago who should be recruited by RABY to assist him in his civil rights work. DURHAM is also understood to have recommended that some type of a regular method of communication be adopted whereby the individuals he suggested or others of similar position in Negro life would take time out for an evening, afternoon or week end to discuss certain philosophical and long-range approaches to the Negro movement with particular emphasis on how the Negro community could be mobilized to fight for its own liberation. (U)

It is understood that during this discussion and exchange of opinions, RABY expressed the view that he was in favor of DURHAM's proposals, particularly the recommendation that Negro community leaders meet occasionally and have a philosophical discussion for a long-range approach. (U)

Among those suggested to RABY as a leader in the Negro community with whom RABY could work was GUS SAVAGE. It is understood that RABY was critical of GUS SAVAGE on the basis that RABY did not trust SAVAGE. It was RABY's opinion that

SAVAGE was in any movement only if it fits SAVAGE. However, RABY noted that he felt he could handle SAVAGE if SAVAGE were boxed in sufficiently by others. (U)

Also during this discussion RABY stated that he felt he was the "cleanest" civil rights leader in the business, that is, he had no background of relationships with any of the left nor does he have any antagonistic blocks existing against him either in the established Negro organizations or in any of the predominantly white liberal organizations. It is understood that RABY insisted on keeping his reputation this way. (U)

It is understood that this contact between EARL DURHAM and RABY closed with DURHAM's indicating to RABY that he understood RABY's position relative to left activity and that as far as DURHAM was concerned, whenever RABY felt that DURHAM was getting too close that it interfered with RABY's "cleanliness" RABY had only to say so and DURHAM would understand. (U)

It was learned that in early December, 1964, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, EARL DURHAM and GUS SAVAGE met to discuss the possible forms the CP of Illinois political action could take in order to improve Negro political representation in the various legislative bodies. (U)

It was learned that prior to this meeting GUS SAVAGE had prepared several articles on the lack of Negro representation in the political life in the State of Illinois and nationally, and that one of the decisions made during this meeting was to have GUS SAVAGE give a speech before some unnamed body wherein SAVAGE would outline certain recommendations for beating Mayor DALEY's Democratic Party political machine which, as a matter of practice, limited the admission of Negroes into the political machine. This speech was then to be picked up by certain individuals and publicized as a blueprint for creating greater Negro representation in Chicago and the State of Illinois' political life. (U)

It is also understood that as a result of this discussion, it was CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT's decision that the CP of Illinois should finance the aforementioned plans to the extent of using the office of the African-American Heritage Association (AAHA) and its printing facilities and further that the CP of Illinois should underwrite all of the costs relative to this printing to the amount of $600 or $700. (U)

A characterization of the AAHA is appended hereto.

d. Other CP of Illinois Leadership Meetings

On November 5, 1964, a meeting of actives of the CP of Illinois was held at 333 West North Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. The main topic for discussion at this meeting was an evaluation of the November, 1964, national elections. (U)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT delivered the main report at this meeting, and during his remarks noted that among the issues that played a major role in the Presidential campaign was the question of the civil rights struggle and the supposed white backlash. LIGHTFOOT emphasized that during the campaign the so-called backlash did not materialize and he attributed the reason for this to the fact that the masses of white Americans saw the GOLDWATER menace as a threat to peace and more dangerous than the struggles of the Negro people for equality. LIGHTFOOT during his remarks also emphasized that the campaign had been successful in defeating GOLDWATER because there had developed a class coalition which supported President JOHNSON's position. LIGHTFOOT stated that this class coalition included all sections of the population, and in which the Negro people played a prominent part. (U)

e. CP of Illinois Clubs

On October 7, 1964, EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, held a meeting of various CP of Illinois club delegates at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. During this meeting DURHAM delivered a talk on the CP of Illinois' policy relative to the infiltration of civil rights organizations and on political matters. (U)

DURHAM in his remarks stated that the CP of Illinois members must infiltrate all organizations relating to civil rights and political matters and find out how they function, and when an opportunity would present itself, to present Party policy and ideas into these organizations' programs. DURHAM instructed that the CP of Illinois could not use members who are afraid of going to jail. He noted that there were too many CP members in the United States for all of them to be put into jail, and that what few who have gone to jail or will go to jail in the near future will become heroes. He also noted that it was an honor for a CP member to go to jail and that jailing CP members in America hurt the American foreign policy all over the world. (U)

DURHAM noted further that the delegates to this meeting were picked as good Party members who are not afraid of losing their jobs and that if anyone at the meeting was afraid to take a step forward for the Party he should get out of the Party. DURHAM instructed that CP clubs should invite non-Party members to their meetings and discuss Marxism openly. DURHAM also noted that CP members were to work with such organizations as AAHA. (U)

At this point VERSTA MILLER, who was in attendance, interrupted DURHAM and stated that he thought it was a waste of time and senseless to try to work to the top and steer the thinking of organizations like CORE, NAACP and MARTIN LUTHER KING's group because these groups or organizations are bourgeois red haters and FBI stool pigeons. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

DURHAM's answer was that the CP of Illinois did not need to be selective in this area because there were many civil rights organizations and political organizations which have offices and stations set up all over Chicago asking for new members and that the CP had everything set up for them to begin their work. DURHAM cautioned that CP members are to be careful not to get involved with the Black Muslims because the Muslims were militant against all white people and Negroes who associated with white people. (U)

ISHMAEL FLORY, who was in attendance, noted that recently a new organization of young people had appeared on the scene made up of Negroes who were believed to be in some way affiliated with the Black Muslim movement. FLORY stated that this new group called itself RAM (Revolutionary Action Movement), and that this particular group of young Negroes was trying to start a revolution in America. FLORY noted that he had cautioned young people in his organization to stay away from RAM. (U)

In response to FLORY's statements, DURHAM noted that the RAM group was behindtimes with their concept of revolution in America because the CP started the revolution in America back in the 1930s, but prosperity slowed it down, but now it is going faster in America. DURHAM again cautioned that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT had cautioned all CP members to stay away from all Black Muslims because the CP has to prove to the world that they are not causing riots against white people. On October 20, 1964, the Executive Board of the Ray Hansborough CP of Illinois Club held a meeting at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. During this meeting a lengthy discussion took place which was directed toward the question of the manner in which individual club members could best work during the course of the election campaign to insure the defeat of the GOLDWATER forces. Also discussed was what course of action CP of Illinois members could take following the November, 1964, national elections and where the individual CP member could best make a continuing and more permanent contribution to CP work insofar as mass organizations were concerned. (U)

It was the concensus of opinion at this meeting that CP forces and policies must be re-examined and that every individual CP member should be solicited to determine where they thought their best contribution could be made. It was pointed out that at the present time the CP of Illinois was giving no consideration to sending additional forces into the NAACP or AAHA. It was stated that it could be anticipated that other civil rights organizations would be targets for work by Party members and that CP members should be alert for such organizations and that individual CP members should activate themselves in other groups in order to accomplish this work. (U)

It was pointed out that the CP of Illinois policy was that each CP of Illinois member should be active in some mass organization since this is the only way, at present, in which Party members as individuals could make their influence felt inasmuch as at the present time the CP does little or no such work under its own identity. It was further recommended and adopted that at future club educationals of the Ray Hansborough Club, the program of these educationals should be geared to train the club members to do work in mass organizations. (U)

On November 29, 1964, a meeting of the Ray Hansborough Club, CP of Illinois, was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. Among those attending were the following: CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, GUS SAVAGE, ANNIE ALEXANDER, CARRIE BEVERLY, [illegible] (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

NATE SHARPE, MILTON GILMORE and ED CAREY. During the course of this meeting CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT spoke on the topic "Where does the Party go from here?" (U)

During his remarks LIGHTFOOT reported on what he described to be a high level CP meeting he had attended in New York which was held to discuss the future outlook of the CP. LIGHTFOOT stated that it was decided at this meeting that the most important thing for the CP to do now is to get in motion on several issues, especially in mass organizations. LIGHTFOOT noted that this would include the various civil rights organizations as well as the NALC. Relative to the NALC, LIGHTFOOT stated the CP feels the NALC must be maintained at all costs. He stated the CP must build this organization to be a top civil rights organization, and he pointed out that NATE SHARPE is the leading CP person in the NALC in the Chicago area and that if it were necessary other CP people will be assigned to become active in this organization. (U)

LIGHTFOOT further stated that the CP wants the NALC to grow in order that it can create a program for obtaining jobs for Negroes in industry and to fight those industries which have practiced discrimination against Negroes and further to fight against discrimination in trade unions themselves. LIGHTFOOT closed his remarks by indicating that he was instructing NATE SHARPE to make a survey of all the unions in Chicago to determine which unions were discriminating against the Negroes and then to formulate plans to combat this discrimination. As of November, 1964, ISHMAEL FLORY is the undisputed head of the AAHA. FLORY makes the policy and decisions for the organization. FLORY has been designated as the delegate to the South Side-Hyde Park Division Committee of the CP of Illinois from the South Side CP Club. (U)

ISHMAEL FLORY is a current CP member and calls himself the best Marxist-Leninist the CP has. FLORY also is a close friend of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman of the CP of Illinois, and attempts to influence LIGHTFOOT and is mutually influenced by LIGHTFOOT. (U)

AAHA is therefore theoretically dominated by the CP of Illinois.

g. CP of Illinois Collective in Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

In late October, 1964, it was learned that EUGENE TOURNOUR had contacted EARL DURHAM, Chairman of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission, and discussed with DURHAM problems relative to CORE. It was understood that TOURNOUR reported to DURHAM that at a recent national Administrative Committee meeting of CORE held in New York City, it was decided by this Administrative Committee to exclude TOURNOUR and other field workers from this type of meeting. (U)

During this conversation it is understood that EARL DURHAM instructed TOURNOUR to attempt to pull together a collective on an area basis of CORE leaders who agree with him as to the objectives and outlook for CORE. DURHAM cautioned that such a collective should be established as a permament group, not a faction, not a palace guard, but a group that would exchange information and try to collectively estimate trends and developments in the civil rights struggle. (U)

It is understood that TOURNOUR was in agreement with DURHAM's estimate, and TOURNOUR also agreed to make himself available for a series of discussions with DURHAM on estimates as to what steps should be taken in the civil rights movement after the November, 1964, national elections. (U)

(CG T-3, 10/19/64) (U)

Concerning EUGENE JOSEPH TOURNOUR, it is to be noted that as of June, 1964, the Chairman of the CP of Illinois considered TOURNOUR as a CP member. (U)

(CG T-3, 6/22/64) (U)

During the middle of November, 1964, it was learned that EUGENE TOURNOUR had been in touch with EARL DURHAM, Chairman of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission, and during a discussion with DURHAM reported that the CORE task force was floundering due to a lack of program and perspectives. It was learned that (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

TOURNOUR had characterized the CORE task force as an organization that was turning into a service organization because the staff of the task force was spending too much of their time conducting classes and working with children. (U)

It was understood that TOURNOUR also reported to DURHAM that the regional setup of CORE under TOURNOUR's leadership was still functioning and was progressing well. TOURNOUR also told DURHAM that on November 14 and 15, 1964, there was a regional meeting which discussed the establishment of a seminar. The purpose of the seminar is to try and establish an ideological direction for CORE. It is understood that TOURNOUR requested that DURHAM suggest some top people in the civil rights field who could lead discussions at this seminar. (U)

During this meeting between TOURNOUR and DURHAM it was decided that TOURNOUR should make arrangements for himself and at least two members of his staff to meet with DURHAM at some future date where there could be a full discussion of perspectives for CORE. (U)

In early January, 1965, it was learned that GENE TOURNOUR had recently reported on the internal problems of CORE to the CP of Illinois Negro Commission Chairman, EARL DURHAM. (U)

It was learned that TOURNOUR had advised DURHAM that he, TOURNOUR, had recently attended a regional meeting of CORE which was held in Detroit, Michigan. At this meeting, TOURNOUR was confronted by a document being circulated by a few members of the National Steering Committee of CORE that raised criticisms of the manner in which the National Office of CORE was functioning. (U)

The criticisms included the fact that there have been no national leadership meetings since October, 1964; that CORE was in debt to the sum of $200,000; that CORE had not participated fully in the Mississippi Freedom project; and that JAMES FARMER, the leader of CORE, had taken off for a six week tour of Africa without leaving any organization to carry on any leading responsibility. (U)

It was also learned that TOURNOUR reported to the Negro Commission that an internal problem which has developed within CORE is that a certain group on the National Steering Committee of CORE desire to junk the Chicago Project (CORE Task Force). TOURNOUR reported that if this were accomplished it would mean that he, TOURNOUR, would also be removed. TOURNOUR stated that the group that is attempting this has circulated a letter to the National Action Committee of CORE asking the approval of the National Action Committee for a national meeting be held on or about January 16 or 17, 1965. TOURNOUR reported that as far as he knew, the National Action Committee had approved the proposed meeting and that the meeting would be held in New York City. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

TOURNOUR advised that one of the main protagonists for cleaning up the National Office of CORE is one MARVIN RICH. According to TOURNOUR, MARVIN RICH is also seemingly the fund raiser for the National CORE. It was learned that TOURNOUR indicated that if he chooses to fight for his position in CORE it would mean that either he or RICH would probably have to go. (U)

It is understood that DURHAM explored with TOURNOUR the ramifications of such a confrontation between TOURNOUR and RICH and the possibility of TOURNOUR surviving such a confrontation. In response TOURNOUR indicated that he believed he could manage to survive the January 16-17, 1965 meeting. (U)

It is understood that DURHAM instructed TOURNOUR to survive the proposed onslaught and that as soon as possible after the January 16-17 meeting, DURHAM would sit down with TOURNOUR and work out a plan to consolidate the position of the Chicago group headed by TOURNOUR insofar as the program of this group is concerned and that they would also attempt through this discussion to consolidate the position of the Midwest Regional setup and further they would program a series of discussions with individuals in the region so that by the time JAMES FARMER returned, a solid front based on support of the Chicago program could be presented to the full National Action Committee of CORE. It was the opinion of DURHAM that through this method the struggle could take place on a different level. (U)

BRENETTA HOWELL, who is the Assistant Secretary of the Chicago Branch, NAACP, is also a member of the Executive Committee of the Chicago Branch, NAACP, and is therefore entitled to one vote at meetings of the Executive Committee. However, she exerts practically no influence on the NAACP and its members. (U)

LESTER DAVIS, who is a member of the Chicago Branch, NAACP Executive Committee, is entitled to one vote at meetings of the Committee. Also, he is the Third Vice President of the State of Illinois NAACP. He exerts very little influence on the NAACP and its members. (U)

EARL DURHAM, who is a member of the Chicago Branch, NAACP, rarely attends meetings of the group and exerts little influence on the NAACP and its members. (U)

BRENETTA HOWELL, LESTER DAVIS and EARL DURHAM are all current members of the Communist Party of Illinois. (U)

The CP of Illinois' success in infiltrating and influencing the Chicago Branch NAACP is weak and ineffective. Several CP of Illinois officials have held discussions with CP of Illinois members affiliated with the NAACP regarding the possibility of pushing various issues in the NAACP, such as school integration and open occupancy. These are issues which the NAACP has been advocating over the years. (U)

i. CP of Illinois Caucus Active in the Negro American Labor Council(NALC)

On October 7, 1964, CP of Illinois members active in the NALC held a meeting with EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, in Chicago, Illinois. (U)

During this meeting DURHAM advised that the group had been called together because he had learned that the Executive Board of the Chicago Chapter, NALC, was to meet on the following Thursday evening. DURHAM stated that he had also learned that the election of officers for the Chicago Chapter, NALC, was to be discussed at this Executive Board meeting and he felt that it was necessary that the CP members active in the NALC undertake efforts to delay this election of officers because of the poor financial condition in the Chicago Chapter and also because no one yet has been decided upon as a possible replacement for TIM BLACK, President of the Chicago Chapter, NALC. (U)

EARL DURHAM also instructed those in attendance to get together and figure out who possibly could be the next president of the chapter and encourage the person decided upon to accept the office. DURHAM instructed that there was always the possibility that HERB WRIGHT or NATE SHARPE, CP of Illinois members who are also active in the Chicago Chapter of the NALC, might be called upon to fill the position of president of the chapter; however, he thought this might be inadvisable since both WRIGHT and SHARPE are known to be CP members and their election could cause a splinter within the chapter. (U)

DURHAM during his remarks emphasized that the CP of Illinois was out to remove TIM BLACK from the position of president and place him on a shelf. DURHAM cautioned that this did not mean that BLACK should be out of the organization but should be kept in the NALC. However, it was the CP's opinion that BLACK was only interested in being a politician and the Chicago Chapter of the NALC did not need a politician in the position of president of the chapter. (U)

It was learned that in late October, 1964, EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, met with HENRY WINSTON and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT for the purpose of bringing WINSTON up to date on the activities in the Chicago Chapter of the NALC relative to the NALC State of the Race Conference which had been called by A. PHILLIP RANDOLPH. (U)

It was learned that DURHAM noted that the beginnings for this conference came out of a national NALC convention which had been held in Cleveland, Ohio, where a personal resolution proposed by RANDOLPH indicated the necessity for such a summit meeting of Negro leaders. DURHAM reportedly advised WINSTON and LIGHTFOOT that the conference was originally to be held in late 1964 and was for the purpose of discussing the state of the struggle for civil rights. DURHAM advised that the resolution asked for the established civil rights organizations to send representatives to this conference and the resolution also called for Negro leaders from the Muslims and ACT to be in attendance. Also the last sentence in the resolution was that everyone was welcome to participate, except the communists. (U)

It was also learned that DURHAM briefed WINSTON and LIGHTFOOT on the fact that within the NALC a splinter group had developed which had a counterpart in Chicago, and that this splinter group had issued a document calling for a new organization because the NALC was not meeting its potential in the civil rights struggle. DURHAM reportedly advised WINSTON and LIGHTFOOT that this document was circulated and was discussed by the CP of Illinois collective in the Chicago Chapter, NALC. DURHAM noted that the splinter group in Chicago had considered a proposal whereby representatives of this group would attend the State of the Race Conference and would call for a caucus meeting at this conference in order to determine the possibilities of initiating some new organization other than the NALC. (U)

It was learned that as a result of DURHAM's briefing, HENRY WINSTON stated that it was his opinion the CP's position must be to fight for the survival of the NALC and to fight for local groupings to develop grass-roots movements. WINSTON stated that if this is done, it will influence the national leadership of the NALC into a more positive direction in the civil rights struggle including A. PHILLIP RANDOLPH himself. WINSTON noted that if this is not done, the NALC has no future. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

In regard to the possible formation of a new grouping, WINSTON indicated that he did not agree with this perspective and that any formation of a new organization of the working class at this juncture would tend to detract from the CP's program which called for the creation of a strong Negro-labor alliance. (U)

(CG T-3, 10/23/64) (U)

In late October, 1964, CP of Illinois members active in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, met with CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois, at LIGHTFOOT's residence, 9600 South Genoa, Chicago. Also in attendance at this meeting was HENRY WINSTON who was with LIGHTFOOT as a guest in LIGHTFOOT's home. (U)

During the discussion at this meeting, the proposed NALC summit conference scheduled to be held in Washington, D.C., at Howard University was discussed. It was also brought out during these discussions that the summit conference participants are to be made up of various civil rights groups in the country including some of the following: NALC, NAACP, Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), CORE, Chicago Urban League (CUL). (U)

It was brought out during these discussions that the conference theme will be called "State of the Race" and it is the purpose of the conference to discuss the 1965 outlook for the civil rights movement in the United States. It was also learned during this meeting that certain of the CPUSA leadership desired that as many delegates as possible from the civil rights groups attend this conference as well as members of the CP even though RANDOLPH stated that he wants no communists present. (U)

It was further indicated in connection with this conference that in late October, 1964, a meeting of CP leaders would be convened in New York City where plans would be discussed as to the role the CP should play at this conference. (U)

In early November, 1964, a representative of the CP of Illinois caucus active in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, met with EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, and the discussion at this meeting centered around the various problems which confronted the Chicago Chapter of the NALC. During this meeting DURHAM indicated that it was the CP's position that the Chicago Chapter of the NALC should be maintained if at all possible. It was pointed out that A. PHILLIP RANDOLPH was scheduled to meet with the Chicago Chapter of the NALC on or about November 15, 1964, and the CP of Illinois leaders felt that as a result of RANDOLPH's visit the Chicago Chapter, NALC, might be able to pick up membership and gain some momentum. (U)

It was learned that DURHAM indicated during this meeting that if the Chicago Chapter of the NALC did not show any gains after the RANDOLPH visit, it was possible that the Chicago Chapter, NALC, might have to be dissolved and some other form of organization chosen to push the NALC program. (U)

On November 12, 1964, it was learned that on that date, EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, had issued certain instructions for CP members also active in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, relative to the visit to Chicago of A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, head of the National NALC. RANDOLPH was to appear and speak before the Chicago Chapter, NALC, on or about November 13, 1964, and DURHAM stated that he wanted the CP members active in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, to impress upon RANDOLPH the need for some national action on the part of the NALC in the civil rights field. (U)

DURHAM informed CP of Illinois members active in the NALC that it was the CP of Illinois position that the National NALC and local chapters should begin to take steps to solve the problems of hiring Negroes in various industries where they were not now employed. DURHAM instructed that CP members should not be reluctant to pursue this line because there were laws on the books against such discrimination and because a victory had been won in the national elections of November, 1964. (U)

The CP members active in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, were told by DURHAM that the CP of Illinois would like to see the Chicago Chapter and the National Office of the NALC arrive at a decision as to what particular industry the NALC should tackle relative to this fight to hire Negroes. (U)

Specifically relative to the visit of A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, DURHAM instructed that the issues he raised should be brought before RANDOLPH at the time of his visit to Chicago as the CP of Illinois is anxious to get things moving in the Negro jobs area. (U)

[(CG T-8, 11/16/64).] (U)

On November 19, 1964, a meeting between EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, and members of the Chicago Chapter, NALC, who are also members of the CP of Illinois, was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. (U)

This meeting was called for the purpose of formulating CP of Illinois plans to postpone the nomination of officers for the Board of the Chicago Chapter, NALC. (U)

DURHAM announced at the outset of this meeting that this postponement of election of officers to the Board of the Chicago Chapter, NALC, was necessary because of the tremendous financial debt the Chicago Chapter, NALC, had incurred. Also, DURHAM stated that with the proposed visit of A. PHILLIP RANDOLPH with the Chicago Chapter, NALC, he believed there was an excellent possibility to present a program to RANDOLPH for building the Chicago Chapter, NALC. DURHAM noted, however, that before any building of the Chapter could be undertaken, the question of the debt first must be cleared up. (U)

DURHAM also stated that in the near future, CP of Illinois members active in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, should begin to review the present membership of the NALC, Chicago Chapter, and pick out those individuals who would be good Board members and weed out the "dead heads" who are currently members of the board. DURHAM also stated that the CP of Illinois members active in the Chicago Chapter of the NALC should discuss at this time a plan of work for the Chicago Chapter, NALC. DURHAM stated that the CP of Illinois members active in the NALC should try to get TIM BLACK, head of the Chicago Chapter, NALC, off his "high horse" and get BLACK to see the necessity of undertaking a program to obtain jobs for Negroes in industry and of removing present discriminatory practices in various unions. DURHAM stated at the present time, TIM BLACK was spending too much time on neighborhood projects and was neglecting the primary purpose of the NALC, which is to obtain jobs for Negroes in industry. In this connection, DURHAM mentioned that at the present time there are no Negroes employed at the Sun Electric Company, which has plants both in Chicago and in nearby suburbs. DURHAM stated that this corporation employed approximately 4,000 to 5,000 employees, and that this is one company the Chicago Chapter, NALC, should concentrate their efforts toward. (U)

DURHAM noted that as part of this program of jobs for Negroes, the CP of Illinois should not stop working on this project once a few Negroes are hired in a particular industry, but should review the problem and determine whether or not the Negroes are placed in skilled jobs and if not, then whatever pressure is necessary should be applied to the company to get Negroes into these skilled jobs. (U)

[(CG T-8, 11/24/64)] (U)

On November 25, 1964, CP of Illinois members active in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, held a meeting with EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. (U)

During this meeting, DURHAM reviewed the successes obtained by the civil rights movement as a result of the 1964 national elections and indicated that one of the favorable results of the elections was that the CP could re-establish its concentration on the working class. DURHAM stated that there must be no other activity that would detract from CP members working to build a working class orientation and that this particularly applied to Negro communists. In this connection, DURHAM stated that CP of Illinois members who were also Negroes should find ways of becoming active leaders in the Negro community. DURHAM stated that the current organizations that exist in the civil rights movement still have no base in the Negro community. (U)

DURHAM continued and noted that the NALC has been the CP's primary concentration for winning Negro workers to the struggle for freedom, which, for practical purposes, is non-effective. DURHAM noted that from the CP standpoint, it was not certain whether the NALC would play a progressive role in its present level of activity. DURHAM noted, however, that it would be premature to write the NALC off as a factor at this point. DURHAM stated, however, that it was important to change on the prospectives for the CP relative to the NALC. (U)

DURHAM stated that it would not be possible to build a mass organization in the NALC; however, it was possible for the NALC to act as a force in welding a coalition in the trade union movement for civil rights. DURHAM stated that this could be done only if the NALC leadership was equipped to handle the many problems confronting the trade union movement today. DURHAM stated that it was the CP's opinion (U)

that TIM BLACK is not the best president for the Chicago Chapter of the NALC to accomplish this job. DURHAM instructed that the CP members active in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, should begin to evaluate other individuals with the view of choosing an individual to succeed BLACK as President of the Chicago Chapter, NALC. (U)

DURHAM then indicated that a series of discussions should be set up by the Negro CP of Illinois members active in the trade union movement and in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, with the view of determining certain recommendations to be presented to the National NALC Conference on the State of the Race to be held in January, 1965. (U)

In the discussion that followed DURHAM's remarks, it was the general concensus that the Chicago Chapter, NALC, and the NALC nationally were as weak, if not more weak, than DURHAM had indicated; however, there was reluctance expressed by those present as to the replacement of TIM BLACK as President of the Chicago Chapter, NALC. There was also expressed the opinion that the NALC would have some difficulty acting as a welding force in the trade unions on civil rights because of its failures to date which were well known to Negro trade union members in the Chicago area. The meeting ended with the general opinion that there would need to be further discussions on the points raised by DURHAM. (U)

EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, attended this meeting and discussed the overall problems in the various civil rights organizations and the need of greater CP influence in these organizations. (U)

HERB WRIGHT, a CP of Illinois member active in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, discussed the possible reorganization of the Chicago Chapter, NALC, and recommended that the CP of Illinois attempt to rebuild the chapter as a small, closely knit group of from 75 to 100 people. WRIGHT also suggested that the new group adopt a very limited program on a reasonable basis. (U)

RALPH TURNER, CP of Illinois member who is also active in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, reported that the Chicago NALC Chapter was in debt in the amount of $1,500. TURNER reported also that the problems of the chapter could not all be blamed on the president of the chapter, TIM BLACK. TURNER also recommended that the CP of Illinois see to it that the CP members within the chapter generally support the labor leaders who are active in the NALC and thereby secure the cooperation of these labor leaders in connection with the work of the chapter. (U)

The meeting was closed with a suggestion by EARL DURHAM to the effect that the CP of Illinois members act with the NALC and see to it that the Chicago Chapter organize a drive against the Washburne Trade School and against some building trade unions in the Chicago area based upon the discriminatory practices of these organizations. j. CP of Illinois Caucus in the Parents' Councils on Integrated Schools

On November 14, 1964, it was learned that JUDY KOLOKOFF on that date had contacted EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, for the purpose of discussing the future of the Parents' Councils on Integrated Schools in the Negro civil rights movement. (U)

During this contact it was understood that JUDY KOLOKOFF had sought this meeting with DURHAM in order to arrange a meeting of some of the CP of Illinois members and possibly non-CP people to sit down and discuss the future of the Parents' Councils. During the discussion between these two people, it was determined that KOLOKOFF suggested that the following individuals be invited to attend such a meeting: (U)

JUDY KOLOKOFF	BERNICE BILD MEMBER C.P.
EARL DURHAM	ROSIE SIMPSON
ROZ DEAN	SID JOHNSON

It was learned that the meeting between KOLOKOFF and DURHAM ended with DURHAM agreeing to make the attempt to call such a meeting as requested by KOLOKOFF. (U)

k. CP of Illinois Caucus Active in Chicago Chapter, W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America

In early November, 1964, it was learned that on or about November 4, 1964, TED PEARSON, CP of Illinois youth member and an individual active in the Chicago Chapter, W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America, had met with EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, for the purpose of discussing the formation of a youth group in the Hyde Park area of Chicago, Illinois. (U)

During a discussion between TED PEARSON and DURHAM, DURHAM advised PEARSON that there were certain developments in the national civil rights movement that PEARSON should be aware of because it may affect PEARSON's work in the CP of Illinois youth work and in the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs. (U)

DURHAM indicated that there were certain splits developing between the National Negro leadership of the various civil rights organizations, and the young militant civil rights workers in Mississippi and in other states in the South. DURHAM stated that there has been opposition by the National Council of Churches and other fund-raising type organizations relative to the direction the Freedom Democratic Party of Mississippi is taking. According to DURHAM, these disagreements have resulted in bitter internal struggles that have left a bitter taste in the mouths of some of the field workers of the various civil rights organizations. (U)

DURHAM told PEARSON that the main danger of this question is that a campaign of "red baiting" may result from this internal dissension. DURHAM indicated that he felt that the responsibility of the CP and the "left" in general was to fight for unity in the civil rights movement without compromising the struggles of the young militants and in other states in the South. (U)

During this discussion, DURHAM inquired as to PEARSON's progress with the W.E.B. DuBois Club in the civil rights struggle, and according to PEARSON, this program was (U) developing rather slowly. PEARSON's explanation was that a letter had appeared several weeks previously which had been issued by the U.S. Department of Justice and which had been published in certain newspapers identifying the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs as an instrument of the CP. According to PEARSON, this practice had scared certain young people who had been interested in working with the DuBois Clubs. However, PEARSON indicated that there was still a friendly relationship between DuBois Club members and the youth in the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and in CORE. PEARSON noted, however, that the SNCC and CORE youth, although friendly, were still reluctant to commit themselves to a united front policy with the Chicago DuBois Club. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

B. OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS

1. Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM)

A discussion was held by members of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM) in Chicago, Illinois, on November 24, 1964. It was agreed among those meeting that the civil rights organization ACT presented a very useful cover for members of RAM and their activities on behalf of RAM. ACT will also serve as a very useful recruiting ground for RAM. (U)

[(CG T-16, 11/25/64)] (U)

On November 29, 1964, a large city-wide fund-raising affair was held at Walton's Corner (a nightclub), 2736 West Roosevelt Road, Chicago, Illinois, under the auspices of ACT. Five individuals who are known as current members of RAM in Chicago were present at this affair since all are either ACT members or are affiliated with this organization. (U)

[(CG T-16, 12/9/64)] (U)

On December 5, 1964, the first of a series of Marxist educational classes was held in the offices of the African-American Heritage Association (AAHA), 306 East 43rd Street, Chicago, Illinois. Among those in attendance were five members of the Chicago Chapter of RAM. The class was conducted by ISHMAEL FLORY and was arranged at the request of a member of RAM in Chicago. (U)

[(CG T-16, 12/9/64)] (U)

During the period December 18-19, 1964, a collective leadership meeting of RAM was held in Cleveland, Ohio. The leadership conference was attended by representatives from Chicago, Illinois; Cleveland, Ohio; Detroit, Michigan, and from New York City, New York. (U)

Discussions which took place at the conference included finances wherein it was decided that if the situation does not improve by early summer, 1965, RAM will place its expropriation stage into effect. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

Additional discussions included the advisability of establishing chapters of the Afro-American Student Movement (ASM), a RAM front group, in various parts of the country. It was anticipated that an ASM unit will be re-established in Chicago, Illinois. (U)

Further discussion and considerable attention were devoted to the factional situation within the Chicago RAM unit, this situation arising from the fact that several RAM members in Chicago feel the organization should conduct its activities in a more secure manner, much less openly, and feel strongly that the organization should go completely underground. It was agreed that emissaries from this conference would subsequently travel to Chicago, consult with these individuals in an attempt to correct this situation, and resolve these differences. (U)

It was urged by those at the conference that all members of RAM educate themselves in Marxism so that they may be fully prepared for the tasks that lie ahead of the organization. (U)

[(CG T-15, 12/21/64)] (U)

A meeting was held December 30, 1964, by members of RAM collective leadership from Chicago, Illinois, and Cleveland, Ohio, at Cleveland, Ohio. The purpose was to discuss the factionalism that exists in the RAM chapter in Chicago. This rift was apparently widened by the appearance of a female member of RAM from Cleveland, Ohio, who spent approximately three weeks in Chicago, Illinois, during December, 1964, ostensibly to recruit females into RAM membership. It was felt little was done in the way of recruitment although one faction of RAM in Chicago, those who have been advocating security, continues to intervene in her behalf. (U)

It was decided at this meeting that bringing this split into the open was good for RAM at this time as it brought up the problem of discipline. It was decided that this split will help settle the problem as to who is actually in charge of Chicago RAM. (U)

[(CG T-15, 1/4/65)] (U)

RAM continues to exist in the Chicago area but does not maintain a headquarters. RAM does not hold regularly scheduled formal meetings and continues to be a loosely formed group of Negro nationalists purporting to follow the Chinese communist Marxist-Leninist line. RAM membership in Chicago is estimated to be less than 15. (U)

(CG T-16, 1/21/65) (U)

2. Chicago Branch,
Socialist Workers Party

A meeting of the Friday Night Socialist Forum (FNSF) was held at the Chicago Branch, Socialist Workers Party (CBSWP) Headquarters, Chicago, Illinois, on November 6, 1964. During this forum, two students from the University of Chicago who participated in the campaign in Mississippi to get voters registered, spoke and gave a resumé of what they had accomplished in Mississippi. These students were not CBSWP members but had worked in Mississippi for SNCC.

[(CG T-12, 11/9/64)] (U)

A meeting of the CBSWP was held November 16, 1964, at Chicago, Illinois. BEVERLY WULP, CBSWP organizer, delivered a report and stated that the CBSWP was unsuccessful in the area of civil rights because CBSWP members were lacking in civil rights experience which she hoped to include. (U)

[(CG T-13, 11/18/64)] (U)

Since November 1, 1964, the CBSWP has not taken part in any civil rights demonstrations and has not set forth any program or policy regarding civil rights.

In the past, members of the CBSWP have attended meetings of civil rights organizations such as SNCC and CORE, but they have not had any influence over the leadership of these organizations. No current CBSWP members are active in any civil rights organization in Chicago as of this time.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Sit-In Demonstration, Chicago Board of Education Building, Chicago, Illinois, January 13, 1965

The "Chicago Tribune," issue of January 14, 1965, page 1, column 8, carried an article entitled "Police Drag Three Out As Meeting Ends." This article indicated that a sit-in demonstration against Chicago School Superintendent BENJAMIN C. WILLIS disrupted a Chicago Board of Education meeting on January 13, 1965. The article indicated that the sit-in in the Chicago Board of Education Hearing Room, Board of Education Building, Chicago, Illinois, was staged by approximately 15 individuals who called themselves the "Committee to Help Chicago Schools GROW." The article indicated that members of this group had stated that GROW meant, "Get Rid Of Willis." The article indicated that an additional 15 individuals had participated in the demonstration but had not taken part in the sit-in. The article indicated that the 30 demonstrators were protesting the school board's failure to discuss their proposal that the board set up a committee to establish criteria for selecting a new superintendent and nominating candidates for the job.

The article noted that the demonstrators began gathering in the Board Room at 228 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, about 11:00 a.m. The article stated that the demonstrators sat quietly until about 5:00 p.m., when one of the demonstrators identified as JAMES WILSON attempted to obtain the floor. FRANK M. WHISTON, the Board's president, attempted to have WILSON sit down, which he did. Approximately 45 minutes later, however, WILSON again stood up and attempted to speak at which time members of the Chicago Police Department who were present moved in and the sit-in began. ILL

The article further indicated that the Chicago Police Department had been warned of the demonstrations when the group applied late Tuesday for a permit to march from Buckingham Fountain on the lake front of Chicago to the Board Offices at 228 North LaSalle Street. The article stated further that the motive of this group was explained to the press by JIMMIE COLLIER, [redacted] of [redacted] CHICAGO, ILL b6 b7C

[redacted] Chicago, who [redacted] skipped his classes at Wilson Junior College, to lead the demonstration. The article quoted COLLIER's statement as follows: "We personally feel WILLIS is not the best qualified man to be superintendent."

The "Tribune" article also identified one of the demonstrators as EARLESS ROSS, [redacted] of [redacted] Chicago, who told the press that he was an employee of CORE. The article also noted that one white woman among the demonstrators stated she belonged to SNCC and another demonstrator was the Rev. PAUL JOHNSON, [redacted] who identified himself as the pastor of the Community Presbyterian Church at Ashland Avenue and Roosevelt Road, Chicago. The article also indicated that one of the demonstrators arrested was a juvenile by the name of HELEN LAMPLEY, [redacted] of [redacted] Chicago, who was turned over to her parents. The article indicated that the following individuals were arrested by the Chicago Police Department in connection with this demonstration and were charged with trespassing and disorderly conduct. The article identified these individuals as follows:

Concerning the sit-in demonstration against School Superintendent BENJAMIN C. WILLIS held January 13, 1965, at the Chicago Board of Education Building, 228 North La Salle Street, Chicago, Illinois, it is to be noted that this demonstration actually began at Buckingham Fountain on the lake front, Chicago, Illinois, at approximately 10 a.m. At that time there were approximately six people in the audience and JIM COLLIER disclosed that the demonstration was being sponsored by an Adhoc Committee of all west side Chicago civil rights organizations, including ACT, CORE, SNCC, the American Friends Service Committee and various church groups.

When the demonstrators arrived at the Board of Education Building, 228 North La Salle Street, JIM COLLIER receded into the background and EARLESS ROSS took over the leadership of the group and was the spokesman for the group.

Shortly after the arrival at the Board of Education Building the original group swelled to a number of approximately 30. At this time the group divided into those individuals who went into the Board of Education Hearing Room and those who remained in the hallway. Among those who remained in the hallway were the following:

Concerning ROSALYN DEAN, DEAN was observed to talk with JERALD MC WORTER, ROBERT LUCAS and TED PEARSON shortly before the actual demonstration began. Based upon observation it appeared that DEAN had a definite role in setting off the demonstration.

The "Chicago Tribune" issue of January 19, 1965, Page 4, Section 1, Columns 4 and 5, carried an article entitled "14 In School Board Sit-In Plead Guilty". This article indicated that the 14 persons who were arrested after disrupting a Chicago Board of Education hearing by staging a sit-in demonstration (January 13, 1965), pleaded guilty to trespassing and disorderly conduct charges on January 18, 1965, when they appeared before Judge HARRY COMERFORD in Boys Court.

The aforementioned article indicated that the 14 individuals were fined $25 each but that the fines were suspended when Judge COMERFORD was told that all of the individuals had been in jail upon refusing to post bond since their arrest the previous Wednesday.

The article quoted Judge COMERFORD as having told the defendants that he understood that by their pleas of guilty that they realized they were wrong and that they had proceeded in an illegal way. Judge COMERFORD told the group that they must keep in mind basically what makes a democracy. He told them that any type of insurrection is objected to in a democracy.

Judge COMERFORD was quoted by the article as indicating that if any of the individuals appeared in his court again on a similar charge he would assess the maximum penalty. The article indicated the maximum penalty in this instance for charges of trespassing and disorderly conduct was a $200 fine.

The article identified the 14 individuals as follows: EARLESS ROSS, [redacted], JAMES WILSON, [redacted] JAY LITVIN, [redacted] the Reverend PAUL JOHNSON, [redacted], of [redacted] GENE JONES, [redacted] MARVIN DICKERSON, [redacted] ROBERT BONES, [redacted] DAVID BEY, [redacted] ARNELL DOUGLAS, [redacted] STEPHEN STARKWEATHER, [redacted] FRED SMITH, [redacted] Miss ELAYNE GODINA, [redacted] Miss MARGO GREEN, [redacted] and BERNARD LAFAYETTE, [redacted]

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. ACT

In late November, 1964, members of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM) were instructed to continue their activities in ACT on Chicago's West Side because the West Side Unit of ACT was serving as a very useful cover for the RAM members active in ACT. They were told not only does ACT serve as a useful cover for the RAM members, but ACT serves as a very useful recruiting ground for RAM in the sense that those individuals who have gravitated toward ACT have done so as it is a more militant civil rights organization than most, and because it represents a very promising potential from among whose number future RAM members might be solicited. (U)

Also in late November, 1964, a member of RAM stated that he had been recently contacted by PHIL TREVILLION whom he described as a member of the CP in Chicago. This individual indicated that TREVILLION had contacted him because he, the RAM member, was employed in one of the youth agencies in the Chicago area and TREVILLION had attempted to solicit from this individual the names of youths on the West Side of Chicago whom TREVILLION might contact in connection with his youth organizing activities. This RAM member disclosed that TREVILLION had indicated that he had desired to contact youths for the purpose of determining who might be sent overseas to such countries as Czechoslovakia for Marxist training and indoctrination. This RAM member indicated that because of TREVILLION's CP connections he had not cooperated with TREVILLION and intends to have no more contact with TREVILLION in the future. (U)

TOURNOUR reports on the developments within CORE to EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, and receives direction and advice as to the CP line TOURNOUR should follow within CORE from DURHAM. (U)

Other CP of Illinois members also active in January, 1965, are BENNETT JOHNSON and BRENETTA HOWELL. Recently TOURNOUR has complained to the Chairman of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission concerning the activities of BENNETT JOHNSON and BRENETTA HOWELL, particularly their attitude to CORE on the West Side of Chicago. Of recent date TOURNOUR was also critical of BRENETTA HOWELL for an article which she wrote in the weekly Negro newspaper "The Chicago Defender" which she raised the problem of nationalism in CORE. TOURNOUR also complained concerning the fact that BENNETT JOHNSON had requested the use of the South Side CORE center indicating that if it was all right with DURHAM, he would rather not be bothered with JOHNSON. As of late October, 1964, the following individuals, members of the CP of Illinois, were also members of the Chicago Branch, NAACP, and held the following positions:

BRENETTA HOWELL

HOWELL is the Assistant Secretary of the Chicago Branch, NAACP, and is also a member of the Executive Committee of the Chicago Branch, NAACP. By virtue of her position on the Executive Committee, HOWELL is entitled to one vote at meetings of the Executive Committee. However, HOWELL exerts practically no influence on the Chicago Branch, NAACP, and its members.

LESTER DAVIS

LESTER DAVIS is a member of the Chicago Branch, NAACP Executive Committee, and is entitled to one vote at meetings of the committee. DAVIS is also the third Vice President of the State of Illinois NAACP. He exerts very little influence on the NAACP and its members.

EARL DURHAM

DURHAM is a member of the Chicago Branch, NAACP. DURHAM seldom attends meetings of the group and exerts little influence on the NAACP and its members.

The CP of Illinois' success in infiltration and influencing the Chicago Branch, NAACP, is weak and ineffective. These are issues which the NAACP has been advocating over the years.

The "Chicago Defender", a Chicago weekly Negro newspaper, issue of November 6, 1964, Page 26, Column 1, carried a column entitled "West Side Round-Up". The writer of this column was identified as BRENETTA HOWELL. This column carried a sub-paragraph entitled 'NAACP Revisited'. This paragraph indicated that BRENETTA HOWELL, writer of the column, on the previous weekend, attended an Illinois conference of NAACP branches in a convention at the Illinois Beach State Park Lodge, Zion, Illinois. The column indicated that HOWELL had served as a consultant for a workshop on an anti-poverty bill while attending this convention. HOWELL also indicated that while attending the convention she had spoken with Governor OTTO KERNER and his chief aides at a NAACP freedom fund banquet. HOWELL indicated that she had furnished the governor with some political campaign material on the "3rd slate".

On December 22, 1964, the CP of Illinois State Board held a meeting at Chicago, Illinois. Among the invited guests in attendance at this meeting was TED PEARSON, member of a CP of Illinois youth group. The purpose of PEARSON's attendance at this meeting was to report on CP of Illinois youth work. PEARSON is also President of a Chicago W. E. B. DuBois Club. (U)

During his report on CP of Illinois youth work to the CP of Illinois State Board, TED PEARSON disclosed that the CP of Illinois currently has one youth club consisting of twelve members which is a citywide club in which PEARSON serves as chairman. PEARSON reported that the bulk of this youth club is inactive in that it is not participating in youth work. He also reported that three or four members of this club are extremely active in the DuBois Club of Chicago; however, no member of the club has any relationship with the civil rights movement in Chicago. (U)

PEARSON further indicated that as chairman of the DuBois Club in Chicago, he has developed personal relations with certain leaders of the civil rights movement in the Chicago area. PEARSON indicated that the main weakness of his club members was the fact that none of these individuals were active in the civil rights movement. (U)

LOU DISKIN, a member of the CP of Illinois State Board who attended this meeting spoke relative to the DuBois Clubs and expressed the opinion that the potential for building the clubs was good. DISKIN noted, however, that the biggest problems relative to the DuBois Clubs in Chicago is the problem of building these clubs in the Negro community. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

EARL DURHAM, Chairman of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission and a CP of Illinois State Board member who was in attendance at this meeting, also spoke and in commenting on the CP of Illinois youth movement in general, criticized a proposal that the DuBois Clubs open up a center in Chicago in an attempt to involve this club in the civil rights movement. DURHAM noted that there are about seven or eight centers in the community at this time. DURHAM stated that if it is decided to open a DuBois Club center it must be made clear what the clubs could contribute something to the civil rights movement, that is not being contributed by the CORE and SNCC centers. (U)

JACK KLING, CP of Illinois State Board member who was in attendance at this meeting, also spoke and indicated his agreement with most of the discussion. However, he approved of a recommendation to form a CP of Illinois youth commission and he further recommended that a canvass should be taken of the CP of Illinois membership to determine the members who have sons and daughters who were active in the civil rights movement. He further recommended that an individual be selected and released from all other Party activity so that this individual could try to develop a Negro youth group on the South Side of Chicago. (U)

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Chicago Chapter, National Lawyers Guild (CCNLG)

The National Lawyers Guild (NLG) has scheduled a midwest attorneys briefing session entitled, "Depositions Caravan". This briefing session is scheduled to take place January 9,1965, in the Embassy Hotel, Detroit, Michigan. The purpose of the meeting was to hear discussion regarding the legal issues presented, the kind of evidence and testimony needed, and the particular problems associated with obtaining such evidence in Mississippi relative to civil rights violations.

At a recent board meeting of the Cook County Bar Association, a legal group of Negro lawyers in Chicago affiliated with the National Bar Association, which was held recently, the NLG had tried to get the Cook County Bar Association to participate in the January 9, 1965, meeting and also to send lawyers to Mississippi.

There was Cook County Bar Association opposition to this attempt on the grounds that the NLG was "red-tainted", however, there was some indication that the Cook County Bar Association, although it would not completely cooperate would send representatives to the January 9, 1965, meeting in Detroit, Michigan. The original opposition to the NLG's proposal by Cook County Bar Association was on the grounds that the NLG would be using the Cook County Bar Association to make a name for the NLG in Mississippi at the expense of the Cook County Bar Association.

On January 9, 1965, it was learned that the NLG Detroit meeting scheduled for January 9, 1965, was called off and was to be rescheduled for a subsequent date in the future.

On January 12, 1965, it was learned through the Cook County Bar Association that the NLG proposed meeting had been rescheduled by the NLG to be held on Saturday, January 16, 1965, at the Bismarck Hotel, Chicago, Illinois.

The National Lawyers Guild, Chicago Chapter, held a "briefing session" at the Bismarck Hotel, Chicago, Illinois, January 16, 1965. Attending were lawyers interested in helping unseat the State of Mississippi's five man Congressional delegation.

As a result of this meeting lawyers from all over the United States, particularly from Chicago, Detroit and New York, are going to Mississippi between January 25 and February 12, 1965, to assist in taking depositions from Negroes reportedly deprived of their voters rights.

Chicago attorneys will join this task force of more than 100 lawyers in an attempt to seek evidence to unseat the Mississippi delegation in the House of Representatives. The attorneys will work for the Congress of Federated Organizations (COFO) to obtain the depositions relative to Negro voting in Mississippi.

At this briefing session a COFO representative stated that if the move succeeds, the regular Mississippi delegation would not be replaced by a delegation chosen by the Freedom Now Party which has contested the seating of the Mississippi delegation on the grounds that many Negroes were not allowed to vote. Instead, the COFO representative stated that a new election would be requested.

The gist of the action being taken was expressed in a conclusion in one of several legal documents passed out at the briefing session. This conclusion stated "House of Representatives, Congress of the United States, notice of intention to contest election pursuant to Title 2, U.S.C., Section 201--in the matter of the contested election of Prentiss Walker in the Fourth Congressional District of Mississippi." This document directed to Prentiss Walker, Mize, Mississippi, from Annie Devine, in its conclusion contests Walker's election based upon the systematic and deliberate exclusion of Negro citizens from the political life of Mississippi, and because the Constitution of the United States provides that the House of Representatives alone "shall be the judge of elections returns and qualifications of its members" proposes that Walker's election be declared null and void.

As a result of the above, it was stated that there is hope that the Congress of the United States would call for a new election in Mississippi.

Also, the meeting dealt with the manner in which depositions could be taken under an 1866 or 1906 law and who could subpoena people requiring them to give depositions. In addition, the problem before whom and where the depositions could be taken was discussed. During the meeting it was indicated that there are four Negro notaries in the State of Mississippi, one an undertaker in Jackson, Mississippi, who would be used for the taking of depositions. Also, it is expected that some of the depositions will be taken in a Negro Baptist Church in Jackson.

After the depositions are obtained, pressure through letters, petitions, etc., from individuals and organizations to Congressmen will be brought, urging them to vote for a new election in Mississippi with the Negro being able to exercise his voting rights.

FRIDAY NIGHT SOCIALIST FORUM,
Aka. Militant Labor Forum

On May 12, 1964, a source advised that the Forum is a paper organization set up by the Chicago Branch, Socialist Workers Party (CBSWP), Chicago, Illinois, for Socialist Workers Party (SWP) members and sympathizers. Open meetings held under the auspices of this Forum are geared to the activities that the SWP is pursuing at a particular time, e.g., unemployment, election campaign, Cuba, segregation, etc.

PETER BUCH, a CBSWP member, is in charge of the Forum and schedules meetings under the name of the Forum in order to conceal the SWP sponsorship of same. The meetings of the Forum generally are held at Chicago SWP headquarters although the Forum, in the past, has sponsored other affairs, such as meetings, socials and picnics held at other locations.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM)

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto," the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of RAM.

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the Winter of 1963, by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, now residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto reflected that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding WILLIAMS, above, it should be noted that on August 28, 1961, a Federal warrant was issued at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging him with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the Crime of Kidnapping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, WILLIAMS fled the United States to Cuba, where he now publishes a monthly newsletter entitled "The Crusader," from Havana.

On November 16, 1964, a second source advised that he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization was begun in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of DON FREEMAN, Cleveland, Ohio, described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as RAM's "Black Stalin." FREEMAN now serves as RAM Chairman, with MAXWELL STANFORD, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, serving RAM as Field Chairman. This second source advised that there is no formal headquarters, as such, for RAM at present, but that headquarters are, in effect, with FREEMAN since he plays a dominant role in the leadership and directs the policies and activities of the organization.

This second source, in September, 1964, advised that RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World," that is, the non-white races of the world, rather than to any national entity, as such.

To date, according to the second source, in November, 1964, RAM has organized units and membership in several of the larger cities in the United States east of the Mississippi River, and the organization is currently active, attempting to recruit new members and expand its sphere of influence.

Synopsis: E. A. Johnson
Ethel Johnson
Azalee Johnson

ETHEL AZALEE JOHNSON, Monroe, North Carolina, is reported to be a member of Southern Christian Leadership Conference and planned to attend a conference of this organization in Savannah, Georgia, in September, 1964. In 1963, JOHNSON reported to be leader in Monroe Defense Committee (MDC) and attempted to organize a branch of Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM) in Monroe. JOHNSON reportedly working closely with CLARENCE SENIORS, Chairman of MDC, and a member of the National Committee of Workers World Party (WWP). In fall of 1964 they held meetings in Monroe, using name of Monroe Community Forum as sponsor, and at meeting on 10/18/64 they had speaker from Southern Christian Leadership Conference. SENIORS and JOHNSON are publishing a newsletter entitled, "Did You Know?", a "hate-type" newsletter aimed at arousing local Negroes against alleged unfair treatment by whites.

No information developed.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

Activities in Monroe, North Carolina, Fall of 1964

CE T-1 advised September 17, 1964, that ETHEL AZALEE JOHNSON, 503 Boyte Street, Monroe, North Carolina, is a member of Southern Christian Leadership Conference and has been doing voter registration work in Monroe for this organization.

CE T-2 advised April 12, 1963, that ETHEL JOHNSON was an active leader in the Monroe Defense Committee (MDC).

A characterization of MDC appears in the Appendix of this report.

T-1 advised November 19, 1963, that AZALEE JOHNSON is connected with the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM) and has unsuccessfully tried to organize a branch of this organization in Monroe.

T-1 advised September 29, 1964, that AZALEE JOHNSON left Monroe on September 27, 1964, to attend a conference of Southern Christian Leadership Conference. CLARENCE and AUDREY SENIORS, 605 Brown Street, Monroe, North Carolina, were planning to go with her to this conference. MRS AUDREY SENIORS

T-1 advised in October, 1964, that CLARENCE SENIORS is Chairman of MDC with headquarters at 605 Brown Street, Monroe, North Carolina.

CE T-3 advised November 2, 1964, that CLARENCE SENIORS was a member of the National Committee of the Workers World Party (WWP) as of September 7, 1964.

T-3 advised September 7, 1964, that AUDREY SENIORS, Monroe, North Carolina, was then a member of WWP.

A characterization of WWP appears in the Appendix of this report.

T-1 advised October 15, 1964, that CLARENCE SENIORS has been working with AZALEE JOHNSON and helping her publish a newsletter called, "Did You Know?". AZALEE is also making arrangements for a public meeting to be held at Grier's Funeral Home in Monroe on October 18, 1964. It is believed this meeting will be concerned with voter registration and the coming election.

Chief of Police A. A. MAUNEY, Monroe, North Carolina, advised in October, 1964, that CLARENCE and AUDREY SENIORS are assisting AZALEE JOHNSON in the publication of a "hate-type" newsletter entitled, "Did You Know?". He stated that many articles appearing in this newsletter condemn alleged instances of racial discrimination and inequality, and urge Negroes to unite and fight for their rights. Some articles contain reports of incidents, wholly or partially untrue, to depict unfair treatment of Negroes by whites. White persons are occasionally referred to in these articles as "Mr. Charlie," and Negroes alleged to be friendly to whites are referred to as "good nigras" or "Uncle Toms."

The October 24, 1964, issue of "Did You Know?", made available on November 5, 1964, by T-1, reflected that this is a bi-weekly newsletter published at 503 Boyte Street, Monroe, North Carolina. The editors are listed as E. A. JOHNSON and CLARENCE SENIORS, and the Business Manager is listed as AUDREY SENIORS.

T-1 advised on October 22, 1964, that approximately 150 people attended a public meeting held Sunday, October 18, 1964, at Grier's Funeral Home in Monroe, North Carolina. The principal speaker was Reverend C. T. VIVIAN of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. He was introduced by AZALEE JOHNSON, and he talked on the coming election and on voter registration. He also spoke out against segregation and urged the Negro people to stick together. Meeting was sponsored by the Monroe Community Forum, which is not an organization but merely a name being used by JOHNSON and CLARENCE SENIORS.

CLARENCE and AUDREY SENIORS attended this meeting and were very much in evidence, greeting and shaking hands with people.

T-1 advised on November 5, 1964, that a meeting, sponsored by the Monroe Community Forum, was held Sunday, November 1, 1964, at Grier Funeral Home, Monroe, North Carolina. Approximately 50 people were present. AZALEE JOHNSON, assisted by CLARENCE SENIORS, was in charge of the meeting. They were the only two speakers. AZALEE claims the City of Monroe plans an urban renewal program which will push the Negroes out of their homes and community. She is fighting this and she attempted to get a committee from the audience to go before the City Council but was unsuccessful. However, CLARENCE SENIORS agreed to go.

CLARENCE SENIORS also spoke on urban renewal. This was the only topic discussed at the meeting.

Monroe Community Forum is not an organization but just a name being used by AZALEE and SENIORS to sponsor their meetings but no plans were announced for the next meeting.

The following article appeared in the November 7, 1964, issue of "Did You Know?", made available November 12, 1964, by T-1:

"SELF-DEFENSE, IS COMMON SENSE

"Last August off the Tonkin Gulf, outside of North Vietnam, an American warship was attacked by North Vietnamese P.T. Boats. Two days later LBJ ordered American warships to defend themselves. The retaliation was quick and deadly.

"At the same time down in dear old Dixie, USA Black people were being brutalized by these same old bigoted 'Crackers' that defended themselves but kept the struggle peacefully. Since when is a struggle a peaceful nature?

"The U. S. Government's ears are deaf and eyes are blind when Negroes demand protection against the white onslaught in Mississippi. The only alternative Black people have left is a self-defense policy.

"Anyone who continues to suffer peacefully is nothing more but a damn fool!

"And even old 'Lindy' Johnson knows that. And he showed us his answer when his property (warships) is being violated.

"Let's get on our own two feet and start acting like proud men and women instead of beggers. As long as we beg the only sympathy we're going togget is a busted head.

"AFTER ALL, THE FIRST LAW OF NATURE IS SELF PRESERVATION."

T-1 advised on November 19, 1964, that a meeting of the Monroe Community Forum was held Sunday, November 15, 1964, at Grier Funeral Home in Monroe, North Carolina. AZALEE JOHNSON and CLARENCE SENIORS were in charge of the meeting and were the only two speakers. Both talked on the subject of urban renewal. AZALEE is trying to stir up the Negro community with her claims that the city through urban renewal is going to push the Negroes out of their community. About 25 people were present.

The following article appeared in the December 5, 1964, issue of "Did You Know?", made available December 8, 1964, by T-1:

"MASS MURDER IN THE CONGO

"The 'purely humanitarian rescue' of whites by the U. S. and Belguim soldiers from the Congo has been the daily headlines of the white press across the country. The 'terrible, inhumane massacre' of the 'defenseless' whites by the Africans have unceasingly poured from radio. Interviewed whites tearfully and dramatically told of the 'horrors,' the 'rape,' 'brutal beatings' inflicted upon them by the Congolese 'rebels,' flashed hourly across the TV screen. The slanted news gave one the idea that nobody did any shooting but the 'rebels,' and the rescue mission was performed by unarmed angels of mercy. After days of this type of reporting, a line at the bottom of a very lengthy account of the 'horrors' said, 'thousands of rebels were slaughtered.'

"Around the world, freedom-seeking people have cried out in protest of the aggressive acts of the U. S. and Belguim governments in the Congo. Thousands of Africans fighting back with bows and arrows, spears, knives and small amounts of captured ammunition have been slaughtered, hunted down like rabbits and killed by white paid-by-the-US soldires.

"Freedom-loving people around the world remembers the wholesale slaughter of African men, women and children a few years ago, by the racist South African Government. The same South African government that the U. S. Government refused to denounce, and is still buddies with.

"The wealth of Africa continues to be taken (by force and blood) by white businessmen of other countries, including the U.S.A., and are backed by their respective governments. The Congo is one of the richest areas of all Africa, producing 60% of the world's diamonds, besides other rich minerals and raw materials. Hence, the unceasing interventions and the establishing of puppet governments by greedy nations.

"The rebels mentioned so often in the white press, are Africans who wants freedom in their own land. Freedom to rule, work, worship and live as they see fit. The American so-called negro whose roots travels back to that ancient land and have never tasted freedom, should be screaming to high heaven in protest against U. S. interventions of all countries struggling for their freedom, and naturally so, against aggressions in our Mother country. But not a ripple of protest has come from the so-called leaders of the American negro struggle. They fail to see the same crowd that is killing freedom fighters in Africa, Asia and Latin America, are the identical ones causing us so much hell here. And the oppression and slaughter of any freedom seeking people should be regarded as our fight, for we are not free and are supposed to be seeking freedom too.

"But, are American negroes really seeking their freedom led by the 'respectable' leaders, or are they being beaten, maimed and killed to merely perpetuate a negro middle class? There are far too many Tshombes in the American negro freedom struggle, for the oppressed masses to ever become free. The oppressors have skillfully split the largest organized group of blacks in America, in half, and are handing out pacifiers right and left to other black groups, in their efforts to suppress the eternal flame of freedom that burns in the hearts of the enslaved. How long will they be able to keep the lid on? Do they have enough money, power and influence to smother that flame? No! The enslaved peoples of the world will be free. It is inevitable."

T-1 advised on December 22, 1964, that a meeting of the Monroe Community Forum was held Sunday, December 20, 1964, at Grier Funeral Home, Monroe, North Carolina. About 15 people were present. The meeting was held by AZALEE JOHNSON and CLARENCE SENIORS, who did all the speaking. They are trying to stir up the Negro community against city officials but are not having any success. A local Negro leader was present, and he stood up and told AZALEE and CLARENCE that they were trying to mislead the people.

The following article appeared in the January 2, 1965, issue of "Did You Know?", made available on January 5, 1965, by T-1:

"IS IT TRUE?

"Amidst world shattering events and as this country fights schemingly to control the world, and the local heads of government perfect their tactics for retaining the status-quo, the black man is regarded as a boy. They say he continues to shoot, cut and kill each other at the drop of a hat, begs and steal all the money they can in their churches, have no meetings of depth. They also say that our men are'nt interested in urban renewal proposed plans, and dare not question why very little appropriated federal and state money is used in the black sections of town. Is this true?

"Black men resents being called, 'boy.' Yet there are many who don't assert themselves as men. Far too many black men refuse to attend public meetings, many don't even know when a city council meeting is held, not to mention a county commissioner's meeting. Politics are regarded by many of our men as 'white folks' business.' Far too many are afraid of the words 'Civil or Human Rights.' All the white man has to do to divide our people is to tell some of our men, 'don't you have anything to do with so and so, he/she is a Communist.' The racist whites have brainwashed some black men into thinking that the U. S. interventions in Vietnam, Latin America, and The Congo is right and proper. Some are heard to remark, 'we oughta send OUR marines over there, they'll straighten things out.'"

T-1 advised on January 7, 1965, that on January 5, 1965, AZALEE JOHNSON stated that through her meetings of Monroe Community Forum and her newsletter "Did You Know?" she is trying to wake up the Negro people of Monroe. She is trying to find any topic or incident that will stir up the Negro community, and she claims to have lawyers available to fight court cases. She is going to put pressure on the county government to hire a Negro deputy sheriff.

T-1 advised January 20, 1965, that AZALEE JOHNSON is holding training classes in Citizenship Adult Education at her home each Thursday night. She is teaching adult Negroes in order that they can pass the required examination to register to vote. She has not held any further meetings of the Monroe Community Forum.

(A) COMMUNIST PARTY, USA (CP)

1) Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at national meetings, including expressions by national and other functionaries

CARL WINTER was the main speaker at a Bazaar held on December 6, 1964, at 6300 Hartford Avenue, Detroit. His speech included comments concerning the recent Federal election. He credited the unity and cooperation of Civil Rights groups and the American labor movement for the defeat of GOLDWATER, and also for the defeat of reactionaries in local and national government. WINTER stated this united cooperation should be continued; that through cooperative efforts of both these groups and with proper pressure, then perhaps decent legislation could be obtained.

2) Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at District and lower level meetings, including expressions by local leaders and rank-and-file members

A fund raising affair for COLEMAN YOUNG (a candidate of a major political party to run for election on November 3, 1964, for the Michigan State Senate) was held on October 31, 1964, at 4472 Chene, Detroit. A Midwest Student Conference on Independent Political Action, sponsored by the SWP, was held in Detroit, Michigan, on October 24, 1964. A meeting in connection with this Conference was held this same date at the Central Congregational Church, 7625 Linwood, Detroit, to hear speeches by several individuals, including CLIFTON DE BERRY, SWP Candidate for President of the United States, and ALBERT CLEAGE, JR., the Freedom Now Party (FNP) candidate for Governor of the State of Michigan. (U)

CLIFTON DE BERRY stated during his speech that ever since the slave ships brought Negroes to America, the Negroes have been under the illusion that their future would be brighter. DE BERRY said that even today the Negroes vote Democratic and Republican in the hope that promises made by these two Parties will be kept. DE BERRY alleged that Negroes elected to office under these two Parties are only "Uncle Toms" who pledge themselves to the white Party structure. (U)

ALBERT CLEAGE, JR., stated during his speech that the Negroes in Michigan are often heard to say that a vote for the FNP is wasting the vote; that Negroes have been wasting their votes on the Democratic and Republican Parties in the past; and that with the all black slate of the FNP, Negroes now have a choice where they had none before since there is no difference between the Democratic and Republican Parties. a. Committee for Legal Assistance in the South (CLAS)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A pamphlet entitled "Project Mississippi", which is self-described as "an account of the National Lawyers Guild program of Legal Assistance to Civil Rights workers in Mississippi: Summer, 1964", states in part as follows:

"THE SPADEWORK

"The National Lawyers Guild, active for twenty-seven years in the defense of civil rights, civil liberties and due process of law, has long been aware of the special legal problems of the Deep South. It has always had, as members, a few courageous and independent-minded white lawyers who love the South and practice there because it is their home, while rejecting segregation and discrimination in all its forms. These Southern lawyers have attended Guild conventions since its formation and have described their experiences in seeking justice in Southern courts. They have been in touch with Southern Negro lawyers, who have also joined the Guild in increasing numbers as the civil rights struggles have intensified.

"Two years ago, the Guild set up a committee, now known as the Committee for Legal Assistance in the South (CLAS), whose announced purpose was 'to help fill the need created by the refusal of practically the entire bar in the South to provide effective legal representation to Negroes and their white supporters in the effort to achieve their constitutional rights.'

"The Committee helped its Southern members prepare lengthy pleadings and briefs; conducted two interracial legal conferences - the first of their kind - in Atlanta and New Orleans for Southern lawyers; sent lawyers to the South for trial work and to argue cases in Appellate Courts; issued a Handbook on Civil Rights and Liberties Law now in use as a practical guide for lawyers and a supplementary source book for law students; and

"arranged for students in Northern law schools to clerk in the offices of Southern civil rights lawyers during the summers of 1962 and 1963.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

"The Committee sought the cooperation of the American Bar Association* and, as a result, a meeting was held in Washington in June, 1962, at which members of the Guild Committee and lawyers from the American Civil Liberties Union* sought to convince the ABA Special Committee on Civil Rights and Racial Unrest* to take vigorous action to improve the administration of justice in the South. President Kennedy invited Committee co-chairman George Crockett to the famous White House conference of leaders of the bar in the summer of 1963 in order to spark bar association activity on civil rights problems.

"'We have only scratched the surface of the problem', the Committee stated in its report to the Guild's annual convention in Detroit in February, 1964: 'As of today, due process and equal justice do not exist in most sections of most Southern states for persons identified with the integration movement, or who seek to challenge, in any way, the pattern of segregation.'

"The report concluded: 'Our primary duty, as it should be for every bar association, is to take the practical steps necessary to transform the system of justice in the South from one which supports an illegal, unconstitutional system of segregation to one which supports the Federal Constitution.'

"The need to expand the Guild's program in the South was clear. The question was: how?

"VOLUNTEERS, STEP FORWARD

"Present at the February, 1964 Guild convention was R. Hunter Morey*, legal coordinator for the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO)*, a coalition of civil rights groups in Mississippi.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

CONFIDENTIAL

"Morey outlined COFO's plans for a massive Mississippi summer project, with nearly 1,000 volunteers coming into the state to register Negro voters and teach in 'Freedom Schools'. He called attention to the pattern of intimidation which had greeted such activity in the past, and the prospect that the summer project would provoke even more massive retaliation.

"For this reason, he said, there was an 'urgent need' for volunteer attorneys to render legal assistance to the COFO workers.

"As Guild lawyers pondered his request, the question arose: what happens when the system of justice breaks down in one part of the country; what is the obligation of lawyers who practice elsewhere?

"When the convention chairman asked for a show of hands of those who might volunteer for Mississippi the response was electric. No one raised his hand; instead, scores of lawyers jumped to their feet. Thus began the enlistment.

"PLANS TO ENFORCE THE SIXTH AMENDMENT

"The Guild announced plans in April for at least 60 lawyers to represent civil rights defendants in the State over the twelve-week summer period, to function in all sections of Mississippi where COFO was active.

"George W. Crockett, Jr., of Detroit and Benjamin Smith* of New Orleans undertook to head the organization's field office in Jackson - four rooms upstairs over a store at 507½ North Farish Street.

"In early June, shortly after the office was opened, most of the sixty-nine volunteer lawyers, some of them unaffiliated with the Guild, met in Detroit for a two-day briefing by civil rights attorneys and specialists in constitutional law.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

"They held workshops on the Mississippi Constitution and statutes; Mississippi criminal law and procedure; Federal removal in civil rights cases; and Federal habeas corpus. Veterans of the movement spelled out the do's and don'ts for Northerners in Mississippi.

"Aware that it was entering hostile territory, the Guild moved openly into Mississippi. In a letter to Edward J. Currie*, outgoing President of the Mississippi State Bar; Guild President Ernest Goodman advised him of the Guild's project and why it was undertaken. He stressed that the Guild is not a civil rights organization, that its commitment is that of a bar association only.

"'Our concern in the Mississippi Project is to attempt to redress the lack of available lawyers in Mississippi, ready, willing and able to handle civil rights cases,' his letter said. 'And we would hope that our example might bring an increasing awareness of their professional obligation to members of the Mississippi Bar, which would permit us to reduce and eventually withdraw our commitment.'

"The field office had been outfitted with supplies and a secretary; lawyers had been briefed; the stage was set for an unprecedented 'wealth' of lawyers in a state where, for half the population, the word 'justice' evoked only a bitter laugh..."

This pamphlet disclosed that 66 lawyers participated in the "CLAS Summer Project".

"Dear Guild Member:

"Within a month after the Guild's office in Jackson, Mississippi was closed and our Summer Program of bringing attorneys to that State was concluded, the State of Mississippi began the wholesale arrest of civil rights workers. Unlike the summer arrests, these arrests were for felony prosecutions with penalties ranging up to twenty years and more.

"With practically all of the summer's visiting attorneys gone, COFO found it necessary to urge the immediate return of the Guild and a continuation of our program of furnishing volunteer counsel.

"Accordingly, the Guild has opened its Southern Regional Office at the same address occupied by our Summer Office; and already we have recruited sufficient volunteer attorneys to carry our program to the end of this calendar year.

"We are now asking for volunteer attorneys - Guild members and non-Guild members alike - to come to Mississippi for a two week period during the first six months of 1965. We hope to have a minimum of two volunteer attorneys in the State at all times. If you can come, or if you and someone else from your Chapter or community will undertake to cover a two-week -- or even a one-week -- period, this will greatly be appreciated...."

A Detroit Local of RAM was organized during August - September, 1964, by former members of UHURU, which was a militant group organized in March, 1963, by Negro students at Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan.

At a meeting of the local RAM group held at Detroit on August 30, 1964, a discussion was held regarding the ideological fundamentals of the group. This discussion centered around the philosophies and teachings of MARX, LENIN, MAO and ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, who is exiled in Cuba.

A discussion was also held at this meeting concerning a national RAM conference to be held during late October or November, 1964, at Nashville, Tennessee.

At a meeting of this local RAM group held on September 13, 1964, in the Detroit area, the following subject matter was discussed:

1. Setting up a study committee for the purpose of:

   a. Taking a census of the city's Negro population.

   b. Secure high school students to photograph or make a record of instances of police brutality or instances that can be interpreted as such.

   c. Set up a tutoring service (may be used with b).

   b. Use any favorable means to project image.

4. Set up a finance committee to:

   b. Establish a program of raising funds.

The leaders of this local RAM group are GENERAL GORDON BAKER, JR., and CHARLES EDWARD SIMMONS, III. These leaders, along with other members of RAM and members of the Medgar Evers Rifle Club (MERC) organized a rifle club at a meeting held on January 3, 1965, at 11605 Linwood Avenue, Detroit. This rifle club was to be known as the "Fox and Wolf Hunting Club". The presidency of this new rifle club was initially offered to GENERAL BAKER, who declined due to his work schedule. The presidency was next offered to CHARLES SIMMONS, III, who declined because of the fact that he had recently traveled to Cuba. RICHARD HENRY was then elected President.

At the meeting on January 3, 1965, during which the "Fox and Wolf Hunting Club" was organized, a conversation was held between RICHARD HENRY, GENERAL BAKER and several other individuals in attendance. During this conversation, someone remarked that they were going to blow up a police station. A garage where three armored vehicles of the Detroit Police Department were stored was mentioned and it was indicated that this particular building is very easy to get into and that it would be possible to destroy the three armored vehicles. Molotov cocktails were mentioned as a means of destroying the tanks; however, GENERAL BAKER indicated that these were not powerful enough.

ERNEST GOODMAN has been present at Communist activity meetings where no one but a Communist would be admitted. "I cannot say that I know him (Goodman) to be a member, and as a matter of fact, he probably has never been an actual member of the CP. I have no doubt Goodman is completely dedicated, in principle, to the ideals of the CP, and he is a sympathizer with the Soviet government in Russia." (U)

RICHARD B. HENRY

The July 4, 1964, edition of the "Michigan Chronicle", a newspaper published weekly in Detroit, Michigan, contains an article captioned "GOAL Calls for Rifle Club". This article states that RICHARD B. HENRY, President of GOAL, "has called for a new turn in the civil rights fight linking rifle clubs with Negro control of certain northern cities and mass Negro-owned business cooperatives". This article further disclosed that RICHARD HENRY made the call in a statement over a radio station in Detroit.

A letter to members of the Detroit Branch, SWP, states that the SWP is supporting RICHARD B. HENRY for the Detroit

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM)

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto," the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of RAM.

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the Winter of 1963, by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, now residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto reflected that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding WILLIAMS, above, it should be noted that on August 28, 1961, a Federal warrant was issued at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging him with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the Crime of Kidnapping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, WILLIAMS fled the United States to Cuba, where he now publishes a monthly newsletter entitled "The Crusader," from Havana.

On November 16, 1964, a second source advised that he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization was begun in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of DON FREEMAN, Cleveland, Ohio, described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as RAM's "Black Stalin." FREEMAN now serves as RAM Chairman, with MAXWELL STANFORD, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, serving RAM as Field Chairman. This second source advised that there is no formal headquarters, as such, for RAM at present, but that headquarters are, in effect, with FREEMAN since he plays a dominant role in the leadership and directs the policies and activities of the organization.

This second source, in September, 1964, advised that RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese Communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World," that is, the non-white races of the world, rather than to any national entity, as such. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

To date, according to the second source, in November, 1964, RAM has organized units and membership in several of the larger cities in the United States east of the Mississippi River; and the organization is currently active, attempting to recruit new members and expand its sphere of influence.

Source advised that G. J. SUTTON attended a meeting of the CP in San Antonio held at the Sutton Funeral Home on February 12, 1946.

SA T-7 (4/14/59)

Source advised that in the recent past, exact date not recalled, JOHN STANFORD was questioned about G. J. SUTTON and why SUTTON was not made to attend CP meetings. STANFORD replied, in effect, that SUTTON was not actually a formal CP member, that he was not registered in the Party; however, that his feelings were still with the Party. STANFORD said that SUTTON could do more good for the CP in such a capacity.

SA T-8 (10/27/64)

Source advised on October 27, 1964, that G. J. SUTTON is not a CP member to Source's knowledge.

SA T-4 (8/15/42)

On July 27, 1942, at a CP City Committee meeting held in San Antonio, Texas, Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, nee SUTTON, commented that she and her husband had been members of the CP for years. She said she attended a CP State conference in Houston in July, 1942, and wanted to report on the same. She said she was a member of the CP State Board. She said she attended these State CP conferences each month and paid her own expenses.

SA T-9 (12/44)

Mrs. E. A. TAYLOR, also known as LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR, has not made her appearance at any of the CP meetings held since early August, 1944, through the meetings held the middle of December, 1944, in San Antonio, Texas

SA T-8 (10/27/64)

LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR, sister of G. J. SUTTON, is not a member of the CP, to Source's knowledge.

According to the Guatemalan semiofficial newspaper, Novedades, FEATHERSTON was arrested in Guatemala City around the middle of July, 1959, in connection with a plot to assassinate President YDIGORAS during the latter's visit to Panama.

On February 20, 1964, FEATHERSTON advised SA T-10 that he thought very highly of FIDEL CASTRO and his government and FEATHERSTON was very critical of the U. S. Government's attitude toward the CASTRO government. FEATHERSTON stated on the same date that the U. S. is not a democracy, but a totalitarian state. On February 20, 1964, SA T-10 and SA T-11 advised that FEATHERSTON attended a meeting of the Nation of Islam (NOI) in San Antonio. During the meeting he was high in his praise of CASTRO and the CASTRO government, stating that the U. S. is crucifying CASTRO unnecessarily because CASTRO refuses to bow to the desires of the U. S. Government.

On March 11, 1964, SA T-10 learned that FEATHERSTON had sent a communication to MALCOLM X, head of the Muslim Mosque, Inc., offering help to MALCOLM X and requesting permission to allow FEATHERSTON to place him in contact with CASTRO. SA T-10 advised that on March 24, 1964, FEATHERSTON had a conversation with RICHARD A. McDONALD, head of the NOI in San Antonio, Texas, and mentioned that during the preparation for the Bay of Pigs invasion, he, FEATHERSTON, was in the middle of the situation. He stated, "Although I did not go, I knew the hour of departure, the landing points, and the groups involved, and I tried to

NATION OF ISLAM

"get this information to CASTRO but did not get it to him in time. I was certainly sorry that I did not."

On April 24, 1964, FEATHERSTON advised SA T-10 that he received a communication from MOISE TSHOMBE, dethroned Republic of the Congo leader, who sent FEATHERSTON "a nice piece of change." FEATHERSTON stated that he was considering joining TSHOMBE in Madrid, Spain. On April 28, 1964, FEATHERSTON advised HENRY S. CARR, employee of San Antonio Express and News Publishing Company, that he had worked out of the Yucatan Peninsula for a time, getting supplies to FIDEL CASTRO while CASTRO was leading a guerrilla war against the Cuban Government and continued to assist CASTRO until CASTRO took over Cuba. FEATHERSTON told CARR he is a great admirer of CASTRO.

On May 11, 1964, FEATHERSTON advised SA T-10 that he was anxious to get explosives which come in wax and plastic form. He explained his knowledge of the use of this type of explosive.

A characterization of the Nation of Islam is contained in the appendix hereto.

The local CORE group in San Antonio has a new President. The CORE people are trying to interest younger people in becoming involved in the CORE movement. Reportedly the CORE group had to get rid of G. J. SUTTON since he was slowing down progress of the CORE movement.

TERENCE "KAYO" ~~HALLINAN~~ Texas attended a meeting of the FNCA at the headquarters of the FNCA in San Antonio on November 20, 1964. HALLINAN is the West Coast Coordinator of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) and was in San Antonio at the time. Among those present at this meeting were G. J. SUTTON and LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR.

HALLINAN was introduced as an individual from San Francisco, California. HALLINAN spoke about the DCA movement and how it helps the racial situation. He explained that the DCA group will read material on Marxism and Leninism. He stated that that does not necessarily mean that they will accept or follow Marxist or Leninist teachings. He pointed out that DCA fundamentally is a socialist study group. He stated that the idea behind the DCA was to develop a system which is better than the capitalist system that we have in the United States. He remarked that there was going to be a group that will get together at a residence in San Antonio on November 23, 1964.

Several of those present, including G. J. SUTTON and LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR, indicated that they planned to attend.

G. J. SUTTON spoke up after the meeting and stated that they are now going through a social revolution as evidenced by the civil rights movement. SUTTON spoke in favor of a group like DCA as helping this social revolution. SUTTON indicated he was very interested in the DCA movement.

After the meeting adjourned, G. J. SUTTON was observed talking privately to HALLINAN.

LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR was also seen talking privately with HALLINAN.

SA T-12 (10/63)

TERENCE HALLINAN attended a Communist Party Youth Commission meeting held in San Francisco, California, in October, 1963.

SA 100-9845

A characterization of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) is contained in the appendix hereto.

SA T-2 (11/30/64)

As of November 20, 1964, the Freedom Now - CORE Affiliate group in San Antonio had officially changed its name to the San Antonio Branch of CORE.

SA T-2 (11/24/64)

The temporary leader of the San Antonio Texas Branch of CORE is Sergeant DONALD WATKINS, attached to Lackland Air Force Base, Wilford Hall Hospital.

SA T-2 (11/24/64)

A special meeting of the members of the San Antonio Branch of CORE was held at a private residence in San Antonio on the evening of November 23, 1964. Among those present were LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR and ALFRED DWIGHT AMOS FEATHERSTON.

TERENCE HALLINAN was also present at this meeting. HALLINAN stated that he is the official representative of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America on the West Coast and was in San Antonio for the purpose of organizing a branch of this organization in San Antonio. He stated that the group with which he is affiliated, namely the DCA, is based on socialistic studies; however, its membership is not limited to only socialists but is open to all classes. He stated that among his groups are socialists, "Trotskyites," probably some communists, and other "leftist" groups which he could not fully identify.

He said that the true leadership of the Negro lies with the DCA and that unless a concerted effort is made on the part of various Negro civil rights groups in conjunction with the DCA, the Negro groups may lose ground. He went on to state that the DCA in San Francisco has helped various civil rights groups and were partially responsible for the defeat of BARRY GOLDWATER during the presidential election. He also stated that their group has been very effective in aiding the socialist cause in California. He went on to point out that the civil rights group in their locale is doing well but unless they join forces with the socialist movement, they will not only be out of step but will affect the eventual saving of the world from a downtrodden democracy.

HALLINAN stated that the socialist movement is world-wide and the civil rights movement must also be worldwide; therefore, it is necessary to unite their forces. HALLINAN stated that a socialist revolution can remove the class system and give release to the downtrodden, particularly the Negro. The socialist group believes in sharing the wealth and helping the Negro cause. At this point FEATHERSTON stated that he understood what HALLINAN was talking about and that he, himself, felt that democracy in the United States has done little or nothing for the Negro or downtrodden and a socialist or stronger form of government must be eventually set up if the Negro is to obtain his civil rights completely. FEATHERSTON stated that he does not necessarily believe that socialism is the complete answer; perhaps a stronger form of "ism" is needed to be successful.

It appeared to SA T-2 that FEATHERSTON favored the organization as it was presented to him by HALLINAN.

SA T-2 also stated that LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR favored the formation of a DCA club here.

SA T-2 (12/15/64)

On December 13, 1964, JOHN STANFORD, DONALD WATKINS, and others were engaged in conversation. STANFORD brought the discussion around to the DCA. He advised that when HALLINAN, West Coast representative of the DCA, was in San Antonio that he stayed with STANFORD. He stated he would like to see the DCA get started in San Antonio. He asked WATKINS if he could get it going. WATKINS tol STANFORD that he did not believe in the DCA organization and openly told HALLINAN this when they had a meeting at a private residence on November 23, 1964. WATKINS stated that the Negroes want results for themselves and not a lot of theory, especially that given out by the leftists. WATKINS stated as far as he is concerned, the DCA is nothing more than a CP front organization and HALLINAN and his group want to get some notoriety. WATKINS stated he does not want the DCA officially affiliated with the CORE group as long as he is active in CORE. STANFORD stated that HALLINAN told him that CORE had assisted the DCA group on the West Coast. WATKINS stated that if anything happened, DCA got a lift from CORE by picketing with CORE. WATKINS stated that he has received no instructions from CORE headquarters to assist in the founding of a DCA group in San Antonio.

STANFORD then wondered what was the chance of ALFRED FEATHERSTON directing the DCA since he was having trouble in his own group in getting the DCA off the ground. WATKINS was asked by one of those present if he thought FEATHERSTON would be willing to direct such a group, and WATKINS replied that would have to be answered by FEATHERSTON but he would not recommend FEATHERSTON to handle it. STANFORD did not appreciate this remark, stating that WATKINS did not understand the Negroes' problems sufficiently and knew nothing about the DCA. WATKINS stated that he "knew a hell of a lot" more about the Negro problem than STANFORD. STANFORD then smoothed the thing over by stating he meant no offense.

Source further advised that on either December 11 or 13, 1964, ALFRED FEATHERSTON stated that he did not think that he would in any way be interested in heading up the DCA in San Antonio. He stated that he had been approached by three different people on this matter and he had told them all no. FEATHERSTON did not identify these people who approached him.

According to SA T-2, CORE is presently in bad shape in San Antonio. They have no official meeting place but LILLIAN SUTTON TAYLOR is permitting her place to be used.

SA T-8 (1/4/65)

Source advised that JOHN STANFORD continues as the main Communist Party leader in San Antonio. He has been a CP member and leader in San Antonio from at least July, 1957, to the present time. He continues his efforts to strengthen the CP in this area. STANFORD has been a San Antonio representative on the State Committee of the CP of Texas from at least July, 1957. He has been Executive Secretary of the CP of Texas from at least February, 1958. In January, 1962, the State Committee and its offices were technically abolished; however, it was agreed that the Committee and its officers would continue to function, and STANFORD has continued to do so to the present time.

SA T-13 (1/7/60)

Source advised that on that date JAMES E. JACKSON, Secretary of Negro and Southern Affairs, CP, USA, identified JOHN STANFORD as a member of the National Committee, CP, USA, and District Organizer in Texas.

SA T-3 (1/4/65)

On January 4, 1965, ALFRED DWIGHT AMOS FEATHERSTON advised that he had previously been in contact, date not stated, with the CP, USA, in New York City and that they had sent him propaganda, including The Worker, at CORE headquarters in San Antonio. FEATHERSTON stated that when he left CORE he did not change the address and learned that DONALD WATKINS had picked it up for a week or two and then had told all persons at CORE that if any more of this type of propaganda comes in, to destroy it immediately. FEATHERSTON stated that he suspected that WATKINS did not favor receiving this type of propaganda at CORE headquarters under any circumstances. FEATHERSTON added that he has not recontacted anyone in the CP about sending The Worker or any other propaganda to him at the Snap Publishing Company in San Antonio.

FEATHERSTON advised that he has been in contact with JOHN STANFORD, local CP leader, who, in FEATHERSTON's opinion, is very anxious to get the DCA formed in the San Antonio area. FEATHERSTON stated that he, FEATHERSTON, does not want to start this club and that STANFORD is having very little success in getting a branch of this club started in San Antonio and has received practically no support from the San Antonio Branch of CORE in this connection.

The Worker is an East Coast communist newspaper.

SA T-2 (1/6/65)

Shortly after DONALD WATKINS took over the chairmanship of the San Antonio Branch of CORE, then known as the Freedom Now - CORE Affiliate group of San Antonio, he learned that the headquarters of the CORE office was receiving copies of the Communist Party publication known as The Worker. This came from some place in New York City, exact address not known, and, after ascertaining the nature of this type of propaganda, WATKINS destroyed same and gave orders to those at the headquarters that should any more of this type of propaganda come, it should be destroyed. The Worker newspaper has not been received at the CORE headquarters for a number of months, and it was learned that the person probably responsible for the newspaper arriving at the CORE headquarters in San Antonio was FEATHERSTON.

between the NYO and BSS to exchange ideas and exchange knowledge of any planned activities on the part of the PLM expecially during the coming summer months.

Information developed from this conference indicates that the NYCPD does not have any information that the PLM is obtaining firearms. PD representatives all feel that the PLM could probably obtain firearms right in NYC if they had the money and so desired. The PD feels that if any sizeable purchase of firearms is made in NYC they would have knowledge of such a transaction.

Inspector KINSELLA further advised that the PLM finances have top priority in the PD investigations but to date they have no knowledge of who or how the PLM is receiving their money.

Sources of the NYO have previously been advised to be alert for any information concerning the purchase of firearms by the PLM and if any information is developed the Bureau will be ~~ex~~peditiously advised.

A. Wheeling, W. Va., Chapter of Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

1964 WHEELING CHAPTER of CONGRESS of RACIAL EQUALITY

On October 19, 1964, PG T-1 advised that the CORE Chapter of Wheeling, W. Va., issued a letter signed by EDNA SIMS, Chairman, and TOM BROWN, Secretary, which urged members to attend a freedom rally to be held at 7:30 p.m. on October 24, 1964, at Wheeling, W. Va., and also reminded members to attend a Workshop to be held the same date from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., in Wheeling. The letter pointed out that JAMES T. McCAIN, National Director of Organization for CORE, would conduct the Workshop at which the philosophy of non-violence would be explained. W.VA. W.VA. CONGRESS of RACIAL EQUALITY

This letter contained the initials "G.K." as either the typist or person signing the officer's name thereto.

On June 3, 1964, PG T-2 advised that the Wheeling area CORE Unit, until the recent establishment of the separate CORE Branch in Steubenville, Ohio, was actually considered the Steubenville-Wheeling Chapter of CORE. PG T-2 said the Wheeling Chapter consisted of about one dozen members, only a few of whom were active. PG T-2 said that JAMES COBB and his wife, MARY LOUISE COBB, were included in the membership. PG T-2 pointed out that ALBERTINA MITCHELL was Chairman of the Wheeling CORE Chapter; that EDNA SIMS was Vice-Chairman and Secretary, and that GENNE KUHN was Treasurer. W.VA. 1964 - CHAIRMAN - WHEELING CHAPTER of CONGRESS of RACIAL EQUALITY

On January 11, 1965, PG T-3 advised that as of January 2, 1965, GENNE KUHN, who resided in Wheeling, W. Va., was Chairman of the Ohio Valley Section of the Communist Party at Wheeling, W. Va. AS OF 1-2-65

1964 TREASURER-WHEELING CHAPTER OF CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY

On March 1, 1963, PG T-3 advised that JAMES COBB was a member of the Wheeling, W. Va., group of the Ohio Valley Section of the Communist Party. PG T-3 based this statement on COBB's frequent contacts with GENNE KUHN, leader of the group, and his attendance at social gatherings at KUHN's home at which Communist Party matters were discussed.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

1964 MEMBER-WHEELING CHAPTER OF CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY

A. War on Poverty

The October 7, 1964, edition of the "Pittsburgh Press," a daily newspaper at Pittsburgh, Pa., contained an article entitled, "Negro Heads County War On Poverty," which set forth that under a recent Act of Congress four hundred eighty-five million dollars was appropriated to combat poverty on a nation-wide scale and that a portion of said fund was expected to be appropriated in Pennsylvania.

The article related that WILLIAM McCLELLAND, Chairman of the Board of Commissioners, Allegheny County, Pa., on October 6, 1964, appointed HENRY R. SMITH, JR., State President of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), as the program co-ordinator.

PA

According to the newspaper article, appointment of the program co-ordinator paved the way for the county commissioners to name a permanent community action committee to assist in the formulation of the anti-poverty blueprints.

The article further pointed out that this committee would establish projects aimed at bettering the health, education, housing and job opportunities of the county's less fortunate citizens.

On October 26, 1964, PG T-4 advised that on October 11, 1964, ASHTON ALLEN stated that he had been elected chairman of a group of Negro women in the Hill District of Pittsburgh, Pa., which he described as a loosely organized civic organization, and that his duties in connection with this position would include the determining of existing problems of the people and the presentation of these problems to HENRY R. SMITH, Director of the War on Poverty, Allegheny County, Pa. ALLEN further stated that he was then working on a proposed program to present to SMITH and that he wanted this program to include at least ten recommendations, such as lower rents for people on public welfare, and money to keep young people in clothes and carfare so that they could continue to attend school and obtain higher education or learn a trade.

PA.

On November 3, 1964, PG T-4 advised that at a meeting of some CPWP members on October 25, 1964, ASHTON ALLEN stated that he had given his group of Negro women in the Hill District five suggestions for the War on Poverty. ALLEN said that at first the women were afraid the ideas were "a little far out," but now they were beginning to understand them.

On December 2, 1964, PG T-4 advised that on November 8, 1964, ASHTON ALLEN pointed out that local newspapers had recently carried articles requesting suggestions with regard to the War on Poverty and that now he was in a position to show his group of women in the Hill District that they were right in line with things. ALLEN stated that he planned to send HENRY R. SMITH his proposals for the War on Poverty and, further, that he planned to visit the city officials in West Mifflin, Pa., to ask that he be appointed as representative from that area to the Allegheny County Committee of the War on Poverty.

On January 4, 1965, PG T-4 advised that at a CPWP meeting in the Pittsburgh area on December 13, 1964, ASHTON ALLEN stated that some Pittsburgh city officials had met with his Hill District group and had explained that they were ready to help the people in connection with the War on Poverty, and that they needed suggestions from the people as to how they could best help. ALLEN remarked that now the members of the group would follow him without reservation.

On January 4, 1965, PG T-4 advised that on December 27, 1964, ASHTON ALLEN stated that he recently had attended a meeting at which HENRY R. SMITH had outlined the program of the War on Poverty and that he was pleased with what he had heard.

CONFIDENTIAL SECRET

CARL BLOICE attended the San Francisco County Conference of the CP in San Francisco on April 3, 1964, at which time the new County Committee of the CP was selected.

SF T-2, 4/7/64.

The CP of Sonoma County met in Petaluma, California, on October 27, 1964, to discuss the Negro movement in Sonoma County. PLATT WILLIAMS, a member of the Sonoma County CP, stated that a group of Negro leaders in Santa Rosa, California, felt that everything was going well in the County and that the NAACP was not needed because it caused race problems. WILLIAMS declared that one need only to look at where Negroes live and work in order to recognize that a problem exists. JOE RAPOPORT, a member of the Sonoma County CP, suggested that WILLIAMS should work to unite the Negro community.

During October, 1964, WALTER STACK distributed a memorandum of three pages entitled "Statement on Housing in Area A-2," which declared, in part, as follows:

The San Francisco Board of Supervisors is faced with the decision of voting for the people in A-2 or for the big business interests who have been calling the shots.

The claim that the A-2 program is aimed at getting people out of "blighted housing" is a cynical fraud and deception. People from A-2 will suffer the same fate as those of A-1, who were crowded into old and new slums and ghettos or forced out of town. There is a danger that people displaced from A-2 might face an even more tragic situation than those driven from A-1 because of the passage of Proposition 14.

Five major steps have been advocated by many people and organizations which would go a long way toward wiping out blighted housing for low and middle income groups and help in the fight against poverty. These steps are as follows:

(a) New public housing. To this end, we support San Francisco Proposition H, calling for 2500 new housing units, although something like 10,000 units is needed. (X) mw

(b) Rent subsidies giving a subsidy to tenants instead of to developers. (X) mw

(c) Phasing of redevelopment so no one is evicted, with individuals presently living in the A-2 area being permitted to move into new housing first if they so choose. (X) mw

(d) Assistance to home owners in rehabilitating houses that can be saved. (X) mw

(e) Change the composition of the San Francisco Redevelopment Agency so that a majority representation is obtained from labor, Negro and other minority sections of the population. (X) mw

The memorandum noted that the contents had been presented to the San Francisco Board of Supervisors on September 21, 1964, by ARCHIE BROWN on behalf of the CP of San Francisco. (X) mw

PICKETED ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING OF CITIZENS COUNCILS OF AMERICA IN SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF ON 10-28-64 [SF T-3 - 11/3/64] (X)

Proposition 14 was a proposition on the California ballots in November, 1964, which resulted from an initiative measure to repeal the California Fair Housing Act, which had been enacted by the California State Legislature in 1963. The proposition was adopted by an approximate two to one margin in the November elections.

B. PROPAGANDA REVEALED IN PARTY PUBLICATIONS

The "Peoples World" is a west coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco.

The "Peoples World" newspaper (PW), on November 7, 1964, Page 1, Columns2 and 3, and Page 8, Columns 1 through 4, contained an editorial entitled "A First Glance At the Returns." This editorial declared that only the most blatant and "unreconstructed" racists in the deep South chose GOLDWATER.

The editorial noted that although the ultra-right was beaten at the polls, it was not destroyed. The editorial noted further that the results emphasized the urgent need for political independence, unity, clarity of labor, the Negro people and other progressive forces.

SECRET

CONFIDENTIAL

The editorial pointed out that racism remains a potent ideological weapon of the far right. The editorial noted that in California, Proposition 14 served as the vehicle for isolating civil rights from the other issues, and that the appeal to the prejudices of racism and so-called property rights prevailed.

The editorial concluded that although racism was not the decisive weapon the GOLDWATER forces hoped it would be, it retains potency and is a most dangerous source of division in the alliances that must be fashioned to fight the ultra-right.

The PW, on November 7, 1964, Page 2, Columns 1 and 2, contained an article by CARL BLOICE entitled "Racists Organize" which reported that an invitational affair the preceding week had served to confirm dramatically that the outcome of the election did not cause racists and rightists to steal silently back into their holes. The article noted that racists became organized and obtained an aura of respectability because of the GOLDWATER campaign.

The article pointed out that on October 28, 1964, the racist Citizens' Council held a highly publicized organizing meeting in San Francisco. The article noted that only 200 persons attended the meeting and that these individuals and the organizers looked sad when they looked outside at 500 demonstrators marching and singing in the rain.

The article declared that although the meeting was an invitational affair, it was not necessary to have an invitation to get in. Further, if a person attempting to attend the meeting had a dark-colored skin, no papers in the world would have entitled him to enter. The article concluded that the organization consequently is referred to as the White Citizens' Council.

The PW, on November 28, 1964, Page 8, Columns 1 through 4, contained an editorial entitled "The Pigmy and The Giant," which declared that J. EDGAR HOOVER had revived the so-called "white backlash" with malevolence and fury. The editorial characterized Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING as the most respected leader in the civil rights movement. It declared that the confrontation between the Director of the FBI and KING was not a chance by-product of distemper, but that HOOVER performed "the only public service of his career" in helping illuminate the forces contending on the civil rights battle front.

The editorial noted that Dr. KING chose to respond to Mr. HOOVER's comments with Christian charity. The editorial concluded that the performance of Mr. HOOVER should convince a majority that his removal is long overdue.

The PW, on December 5, 1964, Page 3, Columns 1 through 5, contained an article entitled "600 Picket Oakland Tribune As Paper Objects Strenuously," which noted that the "Oakland Tribune" had appealed for "help" in its battle with the Ad Hoc Committee to End Discrimination (AHCED). The article reported that the demonstration on November 29, 1964, had been the largest in front of the Tribune Building and that this confirmed the fact that "Publisher WILLIAM KNOWLAND was receiving elaborate protection from the Oakland Police Department." The article noted that a total of 107 policemen had been observed on the scene, and that the officers had shoved demonstrators and shouted commands while waving three-foot riot sticks in their hands.

The article noted that AHCED had contended that the Tribune employs 1255 persons, only 13 of whom are Negroes who are employed in the lowest paying jobs.

The article declared that it was no secret that the Tribune had been soliciting protests against the pickets from unions with which it had contractual relations, some of which have all-white memberships.

AHCED is characterized in the appendix pages of this report.

The "Oakland Tribune" is a daily newspaper published in Oakland, California.

CONFIDENTIAL

The PW, on December 19, 1964, Page 3, Columns 3 through 5, contained an article entitled "Picketing of Tribune To Continue Saturday", which publicized the AHCED announcement that the paper would be picketed on Saturday in spite of the arrest of 18 demonstrators on December 12, 1964.

The article noted that the 16 persons who had been arrested for sitting down the preceding Saturday had done so in violation of a decision made by the groups composing AHCED not to engage in civil disobedience on that day.

The article noted that the arrest of two of the AHCED leaders was all the more ironic since they were monitoring the picket line and were attempting to carry out the policy against civil disobedience that day.

The PW, on January 2, 1965, Page 8, Columns 1 through 4, contained an editorial entitled "Test in Congress", which noted that the 88th Congress would have an opportunity to reveal its true colors on the very first day of the challenge against the seating of the Mississippi delegation in the House.

The editorial declared that no one can dispute seriously that there is a wholesale denial of the right to vote to Negro citizens in Mississippi. Further, no one can dispute seriously that such denial is a willful and deliberate violation of the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and of the conditions under which Mississippi was restored to full status in the Union after the Civil War.

The editorial urged readers to send telegrams to Congressmen in Washington, insisting that they demand a roll call on the resolution to keep the Mississippi seats open.

At the SWP West Coast Vacation School near Laurel, California, on August 29 through September 7, 1964, one of the speakers spoke in regard to the civil rights movement on September 6, 1964. Individuals in attendance at this school were told that the SWP should try to get into CORE and the NAACP and other civil rights groups, in order to act as a coordinating force in consolidating the methods used by these groups and to get them to cooperate with each other. SWP members in attendance at the school indicated agreement with this tactic and indicated they would bring this matter to the attention of other members at SWP branch meetings.

The San Francisco DuBois Club is characterized in the appendix pages of this report.

A newsletter issued by the DuBois Club of San Francisco noted that AHCED needed individuals to man the picket lines at the Oakland Tribune in order to be effective. The newsletter urged readers to report at the Oakland Tribune every Saturday at 1:30 PM.

At a meeting sponsored by the DuBois Club of San Francisco on October 16, 1964, DOROTHY HEALEY, the principal speaker, was introduced as a communist spokesman from Southern California. HEALEY declared that the Communist Party believes there should be complete integration.

HEALEY stated that the masses must defeat the capitalists inasmuch as the capitalists were hampering the peace forces through their opposition to civil rights and Proposition 14.

The DuBois Club of San Francisco, in newsletter #2, enclosed a mimeographed document entitled "Statement on Program and The Elections", which it identified as having been prepared by the Executive Committee of the DuBois Club of San Francisco. The statement declared that the election results must be viewed with mixed emotions, and with a resolve to devote increased energy in continuing the fights for peace, civil rights and civil liberties. (S)

The statement declared that the passage of Proposition 14 should be regarded as the most ominous of warnings, because "we" are dedicated to defeat the forces that produced it. (S)

The statement reviewed the activities of the DuBois Club of San Francisco, noting that the most sustained and dramatic activity had been in the area of employment opportunities. The statement noted that DuBois Club members, along with civil rights groups, had been part of the drive for increased job opportunities for minority people. (S)

The statement noted that the fight for jobs for minority workers is a movement composed of individuals who will benefit most directly from job creation, the young people. The statement suggested the formation of a joint committee of youth organizations to study the problem of youth employment. (S)

PLM leaflets were distributed at a rally of AHCED at Oakland, California, on December 5, 1964.(X)

One of the leaflets was entitled "Brown Calls Cops To Teach Students," which alleged that Governor BROWN did not wish to have his authority challenged. The leaflet alleged that the U.S. ruling class which controls the government, the economy, and the University system is confronted with a far-reaching and growing crisis at home and abroad - the Negro freedom movement.

The leaflet declared that one of the most important sectors of people supporting the cause of Negro freedom is U.S. students. The leaflet called attention to the fact that the Mississippi Summer Project was carried on by students, that picket lines protesting "jimcrow" hiring practices at the "Oakland Tribune" are manned mainly by students, and that students led the great sit-in that forced 33 of San Francisco's "snootiest" hotels to stop discrimination in hiring.

The leaflet alleged that individuals representing the same financial interests that control the government and profit from the cheap labor of Negro people, do not want students going to Mississippi, or picketing, or circulating petitions against job discrimination.

The leaflet declared that the student movement of the 1960's is alive with radicalism and a searching inquiry into the real nature of the oppression of the Negro people.

C. OTHER ORGANIZATIONS ACTIVE IN THE CIVIL RIGHTS AND NEGRO MOVEMENT

1. National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)

The "San Francisco Chronicle" newspaper, on December 16, 1964, Page 1, carried an article entitled "NAACP Suit On Schools Dismissed." This article noted that the lawsuit filed by the NAACP during 1962, charging San Francisco schools with racial segregation, was dismissed on December 4, 1964, by Federal Judge WILLIAM SWEIGERT, because the NAACP failed to press the suit. The article noted that the suit had been brought on behalf of 159 Negro and white students and their families.

The "San Francisco Chronicle" newspaper is a daily newspaper published in San Francisco, with circulation throughout Northern California.

2. Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

The "San Francisco Chronicle", on November 16, 1964, Page 8, contained an article entitled "Car Dealers, CORE Settle A Difference", which noted that the San Francisco Human Rights Commission had disclosed that threatened late summer demonstrations by CORE against certain San Francisco automobile dealers had been averted by cooperation between the dealers and the Commission. The dealers reportedly talked with the Commission members and agreed to work with them in obtaining jobs for non-whites. The article reported that the assurance of this cooperation was sufficient for CORE to cancel its picketing plans.

3. Ad Hoc Committee To End Discrimination (AHCED)

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Mel's Drive-in Demonstrations

The "San Francisco Chronicle," on December 4, 1964, Page 7, contained an article entitled "Mel's Drive-in Demonstrators' Case Extended," which noted that the case of 117 demonstrators arrested previously at Mel's Drive-in in San Francisco, had been extended for another week, on December 3, 1964, because their attorney was in Latin America.

The "San Francisco News Call Bulletin", on January 12, 1965, contained an article on Page 30 entitled "Mel's Sit-in -- Trial Delays," which reported that on January 11, 1965, the case of the 117 persons arrested for sit-ins at Mel's Drive-in had been continued.

Municipal Judge LEO FRIEDMAN, on January 11, 1965, reportedly granted what he said would be the last continuance on the issue of setting a trial date, with the acquiescence of Assistant District Attorney WALTER GIUBBINI. The new date is February 18, 1965. The article noted that although all defendants had asked for trials by jury, their attorney had sought dismissal of the complaints on constitutional grounds.

B. "Oakland Tribune" Demonstrations

Demonstrations against the "Oakland Tribune", instituted on September 4, 1964, were instituted by AHCED in an effort to increase that paper's employment of minority races. The newspapers carried the demands of AHCED, which included increase in the employment of minority races, furnishing of records to AHCED regarding the racial composition of the newspaper's staff, and the right of AHCED members to tour the paper to check on the employment of minorities.

On November 22, 1964, the "Oakland Sunday Tribune" published an article captioned, "8 Arrests In Picketing of Tribune," which noted that eight individuals had been arrested on November 21, 1964, on suspicion of disturbing the peace and trespassing in connection with the AHCED demonstration at the "Oakland Tribune."

The newspaper further reported that a group of approximately 30 persons had hurled themselves at a "truck gate" at the newspaper office, and that ten demonstrators had sprawled on the pavement in front of the driveway. The article reported that approximately 100 other pickets, some carrying signs, dispersed shortly after the arrests.

The article reviewed the history of the picketing, noting that the picketing of the offices of the newspaper had begun in September, 1964, that it had been called off during October, 1964, and that it was resumed in November, 1964.

The article noted that when the demonstrators entered the newspaper's property, police had cleared the driveway and closed the gate. Each person arrested was informed personally of the reason for his arrest by Oakland Police Captain JAMES MC CARTHY. In addition, WILLIAM F. KNOWLAND, Editor and General Manager of the "Oakland Tribune," told the demonstrators in the driveway that they were trespassing on private property, and asked them to leave.

On December 19, 1964, another demonstration sponsored by AHCED was conducted against the "Oakland Tribune" newspaper. The demonstration began with a rally at noon which was attended by twenty individuals in Lafayette Square, 10th and Jefferson Streets, Oakland, California.

At 1:30 p.m. the individuals walked from the park to the Tribune Building at 13th and Franklin Streets, Oakland, about six blocks distant.

At the Tribune the pickets formed a line and proceeded to sing freedom songs, chant slogans and carry placards. At approximately 2:30 p.m. the pickets assembled at the 13th Street door of the building where they were addressed by MIKE MYERSON, Co-Chairman of the AHCED. MYERSON stated that the club particularly needed funds, and a collection was taken. He requested help in distributing leaflets

The "Oakland Tribune" on December 12, 1964, page one, contained an article entitled "New Threat to Tribune by ADHOC". This article declared that a California State Senate Sub-Committee on Race Relations and Urban Problems had held hearings in the San Francisco Bay Area on December 10 and 11, 1964. The article disclosed that MIKE MYERSON, Co-Chairman of the AD HOC Committee to End Discrimination, had aimed threats at WILLIAM F. KNOWLAND, Editor and General Manager of the "Tribune", on two occasions during his testimony. MYERSON was quoted as having stated "When AD HOC decides to use civil disobedience KNOWLAND will know it, and so will the police".

The "Oakland Tribune" on page two, on December 12, 1964, set forth the text of the testimony of former Senator WILLIAM F. KNOWLAND in which he referred to the statement of MYERSON before the Committee on December 10, 1964. KNOWLAND was quoted as having stated "I might say the statement of Mike Myerson before your committee in San Francisco for the first time throws some real light on the picket line activities of the AD HOC Committee.... He is quoted as saying, 'I personally believe that private business should be abolished'. Needless to say both the Oakland Tribune as an institution and I as a citizen believe in the system of private enterprise, in constitutional government, and in law and order."

The statement of KNOWLAND also disclosed that the "Oakland Tribune" denied discrimination against any applicant for employment or against any employee because of race, creed or color.

The "News-Call Bulletin", a San Francisco newspaper of general circulation, on March 16, 1963, contained an article entitled "AD HOC Leaders Keep His Past Closed" in regard to MIKE MYERSON. This article noted that MIKE MYERSON had acknowledged that he was the W.E.B. Du Bois Club of Berkeley representative to AHCED.

C. CITIZENS' COUNCIL ORGANIZING MEETINGS

The "San Francisco Examiner" newspaper on October 24, 1964, page 1, contained an article entitled, 'CORE To Picket Citizens', which announced that picket lines would confront Bay Area organizers of the Mississippi-based Citizens' Council of America when it held its organizational meeting in the San Francisco Bay Area the following week.

The article noted that CORE officials had announced on October 23, 1964, that at least 20, and possibly 100, pickets would be posted outside the Garfield Junior High School in Berkeley in connection with the scheduled formation of the Alameda County Citizens' Council.

The article noted that CORE also would have observers inside the hall to harass the organizers with questions.

The article revealed that CORE also might picket the meeting of the San Francisco Citizens' Council and a scheduled meeting of the Citizens' Council dedicated to fight the Civil Rights Act.

The "San Francisco Chronicle" newspaper on October 26, 1964, page 5, contained an article entitled, "SLATE Plans To Picket Citizens' Council Session", which announced that there were plans to picket the organizers of the Citizens' Council of America by University of California student leaders.

SECRET CONFIDENTIAL

~~SECRET~~ CONFIDENTIAL

The article reported that the meeting originally had been set for Garfield Junior High School in Berkeley, but that had been changed on October 25, 1964 to the Empire Room of the Claremont Hotel.

On October 26, 1964, a mimeographed leaflet, distributed by the campus chapter of CORE and entitled, "Will California Become Another Mississippi"?, was distributed near the University of California in Berkeley.

The leaflet declared that the White Citizens' Councils were trying to move into Berkeley and that an organizational meeting had been scheduled at the Claremont Hotel.

The leaflet stated that Citizens' Councils sprang up in the deep South to circumvent the 1954 Supreme Court decision on school desegregation and that they had become a rallying point for racism, right wing extremism and violence. The leaflet alleged that the bombings and murders in Mississippi during the Summer of 1964 were the latest and most blatant results of the Citizens Councils' reign of terror in the South.

The leaflet alleged further that the Citizens' Councils of America, having been cheered by the success in Mississippi and Alabama, had sent organizers into Northern California under the slogan of "States Rights, Racial Integrity."

The leaflet noted that invitations had been issued to a select group of "Good Americans" to attend a "secret meeting".

The leaflet concluded that it was felt that receivers of the leaflets should know that people from the entire Bay Area were going to let the missionaries from Mississippi know how Californians feel about their racist ideals and violent methods.

[(SF T-35 on 10/26/64)] (X)

Another leaflet by campus CORE entitled, "Racists Convene" was distributed in the vicinity of the Claremont Hotel in Oakland, California on October 26, 1964. This leaflet declared that "we" have come here to let the White Citizens' Council know that they are not welcome in Northern California. "We" have come, not to break up the meeting but to demonstrate "our" outrage at this attempt to spread Mississippi's openly vicious racist policies throughout the Nation.

The leaflet alleged that the White Citizens' Council engaged in the following tactics:

(1) They run Northern civil rights workers out of town.

(2) They bomb churches where civil rights meetings are held.

(3) They threatened those who attended civil rights meetings in the South with violence.

The leaflet concluded that members of the White Citizens' Council and other bigots and racists must resort to these tactics because they are frustrated people, fighting a battle they cannot win.

[(SF T-35 on 10/26/64)]

The "San Francisco Chronicle" on October 26, 1964, reported that thousands of mailed invitations had been received by individuals in the San Francisco Bay Area for organizational meetings of the Citizens' Councils of America.

A meeting of the W.E.B. Du Bois Club of Berkeley was held on October 25, 1964, at which time it was decided that the Du Bois Club would use sit-ins, or whatever else was necessary, on October 26, 1964 in order to prevent the organization of a Citizens' Council in Alameda County.

[(SF T-34 on 10/26/64)]

A letter of invitation to the San Francisco Organizational Meeting under the letterhead of the San Francisco Citizens' Council, Post Office Box 552, San Francisco, invited attendance at an organizational meeting in San Francisco on October 28, 1964.

The "San Francisco Examiner" newspaper on March 31, 1964, described BOB GILL as the first official spokesman of the John Birch Society in San Francisco.

The "San Francisco Chronicle" and the "San Francisco Examiner" on October 27, 1964, carried news accounts of the organizational meeting to establish an Alameda County Chapter of the Citizens' Council of America (CCA), which had been held at the Claremont Hotel in Oakland on October 26, 1964. The news accounts related that an estimated 350 to 400 persons attended the meeting, including 50 to 75 individuals who apparently were in opposition to the speakers. Application cards for membership in the CCA reportedly were distributed to the audience and an estimated 100 cards were signed and turned in at this meeting. The applicants were told that if their applications were accepted they would be notified by mail of the next meeting, which would be private.

During the organizational meeting in Oakland, California, on October 26, 1964, which lasted from 8 to 10 p.m., an estimated 600 to 700 young people engaged in orderly picketing in the Claremont Hotel parking area. The pickets carried signs denouncing the CCA and bigotry. Pickets carried signs identifying themselves with the following organizations:

SLATE, an off campus student political organization at the University of California, Berkeley;

CORE;

Progressive Labor Movement;

Socialist Workers Party;

Young Socialist Alliance

Youth for Jobs.

The "San Francisco Chronicle" and the "San Francisco Examiner" on October 29, 1964, published accounts of the CCA Organizational Meeting at Masonic Auditorium, 111 California Street, San Francisco, California, which was held on October 28, 1964.

The meeting reportedly was called to order by BOB GILL at 8:30 p.m., who told the individuals in attendance to organize. An estimated 300 persons attended this meeting and received application cards to join the San Francisco Chapter of CCA. A number of these cards were signed and returned.

The newspaper accounts stated that WILLIAM BRADLEY, San Francisco Director of CORE, appeared to be the leader of the picketing in connection with the organizational meeting. BRADLEY addressed the pickets over a loud-speaker system and requested that they refrain from committing acts of civil disobedience. The pickets reportedly began at 7:00 p.m. and continued until 10:45 p.m., with maximum number of pickets being estimated at 425 at 9:30 p.m. As participants in the meeting were leaving, the pickets crowded to the police barricades, taunted individuals leaving the meeting and threw eggs, which resulted in arrests.

MARSHALL WINDMILLER was stated by MERLE BRODSKY, former Chairman of the CP East Bay Region, CALIF on February 12, 1962, to be "closely connected with the CP." BRODSKY observed that WINDMILLER must avoid close identification with the CP because of his position as a professor at San Francisco State College. BRODSKY commented that it was to the advantage of the CP to have someone like WINDMILLER on the campus because he served the aims and purposes of the CP, even though he occasionally attacked the CP.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN ORGANIZATIONS

A. W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUB OF SAN FRANCISCO

The "Newsletter" of the W. E. B. DuBois Club of San Francisco listed the following individuals as having been elected as officers on October 10, 1964:

BLAINE WISHART, Chairman

CAROLYN MULLEN, Secretary

CAROL POWELL, Representative to AHCED

[SF T-16
November 5, 1964]

CAROLYN MULLEN was introduced as a "newcomer" at a W. E. B. DuBois Club of San Francisco meeting in September, 1963.

[SF T-16
September 26, 1963]

MULLEN was arrested by the San Francisco Police Department on March 1, 1964, in connection with racial demonstrations at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel.

B. DU BOIS CLUB - SAN FRANCISCO STATE COLLEGE

At a meeting of the San Francisco State College DuBois Club in San Francisco on October 6, 1964, EUGENE ALEXANDER, Acting Chairman, described the Club and its purposes for the benefit of new people in attendance. ALEXANDER emphasized that the DuBois Club was a socialist group for young people who feel that other socialist groups do not meet their needs. ALEXANDER declared that members did not need to agree entirely with positions of the DuBois Club, and such positions were by no means permanent.

At a meeting of the San Francisco State DuBois Club on November 3, 1964, TERENCE HALLINAN spoke on the subject of dialectical materialism. As a reference, HALLINAN referred to a small paperback book by JOSEPH STALIN.

C. CORE

At a meeting of the Fillmore Club of the CP in San Francisco on November 25, 1964, GEORGE SANDY reported that the Fillmore Club did not have any direct contact with CORE or with any of the other organizations operating within the Fillmore District. SANDY stated further that the CP did not have any influence on the course of operations of the organizations in the Fillmore District nor did they have any particular part in helping in the direction of these organizations. SANDY urged CP members to work out a better relationship with these organizations.

November 30, 1964]

The San Francisco "News Call Bulletin" on November 13, 1964, page 2, contained an article entitled "Bradley to Head SF CORE Again," which reported that WILLIAM BRADLEY had been re-elected Chairman of the San Francisco chapter of CORE by acclamation after a review of his "militant civil rights record."

D. NAACP

The San Francisco "Examiner" on December 21, 1964, page 1, contained an article entitled "Militants Win SF Control of NAACP." This article reported that a slate of "working militants", led by Dr. THOMAS N. BURBRIDGE, had won control of the San Francisco branch of the NAACP on December 20, 1964. BURBRIDGE was elected First Vice President after declaring openly his opposition to candidates who sought to tone down the fervor of the militant faction.

The article reported that the election was regarded as a clear-cut victory for the "militants" who had opposed openly "prestige officials" who held public political office but who did not "hit the bricks." Among the most prominent opponents of BURBRIDGE and his supporters were former NAACP President, TERRY FRANCOIS, now a member of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, and United States Attorney CECIL POOLE.

The San Francisco "Chronicle" on November 20, 1964, page 1, contained an article "NAACP's Blast at a School Board," which reported that the NAACP had attacked the San Francisco Board of Education's integration efforts on November 19, 1964. This attack reportedly led JAMES E. STRATTEN, a Negro and President of the San Francisco Board of Education, to blast "left wing extremists who are leeches and vultures preying on the Negro community." STRATTEN reportedly characterized the seven-page NAACP criticism of the Board of Education as being "a well written collection of half truths." STRATTEN reportedly stated that "left wing extremists" had distributed literature inciting racial hatred in San Francisco schools.

The San Francisco "Examiner" on December 22, 1964, page 1, contained an article entitled "New Change in NAACP In-Fighting". This article reported that Reverend HAMILTON BOSWELL of the Jones Methodist Church and a long-time member of the NAACP Executive Board, had stated that the new slate of NAACP officers would "further estrange the Negro community from the NAACP." BOSWELL reportedly stated that the "activists" led by BURBRIDGE had repudiated the traditional programs of the NAACP and had severed the connection with the source of the NAACP's largest support--the Negro churches.

The article also reported that TERRY FRANCOIS, who had been retained on the Executive Board of the NAACP by a scant 10 vote margin, had announced on December 21, 1964, that he would resign from the Executive Board and disassociate himself from the local branch of the NAACP.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA - BERKELEY BRANCH; W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club - Berkeley Chapter; Berkeley DuBois Club; East Bay DuBois Club

A source advised on April 12, 1963, that the W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club, Berkeley Chapter, was originated in October, 1962, principally through the efforts of MATTHEW HALLINAN.

This same source advised in October, 1963, that MATTHEW HALLINAN was elected as Chairman and CP Youth Commission Representative of the Berkeley CP On-Campus Youth Club during September, 1963.

A second source advised that a mimeographed leaflet distributed by the Berkeley DuBois Club in September, 1964, reflected the name as "The W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America - Berkeley Branch." This leaflet describes the club as "An independent Socialist Youth Organization" and lists its headquarters as 5935 Grove Street, Oakland, California.

In addition, this leaflet, under the heading "The DuBois Clubs of America" sets forth the following: "The Berkeley DuBois Club is a part of a nation-wide socialist youth organization founded in June of this year. It attempts to bring together those action-oriented youth who consider socialism to be a visible alternative to the ills of this society."

The leaflet further reflects, under "Statement of Purpose" in part as follows: "To the DuBois Club, socialism is not an empty abstraction. It represents the form of social organization which is necessary if mankind is to fully utilize the great potential unleashed by modern industrial civilization. Very succinctly, it is a society run for people, not profit."

University of California, Berkeley, California, records in October, 1964, reflected that the Berkeley DuBois Club was recognized as an "off-campus" membership organization for the Fall 1964 semester. As an "off-campus" organization, the DuBois Club is allowed to present lectures on the campus if permission is obtained in advance from the university. It is also allowed to set up and maintain a literature table on the campus.

A third source advised in October, 1964, that the following were the principal officers of the Berkeley DuBois Club:

Chairman or President - PHYLLIS HABERMAN

Organizational Secretary - ANN GOLDBLATT KING

Secretary-Treasurer - LEE GOLDBLATT

A fourth source advised during July, 1964, that PHYLLIS HABERMAN attended the founding convention of the DuBois Clubs of America held in June, 1964, in San Francisco.

A fifth source, a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party, has stated that he knew LOUIS BORIS GOLDBLATT, LEE GOLDBLATT and ANN GOLDBLATT KING's father, to be a member of the CP as late as 1947.

A sixth source advised in March, 1964, that LEE GOLDBLATT was the recipient of a yearly subscription to the "People's World" (PW) during 1964.

The PW is a West Coast Communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco.

Milton Galamison was arrested January 20, 1965, by Chief Attendance Officer Cavanaugh, Board of Education, Brooklyn, New York, and charged with violation of Section 3212, Sub-Divisions 5A and 5B of State Education Law, for inducing minor to absent himself from school and harboring such truant. Galamison appeared in Family Court, School Part, Brooklyn, New York, January 20, 1965. He was released without bail and the case was adjourned until February 3, 1965. Also, on January 20, 1965, Milton Galamison was served with the show cause order referred to above. This order is answerable on January 22, 1965.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been the organizer for the Harlem Region of the Communist Party (CP), but this position terminated during November, 1958.

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 24, 1964, that according to William Patterson, Chairman of the New York District, CP, Jesse Gray is no longer a CP member but is friendly to the CP.

Proposed Boycott of New York City Schools by City-Wide Committee For Integrated Schools; February, 1965 Racial Matters

Detectives Edwin Cooper and John Martinez, Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, furnished the following information on January 26, 1965:

Handbills circulated on January 25, 1965, by supporters of the City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools (CWCIS) in the vicinity of Public School 258, located at 141 Macon Street, Brooklyn, New York, and at Junior High School 33, Throop and Hopkins Avenues, Brooklyn, New York, called for a shut-down of these schools on January 27 and 28, 1965, respectively. The handbills also announced plans for a "freedom school" for absentee students at Apollo Theatre, Fulton Street and Throop Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

The New York "Herald Tribune", January 27, 1965, page 10, reported that the legal battle between lawyers for Milton Galamison of the CWCIS and the Corporation Counsel of the City of New York, in the United States District Court, Eastern District of New York, resulted in a "reserved decision". The Corporation Counsel wanted the case on its temporary injunction against the boycott argued in State Court. The CWCIS, wanted a Federal trial on the ground that their civil rights had been abridged. Judge Rayfiel reserved decision pending submission of additional briefs.

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information on January 27, 1965:

Racial Matters

The New York Chapter of Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), 307 West 125th Street, New York City, and the Harlem Parents Committee, New York City, are continuing their boycott of Public School 139, Harlem, New York, and are operating a "freedom school" for absentee students at Bethel AME Church, 52 West 132nd Street, New York City. Teachers from New York CORE are operating the school and one of them is Vicki Morris from the New York Chapter of CORE.

This source also determined that on Monday, February 1, 1965, the school shut-down will spread to the Bronx, New York, and will be supported by the Harlem Parents Committee, CWCIS and the Bronx Chapter of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People. Plans are also being made for a "freedom school" at St. Augustine Presbyterian Church, near Prospect Avenue, Bronx, New York.

Vicki Morris is the daughter of George Morris, who is listed in the masthead of "The Worker", January 26, 1965, as on its editorial staff.

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 4, 1962, that Vicki Morris was present at a meeting of the Brooklyn Youth Communist Party Club held at her residence on Brighton 3rd Street, Brooklyn, New York, on October 23, 1962.

For Integrated Schools, February, 1965
Racial Matters

Lieutenant Anthony Bouza, Bureau of Special Services, advised January 27, 1965, that the following schools were picketed on January 27, 1965 from 8 A.M. to 9 A. M. by individuals associated with the CWCIS:

Public School 258, Brooklyn, New York
15 pickets

Junior High School 617, Brooklyn, New York
3 pickets

14 pickets

No disturbances were reported at the above demonstrations. The purpose of lthe picketing was to encourage students to absent themselves from classes in furtherance of the school boycott program sponsored by the CWCIS. However, according to Lieutenant Bouza, the picketing was not successful in inducing the students to stay away in sizeable numbers from classes.

Reference is made to communications dated January 6, and January 11, 1965, captioned as above at Chicago.

On January 15, 1965, a source advised that on the evening of January 14, 1965, the Executive Board of the Chicago Chapter, Negro American Labor Council (NALC), held a meeting in Chicago, Illinois, where Tim Black, President of the Chicago Chapter, NALC, announced that the NALC State of the Race Conference is now scheduled to be held January 30 and 31, 1965, at the Riverside Church, 116th Street and Morningside Heights Avenue, New York, New York. (U)

Source further advised that Black announced that only 60 persons have been invited to attend this conference and more likely 40 of this 60 will in fact attend. Black announced that it is expected that representatives from the "six big civil rights organizations in the country" will be represented at the conference, including such organizations as the Urban League, Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and NALC. (U)

Black announced that the five representatives at this conference from the NALC will be as follows:

Joseph Overton
Cleveland Robertson
A. Phillip Randolph
(all of New York)

Horace Sheffield, Detroit, Michigan

Tim Black, Chicago, Illinois (U)

Source further advised that Tim Black is to be the only representative from the Chicago Chapter, NALC, in attendance at this conference. Source stated that no Communist Party (CP) of Illinois members also members of the Chicago Chapter, NALC, are scheduled to attend. Source further advised that Tim Black is not a member of the CP of Illinois and is not subject to the discipline or control of the CP of Illinois. (U)

Source further advised that in addition to the above, special invitations are also being sent to a limited number of prominent religious and civic leaders throughout the country inviting them to attend. Source advised that none of these individuals were identified by name. (U)

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

WILLIAM WALTER HANSEN, JR., Field Secretary, Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), Pine Bluff, Arkansas, advised on November 4, 1964, that included among a group of seven SNCC workers from Georgia and Mississippi who were in Lincoln County, Arkansas, during the November 3, 1964, General Election to assist the Pine Bluff, Arkansas, Chapter of the SNCC in promoting a Negro candidate in Lincoln County for State Representative, was STOKELEY CARMICHAEL from Greenwood, Mississippi. According to HANSEN, all of these SNCC workers departed for their respective locations on November 4, 1964.

ARK. MISS

PH

LR T-1 advised on September 24, 1963, that among those individuals at the Bronx High School of Science, Bronx, New York, who in his opinion had been "devoted to left wing activities" was one STOKELEY CARMICHAEL, 1810 Amethyst Street, Bronx, New York, a graduate of the class of 1960. According to this source, CARMICHAEL, a Negro, was a close friend to EUGENE DENNIS, JR., son of the former General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, EUGENE DENNIS, now deceased.

LR T-2 advised on September 24, 1963, that he was aware one STOKELEY CARMICHAEL, a graduate of the class of 1960 of the Bronx High School of Science and participant in freedom rides and other progressive movements by CARMICHAEL's own admission, was a close friend to the son of the now deceased but former General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, EUGENE DENNIS, namely EUGENE DENNIS, JR. According to this source, CARMICHAEL, a Negro, resided while in New York at 1810 Amethyst Street, Bronx, New York.

ARK CALIF.

WILLIAM WATER HANSEN, JR., supra, also advised on November 4, 1964, that another of the individuals who came to assist the local chapter of SNCC in the General Election was FRANK THOMAS CIECIORKA, Holly Springs, Mississippi.

LR T-3, another government agency which conducts personnel investigation, advised on January 16, 1964, that FRANK THOMAS CIECIORKA,JR., a Selective Service registrant, on December 7, 1961, qualified DD Form 98 (Armed Forces Security Questionnaire) during pre-induction processing by stating he did not choose to complete his questionnaire because he believed that his political beliefs and associations were not legitimate areas for investigation or sworn testimony. CIECIORKA went on to say that freedom of belief and association were rights guaranteed by the Constitution and inquiry into this area by agencies having the power to dispense or withhold benefits or favors became, in effect, a form of intimidation.

On January 6, 1963, the above informant made available results of an interview with [redacted] b7D characterization of the FPCC, Bay Area Chapter, is contained in the appendix hereto.

LR T-4 reported on February 1, 1962, that CIECIORKA had a yearly weekend subscription to the "People's World" (PW) which would expire on November 25, 1962.

> The PW is a West Coast Communist newspaper published in San Francisco.

LR T-5 reported on April 25, 1963, that on April 21, 1963, CIECIORKA attended a fund raising benefit for the PW at 460 East Washington Street, San Jose, California.

This same informant reported on January 22, 1964, that during January, 1964, CIECIORKA was contacted by two members of the Santa Clara County Communist Party (CP) for the purpose of determining whether he should join the CP. Decision was made that CIECIORKA would be more useful to the Communist cause if he did not join the CP.

LR T-6 advised on April 17, 1964, that CIECIORKA had mailed letters of invitation to individuals in the San Jose area to attend the first meeting of the W.E.B. DuBois Club to be held in San Jose, California, April 20, 1964. A characterization of the W.E.B. DuBois Club is contained in the appendix hereto.

"No information developed."

(B.) SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY
SAN DIEGO BRANCH

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A characterization of the San Diego Branch of the Socialist Workers Party appears in the appendices hereto.

At a meeting of the San Diego Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SDB-SWP) held at 1853 Irving Avenue, San Diego, California, on November 7, 1964, BILL BEARD reported on his activities in the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE).

(SD T-5, November 25, 1964)

BILL BEARD is a regular member of the SDB-SWP.

(SD T-1, December 3, 1964)

At a meeting of the SDB-SWP at 1853 Irving Avenue on November 24, 1964, LUD GARTNER said that he was now a member of CORE. GARTNER said that he can now work "better" inside CORE with BILL BEARD, especially since BEARD is Direct Action Chairman of CORE.

During the meeting BILL BEARD reported on his activities in CORE.

(SD T-2, December 3, 1964)
(SD T-3, December 1, 1964)
(SD T-5, November 25, 1964)

LUD GARTNER is a regular member of the SDB-SWP.

(SD T-1, December 3, 1964)

At a meeting of the SDB-SWP at 1853 Irving Avenue, San Diego, on November 29, 1964, BILL KITT told BILL BEARD that he (BEARD) was in CORE to give the Socialist Workers Party's (SWP) position on unions and civil rights.

(SD T-5, December 3, 1964)

BILL KITT is a regular member of the SDB-SWP.

(SD T-5, December 3, 1964)

At a meeting of the SDB-SWP held at 1853 Irving Avenue, San Diego, BILL BEARD reported on his activities in CORE. This meeting was held on December 1, 1964.

(SD T-1, December 3, 1964)
(SD T-2, December 4, 1964)
(SD T-5, December 3, 1964)

At a meeting of the SDB-SWP held at 1853 Irving Avenue, San Diego, BILL BEARD reported on his activities in CORE. This meeting was held December 8, 1964.

(SD T-5, December 10, 1964)

The SDB-SWP has named its headquarters, an old two-story house which they lease at 1853 Irving Avenue in the heart of the Negro section in southeast San Diego, "Frederick Douglas Hall", after the American Negro anti-slavery journalist.

(SD T-6, January 25, 1965)

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

"No information developed."

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A CORE meeting was held at the southeast branch of the Y.M.C.A. on December 17, 1964. BILL BEARD, WALLY HOSKINS, SANDRA SCHILLING and LUD GARTNER were present.

(SD T-1, December 22, 1964)

WALLY HOSKINS and SANDRA SCHILLING are regular members of the SDB-SWP.

(SD T-1, December 22, 1964)

On December 22, 1964, SD T-7 discussed racial problems relating to San Diego and the position of CORE.

B. SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

1. Picketing of FBI Office, New Haven, Connecticut, on November 21, 1964 Walter Brooks

On November 20, 1964, WALTER S. BROOKS, Chairman, New Haven Chapter, Congress of Racial Equality (NHC,CORE), notified the New Haven Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that NHC,CORE planned to hold a demonstration from 12 Noon to 1 p.m. on November 21, 1964 in front of the New Haven FBI Office, 205 Church Street, New Haven, Connecticut. BROOKS said the purpose of the demonstration was to call for increased Federal protection of Civil Rights workers in the South and to protest "criticism" of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING by FBI Director J. EDGAR HOOVER. BROOKS said the demonstration would consist of a picket line on the sidewalk in front of the building housing the New Haven FBI Office and that demonstrators did not plan to enter the building.

BROOKS said the NHC,CORE hoped to have 100 individuals participate in the picket line and that the NHC,CORE was calling civil rights and civic organizations in New Haven, Connecticut, area such as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the New Haven Human Relations Council, to obtain their support of the demonstration. BROOKS added that this demonstration was a local action of the NHC,CORE and was not ordered by the National Headquarters of CORE.

The November 21, 1964 combined editions of "The New Haven Journal Courier" and "New Haven Register," daily morning and evening newspapers published at New Haven, Connecticut, contained an article entitled, "CORE to Stage Demonstration Against Hoover," reflecting that NHC,CORE planned to demonstrate from 12 Noon to 1 p.m. on November 21, 1964 in front of the New Haven FBI Office to "demand the removal of FBI Director J. EDGAR HOOVER." NHC,CORE Chairman WALTER BROOKS was quoted in the article as stating that "NHC,CORE is protesting HOOVER's recent accusation of Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING and also 'HOOVER's blindness to what KING was criticizing; the blantant inadequacies of the present FBI operations in the South.'" According to this article, NHC,CORE was also demanding that President LYNDON B. JOHNSON direct the Justice Department and the FBI to protect Negroes and Civil Rights workers in the South.

On November 21, 1964, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed an NHC,CORE demonstration which occurred from 12:22 p.m. to 1:21 p.m. The demonstrators conducted a picket line on the sidewalk in front of 205 Church Street, New Haven, Connecticut, carrying placards, some of which read, "To Civil Rights Workers and Negroes - FBI Means Federal Bureau of Indifference," "CORE Demands FBI End Indifference to Civil Rights," "New Haven CORE Demands Enforcement of Civil Rights Act of 1964," "Federal Protection for all Civil Rights Workers," "Equal Justice for Civil Rights Demonstrators," and "Negroes Demand Freedom Now."

Distributed at the demonstration was an NHC,CORE leaflet announcing the demonstration was in protest of "J. EDGAR HOOVER's attack on MARTIN LUTHER KING" and it requested "increased Federal participation in the Civil Rights struggle in the South." Also distributed was a leaflet entitled, "CORE Demands: An End to FBI Indifference to Civil Rights," which leaflet was critical of FBI Civil Rights investigations, called for FBI enforcement of laws to protect Southern Negroes and Civil Rights workers, and demanded the replacement of FBI Director J. EDGAR HOOVER.

Special Agents of the FBI observed 35 individuals participating in the NHC,CORE demonstration, 27 of whom were white and eight of whom were Negro. Also observed participating in the picket line and taking an active part in the demonstration were WILLIAM WINNICK and LIBBY PALMER.

On various dates from 1961 through 1963 NH T-1 advised that WILLIAM WINNICK was identified as Organizer of the Connecticut Branch, Social Workers Party (CB,SWP) during the period 1961-1963.

On August 17, 1964, NH T-2 identified WILLIAM WINNICK as Organizer of the CB,SWP.

A characterization of the CB,SWP is set forth in the Appendix section of this report.

On February 12, 1961, NH T-1 advised that LIBBY PALMER attended an SWP Labor Forum meeting at New Haven, Connecticut, at which the principal speaker was an SWP leader from New York City.

On April 8, 1961, NH T-1 advised that LIBBY PALMER was elected to the Executive Board of the New Haven Chapter, Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

Characterizations of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and the New Haven Chapter, Fair Play for Cuba Committee are set forth in the Appendix section of this report.

During the demonstration, NHC,CORE Chairman WALTER BROOKS made a speech calling for adequate protection of Negroes and Civil Rights workers in the South and protesting the inadequacy of the FBI and its Director.

The NHC,CORE picket line was itself picketed by a group of six young men who carried placards reading, "YAF Backs FBI," "We Like America - We Like HOOVER" and "We Dig J. EDGAR."

The November 22, 1964 edition of the "New Haven Register" contains an article entitled, "CORE FBI Protest Protested" which stated that the NHC,CORE demonstration held in front of the New Haven FBI Office on November 21, 1964 protesting recent statements by FBI Director J. EDGAR HOOVER concerning Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING was picketed by a group identifying itself as "Young Americans for Freedom." This article pointed out that there were no incidents during the demonstration but that demonstrators exchanged remarks with CORE pickets chanting "Jim Crow Must Go" and "EDGAR HOOVER Must Go." The Young Americans for Freedom group, according to the article, answered with "MALCOLM X Must Go" and "LUTHER KING Must Go."

NEW HAVEN CHAPTER OF THE FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (FPCC)

b7C

LOUIS A. SISKO, [redacted] Fairfield, Connecticut, advised on December 10, 1960, that WILLIAM WINNICK announced that a meeting would be held at his office, 1220 Chapel St., New Haven, Connecticut, on December 11, 1960, for the purpose of forming a local chapter of The Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

The December 15, 1960 edition of the "New Haven Evening Register", a newspaper published daily at New Haven, Conn., announced that a New Haven Chapter of The Fair Play For Cuba Committee had been recently formed with WILLIAM WINNICK as Secretary. The article reflected the Committee believes that Premier FIDEL CASTRO's regime in Cuba is making progress and is not getting "fair play" in the United States. The article further reflected the group would be affiliated with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee nationally and would distribute literature, make available motion pictures and speakers and would hold rallies.

A source advised on December 27, 1960, that members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New Haven, Conn., decided in early December 1960, that the SWP should be represented in the FPCC and they selected WILLIAM WINNICK as the SWP member to establish this representation. This source advised that WINNICK became the head of the New Haven Chapter of the FPCC in December 1960, and held the office of Secretary of the Chapter. According to this source, the New Haven Chapter of the FPCC has maintained headquarters in WINNICK's office at 1220 Chapel Street, New Haven, Conn., and this address has been shown on literature distributed by the New Haven Chapter of the FPCC as its headquarters.

This same source advised that some members of the New Haven Chapter of the FPCC, including some who are also members of the SWP, have participated in a public demonstration, meetings, and debates, and in a picket of United Nations Headquarters, and in all of which activities they supported the position of the CASTRO government and opposed the position of the United States Government. According to this source, WINNICK was primarily responsible for the organization of all of these activities.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NEW HAVEN CHAPTER OF THE FAIR PLAY

The same source advised on May 12, 1961, that the SWP, principally through WINNICK, had continued to dominate and control the activities of the New Haven Chapter of the FPCC.

The same source advised that on September 18, 1961, WINNICK stated that RICHARD GIBSON, National Secretary of the FPCC was unhappy with the Trotskyites in the organization, and as a result there might be a split. On November 3, 1961, WINNICK stated that GIBSON had ruined the organization, and that the New Haven Chapter FPCC was all through.

According to the same source, the New Haven Chapter FPCC has not held any meetings or otherwise engaged in any activity since June 26, 1961.

A second source advised on April 10, 1962, that WILLIAM WINNICK contacted the FPCC at New York City in December, 1960, for the purpose of forming a New Haven Chapter of the FPCC. Following this contact, WINNICK formed a New Haven Chapter of FPCC in December 1960, and acted as head of that Chapter until the summer of 1961, when he seemed to loose interest in Cuban matters and the FPCC and FPCC activities in New Haven ceased.

The Socialist Workers Party (SWP) has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A characterization of KOURAMBIS is also set forth on page 4.

B. OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS

1. SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (SWP), NEWARK BRANCH

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

At a public forum sponsored by the Newark Branch, SWP on December 13, 1964, LARRY STEWART, a member of the Newark Branch, spoke concerning the Negro question in the United States. STEWART said this country needs an intelligent Negro leadership without a Democratic or Republican Party, and the only true way to true integration is a social revolution which will establish a real socialist state.

A letter to the Editor of the "Newark Evening News" appeared in the "Newark Evening News" of December 31, 1964. This letter was from NICK KOURAMBIS, Labor and Industry Chairman, New Jersey State Conference of Branches of the NAACP. KOURAMBIS stated in the letter that on January 8, 1965, at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, a state-wide campaign would be initiated to raise the social, political, and economic levels of migrant workers in New Jersey.

An estimated 17 persons, including NICK KOURAMBIS and TONY CASCONE, attended a meeting at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, on January 8, 1965, to initiate a campaign to raise the social, political, and economic levels of migrant workers in New Jersey. Considerable discussion concerned the conditions of workers at Port Norris, New Jersey, where the main industry is fishing.

The group decided to send a telegram to the Governor of New Jersey urging him to reject a bill requiring one year residency before persons could be eligible for relief. The group also decided to form a new organization to be known as "The New Jersey Conference for the Rights of Migrant Workers". The next meeting of the group was set for February 6, 1965, at 129 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey.

3. FRIDAY NIGHT FORUM (FNF)

A characterization of the FNF appears in the Appendix attached hereto.

On November 20, 1964, MORTON STAVIS addressed the FNF at Newark, New Jersey. His main topic was civil rights. In connection with registration problems in the South, STAVIS said United States Marshals and the courts were not carrying out their duties there. STAVIS declared that the Government should send Marshals to the South who would do the job. STAVIS called for political action to step up the civil rights program in this country.

No information developed.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE (NAACP)

The NAACP, in its National Conventions since approximately 1950, has rejected communism in all its forms.

The NAACP nationally and locally in Essex County, New Jersey, follows a policy of excluding CP members from participation in its activities.

Membership of the NAACP in Essex County, New Jersey, is estimated at approximately 3,000.

B. NEWARK COMMUNITY UNION PROJECT (NCUP), also known as NEWARK FULL EMPLOYMENT PROJECT, NEWARK COMMITTEE ON FULL EMPLOYMENT

There are no formal requirements for membership in the NCUP. Approximately 80 persons participate in meetings and activities of the NCUP with some degree of regularity. In addition, a large number of persons are "followers" who drop in and out of activities and meetings.

The NCUP has no stated policy of prohibition against communists holding office or membership.

BAYARD RUSTIN is the subject of a feature article captioned, "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it RUSTIN is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the YOUNG COMMUNIST LEAGUE (YCL) and as such he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, RUSTIN gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE

The EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE (ECLC) has been described by the House Committee on Un-American Activities in the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised January 2, 1957, as follows:

> "To defend the cases of communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the  Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection".
> (Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, pg. 91)

On June 12, 1961, a source advised that the New Jersey Advisory Committee was formed as a New Jersey counterpart of the New York ECLC in 1955 in Newark, New Jersey. The organization was organized under the direction of the ECLC and later became the New Jersey Division of the ECLC (NJDECLC). The NJDECLC looks to the ECLC for publications and literature on civil liberties and related causes and has, over the years of its existence, looked to the parent New York ECLC for leadership and for furnishing speakers at NJDECLC functions in New Jersey.

This source advised on December 13, 1961, that while there is literature being received from the ECLC at 421 Seventh Avenue, New York City, by members of the NJDECLC, there is no known activity at present or in the planning stage for the near future on the part of the NJDECLC. There is no formal headquarters for the NJDECLC, nor has there been in the past, and all activities, if any in the past, of the organization have been handled by the officers and members from their homes.

APPENDIX

FRIDAY NIGHT FORUM
(NEWARK, NEW JERSEY)

A source reported in November, 1960, that a forum for "lefts and progressives" was mentioned as coming into existence at a meeting of New Jersey COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) leaders held in Newark, New Jersey, at the end of October, 1960. DAVID ROCKLIN, known to the source as a CP member, and other active CP members were mentioned as being associated with the effort to establish such a public sounding board.

A second source advised in December, 1960, that a letter had been prepared announcing the organization of the FRIDAY NIGHT FORUM (FNF) and advertising the first meeting as being scheduled for January 20, 1961. According to the letter, the FNF was to present a series of lectures, one each month, at the Continental Ballroom in Newark, New Jersey. These lectures were to be on the "political events of these times" and were to feature qualified speakers on such topics as the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA), Cuba, Africa, Asia, civil rights, co-existence, and national and international events.

A third source advised on March 30, 1964, that during the past three years, the FNF has presented a series of speakers on such topics as international relations, abolition of the HCUA, Africa and Asia, education in the Soviet Union, disarmament, Soviet youth activities, and other topics of current interest. These speakers have been presented since the inception of the FNF at a series of meetings held on Friday evenings in Newark, New Jersey.

The third source advised during March, 1964, that FNF meetings are currently being held at the L and G Meeting Rooms, 108 Clinton Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, and that LEO RITZ is the 1963-1964 chairman of the FNF.

During November, 1955, a fourth source, a self-admitted member of the CP from the mid-1930s until late 1944, advised that during the period from just prior to World War II, until late 1944, he knew LEO RITZ to be a member of the Clinton Hill Branch of the New Jersey CP.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis: FOR THE PERIOD OCTOBER 15, 1964, THROUGH JANUARY 14, 1965.

Allegations that ANNE BRADEN's booklet "HUAC: Bulwark of Segregation" has been endorsed by CORE, are denied. BRADEN, in public talk on racial matters, suggested that public should not turn to violence when not assured that non-violence will not work. She pointed out that nonviolence is not peaceful and not passive. Anti-Communist faction remains in control of CORE in Cleveland. No racial demonstrations during period of this report. Two of the officers and three members of CORE at Kent, Ohio, have SWP or YSA affiliations.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, USA (CPUSA)

(1) Local Activity

(a) Activity in Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

CV T-1 advised on September 23, 1964, at an East Coast Regional Conference of the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC), held September 19, 1964, that a report was given on the distribution of ANNE BRADEN's booklet entitled "HUAC: Bulwark of Segregation," and it was stated that 100 copies of this booklet had been sent to Methodist ministers in Cleveland, Ohio, and 1000 copies had been mailed to CORE.

A characterization of NCAHUAC is contained in the Appendix hereto.

ANNE BRADEN -- Mrs. ALBERTA AHEARN, 2311 Payne Street, Louisville, Kentucky, is a self-admitted former member of the CP in Louisville, Kentucky. In testifying on December 11 and 13, 1954, in Jefferson County, Kentucky, Criminal Court, in a state sedition prosecution against ANNE BRADEN, Mrs. AHEARN identified BRADEN as being a known CP member in Louisville, Kentucky, from January, 1951, until shortly prior to the time of Mrs. AHEARN's testimony.

CV T-2 advised on September 21, 1964, that at the above-referred East Coast Regional meeting of the NCAHUAC, held September 19, 1964, it was announced that in Cleveland, EDNA KAUFMAN and the President, Vice-President and Treasurer of CORE have endorsed the ANNE BRADEN pamphlet and urged all of their supporters to read it.

EDNA KAUFMAN -- CV T-11 advised on October 17, 1963, that a meeting of the Ohio CP State Committee was held in Cleveland, Ohio, on October 13, 1963, EDNA KAUFMAN being among those present at this meeting.

On November 3, 1964, a copy of the booklet, "HUAC: Bulwark of Segregation," was exhibited to CV T-3, who is an active member in Cleveland CORE. CV T-3 stated that he had never seen this booklet and had never heard of it, and further that he personally knows that no copies of this booklet had been mailed out by CORE since September 1, 1964, and that a review of the CORE records does not indicate any expenditure at anytime for a mailing of this booklet. He advised that in the event this booklet had been endorsed by officers of CORE, he would know about it.

(b) Comments by ANNE BRADEN at Local Public Meeting

CLEVELAND, OHIO

CV T-4 advised on November 13, 1964, that a public meeting was held on November 9, 1964, at the Unitarian Society of Cleveland at which ANNE BRADEN was the speaker. One hundred fifty people were in attendance at this meeting, and ANNE BRADEN's talk was entitled "New Horizons for the Civil Rights Movement." BRADEN advised those present to not give up the fight for civil rights; that the long hot summer that was predicted last spring has yet to begin. She stated that "we" are planning, and all over the country civil rights movements are planning, lie-ins on the highways and turnpikes, and "we" will take care that buses and trains will not go and that planes cannot take off. She said that the civil rights groups need white people and need to obtain the support of white people if they are to succeed.

CV T-5 advised on December 2, 1964, concerning the public meeting addressed by ANNE BRADEN on November 9, 1964. CV T-5 stated that following her talk, the question was raised as to the effectiveness of nonviolence. ANNE BRADEN answered this question by stating that she personally supported non-violence, and she pointed out that nonviolence is an aggressive weapon. She stated that she felt that many people overlook the possibilities of nonviolence; that through nonviolence it would be possible to paralyze an entire city with lie-ins, sit-ins, stalling, etc. She suggested that an attempt should not be made to try violence when the people are not sure that nonviolence will not work. She pointed out that nonviolence is not peaceful and not passive; that the only difference between violence and nonviolence is that nonviolence does not involve killing or destruction.

B. Socialist Workers Party (SWP)

(1) Local Policy

(a) Activity in Cleveland CORE

CV T-6 advised in November, 1964, that ERIC REINTHALER is the only SWP member who attends CORE meetings and that he exercises no influence in CORE. CV T-6 stated that the problem that CORE previously had with the SWP is not even mentioned at present CORE meetings.

CV T-3 advised on November 17, 1964, that the anti-SWP and the anti-CP factions remain in control of CORE.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

ERIC REINTHALER -- REINTHALER was convicted in United States District Court, Cleveland, Ohio, on January 29, 1958, on the charge of conspiring to violate the Labor-Management Relations Act of 1947 through the filing of false non-Communist union officer affidavits. On February 19, 1958, he was sentenced to eighteen months in prison and fined $2,500.

CV T-6 advised on April 9, 1964, that REINTHALER is currently a member of the SWP and was present at an SWP meeting on March 26, 1964.

CV T-7 advised on December 4, 1964, that an SWP meeting was held in Cleveland on December 3, 1964, at which it was decided that the civil rights fraction of the Cleveland SWP Branch, which fraction had been established during the CORE demonstrations in Cleveland, would be disbanded because of no present participation by the SWP in CORE. It was decided that the SWP Cleveland Branch would later set up a committee on the Negro struggle.

A characterization of the Cleveland Branch SWP is contained in the Appendix hereto.

C. Workers World Party (WWP)

(1) Local Policy

(a) Comments on CORE and National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) in Warren and Youngstown, Ohio, Areas

CV T-8 advised on October 6, 1964, that on September 30, 1964, FRANCES DOSTAL was asked whether CORE in Warren, Ohio, had any demonstrations since it had been organized. She stated that this group is not a very militant one, as far as its leaders are concerned, and that she doubts very much whether it has had any of the kind of demonstrations in which she would be interested in participating. It was pointed out to FRANCES DOSTAL at this time that it appeared unusual that CORE would organize in Warren, rather than in Youngstown, Ohio, since Youngstown is a much larger city. FRANCES DOSTAL remarked that Youngstown just is not politically interested in an organization such as CORE; that even the NAACP in Youngstown is so weak that it is unable to do anything.

A characterization of the WWP appears in the Appendix hereto.

FRANCES DOSTAL -- CV T-12 advised on September 2, 1963, that FRANCES DOSTAL was in attendance at the WWP Labor Day Conference held in New York City on August 31, 1963.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

There have been no racial demonstrations in the Cleveland FBI Office territory during the period of this report - October 15, 1964, through January 14, 1965.

Demonstrations were held in Cleveland on April 6 and 7, 1964, at the site where a new school was under construction. These were sponsored by the United Freedom Movement. BETH ROBINSON was arrested as a demonstrator, and Cleveland Municipal Court record Number 876104 shows that she was charged with disorderly conduct on April 7, 1964, in that she placed herself in a construction ditch in order to prevent construction workers from completing their tasks, necessitating that the Cleveland Police Department remove her bodily.

Municipal Court record Number 877627 shows that BETH ROBINSON was also charged on April 7, 1964, with obstructing the Cleveland Police Department, in that she did knowingly and wilfully obstruct and abuse members of the Cleveland Police Department in the exercise of their duties.

MARCO GUISEPPE, Docket Clerk at Cleveland Municipal Court, advised IC WILLIAM HEGEDUS on January 25, 1965, that both of the above-referred cases against BETH ROBINSON were noll prossed on October 29, 1964.

BETH MICHELE ROBINSON, nee WOLLAND -- CV T-13 advised on April 2, 1962, that BETH MICHELE WOLLAND gave a speech at a forum of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC), held March 26, 1962, at New York City, concerning her 1961 visit to Cuba. She spoke favorably of the Cuban Government of FIDEL CASTRO and noted that she was employed by the Ministry of Education while in Cuba, compiling statistics. Also that she traveled to Cuba via Mexico, apparently without permission of the United States Department of State.

OHIO

CV T-13 advised on May 14, 1962, that WOLLAND gave a similar speech on May 12, 1962, at an FPCC meeting in Newark, New Jersey.

A characterization of the FPCC is contained in the Appendix hereto.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

(1) Kent, Ohio, CORE

CV T-9 on October 14, 1964, identified JOHN J. MC CANN as being President of the CORE chapter at Kent State University, Kent, Ohio, and identified ROBERT CUSICK as being Vice-President of the Kent State University CORE chapter. KENT, OHIO

CV T-10 on November 18, 1964, advised that DAVE EDWARDS, ROY INGLEE and BARBARA BROCK are members of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) at Kent, Ohio, and that they are also members of the CORE chapter at Kent. He stated that they intend to bring up, at the next CORE meeting, the need to raise funds for the Mississippi Project.

JOHN MC CANN -- CV T-7 advised on December 31, 1964, that JOHN MC CANN was formerly a member of the YSA at Kent State University, Kent, Ohio, and that he has applied for admission into the SWP at Cleveland, Ohio. An SWP meeting was held on December 27, 1964, at which MC CANN was present, and following this meeting it was agreed that those SWP members who were present would recommend MC CANN for membership in the SWP.

ROBERT CUSICK -- CV T-9 advised on June 2, 1964, that he had learned from a source, whose identity he did not wish to reveal, that ROBERT CUSICK was one of the students at Kent State University who was in the process of forming a YSA unit at that school.

ROY INGLEE -- CV T-14 advised on December 31, 1964, that ROY INGLEE, a member of the YSA at Kent, Ohio, was present at an SWP meeting held in Cleveland, Ohio, on December 17, 1964.

DAVE EDWARDS -- CV T-14 advised on December 31, 1964, that DAVE EDWARDS, a member of the YSA in Kent, Ohio, was present at an SWP meeting held December 17, 1964, in Cleveland, Ohio.

CV T-7 advised on December 31, 1964, that an SWP meeting was held in Cleveland, Ohio, on December 27, 1964, EDWARDS being present, and that following this meeting EDWARDS was recommended for membership in the SWP.

BARBARA BROCK -- CV T-10 advised on December 9, 1964, that BARBARA BROCK was at that time the Recording Secretary of the YSA at Kent, Ohio

A. COMMUNIST PARTY (CP)

No information developed.

B. WORKERS WORLD PARTY (WWP)

EDWARD MERRILL at a meeting of the Buffalo Branch WWP (BB, WWP) on September 18, 1964, delivered a report on the WWP Labor Day Conference held September 5 through 7, 1964, at New York City. MERRILL reported on a number of points made at that conference by SAM BALLAN who had spoken there in his capacity as the national chairman of the WWP. According to MERRILL, one of the points BALLAN had made was that in his view the Negro workers in the United States were becoming more radical but white workers were opposed to the Negroes. As MERRILL put it, BALLAN had maintained that the WWP must overcome the situation and bring into balance the activities of both Negro and white workers so that both will become more militant.

New York

BU T-2 in April of 1964, advised that as of that time EDWARD MERRILL was a member of the Executive Committee of the BB, WWP and a member of the National Committee of the WWP.

Buffalo Branch, Workers World Party

C. PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT (PLM)

MILTEN ROSEN was the featured speaker at a PLM meeting held on October 1, 1964, at 117 Groveland Avenue. One of the points discussed by ROSEN was the summer racial riots in Harlem. He excoriated the New York City Police for what he said was the brutal handling of these riots. ROSEN mentioned that PLM had so few forces in New York City that it could not effectively organize any activity around this racial conflict although it had set up a demonstration march on Lennox Avenue which was broken up with the arrest of WILLIAM EPTON.

Source: BU T-3

MILTON ROSEN is described in the national characterization of PLM which is in the attached appendix. BU T-3 described ROSEN as of October, 1964, as the national chairman of PLM. Progressive Labor Movement

BU T-4 in late 1961 and early 1962 advised that as of November, 1961, WILLIAM EPTON was a member of the Harlem Regional Committee of the New York State CP. He ceased to be active in the CP during the winter of 1961-1962 and became active in PLM.

WILLIAM EPTON was the PLM candidate for City Council-at-Large in the New York City 1963 election.

On November 16, 1964, an education class of PLM was held at Buffalo to discuss Chapter 5 of the book "State and Revolution" by LENIN. WALTER ZVALEKO who was present delivered a very brief report on a National Co-ordinating Conference of PLM in New York City from which he had just returned. ZVALEKO said that in preparation for the First National Convention of PLM to be held in April, 1965, the Co-ordinating Conference had submitted to PLM membership several proposals for discussion to be heard between that time and the convening of the National Convention. One of these suggested points was consideration of the question of whether or not a separate Marxist-Leninist Party composed of Negroes only might be established in the United States.

November 23, 1964

In January, 1963, BU T-15 described WALTER ZVALEKO as having been a member of the Erie County CP Board until the fall of 1961 when he participated in a factional revolt and left the CP. BU T-3 in November, 1964, described WALTER ZVALEKO as of that time as a member of the Co-ordinating Committee of PLM at Buffalo.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

AD HOC COMMITTEE FOR QUALITY EDUCATION

A small group of PIM members and WWP members at the instigation of EDWARD WOLKENSTEIN made plans to picket Buffalo City Hall during a meeting of the Buffalo Board of Education on September 2, 1964.

BU T-5
Late August and early September, 1964

BU T-5 as of the spring of 1964, described EDWARD WOLKENSTEIN as an individual who until late 1961 had been active in the CP at Buffalo and who after expulsion from the CP in late 1961 became active in the functions of the PIM. In the spring of 1964, WOLKENSTEIN had a policy disagreement with others in PIM leadership at Buffalo and withdrew from PIM at that time.

Between 10:30 AM and 10:45 AM on September 2, 1964, approximately 18 individuals were observed picketing in front of Buffalo City Hall. They carried signs claiming that the schools in Buffalo were inferior, that the schools were not integrated, and that one of the members of the Board of Education, Mrs. RICHARD SLOMINSKI, was incompetent and that she believed in racial segregation. A leaflet was distributed addressed "To the People of Buffalo" and signed "Ad Hoc Committee for Quality Education, September 2, 1964" which made the same claims as did the signs.

New York

Among those participating were BEATRICE and MAX BERMAN, DONALD and LESLIE SILBERMAN, PAUL SPORN, EDWARD WOLKENSTEIN, RITA JOHNSON, EDWARD MERRILL, MILTON NEIDENBERG, and ROBERT STERLING.

Source: Special Agent, FBI
September 2, 1964

BEATRICE BERMAN was described in July, 1963 by BU T-6 as having been an active member of the CP at Buffalo prior to January, 1962. In June, 1964, BU T-15 described her as maintaining frequent contacts with PIM individuals as of mid 1964.

BU T-6 in July, 1963, described MAX BERMAN as having been an active member of the Erie County CP prior to January, 1962. BU T-15 as of September, 1963, described MAX BERMAN as then a member of PIM at Buffalo.

From the latter part of 1961, to October, 1964, BU T-5 described DONALD and LESLIE SILBERMAN as being socially and politically close to PAUL SPORN (described below). This source advised that throughout the mentioned period, the SILBERMANs were close to a number of PIM members, that DONALD SILBERMAN had attended several PIM meetings and had expressed an interest in learning about Marxism and that LESLIE SILBERMAN had participated in a number of peace demonstrations held in the Buffalo area.

BU T-5 as of October, 1964 described PAUL SPORN as having been the Educational Director of the Erie County CP until the fall of 1961. At that time, he participated in a factional dispute with National and New York State CP leadership and left the CP. From 1961 until October, 1964, SPORN has been very active in PIM activities and as of October, 1964, is a member of the Executive Committee of PIM at Buffalo.

EDWARD WOLKENSTEIN has been described earlier in this report.

BU T-2 advised that as of July of 1964, RITA JOHNSON was a member of the BB, WWP and has been a member for many years.

EDWARD MERRILL has been described earlier in this report.

BU T-2 as of October 19, 1964, advised that MILTON NEIDENBERG was the organizer of the BB, WWP, a member of the Executive Committee of that branch, and a member of the National Committee of the WWP.

BU 100-18520

ROBERT STERLING was described by BU T-2 as of July, 1964 as an active member of the BB, WWP.

WOODLAWN JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
DEMONSTRATION, SEPTEMBER 9, 1964

A boycott and demonstration was planned in connection with the opening of the new Woodlawn Junior High School to be carried out on September 9, 1964. The principal sponsor was to be the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). The purpose of the boycott was to protect the degree of racial balance achieved concerning this school and it was planned that the boycott would continue until a more satisfactory balance was obtained.

September 3 and 4, 1964

The "Buffalo Evening News" a newspaper of general circulation at Buffalo, in its September 3, 1964 edition reported that the Buffalo School Board was making efforts within the concept of neighborhood schools to bring about a more satisfactory racial balance. This same edition reported that a boycott was planned of the Woodlawn Junior High School. The boycott would be conducted by the "Woodlawn Committee" which committee had announced that it would conduct "Freedom Schools" for those students who did not register at the Woodlawn Junior High School.

On September 3, 1964, a car registered to and operated by NORMAN ROGGOW was being driven through the Masten district of Buffalo. The car was equipped with a loud-speaker system and ROGGOW was urging the people to boycott the Woodlawn Junior High School.

BU T-6 advised that in 1962 NORMAN ROGGOW had sought to become a CP member but was not accepted at that time because he was regarded by CP leadership as a possible FBI spy. This same source as of July, 1964, described ROGGOW as closely associated with several members of the CP at Buffalo as of that time.

On September 9, 1964, a picket line of approximately 25 to 30 individuals paraded near the newly openned Woodlawn Junior High School carrying a sign protesting "de facto segregation" at this school. Most of the picketers wore CORE buttons. There were no disturbances. One of the individuals who picketed between 1:00 PM and 2:30 PM was SEYMOUR RUDNER. On September 10, 1964, no picketing or demonstrations occurred at the school.

Source: Special Agents, FBI
September 9 and 10, 1964

BU T-6 as of September, 1964, described SEYMOUR RUDNER as the Chairman of the Erie County CP. New York

On September 9, 1964, the Erie County CP held its first meeting at Buffalo since the early summer. Eight individuals were present. SEYMOUR RUDNER gave a report on the Woodlawn Junior High School boycott which had been held earlier that day and at which he, without any invitation from CORE, the sponsoring group, had joined a small group of picketers. RUDNER mentioned that he was a member of the Buffalo Chapter of CORE but after the House Committee on Un-American Activities hearings of April of 1964, at which he had been mentioned as a CP member, he had never been invited to any CORE meetings. RUDNER stated that his observation was that the Buffalo Chapter of CORE did not want any white members and had specifically excluded CP members from the organization.

September 10, 1964

As of September 10, 1964, the boycott of the Woodlawn Junior High School had been cancelled by CORE, the principal sponsor. The Buffalo Chapter of the National Association For The Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) had had no hand in the demonstration conducted on September 9, 1964.

WILLIE MAE MALLORY

New York

At a meeting of the Buffalo Branch WWP on September 25, 1964, JEANETTE MERRILL read a letter from WILLIE MAE MALLORY in which MALLORY mentioned that her appeal was coming up in October of 1964, but that she did not expect to win. Part of MALLORY's letter was devoted to the recent verdict by the New York State Grand Jury which had cleared New York City Police Officer THOMAS GILLIGAN of guilt in connection with the killing of JIMMY POWELL, a 15 year old Negro. MALLORY maintained that this verdict was criminal and that if a Negro police officer in the South had killed a white youth, that police officer would have been lynched.

JEANETTE MERRILL was described in September of 1964 by BU T-1 as an active member of the BB, WW.

BU T-8 in February, 1959, advised that on February 11, 1959, JIM MALLOY, while addressing a meeting of the Harlem Region of the CP at New York City, identified WILLIE MAE MALLORY as a CP member. (BU T-9 on March 6, 1959, advised that JIM MALLOY was the organizer of the Harlem Region of the CP.)

New York

WILLIE MAE MALLORY was found guilty of kidnapping in Supreme Court, Monroe, North Carolina, on February 27, 1964, and was sentenced to 16 to 20 years in prison. She appealed to the Supreme Court of North Carolina and in 1964 was released on bond.

On October 24, 1964, WILLIE MAE MALLORY was the feature speaker at a meeting held at WWP Headquarters at Buffalo under the announced sponsorship of the Buffalo Labor Forum. MALLORY after giving her version of the kidnapping case in which she was convicted spoke at some length in support of her belief that Negroes in the United States have no chance under the present system of Capitalism. One of the members of the audience asked MALLORY whether she felt that the Negroes might have settled their problems at Monroe, North Carolina, by peaceful means rather than using violence. MALLORY stated that the Negroes at Monroe were in a position where they had to defend themselves by any means.

October 29, 1964

BU T-1 on various occasions in 1964 advised that the name "Buffalo Labor Forum" has been used in the past by the BB, WWP to designate sponsorship of various public functions which were actually under the direction of the BB, WWP.

JESSE GRAY APPEARANCE
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER,
NEW YORK, OCTOBER 1, 1964

Some time in the summer of 1964, a student committee at the University of Rochester, Rochester, New York, decided to hold a two-day conference on the campus in the fall of 1964. The student committee in question is known as the Committee For Civil Rights and Constitutional Liberities and it has been in existence on the campus for two years. The subject matter for the fall of 1964 conference was chosen as the "Ghetto In The North." One of those invited to appear at this conference was JESSE GRAY, a New York City housing spokesman.

Source: JOSEPH COLE
Dean of Students
University of Rochester
Rochester, New York
September 25, 1964

On October 1, 1964, JESSE GRAY spoke as a panel member on the "Ghetto In The North" before approximately 200 students on the campus of the University of Rochester (U of R). GRAY's talk was concerned with Negro problems covering education, housing, and unemployment and in his talk he was highly critical of what he described as Federal interference. He made particular reference to the report recently delivered to the President of the United States by the FBI concerning racial incidents in a number of United States cities in the summer of 1964 and GRAY branded that report as untrue.

Source: BU T-10
October 1, 1964

On November 20, 1958, BU T-11 advised that JESSE GRAY had been an organizer for the Harlem Region of the CP but that this position had been terminated during November, 1958.

In January, 1964, BU T-12 advised that on January 24, 1964, WILLIAM L. PATTERSON, the Chairman of the New York District of the CP, asserted that JESSE GRAY is no longer a CP member but was friendly to the CP.

On October 1, 1964, while making the above U of R appearance, GRAY distributed the following press release, dated September 28, 1964 and issued in his name as Director of Community Council on Housing, 6 East 117th Street, New York City, New York:

"FBI WHITE WASH THE RIOTS

"With utter contempt for the suffering masses of the Ghetto and for those who were witnesses to the riots and the events that led up to them, the FBI swept under the official rug of the United States all the evidence and presented for all the world to see, a fantastic report that could only have been born out of the wild dreams of sick minds.

"In this enlightened day, the FBI painted a picture of happy, contented Negroes, all in love with the Police, being the victims of ex communist, agitators, school drop outs, young punks, common hoodlums and drunken kids.

"They would have the world believe that the Ghettoes across our country do not consist of millions of people who are fed up with poverty, rats, roaches, falling ceilings, slumlords, inadequate education, discrimination, unequal justice, treated as dirt, and yes, POLICE BRUTALITY.

"In determining the causes, they fail miserably by not recognizing that the Negro youth in the United States have no future and see nothing happening to give them hope; that there are no jobs and there will be less available for them in the future;

"that automation is requiring advance training for what jobs are left and Negro parents can not afford such training for their youth; that apprentiship training programs are still in the main closed to them; that if they do acquire advance training they never will be treated as an equal, they still have to battle all the forces of discrimination. In looking at the Negro youth, the FBI is blind. They see only criminals. They do not see the frustration, the fact that the Ghetto is denuded of cultural facilities with limited recreational activities. They do not see that there is very little to develope the minds of the youth; that most of their neighborhoods and homes are the most depressing places that any human being can be forced to live in.

"In a nut shell, the FBI looks at society only in terms of criminals, communist and ex-communist, their report reflects this and if heeded by leaders, legislatures and government, can only leed to caos, more riots and the death of a nation.

"The report white washed the murderer Lt. Gillegan by inferring, that it was justified because Powell, '...begun indiscriminate fighting as early as 7 years of age...' etc.: another example of the sick minds that compiled this report.

"They applauded the behavior of the police during the riots and go on to say that the records show very few complaints of police brutality was made in 1964; it never dawned on the FBI to check further, to recognize that Negroes stop complaining long time ago because they found it was useless. They failed to see instead of complaints, there was now riots. They put blinders over their eyes to the fact that police are using more force than is necessary to maintain the peace or to make an arrest. They turned their back to the fact that police in and out of uniform make it a habit of acting as prosecutor, jury, judge and executioner. They can not see that the true relationship of the police to the Negro community is one of arrogance and brutality, graft and corruption.

"Evidence of political interferrance and pressure appeared throughout the report. They went so far as to condemn outside civilian review boards by saying, '...police were so careful to avoid accusation of improper conduct that they were virtually paralyezed.', in those cities where such boards exist. This is a good example of the FBI's concept of democracy, for what they said was, murder by policemen, whipping heads and even lynchers are justified because the wheels of justice turn too slow. They are trying to put the stamp of approveal on the new role of the police, to take the law in their own hands and pass out judgements.

"Since they couldn't find complicity by the Communist Party they didn't know what to do so they never-the-less had to drag out the red herring. In spite of all denials, the report slanders Jesse Gray in behalf of the slumlords by referring to him as a Communist Party organizer.

"One of the most dangerous parts of the report to the Negro and to the future of the Nation was the deliberate attack on the press for airing the events of the riots. The FBI claim that the coverage by the press did no more than to bring rioters into the streets. This is a veiled attempt to shut up the press and to keep from the eyes of the nation and the world, the brutality and attrocities that are perpetrated on the Negro; to put a cloak of secrecy on all that happens in the Ghetto.

"It is common knowledge that in the south the FBI works like snails. In the Chanin, Goodman, Swerner case no murderers have been arrested to date nor a report have been made public; but in the riots, the FBI made a complete investigation in nine cities across this nation, compiled the facts and rushed out its report to coincide with the Warran Commission report, so that this rapid whitewash would be buried. To treat an important report in this manner is not new with the FBI, it is one of the most corrupt agencies of our government. Its methods have been criticized by right thinking citizens over the years.

"This report must be condemned by every forward thinking citizen for it belongs on the dung heap of history."

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL ORGANIZATIONS

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE (NAACP)

On August 21, 1964, NORMAN ROGGOW mentioned that he regularly attends NAACP meetings.

August 22, 1964

NORMAN ROGGOW has been described earlier in this report.

On October 2, 1964, the New York State NAACP Convention was in the process of convening at the Statler Hilton Hotel in Buffalo. On that day JESSE GRAY of New York City had approached the NAACP registration desk and demanded that he be seated as a delegate to the convention. The Buffalo Branch of the NAACP had been previously forewarned by means of a telegram from the national headquarters of the NAACP of GRAY's probable appearance. As a result of that telegram, GRAY, who created a disturbance at the entrance to the convention, was refused entry as a delegate.

The "Buffalo Evening News" in its issue of December 28, 1964, announced the December 27, 1964, elections of the Buffalo Branch of the NAACP, totaling 7 officers plus 27 directors. One of the directors listed in the article was RUFUS FRASIER.

New York

CHARLES REGAN of Buffalo, New York, a self-admitted member of the CP during the period 1943 through February, 1953, during which years he furnished information on CP activities at Buffalo to the FBI, in 1949 and 1950 advised that RUFUS FRASIER attended CP meetings during that two year period and the one meeting held on February 9, 1950, FRASIER was registered in the CP for 1950.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

A Negro who was attempting to purchase a home in a previously all white neighborhood was referred to BEATRICE BERMAN for assistance. BERMAN introduced the man to JOAN MOOS and subsequently to the following people who offered to help:

GERTRUDE and RICHARD ALEXANDER

JOSEPH PRANIS

ANTHONY and GLORIA MASSA

NORMAN ROGGOW

The prospective purchaser eventually bought his house without the assistance of any of those named.

BEARTICE BERMAN and NORMAN ROGGOW have been previously described.

BU T-15 ir December 1962 and March, 1963 advised that JOAN MOOS had paid dues and contributed to the Sustaining Fund of PIM. In the last mentioned month she had indicated a willingness to be assigned to a PIM group.

BU T-15 advised that GERTRUDE and RICHARD ALEXANDER were former CP members who in the fall of 1961 left the CP in a factional dispute and became active in the affairs of PIM. This same source advised that as of June of 1964, both ALEXANDERs had left PIM in another factional dispute.

In 1961, BU T-6 described JOSEPH PRANIS as a CP member as of that time.

In 1964, BU T-6 described ANTHONY and GLORIA MASSA as CP members as of that time.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 1-27-65

We have received no other information concerning such plans of the Progressive Labor Movement. The allegation that FBI informants have helped in this plan tends to discredit the information. New York Office, however, is being instructed to contact informants and sources to determine if there is any truth to the allegations. Information will be disseminated to Department and to appropriate Government agencies.

NOTE: On 1/14/65 CPUSA functionary, George Meyers, visited with Cordy T. Vivian, an official of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in Atlanta. We were aware that Meyers was traveling about the South on Party work and that [redacted] was aware of much of Meyers's activities. Hence the request for an immediate contact with informant. Tampa's reply 1/26/65 summarized informant's report on Meyers's activities in the South, but did not reveal a compliance with Bureau instruction for immediate contact with informant concerning the specific matter of the Meyers-Vivian meeting.

Synopsis: Communist influence in racial matters in Oregon 10/64 to 1/65 reported. CP members, Portland, operating through the Portland W. E. B. DuBois Club, a communist front group, plan to attack alleged discrimination against Negroes in employment and to assist in getting a Negro day care center for children as a means of extending their influence in the Negro community.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

Portland W. E. B. DuBois Club (PDC)

The PDC is described in the appendix attached hereto.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification.~~

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

1. There was no information developed concerning plans, strategy, and party line on a national level in connection with this program

2. Plans and strategy made at the local club level at Portland.

On October 28, 1964, a meeting of the PDC was held at 3552 N. Mississippi Street, Portland, where 23 persons were present, including the following members of the Portland Youth Club, Communist Party (CP) of Oregon:

DONALD LEE HAMERQUIST
SUSAN HAMERQUIST
JOE URIS
TIMOTHY WHEELER
LAWRENCE WADLEIGH

DONALD LEE HAMERQUIST spoke about alleged discrimination against Negroes at the Pacific Power and Light (PP&L) Company, an electric utility in Portland. HAMERQUIST referred to a test which PP&L job applicants take to determine their fitness for employment. HAMERQUIST informed the PDC members of his plan to interview various Negro applicants and learn what questions are used in the company test. HAMERQUIST would then compile the correct answers and inform Negroes of the answers and then pursuade them to apply at PP&L for work. He said that so far fifteen Negroes have previously applied and forty more are "on tap" to apply at the company. HAMERQUIST noted that the chairman of PP&L is the head of Oregon Futures Unlimited, the civic group which promotes movement of new industries to Oregon, and to avoid unfavorable publicity in the area of Negro rights, the PP&L executive would probably give in to PDC demands for Negro employment.

TIMOTHY WHEELER said that one can only become active and get the feel of the PDC by going out and talking to Negroes about their problems and then developing methods the PDC can use to help Negroes solve their problems. He continued that PDC members must continually contact Negroes to show that PDC members are really for them. WHEELER said that he began to go out on Saturdays and Sundays contacting Negroes in the "ghetto" area and subsequently built up much enthusiasm. He suggested that the PDC use a block map and assign each member of the group a specific block in which to contact the Negro residents.

SUSAN HAMERQUIST collaborated on a report to the group on a proposed child care center, noting that the project was slowly progressing.

The above meeting was completely dominated and controlled by CP Youth members from the Portland area.

11/1/64

DONALD LEE HAMERQUIST, as of December, 1964 was Organizational Secretary of the Oregon CP and a member of the Youth Club, Portland CP.

December, 1964

On November 23, 1964, TIMOTHY WHEELER was chairman of a PDC meeting held at 3552 North Mississippi, Portland. He spoke about alleged discrimination against Negroes at the PP&L Company. WHEELER related some of the strategy used by PDC members who have been calling on Negroes as a means of extending PDC influence in the Negro community. Specific areas in the Negro Albina Section of Portland are assigned to PDC members, who called at the various residences. If a Negro man appears at the door, the caller discusses the PDC "line" about anti-Negro discrimination in employment at PP&L. If a woman answers the door, the caller gives her the "line" about PDC efforts to establish a free day care center for children in the Negro community. According to WHEELER, so far 38 women have signed a petition for a day care center and two Negro men have agreed to apply for work at PP&L.

In addition to Mrs TIMOTHY WHEELER, the following were present at the PDC meeting:

JOYCE WHEELER (TIMOTHY's wife) and
LAWRENCE WADLEIGH (mentioned previously)

PD T-3
11/23/64

During October, 1964, JOYCE WHEELER was a member of the Youth Club CP in Portland. ore

PD T-1

PD 100-10580

On December 15, 1964, at a meeting of PDC, 3552 North Mississippi, Portland, DONALD LEE HAMERQUIST, Acting Chairman, spoke concerning a proposed child care day center for Negro children whose mothers are employed. HAMERQUIST also mentioned a summer project to keep Negro children busy and off the streets. Others present at the meeting were SUSAN HAMERQUIST and JOHN TALBOT.

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters;
Mississippi Summer Project
Racial Matters

On January 27, 1965, a source furnished an invitation of the New York Chapter of the Medical Committee For Human Rights stating the following:

"In July, 1964, at the urgent request of civil rights leaders in Mississippi, the Medical Committee for Human Rights was formed as an emergency medical service for civil rights workers in the Mississippi summer project. More than 100 volunteers from various health fields went to Mississippi to facilitate the meeting of the health needs of civil rights workers, local and visiting. The problem continues and the Medical Committee is preparing to aid the great effort for civil rights planned for this coming summer.

"In order to support the activities of the Committee and also to develop programs in regard to the health aspects of problems of inequality in their own localities, chapters have been organized in a number of cities throughout the country. A New York Chapter is in the process of organization and we urge all members of the health professions (Medicine, Dentistry, Psychology, Nursing, Social Work, and other related fields), students and graduates, to join us at an organizational meeting and symposium on:

'Civil Rights and Health---1965'

"Participants: James Forman, National Secretary, Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee

Source further advised [redacted], the FBI with its informants within the Progressive Labor Party, certainly knows of this plan. [redacted] indicated [redacted] these informants have helped plan this revolt and that J. Edgar Hoover will use them to precipitate said revolt at a moment most advantageous to his purpose.

[redacted] also advised that the Director of the FBI's purpose in this matter is to prove that United States communists advocate the violent overthrow of the established United States Government inasmuch as Progressive Labor Party members continually and openly state that they are communists, and distinction is not made and will not be made by the FBI between the Progressive Labor Party and the Communist Party, USA. MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT

Reference is made to San Francisco memorandum dated January 19, 1965.

The "San Francisco Examiner," a daily newspaper published in San Francisco, California, on January 19, 1965, contained an article indicating that San Francisco attorneys left San Francisco on January 19, 1965, and were proceeding to Mississippi. The attorneys are proceeding to the Fourth Congressional District which includes Neshoba County, Mississippi, in order to perfect a challenge to the Mississippi Congressional Delegation. Included in the group which left on January 19, 1965, are the following:

ALVIN HEIMS GOLDSTEIN, former Special Assistant to the Attorney General, Internal Security Division. b6 b7C

JACK KUCIEL BERMAN, an attorney, [redacted]

BENJAMIN BALLINGER DREYFUS, also known as Barney Dreyfus. DREYFUS was born March 9, 1910, at San Francisco. He resides at 1 Blythedale Terrace, Mill Valley, California. He is an attorney with offices at 341 Market Street, San Francisco. He is 5'10", weighs 160 pounds, medium build, light brown hair, balding, blue eyes, and fair complexion.

DREYFUS was a member of the Communist Party (CP) during 1944-1945; during 1944-1945 he attended ten meetings of the Southside Club, Professional Section, CP, San Francisco.

MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT

DREYFUS attended a meeting of the New Era Club, Professional Section, San Francisco County CP on April 21, 1949, and gave an educational talk.

SF T-2, May, 1949

[redacted] of San Francisco, testified before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) on June 19, 1957, that while he was a CP member in the Professional Section in San Francisco he knew BENJAMIN DREYFUS, an attorney, to have been a CP member during the early part of the 1940s.

b7C

A self-admitted former member of the CP on June 23, 1955, stated that he was a member of the Haymarket Club, Professional Section of the CP, from 1935-1950. BENJAMIN DREYFUS was identified as a CP member from 1942-1950.

SF T-3, June 23, 1955

On June 21, 1957, BENJAMIN DREYFUS testified that he had been a member of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) for many years. When he was asked if he was a member of the CP in San Francisco, he refused to answer and took refuge in the First and Fifth Amendments of the U. S. Constitution.

DREYFUS was National President of the NLG from 1962-1964.

[redacted] further advised that MEYERS, since his recent trip to the Southern U. S., has told informant that he did stop in Georgia on the way back North. On January 27, 1965, MEYERS said that on his return home he made a stop in Atlanta, Georgia, at the headquarters of SNCC. MEYERS commented that a man who has a desk at this headquarters and who is supposed to be a labor expert, is connected with the Progressive Labor Group. (C) (U) b7D

MEYERS said while at SNCC, he talked to a number of people about having them arrange for him to speak as a known communist but as on prior occasions, was unable to have them set up such an affair. [redacted] said that HOSEA HUDSON and [redacted], the person named '[redacted],' who came down from New York last summer and who has been identified as [redacted], had asked [redacted] to make contact with [redacted], said HUDSON and [redacted] were concerned about SERGEANT CAULFIELD because they had not heard from him. [redacted] requested [redacted] to contact CAULFIELD and to advise HOSEA HUDSON by mail the results of this contact.

[redacted] advised on 1/26/65 that [redacted] has made numerous attempts to contact SERGEANT CAULFIELD to date, with negative results.

In view of the fact that the contact by [redacted] would have no significance or meaning in connection with communist influence in racial matters without a detailed report of the activities of SERGEANT CAULFIELD in connection with voter registration in the Baton Rouge-Lettsworth area, this information is not being incorporated in a report at this time. Re Albuquerque letter dated 10/28/64.

The following is Albuquerque's report for the period November 1, 1964 through January 31, 1965:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

No information available.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

No information available.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

No information available.

All available information to the Albuquerque Office has been reviewed and there were no indications noted of any Communist influence in racial movements in the state of New Mexico during the period November 1, 1964 through January 31, 1965. The state of New Mexico is practically void of any racial problems and all action taken in connection with racial matters appears to have been on a legitimate basis.

Throughout the past few years the informants of the Albuquerque Office, as well as informants of other offices, have continuously advised that there has been no Communist Party, USA organization either on a club or state level operating in the state of New Mexico since the late 1950's.

Albuquerque informants and potential security informants have been alerted to immediately report to this office any and all information coming to their attention concerning the possible influence by Communists in the racial movement in the state of New Mexico.

Title:
COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis: The "Boston Herald" on 10/27/64, carried an article concerning NOEL DAY and identified him as a leader in Boston Negro Community who was running as an Independent for Congress. In this article it was mentioned that on 9/24-26/64, DAY had shared a platform in Boston with CLIFTON DE BERRY, the Socialist Workers Party Presidential candidate. When asked why he allowed himself on a platform with DE BERRY, DAY stated, "Because I believe in the First Amendment and because, as a civil libertarian, I oppose any inhibition of the right to speak". Informants advised: On 11/8/64, at a meeting of the District Committee, CP, USA, New England District, at Chelsea, Mass., EDWARD TEIXEIRA gave a report on the local elections and said the campaign was concentrated around NOEL DAY; on 11/22/64, in speaking at Dorchester, Mass., GUS HALL praised the freedom workers of Mississippi; and on 11/19/64, it was reported that the YSA of Boston, had established a civil rights committee to attend meetings of groups interested in racial equality.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

a. Communist Party, U.S.A. (CP, USA)

On October 11, 1964, a meeting of the Boston Jewish People's Forum (BJPF) was held at the Town and Country Club, Dorchester (Boston), Massachusetts. The speaker was to have been JAMES E. JACKSON, a Negro who is editor of "The Worker".

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

It was announced by the moderator that JACKSON was ill, and the speaker in his place would be MIKE DAVIDOW, a contributor to "The Worker". The topic of DAVIDOW's talk was "The Goldwater Candidacy and Where the Liberal Stands". During his talk he made an appeal to all progressives and liberals and those "left of center" to work night and day to defeat GOLDWATER.

During his talk DAVIDOW claimed he had interviewed people involved in the Public School 149 (P.S. 149), New York "white boycott" and his conclusionswas that GOLDWATER, paying heed to the political polls of GALLUP and others, was in desperation trying to foment as a nationwide GOLDWATER campaign policy, a series of race riots to incite a "white backlash". DAVIDOW paid a glowing tribute to the colored people involved in P.S. 149 "and other such incidents" for their tremendous restraint in refusing to accept this ultra-right GOLDWATER bait of desparation.

Among those present at this meeting were EDWARD TEIXEIRA, ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON, and LEWIS MARTIN JOHNSON.

(BS T-1, October 14, 1964)

"The Worker," an East Coast communist newspaper, in its issue of September 27, 1964, on its masthead identified JAMES E. JACKSON as the editor of that paper, and MIKE DAVIDOW as being on its editorial staff.

MASS
N.Y.

EDWARD TEIXEIRA, ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON, and LEWIS MARTIN JOHNSON are all members of the District Committee (DC), CP, USA, New England District.

ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON serves as Treasurer of the DC, and EDWARD TEIXEIRA serves as Chairman, Youth Organization.

(BS T-2, September 28, 1964)

EDWARD TEIXEIRA is considered to be a member of the CP National Negro Commission because of his attendance at the National Negro Commission meetings held in Chicago, Illinois, on February 22-23, 1964, and on May 16-17, 1964.

(BS T-3, July 28, 1964)

A characterization of the BJPF is contained in the appendix hereto.

A meeting of the DC, CP, USA, New England District, was held on November 8, 1964, at Chelsea, Massachusetts. Among those in attendance were ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON, EDWARD TEIXEIRA, LEWIS M. JOHNSON, CHARLES R. PIPER, ELSIE PIPER, and OTIS HOOD.

ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON brought up the matter of the scheduled hearing by the Subversive Activities Control Board (SACB). She stated that OTIS HOOD, EDWARD TEIXEIRA, LEWIS M. JOHNSON, and herself were being called before the SACB and the hearings had been set for November 16, 1964, although it was possible it would be held at a later date.

At this meeting TEIXEIRA gave a report on the local election. He said that a great deal of time had been spent in an effort to get people to vote. He further stated that the campaign was concentrated around NOEL DAY, a Negro who had run against U. S. Representative JOHN McCORMACK. According to TEIXEIRA, throughout his campaign DAY was able to bring out issues concerning peace and civil rights.

OTIS HOOD is a member of the DC, CP, USA, New England District, and serves as Chairman.

(BS T-2, September 28, 1964)

On the morning of November 22, 1964, a meeting of the BJPF was held at the Town and Country Club, Dorchester, Massachusetts, with about 250 people being present. Among those there were ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON, LEWIS JOHNSON, OTIS HOOD, EDWARD TEIXEIRA, and HOMER CHASE. The speaker on this occasion was GUS HALL who was introduced by the Chairman as a spokesman of the American CP. HALL, during his talk, discussed the recent national election and said that the American voters demonstrated they wanted peace. HALL stated that the Negroes have gained many political seats at the national and state levels and that most gains made by the Negroes were in the State of Michigan.

During his talk, HALL praised Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING and civil liberties groups for their attacks on J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

At the meeting, during the question-and-answer period, HOMER CHASE got up and interrupted HALL. CHASE stated that KHRUSHCHEV was a traitor to socialism and that President JOHNSON actually, with the aid of TRUMAN, wants war. HALL continued by shouting that China really wants peace and is overcoming all obstacles to maintain peace.

In reply, HALL said that he had had some past experience with HOMER CHASE and that he was surprised at his conduct. HALL said that there is complete harmony in the leadership of the Soviet Union and Moscow will always be accepted as the center of all socialist countries. HALL further said that the Peoples Republic of China and other socialist countries will soon come to a complete agreement. HALL further stated that the socialists are gaining and are overcoming many obstacles in capitalist countries.

During this meeting, ANNE BURLAK TIMPSON appealed for support and financial aid to defeat the McCarran Act. She said a hearing was to be held at the Federal Building, Boston, for four Party members whom the Government wanted to register as Party members under the McCarran Act. She identified the four as being LEWIS MARTIN JOHNSON, OTIS HOOD, EDWARD TEIXEIRA, and herself. She asked all who could possibly do so to attend the hearing.

GUS HALL is General Secretary of the CP, USA, October 14, 1964.

(BS T-5, October 14, 1964)

HOMER BATES CHASE was expelled from the CP for continued factionalism at a meeting of the District Committee held on January 14, 1962, at Sharon, Massachusetts.

(BS T-2, January 24, 1962)

On the afternoon of November 22,1964, GUS HALL met with members of the CP, USA, New England District, and friends at Dorchester, Massachusetts. Among those present, in addition to GUS HALL, were LEWIS MARTIN JOHNSON, OTIS HOOD, EDWARD TEIXEIRA, and GEORGE MYERS. HALL discussed the McCarran Act and said that top-level law makers had admitted that it cannot be enforced. During his talk, HALL also praised the freedom workers of Mississippi in their efforts to register Negro voters. HALL further stated that if the defeat of GOLDWATER was not so important to the CP the Party would have had a national candidate for President and that he was honored by being the one selected.

(BS T-4, December 3, 1964)

At the above meeting held on November 22, 1964, during the afternoon when GUS HALL met with friends and CP members, HALL spoke in length on the removal of KHRUSHCHEV as the leader of the Soviet Union. HALL said that when KHRUSHCHEV asked to resign, the leadership took him up on it.

At this meeting, EDWARD TEIXEIRA gave a report on the elections in Massachusetts, including the contest of NOEL DAY, who ran against Congressman McCORMACK.

GEORGE MYERS who was present at this meeting and came with HALL and who had been working for the CP in the South, also gave a talk. MYERS spoke on his work in the South and said that he had found people there who were opposed to BARRY GOLDWATER and the ultra right. MYERS mentioned how he had talked to a minister in the South who had read the CP literature and also literature put out by the ultra right. The minister had told MYERS that the literature put out by the CP was very good, and the literature put out by the ultra right was just trash.

([redacted] , December 3, 1964) b6 b7C b7D

GEORGE MYERS was elected to the National Committee of the CP, USA, at its 17th National Convention, held December 10-13, 1959.

(BS T-8, December 13, 1959)

b. Other Communist Groups

1. SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (SWP)

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

"The Militant," a weekly newspaper of the SWP, in its issue of October 5, 1964, carried an article entitled, "DeBerry Boston-Area Tour Reaches Students, Negroes". The article, datelined September 26, 1964, at Boston, reported that CLIFTON DE BERRY, the SWP nominee for President of the United States, had just completed a three-day campaign tour of the Boston area. According to the article, DE BERRY, the first Negro ever nominated by a political party for President, had on September 24, shared the platform with NOEL DAY, Independent Negro candidate for Congress, at a public meeting sponsored by Youth for DE BERRY and SHAW and N.O.W. NOW (Negroes Organized to Work NOW), a Negro nationalist group. This meeting on September 24, was attended by 100 people, plus representatives of press, radio, and television assembled in the Tremont Street Methodist Church in Boston's South End "ghetto" to hear DE BERRY and DAY.

The article mentioned that DAY declared during his talk that the Negro people are worse off today than ten years ago. He said that in the context of high unemployment among Negroes, "All the Civil Rights Bill offers is equal opportunity for unemployment".

Concerning the path the Negro movement must take to be successful, DAY said: We can no longer hope that moral appeals are going to lead to a change of heart. Only as we become political as the freedom movement becomes politically sophisticated is there any chance of breaking through and creating a new society."

The article further mentioned that DE BERRY during his talk on the 24th concentrated his attack on the Democrats, and he commented, "If they have not enforced the constitutional amendments that are 100 years old or the Supreme Court ruling that is ten years old. I can't believe they're going to enforce the bill of 1964."

The September 14, 1964 issue of "The Militant" identified EDWARD SHAW as being the Vice Presidential Candidate of the SWP.

In addition to appearances at the Tremont Street Methodist Church, CLIFTON DE BERRY in his visit to the Boston area also spoke at MIT on September 24, 1964, to a group of 40 students and at a N.O.W. NOW Bazaar held on September 25, 1964, to a group of approximately 50 individuals; he appeared on a television interview-type program on September 25, 1964, and held a press conference on September 26, 1964. All the appearances by DE BERRY were arranged for by members of the SWP, Boston, and the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) of Boston.

(BS T-6, October 11, 1964)

A characterization of the SWP, Boston; the YSA; and the YSA, Boston, is contained in the appendix hereto.

"The Militant" of October 12, 1964, carried an article entitled, "SWP in Mass. Criticizes Day for Endorsement of Johnson," together with a picture of NOEL DAY. This article mentioned that the SWP of Massachusetts which is supporting Independent Negro candidate NOEL DAY in his race for Congress explained its differences with DAY over support to JOHNSON.

According to the article, DAY is running against Democratic incumbent JOHN W. McCORMACK in the Ninth Congressional District. The article went on to say that DAY had recently made a statement supporting JOHNSON, and this is in direct contradiction to the meaning of his campaign as an action independent of, and opposed to, the two capitalist parties.

The article mentioned that in his statement, DAY had said that more riots by both Negroes and whites will occur in Northern cities if Senator GOLDWATER is elected in November. However, on July 19, DAY charged that JOHNSON's policy in Mississippi would increase violence.

The "Boston Herald," a daily newspaper published at Boston, Massachusetts, on October 27, 1964, carried an article entitled, "Boston's Noel Day Runs the Hard Way". This article reads as follows:

"Of course, he's running just for exercise.

"But if he weren't, Noel Day could be characterized as a man who's trying to go to Congress the hard way.

"En Route to the Guillotine

"Day, an Independent, and Jack Molesworth, a Republican, are en route to the guillotine at the hands of House Speaker John McCormack in the Ninth Congressional District.

"Molesworth is a far-right type. Day claims to abhor extremism, but in the name of freedom of speech he has associated recently with figures even farther to the left.

"On Sept. 24 and 26, he shared a platform in Boston with Clifton De Berry, the Socialist Workers' Party's Presidential candidate. The SWP is on the U. S. Attorney General's list of subversive organizations.

"Day, a leader in Boston's Negro community, an organizer of two successful school boycotts, and director of the church-sponsored St. Mark's Social Center in Roxbury, was photographed in the Tremont Street Methodist Church on Sept. 24, listening - apparently rather glumly - to De Berry making a speech.

"Shortly afterward, the photographer's automobile was broken into. Day, a Dartmouth graduate, a social worker and an untiring fighter for what he believes, knew nothing about it and was shocked to learn of it.

"Good Analysis

"Two nights later Day listened again to De Berry, at an Afro-American Bazaar in the same church, and he said De Berry gave a good analysis of black nationalism.

"'I suspect,' he said, 'that his views are oriented in Mao-ism.'

"Why, he was asked, did he allow himself on a platform with such an obviously politically dangerous companion?

"'Because I believe in the First Amendment and because, as a civil libertarian, I oppose any inhibition of the right to speak,' he said.

"Lapsing into the pontifical idiom of the successful politician, Day said that 'we' made it clear, when talking from the forum with De Berry, that 'we' neither indorsed him nor sought his indorsement, simply that the right of free speech was being defended.

"'I went on principle,' he said. 'Nothing more.'

"Bid Indorsed

"The SWP in its organ, 'The Militant,' indorsed Day's Congressional bid on Aug. 10, the same issue in which De Berry was demanding that the United States move out of Southeast Asia.

"'While the SWP does not agree with a number of Day's views,' it said, mercifully perhaps for the Boston man, 'it urges all in his district to vote for him. A vote for Day is a vote against the system if inequality and segregation maintained by the Democrats and Republicans.'

"Asked if he welcomed or rejected the indorsement of the allegedly subversive organization, Day said he welcomed it.

"'I welcome any indorsement,' he said. 'I didn't seek it, however. I'd like the AFL and CIO to indorse me.' He added that he did not lump them with the SWP.

MASS.

"Day, in the minds of Greater Boston community leaders one of the more responsible members of the Negro leadership here, has been under the sheltering wing of Canon James Breeden, a college friend. He admits the possibility that his other associations would injure him politically.

"'We had to decide that if one believed in civil liberties, one mustn't compromise,' Day said.

"Among Day's recent appearances has been one at the home of Edward Teixeira, where 11 far-left persons attended a party. Teixeira has been ordered by the Justice Department to register as an agent of the Communist Party in New England.

"On Aug. 29 'Challenge, The Revolutionary Weekly,' an organ of New York's Progressive Labor Movement, announced that Day would speak at a Harlem Defense Council Rally at the Hotel Theresa to defend the civil rights of black people and that the rally also would serve as 'a call to the people of Harlem to come to the defense of Bill Epton, Harlem PLM leader accused by the state of criminal anarchy.'

"Eptpn is a self-proclaimed Communist indicted Aug. 5 for advocating the overthrow of the New York State government (a sentiment many Democrats might share). But Epton went a little further; he called publicly for the assassination of policemen and judges.

"The grand jury that indicted him heard these words, spoken originally at a rally:

> "'The cops have declared war on the people of Harlem...every time they kill one of us, we'll kill one of them.'

"Then he urged the creation of a new state. It was hardly worse than may have been heard in Winthrop square from time to time in the heat of a campaign, but it failed to please the jury, when coupled with his background.

"Best Defense

"Day never made the rally, he said, although he intended to. 'I was asked if I would defend Epton's right of free speech,' he said, 'and I was willing to do so. I don't know the man at all. All I know about him is what I've read in the papers. I opposed the House un-American Commission and the Senate Internal Security sub-committee. I opposed the House un-American Activities Commission and the Senate Internal Security sub-committee. I believe the best defense of freedom is the exercise of it.'

"But Gordon Hall, author, lecturer and anti-extremist, brought another viewpoint to them:

"'For a man whose campaign literature says he's anti-extremist, many of his quoted statements are extreme,' Hall said. 'When he appears with De Berry, this literature seems very questionable.

"'Since the forces Day represents are anxious to liberate themselves from the far right, with which I have no quarrel, should they not avoid a double standard? If the Goldwater people feel the need to cleanse themselves of John Birch Society ties, isn't it just as important for the people campaigning as liberals to cleanse themselves of Communist ties?'"

A characterization of the Progressive Labor Movement is contained in the appendix hereto.

"The Militant" in its issue of October 12, 1964, reported JAMES SHABAZZ, associate of MALCOLM X in the Organization of Afro-American Unity, was scheduled to be the first speaker at a series of regular Friday night forums to begin October 16, 1964. His subject was to be "The Black Revolt in America" and the meeting was to be held at the new Militant Labor Forum, Room 307, 295 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts, at 8 p.m. with a contribution of 75 cents requested. The article continued that this new Friday night forum series was to be the only public forum in the Boston area for discussion of socialist and other left-wing political views.

A characterization of the Organization of Afro-American Unity is contained in the appendix hereto.

The above Friday night forum featuring JAMES SHABAZZ was sponsored by the SWP under the name Militant Labor Forum and was held at the SWP, Boston Headquarters, Room 307 of the Gainsboro Building. Approximately 90 individuals attended, and a 75 cents admission was charged.

Among the points made by SHABAZZ during his talk were the following:

1. Schools in America teach the superiority of the white race.

2. The American Negro can't vote and is not represented in the Federal, State, or local Government.

3. Negroes should be armed and ready to defend themselves.

4. Most of the present civil rights leaders are tools of the white government.

(BS T-6, October 21, 1964)

On November 24, 1964, a meeting of the SWP, Boston, was held at 295 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. At this meeting it was reported that one SWP, Boston member and one YSA, Boston member had joined the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and that one other YSA member would be joining.

(BS T-6, November 27, 1964)

2. YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (YSA)

"The Militant," in its edition of September 14, 1964, carried an article captioned, "Young Socialists in Vigorous Campaign". This article in part mentions that in addition to concentrating their efforts in support of the campaign of CLIFTON DE BERRY and EDWARD SHAW, the 1964 Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates of the SWP, on the campuses, the YSA people have been active in reaching Negro ghettos with the SWP program. The article further reported that one of the YSA activities during the summer had been the sale of "Militants" in the ghettos in Boston. As mentioned previously in this report, "The Militant" of October 5, 1964, carried an article entitled, "DeBerry Boston-Area Tour Reaches Students, Negroes". This article reported that DE BERRY had just completed a three-day campaign tour of the Boston area.

As mentioned previously in this report, all appearances by CLIFTON DE BERRY in the Boston area were arranged for by the SWP, Boston, and YSA, Boston.

(BS T-6, October 11, 1964)

The YSA of Boston has established a "Civil Rights Committee" within the group, and it is the purpose of the members of this committee to attend meetings of CORE and other groups interested in racial equality in order to keep the YSA and SWP informed about the plans, tendencies, strength, and weaknesses of these groups. The YSA of Boston members will further attempt to draw out any militant members from these groups who evidence interest in the YSA or SWP.

(BS T-6, November 19, 1964)

MASS

On November 21, 1964, a meeting of the YSA, Boston, was held at 295 Huntington Avenue, Boston. At this meeting DAVE SAPERSTAN delivered a "Civil Rights Report". During this report SAPERSTAN mentioned that he and one other YSA comrade had joined CORE and that other members of the YSA will be joining if necessary. He also reported that he and other comrades had been attending N.O.W. NOW meetings. He stated that he has seen members of the Progressive Labor Movement at N.O.W. NOW meetings and that he had also seen members of the Progressive Labor Movement present at CORE meetings.

SAPERSTAN further reported that at N.O.W. NOW Meetings which he had attended, proposals had been made to dump garbage and rats on the lawn of City Hall and in front of the Mayor's and the Governor's house. This would be a demonstration to show the wretched condition existing in Roxbury (Boston), Massachusetts. SAPERSTAN further reported that at a CORE meeting a more refined version of these proposals had come up, but CORE merely took it under advisement. No evidence was offered to show that this situation had gone beyond the talking stages in N.O.W. NOW or CORE.

At a meeting of the SWP, Boston, held on September 16, 1964, DAVID SAPERSTAN was among those elected to the new Executive Committee of that club.

3. NEW ENGLAND PARTY OF LABOR

The "Boston Globe," a daily newspaper published at Boston on December 22, 1964, carried an article entitled, "Pro-Peking Party Rises up to Lure Negro Support".

This article in part mentioned as follows:

"A secret pro-Communist China group has been launched in Boston to compete with Russian sympathizers in the New England Communist Party for Negro support.

"Formation of the 'New England Labor Party,' based on Marxist-Leninist violence, was announced in the last issue of 'Hammer and Steel' edited by Homer Chase, a 48-year-old white lumber yard worker."

"In an interview in his Dorchester apartment, CHASE said that he had returned from a week's visit to Albania last summer filled with enthusiasm for the ideology championed by

"Sino-Albanian leaders over Soviet preachings of peaceful co-existance with the West.

"Chase, who learned Communist tactics from his father, the late Fred B. Chase, secretary of the Communist Party in Massachusetts, and his mother Elba, one-time Communist candidate for governor in New Hampshire, says he flew to the Albanian capital of Tirana on a regular Alitalia flight from Rome.

"Chase refused to discuss the question of Chinese or Albanian money being funneled to the New England Labor Party other than to say he would see nothing wrong with foreign financial aid if it were available.

"The entire November issue of 'Hammer and Steel,' is devoted to a report 'recently delivered in New England' and 'unanimously adopted by those present,' officially establishing the party. Chase declined to say where the meeting was held or who attended.

"Chase said, 'The aim of every Marxist-Leninist is the victory of a proletarian dictatorship through struggle.'

"Chase added, 'For the Negroes to obtain their rights they must immediately organize self-defense with arms. Violence is always justified -- in fact, necessary.'"

The article in the "Boston Globe" further mentioned that Federal investigators have kept CHASE under surveillance ever since last summer's race riots in Harlem and Philadelphia when copies of "Hammer and Steel" were found at the scene.

They are also investigating his connection with a pro-Peking group known as the Revolutionary Action Movement which has been allegedly distributing from its Boston headquarters an English-language magazine called "Revolution". Printed in Paris, the magazine gave blueprints last spring for the type of racial violence which later erupted in several Northern cities. It was further mentioned in the article that CHASE feels that the New England Party of Labor could form a united front with MALCOLM X.

Although the Party does not agree with him on the Muslim religion being a prerequisite for the Negro struggle, it believes that Afro-Americans can unite against the white members of the Communist Party and other civil rights groups.

The November, 1964 newsletter of "Hammer and Steel," P. O. Box 101, Mattapan Station, Boston, in part reads as follows:

> ....."The people need an organization which will tell the U. S. working class that alliance with Johnson and U. S. imperialism is partnership with paper tigers headed for an inferno. Our class needs a Party which will stand for the dictatorship of the proletariat in the U.S. - a Party which leads the struggles of the workers and tells the truth about their real allies-the Socialist camp and national liberation movement. Our working class needs a Party which will lead the Afro-American liberation movement to state power in the South and to autonomous rights--their own leaders bargaining for jobs and education--in the cities of the North and West. These are steps which will unite black and white workers. Our class needs a Pary which will uphold Marxism-Leninism, which will expose and defeat the futile betrayals of revisionists and the labor lieutenants of capitalism.
> "In New England the C.P. has abandoned even the pretense of leading class struggle. The leadership is only seen passing out Democratic Party propaganda or appealing for funds to protect themselves against the very Democrats they endorse.
> ....."We believe that Socialism in the U.S. can only be achieved by struggle against the policies of our own U.S. imperialism at home and abroad. We do not believe this can be achieved without sacrifice, without hard theoretical and organizational work.

"With confidence in the people of the U.S. we organize a Marxist-Leninist Party to defeat and smash capitalist dictatorship and establish a dictatorship of the working class, a Socialist U.S.A.

"Our Marxist-Leninist Party will be built on the basis of three main efforts:

"(1) A policy of class struggle in the labor movement.

"(2) Victory for the Afro-American liberation movement.

"(3) The withdrawal of all U.S. armed forces from the Congo, Viet-Nam and Cuba.

"We hereby establish the NEW ENGLAND PARTY OF LABOR."

A characterization of the Revolutionary Action Movement and the Nation of Islam, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, is contained in the appendix hereto.

No information developed.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

a. CORE

As previously mentioned in this report, the YSA of Boston has established a "Civil Rights Committee" within the group and it is the purpose of the members of this committee to attend meetings of CORE and other groups interested in racial equality to keep the YSA and SWP informed about the plans, tendencies, strength, and weaknesses of these groups.

(BS T-6, November 19, 1964)

On November 21, 1964, a meeting of the YSA, Boston, was held at 295 Huntington Avenue, Boston, as previously mentioned in this report.

During this meeting DAVE SAPERSTAN delivered a "Civil Rights Report". SAPERSTAN reported that he and one other YSA comrade had joined CORE and that other YSAers would be joining if necessary. SAPERSTAN further reported that he and other comrades have been attending N.O.W. NOW meetings.

(BS T-7, December 21, 1964)

On November 24, 1964, a meeting of the SWP, Boston, was held at 295 Huntington Avenue, Boston, as previously mentioned in this report. At this meeting it was reported that one SWP member and one YSA member had joined CORE and that one other YSA member would be joining.

ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN UNITY (OAAU)

On June 28, 1964, MALCOLM X LITTLE, founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI), publicly announced the formation of a new, all Negro, militant civil rights action group to be known as the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), with himself as Chairman. This announcement was made at a public rally held by the MMI in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street, New York City.

A printed and published statement of basic OAAU aims read by MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that it shall include "all" people of African descent in the Western Hemisphere, as well as "our" brothers and sisters on the African continent. It is patterned after the "letter and spirit" of the Organization of African Unity established (by African heads of States) at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May, 1963.

A recording of the remarks of MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that the aim of the OAAU is to eliminate differences between Negroes so they can work together for "human rights," while the initial objective is to "internationalize" the American civil rights movement by taking it to the United Nations. LITTLE condemned the non-violent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes of education, politics, culture, economics and social reform.

On August 19, 1964, a confidential source advised that the headquarters of the OAAU are located in MMI headquarters, Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 7th Avenue, New York City.

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM)

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto," the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of RAM.

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the winter of 1963, by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, now residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto reflected that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding WILLIAMS, above, it should be noted that on August 28, 1961, a Federal warrant was issued at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging him with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the Crime of Kidnapping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, WILLIAMS fled the United States to Cuba, where he now publishes a monthly newsletter entitled "The Crusader," from Havana.

On November 16, 1964, a second source advised that he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization was begun in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of DON FREEMAN, Cleveland, Ohio, described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as RAM's "Black Stalin". FREEMAN now serves as RAM Chairman, with MAXWELL STANFORD, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, serving RAM as Field Chairman. This second source advised that there is no formal headquarters, as such, for RAM at present, but that headquarters are, in effect, with FREEMAN since he plays a dominant role in the leadership and directs the policies and activities of the organization.

This second source, in September, 1964, advised that RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World," that is, the non-white races of the world, rather than to any national entity, as such.

To date, according to the second source, in November, 1964, RAM has organized units and membership in several of the larger cities in the United States east of the Mississippi River, and the organization is currently active, attempting to recruit new members and expand its sphere of influence.

MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT

The "San Francisco Chronicle," a daily newspaper published in San Francisco, California, on January 14, 1965, reported that San Francisco Bay area lawyers were bound for Mississippi. The article set forth that a group of lawyers, including two San Francisco Supervisors (Councilmen), announced plans to go to Mississippi next week to assist in the taking of depositions to support the challenge against Mississippi's five Congressmen. The two Supervisors are GEORGE MOSCONE and TERRY FRANCOIS. Included in this group is EDWARD STERN, member of the Advisory Council of San Francisco's Human Rights Commission. The above three were the spokesmen for the group at a press conference. The group is due to arrive in Mississippi next Wednesday, January 20, 1965, to join lawyers from other parts of the country.

The press conference brought out that Federal Court subpoenaes are now being issued to both friendly and unfriendly witnesses. The lawyers will question witnesses about alleged irregularities and discrimination against Negroes in voting procedures, upon which the Congressional challenge is based, and submit their final depositions to the Clerk of the House of Representatives by a February 12, 1965, deadline.

MOSCONE and FRANCOIS are taking part of their Supervisors vacation period for the trip and plan to return in time for the Supervisors meeting on January 25, 1965. Others are planning to stay longer.

MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT

Among the unfriendly witnesses being subpoenaed, STERN said, are Governor PAUL JOHNSON and Attorney General JOSEPH T. PATTERSON.

MOSCONE said the deposition taking is being organized by the Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee, a bi-partisan nation-wide organization which came into being within the last two years. The lawyers expect little, if any, cooperation from the Mississippi Bar Association or local officials, and expect a great deal of difficulty in finding court reporters which are trying to be recruited locally.

The "San Francisco Examiner," a daily San Francisco newspaper, on January 14, 1965, reported STERN as saying that the evidence was gathered by the out-of-state lawyers who were acting on behalf of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party.

The following attorneys were included by name in the "San Francisco Chronicle" article:

EDWARD S. ARDZROONI, who has offices [redacted] b6 b7C

WILLIAM THORNTON BELCHER, JR.

BELCHER is a white male American. He was born August 7, 1920, Portland, Oregon. He is an attorney with offices at 360 - 22nd Street, Oakland, California, and resides at 6827 Ridgewood Drive, Oakland.

> SF T-1 has reported that during the early part of 1946, BELCHER attended meetings of the Seamen's Branch, San Francisco County Communist Party (CP) which were held at 1402 Powell Street, San Francisco.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT

In 1946, a highly confidential source reported that BELCHER signed a petition asking President TRUMAN to stop sending airplanes and military weapons to CHIANG Kai-shek and to bring our servicemen home from China.

SF T-2 in January, 1944, identified BELCHER as a contributor to the CP.

SF T-3 on June 28, 1947, reported that during 1947, BELCHER was a subscriber to the "Daily People's World" (DPW).

The DPW, which is now known as the "People's World" (PW), is a West Coast communist newspaper published in San Francisco.

SF T-4 has reported that BELCHER's wife, [redacted], was [redacted] to the fact her husband, WILLIAM, was attending law school.

There has been no reported CP activity on the part of WILLIAM BELCHER since passing his California Bar Examination in 1950.

b7C

JOHN ALDEN DOTY, who resides at 431 - 38th Avenue, San Francisco, and was born in 1936.

DOUGLAS P. FERGUSON, with offices [redacted]

TERRY FRANCOIS, a Negro male, born August 28, 1921, New Orleans, Louisiana. He attended Xavier College, New Orleans, from 1936 to 1940; he attended Atlanta University in Georgia from 1940 to 1942. He graduated from Hastings Law College, San Francisco. He has been a practicing attorney since 1949. FRANCOIS has served as President of the San Francisco Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) for two terms and is currently a Supervisor for the City and County of San Francisco.

In December, 1952, he was described by a law associate as one who was not a communist sympathizer, but an individual who is interested in lessening the burden of Negroes. No CP or related activities have been reported.

FRANCOIS has been arrested on two occasions for violations of law in connection with racial demonstrations. He was arrested on September 14, 1963, for obstructing a place of business, which charge was dismissed on October 9, 1963, in Municipal Court, San Francisco.

FRANCOIS was again arrested on March 1, 1964, for contempt of court--willful disobedience of a court order. This arrest grew out of a demonstration at the Sheraton Palace Hotel, San Francisco. The hotel obtained a court order limiting the number of pickets. When an attempt was made to enforce this order the pickets went limp on the sidewalk and were arrested. On April 3, 1964, charges were dismissed in Municipal Court, San Francisco, based on the Judge's finding that the arrest was based on a faulty court order.

FRANCOIS has acted as one of the attorneys during the trials of 766 demonstrators who were arrested in San Francisco during 1963 and 1964.

JOSEPH RAYMOND GRODIN, an attorney with offices [redacted] b6 b7C

SF T-5 advised on May 22, 1949, that GRODIN was one of a delegation of approximately 125 students from the University of California, Berkeley, California, who went to the State Capital, Sacramento, California, on that date to protest the Tenney Bill on Education, which called for teaching personnel in public schools to sign loyalty oaths.

On the weekend of February 5-6, 1955, GRODIN spoke at a conference in London, England, to discuss what the Taft-Hartley Act meant for the American labor movement. At one point in the discussion GRODIN said there is no doubt that many employers who profess a profound interest in trade union democracy are more interested in getting militant members out of the union under the cloak of "red hysteria." (London "Daily Worker" issue of February 7, 1955.)

The London "Daily Worker" is a British communist newspaper.

GRODIN was [redacted] b6 b7C

HARRY J. LOHSTROH.

JAMES T. MC DONALD, identified in the "San Francisco News Call-Bulletin," a daily newspaper published in San Francisco, on November 7, 1963, as an attorney who was recently elected President of the Catholic Interracial Council of the San Francisco Archdiocese.

GEORGE R. MOSCONE, attorney with offices at 220 Bush Street, San Francisco. He resides at 1239 - 42nd Avenue, San Francisco. He is a Supervisor (City Councilman) for the City and County of San Francisco.

ROBERT W. PLATH.

Records of the San Francisco Police Department, Their No. 161678, set forth that ROBERT W. PLATH, 1135 Monterey Boulevard, San Francisco, was arrested February 22, 1960, for violation Section 148, California Penal Code (resisting an officer-interferring). On March 9, 1960, this charge was dismissed in Municipal Court, San Francisco. These records disclose that PLATH was born June 2, 1926, is 5'9-1/2", weighs 173 pounds, and has blond hair. His occupation was set forth as an attorney.

MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT

WARREN H. SALTZMAN, born August 18, 1925, San Francisco. He attended the University of California, Berkeley, and received his legal education at Yale University (LLB, 1952). SALTZMAN was a teaching fellow at Stanford University School of Law 1952-1953. He is a member of the San Francisco Bar Association, State Bar Association, and American Bar Association. He is a partner in the law firm of Littler, Mendelson, and Saltzman, with offices at 593 Market Street, San Francisco.

HENRY FAXON SAUNDERS, who resides at 1375 Chestnut Street, Redding, California, and is an attorney with offices at 1440 West, Redding, California. SAUNDERS was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI at Stockton, California, on July 22, 1957. He stated that he first became a CP member in the Fall of 1948 at the University of North Carolina. He was a member of the CP at the University of Wisconsin in 1949. He also admitted being a member of the CP at the University of Texas from 1950-1951, and a member of the CP at Berkeley, California, from 1953 to the Spring of 1957.

On January 15, 1965, SAUNDERS' law partner disclosed that SAUNDERS was then in a hospital in Sacramento, California, with "back trouble." SAUNDERS' partner was dubious of his, SAUNDERS, prospects of making the trip to Mississippi.

NATHAN S. SMITH, born [redacted]. He is associated with the law firm [redacted] b6 b7C

EDWARD STERN, white male American, born December 27, 1920, New York, New York. He is self employed as an attorney with offices at 690 Market Street, San Francisco. In the June 30, 1964, issue of the "National Lawyers Guild News Letter," STERN was identified as a member of the San Francisco Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) who was participating with a panel of sixty lawyers in some forty trials of 1,000 defendants arrested in civil rights demonstrations.

A characterization of the NLG is contained in the appendix.

Synopsis: The Gary, Indiana, Chapter NAACP picketed Gary Works Credit Union during November, 1964, in protest of discriminatory hiring practices. Certain officers and members of this NAACP Chapter are Party members or have a CP background; however, none are known to have participated in the above picketing. Individuals with CP background attended "Mass Civil Rights Rally" held 11/24/64 in Gary, at which time the "Gary Freedom Movement Council" was formed in protest of the defeat of the Civil Rights Bill by Gary City Council. A former Party member is one of the leaders of this newly formed Council. Two former Party members in Gary arranged for the sale of a home in an all-white neighborhood in Gary to a Negro family. According to informants, none of the above events were under Communist direction. Party members and former members participated on an individual basis but not as representatives of the Party. ~~C~~ (U)

A. NAACP PICKET DEMONSTRATION, GARY WORKS CREDIT UNION OFFICES, U. S. STEEL CORPORATION, GARY, INDIANA

Ind National Association for the Advancement of Colored People

CURTIS STRONG, Vice-President and spokesman for the Gary Chapter of the NAACP, Gary, Indiana, in a radio broadcast announcement over Station WWCA, Gary, Indiana, on November 10, 1964, announced that approximately 40 Negroes began picketing the Gary Works Credit Union building, U. S. Steel Corporation, in Gary on November 9, 1964, to protest alleged discriminatory hiring practices by the Gary Works Credit Union. STRONG stated the Gary Chapter, NAACP, was sponsoring this protest action. During the above radio announcement, STRONG stated that the NAACP picketing would continue daily until the alleged hiring practices were halted. He stated pickets had been instructed to inform Negro members of the four Gary Steel Works Credit Unions that none of the offices have any full-time Negro employees or elected officers whereas Negroes make up the majority of the Credit Union shareholders. U

Chief of Detectives EDWARD BARSLEY, Gary, Indiana, Police Department, advised November 24, 1964, that the above-described picketing was discontinued on November 23, 1964, at which time the NAACP forwarded formal complaints to the Director of the Gary Fair U

Employment Practices Commission and also to the Director of the Indiana State Civil Rights Commission. Chief BARSLEY advised there was no violence, disorder, or disruption in connection with the NAACP picketing. U

Confidential informant IP T-1 advised on May 3, 1963, and confidential informant IP T-2 on May 31, 1955, that CURTIS STRONG had been closely associated with CP members in Gary, Indiana, in connection with his union activities; however, he is not known to either informant to have ever been a CP member. C (U)

Confidential informant IP T-5 advised on November 27, 1964, that although certain CP members in Gary, Indiana, are also members of the Gary Chapter of the NAACP, none of these members are known to have participated in the above picketing activities. C (U)

B. GARY FREEDOM MOVEMENT COUNCIL

The November 25, 1964, issue of the "Gary Post-Tribune," a daily newspaper published in Gary, Indiana, contained an article reflecting that the "Gary Freedom Movement Council" was founded at a "Mass Civil Rights Rally" held on November 24, 1964, in Gary. According to this article, this rally was attended by approximately 500 Negroes, including leaders working in the field of civil rights in the City of Gary, Indiana. The rally had been advertised as a "call to action by all Negroes in Gary until full rights are secured" and was held primarily for the purpose of informing the people in Gary of their disapproval of the defeat of the "omnibus civil rights bill" by the Gary City Council by a vote of five to four on November 13, 1964. U

The above newspaper article continued that Reverend JULIUS JAMES, Pastor of the St. John the Baptist Church of Gary, was selected as Chairman of the newly formed "Gary Freedom Movement Council" and listed as one of the leaders of this Council ARTHUR DARONATSY. U

Ind.

In September, 1959, IP T-5 described ARTHUR DARONATSY, a Gary, Indiana, attorney, as a member of the CP in Gary, Indiana, at that time. C (U)

JOSEPH EDMUND LaFLEUR, [redacted], an active Party member in Gary from 1943 to 1951 and a functionary in the Party during 1944-1945, advised that ARTHUR DARONATSY was named Chairman of the Citizens Committee of the CP in Lake County, Indiana, June 19, 1947, and in August, 1947, was coordinator for the Party in Lake County. (U)

IP T-1 advised on November 27, 1964, that the following individuals were observed present at the mass rally held in Gary November 24, 1964; however, none were observed to have actively participated in the affair: JOSEPH LANDY, BURTON WECHSLER, ARTHUR DARONATSY (supra), and JAMES BALANOFF, JR. (U)

Confidential informant IP T-8 advised on November 1, 1953, that JOSEPH LANDY was a CP member in the late 1930's and had been expelled from the Party in about 1942 for embezzling funds from the International Workers Order (IWO) and was reinstated in the CP about 1951. (U)

Ind; Ill.

The International Workers Order has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Confidential informant IP T-7 advised on October 26, 1956, that JOSEPH LANDY was considered a CP member in Lake County, Indiana, and had attended a meeting of the Community Division composed of Party leaders from Illinois and Indiana CP Districts held October 25, 1956, in Chicago, Illinois. LANDY attended this affair as a representative of the Indiana CP. (S) (U)

Confidential informant IP T-3 advised on February 20, 1953, that BURTON WECHSLER, as of that date, was considered the attorney for the CP in Lake County, Indiana. (U)

Ind.

Confidential informant IP T-4 advised in July, 1961, that Mr. and Mrs. BURTON WECHSLER (U) were affiliated with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). (U)

A characterization of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee is set forth on the appendix pages of this report. U

IP T-5 advised in February, 1959, that JAMES BALANOFF, JR., was Chairman of the Inland Steel CP Club, Inland Steel Corporation, East Chicago, Indiana, during the years 1956, 1957, and 1958 and was Chairman of meetings of the combined CP Steel Clubs in Lake County, Indiana, during 1957. BALANOFF was considered a CP member by IP T-5 as of June, 1958; however, BALANOFF reportedly discontinued his Party activities to concentrate on union matters during the year 1958 following House Committee on Un-American Activities hearings held in Gary during February of that year. (U)

Chief of Detectives EDWARD R. BARSLEY, Gary, Indiana, Police Department, advised on November 25, 1964, that the Gary Freedom Movement Council, formed November 24, 1964, as one of its projects called for an economic boycott of stores and businesses in the City of Gary to protest the defeat of the "omnibus civil rights bill" by the Gary City Council on November 13, 1964. In addition, other public demonstrations would be sponsored by this Council in an effort to bring about passage of a civil rights bill in Gary, Indiana. According to Chief BARSLEY, the November 24, 1964, rally was peaceful and orderly, and no incidents of violence or disorder occurred. U

On November 25, 1964, Chief BARSLEY stated that on that date a picket demonstration sponsored by the "Gary Freedom Movement Council" took place in front of the Gary National Bank and two of its Gary branches. Pickets carried placards protesting the defeat of the civil rights bill by the Gary City Council and also calling for the resignation of an official of the Gary National Bank who is also a member of the Gary City Council and who had voted against the passage of the omnibus civil rights bill. Chief BARSLEY advised that none of the pickets participating in the above demonstration are known to him to have any present or past history of CP activity. Chief BARSLEY commented that the pickets urged Negroes in Gary to U withdraw their funds on deposit from the Gary National Bank. In addition, the City of Gary was also urged to withdraw city funds on deposit with this bank. U

Chief BARSLEY advised on December 9, 1964, that the Gary Freedom Movement Council, in calling for an economic boycott of business establishments in Gary, has been disseminating literature throughout Gary explaining that if the people of Gary refrained from shopping at the major Gary stores, merchants will bring pressure upon the Gary City Council to pass a civil rights ordinance. U

The January 17, 1965, issue of the "Gary Post-Tribune" contained an article entitled "Step Up Pressure for Civil Rights Bill" which set out that Negroes in Gary during the Christmas shopping period and subsequently thereto have been effectively boycotting leading Gary stores and that pickets have been carrying signs in downtown Gary urging passage of a civil rights bill and urging an end to discriminatory hiring practices. U

Chief BARSLEY advised on January 18, 1965, that the above picketing in the Gary shopping area is being sponsored by the "Gary Freedom Movement Council," and to date no incidents have resulted. He stated that the Council anticipates that, through use of the Negro boycott, merchants will bring pressure on the Gary City Council to bring about passage of a Gary civil rights bill. U

Chief BARSLEY continued that he has observed no individuals with a history of CP activity participating in any of the above-described activities. U

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. GARY CHAPTER, NAACP

IP T-1 advised on November 27, 1964, that the Gary Chapter of the NAACP has approximately 1,000 members. IP T-1 advised that JEANNETTE STRONG, wife of CURTIS STRONG, (characterized under Section II of this report), is President of the Gary NAACP Chapter. CURTIS STRONG, a Vice-President of this Chapter, is considered spokesman for the NAACP in Gary. IP T-1 advised that BURTON WECHSLER (characterized under Section II in this report) is also a Vice-President of the Gary Chapter, NAACP. (U)

End

IP T-1 and IP T-5 advised on November 27, 1964, that JESSE REESE and ART ADAMS, both known to these informants as current Party members in Gary, Indiana, are also members of the Gary Chapter, NAACP; however, hold no official positions. (U)

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People

IP T-1 and IP T-5 advised on November 27, 1964, that, to their knowledge, the CP exerts no influence over the Gary Chapter, NAACP, and no instructions have been issued by the State CP leadership with reference to infiltration of the NAACP in Gary. (U)

The above was confirmed by confidential informant IP T-6 on December 28, 1964. (U)

B. GARY FREEDOM MOVEMENT COUNCIL

Chief of Detectives EDWARD BARSLEY, Gary, Indiana, Police Department, advised on December 9, 1964, that the Gary Freedom Movement Council was founded at a mass rally held in Gary November 24, 1964. This organization was founded for the purpose of protesting the defeat of the "omnibus civil rights bill" by the City Council of Gary November 13, 1964. U

Chief BARSLEY stated this organization has its headquarters at 1920 Broadway Street, Gary, Indiana, and its Chairman is Reverend JULIUS JAMES, Pastor of the St. John the Baptist Church of Gary. The controling committee of this Council is composed of ten individuals, among which is attorney ARTHUR DARONATSY, who is characterized under Section II of this report. U

IP T-1 and IP T-5 advised in January, 1965, that, to their knowledge, the CP in Gary, Indiana, exerts no control over the Gary Freedom Movement Council. These informants advised that individual Party members and persons with a history of Party activity are in complete sympathy with the aims and purposes of the organization; but, with the exception of ARTHUR DARONATSY, none hold any official position and in no way have influence or control over the organizational policies or projects being promoted by this organization in the Gary, Indiana, area. Chief of Police CONWAY C. MULLINS, Gary, Indiana, Police Department, advised on December 16, 1964, that [redacted], owners of a residential home in [redacted], an all-white area, have sold their home to a Negro family of Gary. Chief MULLINS advised that this sale had been engineered through the legal efforts of Gary attorneys ARTHUR DARONATSY and FRED C. STERN. [redacted] according to Chief MULLINS, [redacted] EDWARD and CLARA ROBBIN, formerly of Gary, who moved to California in 1962. (U)

Chief MULLINS advised that the move of the Negro family into the all-white area of Gary had created a tense and potentially explosive situation; however, as of December 31, 1964, no violence or disorder had occurred. (U)

IP T-1 advised that during a meeting of the Lake County, Indiana, Committee of the CP held in March, 1959, in East Chicago, Indiana, a leading member of this committee mentioned that EDWARD ROBBIN was a leader of a "middle class professional CP group in Lake County, Indiana." (U)

Confidential informant IP T-9 advised in September, 1955, that CLARA ROBBIN, wife of ED ROBBIN, was a dues-paying member of the CP in Lake County, Indiana, up until September, 1954. (U)

ARTHUR DARONATSY was characterized in Section II of this report. (U)

IP T-5 advised on March 25, 1963, that FRED STERN was considered a CP member in Gary, Indiana, from the mid-1950's until about January, 1961, at which time he disassociated himself from active participation in Party affairs due primarily to the lack of organized Party activity in that area. During the period from approximately 1955 to January, 1961, FRED STERN was an active member and considered a Party leader in the Youngstown Sheet and Tube CP Club in Gary. (U)

Re O-1 Form, 1/19/65.

On 9/4/64, [redacted] furnished information that on 9/3/64, there was a meeting sponsored by the Student Committee for Travel to Cuba (SCTC). It was reported that [redacted] were stationed at the door to the hall and it was determined that they were there to keep out troublemakers. An individual by the name of [redacted] (ph) was also with [redacted]. According to the source, one of the students at the meeting was overheard to remark that [redacted] had done a good job of organization in connection with one of the recent riots in the New York City area.

On 9/17/64, the same source, [redacted] identified photographs of an individual who introduced himself as [redacted] at the meeting sponsored by the SCTC on 9/3/64. This individual was apparently well known to the students in attendance. He was described as follows:

It was determined at this time that [redacted] was the individual present at the meeting on 9/3/64, and made the remark about [redacted] had done a good job of organizing in connection with a recent riot in New York City area.

On 9/2/64, [redacted], who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that an individual introduced to him as [redacted] (ph) was introduced to him at a meeting of the Student Committee for Travel to Cuba in New York City, on 9/1/64, and that it was mentioned that [redacted] would be in charge of the defense guard at an SCTC rally on 9/3/64.

On 1/28/65, [redacted], BSS, NYCPD, advised SA JAMES D. BRODY that the records of BSS contain no information concerning [redacted]

[redacted] advised that BSS had learned from a confidential source who was close to the Progressive Labor Movement)(PLM) that [redacted]

[redacted] stated that BSS possesses no information which would indicate that [redacted], or any of the other individuals whose names he was asked to check in this regard took part in the Harlem riots of last summer.

b7C

Extreme care should be given to the manner in which the information from BSS is reported in order not to reveal the identity of the BSS source.

The foregoing information indicates that [redacted] was associated to some extent with PLM during September, 1964, and was possibly associated with the Student Committee for Travel to Cuba during this same period. The Bureau's attention is directed to the possibility that [redacted] might be identical with the subject, [redacted].

In regard to [redacted], the New York Office, through its sources, has not been able to establish that this person was involved in the Harlem rioting. An investigation of [redacted], SM-C, is continuing in the New York Office in order to identify this individual. Any information developed indicating that [redacted] participated in the riots will be reported to the Bureau immediately under the CIRM caption.

Re: New Haven letter to Bureau, 1/15/65; New York letter to Bureau, 1/18/65; and Bureau airtel to New Haven, 1/19/65.

Referenced letter dated 1/15/65, on page one, paragraph four, pointed out that AL (LNU) informed MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. on 11/26/64, that he (AL) had just written an article for KING which "had gone all over the world." In the lead set forth for New York, on page 5, referenced letter dated 1/15/65 requested that an attempt be made to determine whether ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN could be the individual referred to as AL (LNU) who was to write an article regarding KING.

Phraseology utilized in the leads for New York, mentioned above, is in error and New Haven has been in receipt of no information to the effect that AL was to write an article regarding KING.

During its attempt to ascertain whether or not ALLARD KENNETH LOWENSTEIN is identical with AL (LNU), mentioned above, New Haven has developed the following information:

CONN.

LOWENSTEIN graduated from Yale Law School, New Haven, during 1954 and during 1958 was employed as Foreign Policy Assistant to then U.S. Senator HUBERT H. HUMPHREY. As of 7/12/57, LOWENSTEIN resided at 25 West 81st Street, New York City, and he was employed as Assistant Dean of Men, Stanford University, Palo Alto, California, during 1962. As of 12/24/62, LOWENSTEIN was employed as Assistant Professor, North Carolina State College, Raleigh, North Carolina, and he resigned on 7/1/64.

As set forth in New Haven letter to Bureau, 1/15/65, LOWENSTEIN was at Yale University for a period of six weeks until early January, 1965, in order to complete a novel. He apparently departed New Haven immediately prior to 1/8/65, in order to travel, either to Los Angeles or Hollywood, California. This trip reportedly was in connection with the production of a motion picture regarding the book recently written by him.

A review of current telephone directories for Stamford, Darien, Greenwich and Old Greenwich, Connecticut, all of which communities are in the Stamford, Connecticut area, revealed that only two families with the surname of LOWENSTEIN reside in that area. The Greenwich, Connecticut telephone directory reveals that [redacted] resides at [redacted] and has assigned telephone number [redacted] has assigned telephone number [redacted].

As of 1/25/65, records of the Southern New England Telephone Company, George Street, New Haven, reveal that Connecticut telephone number [redacted] was disconnected on 9/4/64. A review of toll calls made from telephone number [redacted] reveals that none were made during November, 1964 from the latter number.

From the above, it would appear that LOWENSTEIN has spent little time in Connecticut following his graduation from Yale University Law School during 1954. In view of this, it is believed that identification of any articles written by LOWENSTEIN, particularly for MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., would be extremely difficult for the New Haven Office.

INTRODUCTION

The following is being set forth by way of background:

"A survey made by the Washington State Board Against Discrimination disclosed that 1.3% of the state employees were Negroes. This is just under the 1.7% ratio they had in the general population in the 1960 census. There were 48,738 Negroes in the state's population of 2.8 million. Among the 19,500 state employees were 251 Negroes, 62 Indians, and 105 other non-whites, according to the above survey.

"Seattle Times"

An article datelined at New York setting forth a survey of the United States Census Bureau, made at the request of the National Urban League, stated, in part, "one of the few encouraging sets of statistics in the 1960 census was the number and percentage of Negro families in the middle class defined as families earning more than $6,000 annually. Englewood, New Jersey, led the country with 45% of its Negro families in this category. Englewood was followed by Seattle with 44%...

"Another set of statistics concerned the percentage of school dropouts among Negroes 25 years of age and over. The figures ranged from 54% in Denver and Seattle to 88% in Muskegon, Michigan."

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, USA (CP)

1. Plans and Strategy on National Level

A meeting of the members of both clubs of the King County Youth Club of CP (KCYC of CP) was held at 5226-11th Avenue

Northeast, Seattle, on December 29, 1964. The agenda for this meeting consisted primarily of a report from J. C. BURDICK, KCYC of CP member, on his attendance at a National Party conference. Several proposals were made for CP youth work, among which were the following: WCSH,

> CP youth must support the Freedom Democratic Party (FDP) through local political activities;
> CP youth should make plans as to what each CP youth member can and should do during the summer of 1965. Among the four general types of activities suggested was that CP youth should go to the South and participate in projects similar to the Mississippi Summer Project (MSP).

BURDICK advised that other problems considered at this conference which concerned Party youth included the following:

> There is inconsistency among CP youth in that many "float" from one organization to another. CP youth must approach civil rights matters on a more mature basis and they must develop a proper base with individuals in order to influence the latter.
> CP youth must utilize literature. It was pointed out that for the reason of security it is difficult to show the deeds of the CP by using literature, particularly in the South since it is so difficult to have "left consciousness" in the South.
> There is a great need to appeal to the Negro youth groups, such as the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).
> It was pointed out that CP members of the Negro race find it difficult to work in mass organizations and also to maintain their contacts in the civil rights movement. The CP feels that too often CP members of the Negro race are taken away from the Negro community work for other mass activities.

SE T-1 (12/31/64)

2. CP Plans and Strategy at District and Lower Levels

A meeting of the State Board, Northwest District CP (NWDCP) was held in Seattle on November 7, 1964. MILFORD SUTHERLAND acted as Chairman for this meeting and made most of the reports. SUTHERLAND called for support to the nation-wide struggle in the South and the anti-poverty program. He also mentioned that there is a necessity for overturn of the power structure in the South and for support to the FDP.

He concluded the State Board meeting by stating that a meeting would have to be held in the immediate future to hear MARY SUTHERLAND give a report on her recent activities in the State of Mississippi.

SE T-2 (11/64)

MILFORD SUTHERLAND continues to occupy the position, on a full-time and salaried basis, of District Organizational Secretary, NWDCP.

SE T-3 (1/5/65)

MARY SUTHERLAND, wife of MILFORD SUTHERLAND, was identified by source as District Youth Director, NWDCP.

SE T-1 (12/64)

MARY SUTHERLAND was identified by source as a member of the NWDCP District Committee.

SE T-5 (1/65)

A combined meeting of the Longshore and East Madison CP Clubs was held in Seattle on November 12, 1964. VIVIAN GEORGE gave a District Committee report which dealt with the Freedom schools in the South. VIVIAN GEORGE reported that MARGE RADER and MARY SUTHERLAND had spent considerable time in the South working in the cause of the Freedom schools. GEORGE said that the Freedom schools have undertaken 32 projects which will be extended to cover the entire South in Operation Black Belt. GEORGE quoted MARY SUTHERLAND as saying that the Negro struggle in the South is changing from a bourgeoise revolution to a real working class revolution.

SE T-4 (12/2/64)

VIVIAN GEORGE was identified by source as a member of the CP in Seattle, Washington.

SE T-1 (7/64)

MARJORIE (MARGE) RADER is a member of the CP in Tacoma, Washington.

SE T-6 (7/64)

A joint meeting of clubs of the KCYC of CP was held at 3962 Evanston Avenue North, Seattle, on November 16, 1964. KAE NORTON, a member of the NWDCP of CP, announced that she considered it vitally important that both clubs participate with other CP clubs to pressure legislators into not recognizing the "Dixiecrat delegation" in congress when it convened in January. She said that a District Committee meeting would be held on November 21, 1964, following which all of the clubs would be told how they would function in this matter. NORTON pointed out that benefits could be derived from a congress having no "Dixiecrat" members.

SE T-1 (11/19/64)

A meeting of the South Central CP Section Committee was held November 16, 1964, near Kennydale, Washington. JOSEPHINE HUGHES, Section Organizational Secretary, read several points dealing with the work of the Party in the state in coming months as follows:

...support FDP and Project Black Belt";

Extend anti-poverty program.

SE T-7 (11/30/64)

A Southwest Washington CP Section Committee meeting was held December 13, 1964, near Winlock, Washington. CRAWFORD JONES, Section Organizer, called for support to the Mississippi Freedom Democrats. He stated there was a plan at the national level in congress to either unseat or strip the regular Mississippi Democrats of their control by seniority.

FRED GABOURY, member of the Olympia CP Club, stated that Centralia Junior College would have a fifty-minute assembly for all students to listen to a speech by MARGE RADER of Tacoma, Washington, or another speaker on the topic of the Negro civil rights movement in Mississippi. MILFORD SUTHERLAND asked that communists in the Democratic Party find ways of discussing the new civil rights law and the class struggle with other Democrats.

SE T-5 (12/28/64)

A meeting of the Des Moines CP Club was held at 801 South 219th Avenue, Des Moines, Washington, on December 14, 1964, at which time it was stated that out of the sum of $24.12 which had been collected, $12.12 was to go to the CP fund drive, and the rest would be sent South to further the civil rights movement of the youth.

SE T-8 (12/27/64)

An article in the "Seattle Times" stated that MIKE RUBICZ, [redacted] a former Mississippi civil rights worker, was heading a Seattle organization, the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), which was seeking 10,000 signatures in Washington State on petitions challenging the seating of the Mississippi Congressional delegation.

b6

"Seattle Times"
12/29/64

The SDS is an officially recognized student organization on the campus of the University of Washington, Seattle, Washington.

MIKE RUBICZ was identified by the source as a member of the KCYC of CP.

SE T-1 (9/64)

Source advised that MIKE RUBICZ was not the head of SDS and that the above-described activity regarding the petitions was instigated by RUBICZ himself and not by leaders of SDS.

SE T-1 (12/30/64)

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

Mississippi Summer Project (MSP)

Source advised that MARY SUTHERLAND and MARGE RADER, Tacoma CP members, had returned from their travels in Mississippi. Source was advised that SUTHERLAND and RADER took many pictures during their visit in Mississippi.

SE T-9 (11/4/64)

At a meeting of the Olympia CP Club held at Olympia, Washington, on November 6, 1964, FRED GABOURY reported on work being done by the Thurston County Friends of the Mississippi Project. He stated that MARGE RADER would speak on November 12, 1964.

SE T-5 (11/13/64)

Source advised that MARGE RADER had appeared on closed-circuit television through the Pierce County (Washington) School System reporting on Mississippi. It was stated showings were also being arranged in Aberdeen and Hoquiam, Washington, for a later date.

Source advised MARGE RADER and MARY SUTHERLAND recently returned from a trip to the South, during which time they had engaged in activity on behalf of the Mississippi Summer Project.

Source quoted MARY SUTHERLAND as stating that they were arranging appearances and speaking engagements "all over town" (Tacoma) to tell the Mississippi story. MARY SUTHERLAND also stated that she receives numerous calls from the Negro people they worked with in Mississippi.

SE T-9 (11/18/64)

At a meeting of the Olympia CP Club held November 22, 1964, FRED GABOURY reported MARGE RADER spoke at a church meeting on November 12, 1964. This was included in GABOURY's report on the Olympia Club's civil rights work.

SE T-5 (12/2/64)

A joint meeting of the clubs of the KCYC was held at 3962 Evanston Avenue North, Seattle, on November 16, 1964. MIKE RUBICZ, a club member, gave a report on his recent participation as a part of the MSP. He described conditions in Mississippi during his stay there and the persons with whom he worked.

RUBICZ said he felt very strongly that there should be more communists working in Mississippi and that the CP literature should be sent there. He acknowledged that the presence of the CP could be felt in the way that projects were organized and the things that were emphasized. It was stated that there was probably a great deal more CP influence in the MSP and throughout the South in civil rights activities than is generally assumed.

J. C. BURDICK, a club member, said that he had been given similar information by a person of considerable authority and that members of the club had h eretofore not been made aware of this fact because of the need for security. He stated that he had not been told of the extent of this influence nor the individuals involved.

Following the discussion, club members agreed that a better program or approach should be used by CP members towards the civil rights movement; however, no agreement was reached at this meeting as to the type of such approach. A decision was made to entertain further discussions of this matter at future meetings of the separate clubs.

Wash.

On November 30, 1964, the Thurston County Friends of the Mississippi Summer Project met at a coffee shop in Olympia, Washington. Members of the Olympia CP Club who attended this meeting were HORTENSE ALLISON and FRED GABOURY.

SE T-5 (12/8/64)

A CP fund-raising affair, open to non-CP members, was held on December 13, 1964, at 801 South 219th, Des Moines, Washington. MARY SUTHERLAND spoke on her trip with MARGE RADER and MIKE RUBICZ to Mississippi. She exhibited slides showing conditions in Mississippi. SUTHERLAND said they worked to help people register for voting. She said that they were once pursued by the police at Gulfport until they reached the Negro section. MARY SUTHERLAND said that she had spoken only at the Friends meeting in Tacoma. When asked if she spoke for other groups or intended to speak for other organizations, she said she thought it better that MARGE RADER and MIKE RUBICZ should speak for they represented the youth.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) Seattle Chapter

Source furnished a CORE news letter and pledge card relating to the current CORE DEEDS (Drive for Equal Employment Opportunity in Downtown Seattle). Source advised VIVIAN GEORGE distributed the DEEDS pledge card and CAL HARRIS said he had a hand in composing the card.

Source identified CALVIN HARRIS as a member of the CP in Seattle, Washington.

SE T-4 (10/9/63)

Source advised CAL HARRIS had been observed on some of the CORE picket lines downtown, particularly around Ernst Hardware.

SE T-11 (11/18/64)

The following officers of the Seattle Chapter, CORE, were elected on November 10, 1964:

Chairman	WALTER HUNDLEY
Vice Chairman	JOHN CORNETHAN
Secretary	ERNESTINE ROGERS
Assistant Secretary	DONNA MATSON
Treasurer	MILDRED ELLIOTT

The above officers have no connection with the CP, and the Seattle Chapter, CORE, continues to oppose any attempt by the CP to influence their activities.

Former members

B. National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) Wash.

Source advised that ELMER KISTLER and IRENE HULL were at one time members of the NAACP but no longer are affiliated. Source stated that EARL and VIVIAN GEORGE were still active in the NAACP, and that EARL GEORGE proudly displays a NAACP membership button on his coat lapel. Source advised PAUL EMERSON had been dropped from membership and his name taken off the mailing list of the NAACP. HENRY VILLAVASO was stated to have been a member of the NAACP at one time but it was not known whether he is still affiliated. Wash, Former member NAACP.

SE T-11 (10/27/64)

On January 26-27, 1965, ELMER CHARLES KISTLER was afforded a hearing before the Subversive Activities Control Board (SACB) in Seattle, Washington, for failure to comply with the membership provisions of the Internal Security Act of 1950. Testimony was given at this hearing by government witnesses indicating that KISTLER was a member and officer of the NWDCP in 1962, 1963, and 1964. The SACB has not yet issued its order as a result of this hearing.

Source identified IRENE BATES HULL as Educational and Literature Director of the West Madison CP Branch, Seattle, in August, 1946.

SE T-12 (8/46)

At a meeting of the Central Branch, Seattle CP, held on May 6, 1949, HELEN BATES HULL was expelled from the CP.

b6

Frank Morris's

On December 16, 1964, Mr. FRANK L. MORRIS, Tacoma, Washington, contacted the Tacoma Resident Agency of the FBI to draw attention to an article in the "Tacoma News Tribune" of December 15, 1964. In this article JACK TANNER, NAACP official, was quoted as stating that communists have been trying to take over NAACP branches across the country, and that at the NAACP meeting of December 14, 1964, he had been successful in thwarting an attempted take-over of the Tacoma Branch of the NAACP by suspending the election and designating as President, the past President, WILLIAM MUSE. Mr. MORRIS stated there was an inference in Mr. TANNER's remarks that he, MORRIS, was a communist and that he planned to issue a press release stating his position and would appeal to the National NAACP for an immediate investigation of the matter.

Source advised that the individuals whose names appeared on a letter in support of the candidacy of FRANK MORRIS are in no way connected with the CP, to the knowledge of the source. The individuals shown on this letter were NAACP members: BERTIE M. EDWARDS, JOHN B. CHAPMAN, MABEL ROBERTS, and CYRIL EDWARDS.

SE T-6 (12/15/64)

The "Tacoma News Tribune" of December 17, 1964, contained an article in which FRANK L. MORRIS, above, is quoted as stating, in part, "In a desperate effort to keep control of the local chapter of the NAACP, Mr. TANNER is attempting to label anybody who opposes his personal power and methods as a communist..... Neither the national association nor the local chapter is in any danger of being taken over by communists."

"Tacoma News Tribune"

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

A meeting of the Olympia CP club was held at Olympia, Washington on November 6, 1964. BOB PLAJA, club member, asked to be excused from the meeting so he could attend an Indian affair in Tacoma, Washington. It was stated JANET McCLOUD had called him by phone and asked for his help. He was excused from the meeting since Indian affairs has been made his assignment.

Discussion was held at the meeting regarding support to the Indians who were criticized due to endorsement by JANET McCLOUD and her husband, DON McCLOUD, of a Republican candidate for the State Legislature.

SE T-5 (11/13/64)

Source advised VIVIAN GEORGE had been criticized by PAUL EMERSON due to the fact that she will write for Negro community newspapers, "The Facts" and the "Observer," but would not write for the PW. EMERSON expressed the opinion that VIVIAN and EARL GEORGE were more interested in the social end of some of the political and civil rights organizations than the purely political side.

SE T-11 (12/1/64)

A meeting of the Olympia CP Club was held at Olympia, Washington, on November 22, 1964. BOB PLAJA reported on Indian affairs stating that frankly, he was disgusted with them. He said they wanted to do things their own way only, and when they wanted help, they did not cooperate. The following comments of FRED GABOURY regarding the Indians were noted:

(1) They are not united;

(2) They fight among the different tribes;

(3) They are anti-white man;

(4) DON McCLOUD makes $10,000 per year fishing while JANET McCLOUD stresses their poverty.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK

A source of this office advised on January 28, 1965, that San Jose attorneys JOHN THORNE, RALPH J. STEINBERG, BOB TENNANT and SOL ZELTZER are presently in Mississippi taking depositions from Negroes who allege they were denied voting rights in the November 1964 national election.

The source said SOL ZELTZER has been active for several years in San Jose civil rights activities. He is president of the San Jose Chapter of the American Jewish Congress and a member of the Congress of Racial Equality.

The source learned that BOB TENNANT has just passed the bar and has not yet begun practicing law. TENNANT told friends that he had borrowed enough money to make the trip to Mississippi.

The source advised that RALPH J. STEINBERG, [redacted] maintains a law office at [redacted].

A second source advised that JOHN THORNE, [redacted], was registered as an active member of the National Lawyers Guild in December 1949.

A third source advised on September 17, 1963, that on September 1, 1963, a partial list of sponsors for the National Committee to Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities set forth that one of the sponsors was JOHN E. THORNE, a San Jose, California, attorney.

b7C

Records of the Municipal Court for the City and County of San Francisco set forth that JOHN THORNE was the attorney for thirteen civil rights demonstrators who had taken part in the automobile row sit-in demonstration on April 11, 1964. On July 3, 1964, Municipal Judge ROBERT J. DREW sentenced the thirteen civil rights demonstrators, who had been found guilty by a jury for trespassing, unlawful assembly and refusal to disperse. After dismissing the jury Judge DREW ordered defense attorney JOHN THORNE before the bench and sentenced him to pay a $200 fine or serve ten days in jail for two counts of contempt of court. The judge said THORNE had left the court room without permission early in the trial and had been talking about racial violence in Birmingham while questioning jurors. THORNE was described as an attorney from San Jose, California.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK

A fourth source advised on February 27, 1962, that as of 1946, NORMAN HOWARD was a member of the Mike Quinn Club of the Communist Party (CP) of Los Angeles, California.

A fifth source advised on February 16, 1953, that NORMAN HOWARD, then a member of the CP for at least six years, was beingtransferred from the Los Angeles County CP to the San Francisco, California, Legal Group of the CP in 1953. In the Los Angeles County CP, he had been active in Section Leadership.

A sixth source advised on May 14, 1953, that NORMAN HOWARD was being transferred from the Los Angeles County CP to the CP of Northern California. He complained to the Party that security of his job as attorney for [redacted] had been jeopardized as a result of contact by a CP member under conditions not insuring security.

A seventh source advised on October 18, 1954, that HOWARD attended meetings of the Employment Discussion Club, a CP conceived and controlled organization brought together to influence members of right-wing labor unions and to promote the CP line through open political activities in one of the two major political parties. b6 b7C

An eighth source advised on June 24, 1959, that at a CP meeting in Santa Clara County, California, held June 11, 1959, CP members discussed obtaining a "People's World" (PW) contribution from HOWARD.

The PW is a West Coast Communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco.

Files of the Passport Office, U.S. Department of State, were reviewed on January 9, 1963, and disclosed that [redacted]

According to the first source, ALISTER MC ALISTER was recently elected president of the 25th Assembly District Democratic Council at San Jose. He resides at 1283 Mace Drive, San Jose.

The first source advised that TED LASKIN is an attorney employed in the San Jose City Attorney's Office.

The files of the Credit Bureau of Santa Clara Valley, as checked on January 28, 1965, contained no unsatisfactory information relative to the seven attorneys mentioned above.

The files of the San Jose Police Department contained no arrest records, on January 28, 1965, identifiable with the seven attorneys.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, USA

A Communist Party (CP) leader in St. Louis expressed surprise after learning that three leading figures in the Party are not members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). He stated that as soon as the local CP starts a new over-all program, currently in the planning stage, this matter must be taken up.

(SL T-1 December 1, 1964)

During early November, 1964, HERSHEL J. WALKER, Chairman of the Missouri District CP, stated that more CP members must become active in mass organizations with the goal of "moving the masses". He said such individuals must expect to be under "mild attack", but the Party will put up a fight to protect them. He further asserted that CP members who occupy positions of leadership and also have a leading role in "mass work" should be relieved of all CP responsibility, including attendance at meetings.

WALKER went on to say that it is particularly important that effort should be accelerated to get CP members more active in the NAACP.

(SL T-2 January 12, 1965)

In November, 1964, the CP in St. Louis received a request from the National CP Office requesting an election report concerning the general elections which were held that month. The National CP organization wanted to know what part Negro organizations played in registering voters. It appears that this information from St. Louis and other parts of the country will be used by the National Office to help form new policies and programs.

B. Other Communist Groups

1. Socialist Workers Party (SWP)

RICHARD H. CLARKE has continued to visit headquarters of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) in St. Louis to contact members and leave copies of "The Militant". He hopes thereby to attract individuals to the St. Louis Branch SWP. CLARKE is Organizer of the branch. (U)

(SL T-3 February 2, 1965)

"The Militant" is an East Coast publication of the SWP.

The St. Louis Branch SWP and the SWP are characterized in the attached appendix.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. Re Mississippi Congressmen

In early January, 1965, HERSHEL J. WALKER assembled a group of five CP members and requested that they visit various Negro churches in St. Louis and get signers to a petition. The petition protested the seating of five United States Congressmen from the State of Mississippi scheduled for January 4, 1965, on the grounds that since Negroes have not been allowed to vote, their elections were unconstitutional. WALKER asserted that he and another CP member had been out the day before approaching people in supermarkets for their signatures. He stated this had been successful. He added that this petition campaign was a national project of CORE working with the Freedom Democratic Party of Mississippi. Pursuant to WALKER's request, the CP members went out and obtained signers.

(SL T-1 January 5, 1965)

B. CORE

At a CP meeting November 7, 1964, ORVIL T. LEACH, veteran CP member, stated that there was a schism in CORE in St. Louis. On the one side were the conservative forces led by MARIAN and CHARLES OLDHAM, and on the other side the "progressive" forces led by veteran CORE member PERCY GREEN and several others, including himself. WILLIAM E. DAVIS

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

Industrial Area Leader of the CP, and HERSHEL J. WALKER urged LEACH to do all he could to avoid a split in CORE. LEACH replied it had been pointed out to GREEN that a split would create problems and would be dangerous. For example, his new group would be branded as "extreme radicals" or even communistic. DAVIS commented that some CORE members would probably drop out rather than choose sides. LEACH then said that he felt GREEN and his adherents would probably go ahead with the split. They feel that with the OLDHAM group now back in power as a result of recent CORE elections, activities would be stifled. GREEN's group requires a "lot of action" in order to function and hence it would be impossible for them to continue in CORE. CHARLES OLDHAM, an attorney, was once National Chairman of CORE and currently occupies an advisory position in the St. Louis Chapter. His wife, MARIAN OLDHAM, has been a leading figure in the St. Louis Chapter for several years.

(SL T-1 November 12, 1964)

At a CP meeting December 5, 1964, ORVIL T. LEACH stated that PERCY GREEN and his group of dissidents split from CORE. LEACH stated that GREEN hopes to get the National CORE organization to recognize him, but he, LEACH, said this is unlikely. LEACH commented that he and another CP member have been attending meetings of both CORE groups.

St. Louis, Mo. Congress of Racial Equality

(SL T-1 December 10, 1964)

A meeting of the dissident CORE group was held at the residence of one of its members, ROBERT CURTIS, [redacted] January 3, 1965. Approximately 22 persons were present. This included three CP members not known as such by the others. It was decided to call the new group "ACTION", which is an abbreviation of "Action Committee to Increase Opportunity for Negroes." GREEN stated his group still hopes to get recognition from the National CORE organization.

organization St. Mo.

GREEN commented that ROBERT CURTIS, not present at instant meeting, is in charge of local activity in support of the Democratic Freedom Party of Mississippi; that efforts were being made to secure signatures to petitions calling for the unseating of Mississippi Congressmen. Petitions were called for at this meeting and ORVIL T. LEACH turned in 800 signatures.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

At a specially called CP meeting November 17, 1964, it was reported that JAMES PEAKE, formerly active in CORE in the St. Louis area, is in St. Louis to set up a unit of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA). WILLIAM E. DAVIS suggested that PERCY GREEN would be a likely person to invite to organizational meetings for DCA. It was stated that PEAKE was planning to talk to the entire dissident CORE group consisting of about 25 concerning DCA.

(SL T-1 November 19, 1964)

DCA is characterized in the attached appendix.

An organizational meeting for DCA was held in late November, 1964, with approximately ten individuals present. Among them was ROBERT CURTIS of the dissident CORE group, who subsequently reported this fact to his organization. He pointed out to them that people of all "beliefs" attend DCA meetings and he urged his listeners to come to future DCA meetings.

(SL T-1 December 10, 1964)

In early December, 1964, HERSHEL J. WALKER discussed the status of DCA, saying that an effort was being made to get a St. Louis club started. He further declared that PERCY GREEN would probably join. He declared that plans were being laid to conduct classes in Marxism for those interested who come to DCA meetings and furthermore DCA members would be encouraged to seek membership in the NAACP and CORE. One goal of this program would be to shape or greatly influence future policies of both the NAACP and CORE.

(SL T-4 December 7, 1964)

The dissident CORE group, "ACTION", planned to test the facilities of a "white tavern" at Grand and Sullivan Avenues January 6, 1965. CP member ORVIL T. LEACH contacted other CP members asking them to participate in this activity.

(SL T-1 January 19, 1965)

C. NAACP

An election for 1965 officers of the St. Louis Chapter NAACP was scheduled for December 7, 1964. At a CP meeting December 5, 1964, all members of the NAACP were urged to attend the meeting and vote for the "progressive" slate.

(SL T-1 December 10, 1964)

Several days before the scheduled December 7, 1964, NAACP election, HERSHEL J. WALKER discussed it. He said he hoped the incumbent officers of the organization seeking re-election would be defeated. EVELYN H. ROBERTS, incumbent President, was seeking re-election and her opponent was PEARLIE EVANS. WALKER stated the incumbents are the "tools of the white power structure in St. Louis". He said they are being led by ERNEST CALLOWAY, who had been head of the St. Louis Chapter, Negro American Labor Council (NALC). WALKER declared that MARGARET BUSH WILSON (President, State Conference of Branches, NAACP) is leading the opposing slate and while three or four years ago she was very opposed to Communism, this is not necessarily so today.

(SL T-4 December 7, 1964)

Four CP members were present at the NAACP election December 7, 1964, and were part of a "capacity crowd".

(SL T-5 December 10, 1964)

At a NAACP meeting January 4, 1965, held at the Wohl Community Center, approximately 125 were present. Among them were five CP members.

(SL T-5 January 6, 1965)

The NAACP election was extremely close with first the PEARLIE EVANS slate being declared the winner. This was subsequently reversed on a recount. The election is being protested and the outcome has not been finally decided as of February 2, 1965.

(SL T-6 February 2, 1965)

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. NAACP

In spite of a long standing desire on the part of CP leadership to achieve influence in the NAACP, the Party in St. Louis has been unsuccessful.

(SL T-2 February 2, 1965)

B. CORE

The CP exerts influence in the dissident CORE group called "ACTION" and this is the only mass organization concerned with racial matters in which the CP locally does exert influence.

(SL T-1 February 2, 1965)

C. NALC

[redacted] b7D

As of early January, 1965, it appeared that the St. Louis Chapter NALC had gone out of existence. Several CP members were assigned to attend meetings of this group, but were never able to exercise any measure of control. No meetings have been held since September, 1964, and the NALC officials of the St. Louis Chapter have made no effort to obtain a 1965 membership. Hence it would appear the organization has ceased to exist as of December 31, 1964.

Synopsis: Strategy of Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP) and W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs in racial matters set forth. Strategic approach of Los Angeles Local - Socialist Workers Party, Los Angeles Branch - Young Socialists Alliance, Los Angeles Local - News and Letters Committee, and Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist CP set out. Informants familiar with CP plans in racial matters advise that District leadership admits that CP has been ineffective in the Negro freedom movement and is content to follow rather than lead this movement, particularly through individual contacts. Details of communist participation in demonstrations set out. Extent of communist penetration and influence in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, United Civil Rights Committee, Congress of Racial Equality, Mississippi Summer Project, Non-violent Action Committee, and Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee set out.

The purpose of this report is to show the current extent of communist influence in racial matters in the Los Angeles, California, area. u

With this in mind, the names of certain individuals have been set out in this report, either to show their status as officers or people of responsibility in racial organizations, or to show the names of individuals who have subversive affiliations and who are influential in activities or demonstrations mentioned herein. u

To facilitate reporting this information, characterizations of some of these ~~latter~~ individuals are set forth where the pertinent information is recorded so that the relationship of the individual to the particular activity can be clarified. In the majority of cases, however, the characterizations of such individuals appears in the Glossary at the end of the report. u

Characterizations of organizations named in this report will appear in the Appendix of the report where such a characterization is pertinent and available. u

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

(A) COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

(1) SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA DISTRICT, COMMUNIST PARTY, USA (SCDCP)

LA T-1 (11/3/64) (U)

A meeting of the West Adams Club of the Moranda Smith Section (MSS), SCDCP, was held October 5, 1964, at 2128 - 3rd Avenue, Los Angeles, California, at which time the recent public meeting which featured HENRY WINSTON, a national functionary of the Communist Party, USA, as speaker was discussed. The club noted that the affair was poorly attended by Negroes and discussion was had on why it was impossible to get Negroes to attend affairs sponsored by the Communist Party. No one could offer an acceptable reason, but the concensus was that the Communist Party was not attractive to the Negro and did not present a program which could help the civil rights struggle as much as the present day Negro organizations and churches. (U)

LA T-2 (10/16/64) (U) C. P. member Calif.

At a workshop meeting of the Education Committee, SCDCP, held October 9, 1964, at 1251 South St. Andrews Place, Los Angeles, DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman of the SCDCP, gave a keynote talk on "The Ideological Roots of the Ultra-Right." She spoke on the importance of voting down Proposition No. 14 (an amendment to the California Constitution which would nullify fair housing laws in the State of California) in the coming election and on the peril facing the United States if Senator GOLDWATER were elected President. She called for the defeat of ultra-right forces in both major political parties and described the democratic forces on the American scene today as much stronger than the forces of reaction who support GOLDWATER. She included in these democratic forces the revolutionary struggle of the Negro people which had gained a powerful influence in all aspects of American life, and she called for a mobilization of all such forces to defend the ultra-right forces. (U)

A special meeting of Negro members of the MSS, SCDCP, was held October 14, 1964, at 1142 South Serrano, Los Angeles, for the purpose of trying to find a solution to the problem of creating more interest by the Negro cadre in the Communist Party and how to influence other Negroes to at least sympathize or support activities sponsored by the Communist Party.

The first source stated that the discussions brought out the fact that the Negro had not been able to think of or speak of the Communist Party as "our party," preferring to say "the party." Something more was needed to make the organization what it should really be, with a different kind of program which would appeal to the Negro people. It was therefore the duty of the Negro comrade to see that the party moved in this direction. The source added that education in communist theory had been greatly neglected so that many party members were not really aware of the role of the Communist Party. During the McCarthy era there was a great separation of the Communist Party from the masses and as a result Negro members now find themselves outside their normal role in the community, particularly if they are loyal and active Communist Party members. In addition to having lost their contacts, Negro Communist Party members had been unable to find a way to establish a middle ground such as forums and house parties through which to get to know people and function on that level.

The second source advised that the discussion also brought out that recruits should be given classes in Marxism and Negro history before they are recruited into the Communist Party, that bringing them in before they received any party education was a mistake and gave them little basis in the party so that they could leave very easily. It was further brought out that much of the lack of participation on the part of the Negro comrades lay in the practice of assigning comrades certain tasks without questioning their capabilities for carrying out such assignments. It was recommended that a survey be made of all Negro members of the MSS and their assignments and potential and that future assignments be based on this survey.

A meeting of the West Adams Club, MSS, SCDCP, was held November 16, 1964, at 3048 Victoria, Los Angeles, and a decision was made to have the club work on integrating the neighborhood in which HILDA SCHNECK, a member of the club, lived. SCHNECK stated that there were many vacancies in her neighborhood and had suggested a committee be formed to call on landlords asking them to rent to Negroes. An approach was discussed in which mixed couples could start the integration pattern, with the white spouse acquiring the apartment in question. Another possibility was the use of white friends who would lease apartments and sublet them to Negroes. A question was also raised of finding Negroes able and willing to pay such rents. (U)

LA T-6 (12/3/64) (U)

A meeting of the Free Press Forum, an organization within the MSS, SCDCP, was held November 27, 1964, at 1251 South St. Andrews Place, and featured as speaker FRANK WHITLEY who spoke on the effects of the recent elections on the civil rights movement. According to the first source, he outlined the position of the Negro under each U. S. President since the Civil War and stated that in his opinion none of these presidents had done anything for the Negro. He claimed that the new Civil Rights Law had a great deal more to it than the law which President LINCOLN passed when he issued the Emancipation Proclamation. WHITLEY stated that the Negro had supported the President's administration in the election because they hoped once again to gain some action and because they hoped the Civil Rights Law would really help them. Source quoted WHITLEY as saying, "But I must be frank with you. . . nothing will really change until there is a change in the power structure."

According to the second source, WHITLEY agreed in the discussion following his talk that no freedom could be obtained for the Negro until there was a basic change in the power structure of the country and that socialism was the only answer.

LA T-7 (1/19/65)
LA T-9 (1/25/65) (U)

The sources, who are familiar with Communist Party plans and activities on all level of the SCDCP in the Los Angeles area, advised that for a number of years to the present time the SCDCP has on numerous occasions at all levels of the organization discussed the racial situation in the general Los Angeles area and has put forward proposals, made resolutions and/or suggested plans of action. However, none of these plans have been put into effect and at top level meetings of the SCDCP in recent months the district leaders have frankly admitted that the District and the Communist Party, USA in general, have been unable to provide any leadership and have been generally ineffective in the civil rights struggle and the Negro freedom movement. These leaders further recognize that the SCDCP and the Communist Party, USA, are still without any effective plan that may be implemented to gain for the Communist Party a leadership position in the movement.

LA T-8 also advised that PETTIS PERRY, a member of the Communist Party, USA, National Committee from Los Angeles, conferred during the preceeding week with GIL GREEN, National Communist Party functionary and a National Committee member and determined that current Communist Party emphasis is on a call to end violence in Mississippi and the need for stressing the responsibility of Federal authorities to end this violence. Source stated that there is no SCDCP group active in the Negro movement currently. (U)

LA T-9 also advised that the SCDCP has very little influence as an organization on the civil rights movement. What little influence it does have stems from personal contacts by such individuals as PETTIS PERRY and CHARLENE MITCHELL who are members of the Communist Party, USA, National Committee from Los Angeles with individual members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and the United Civil Rights Committee (UCRC), and these contacts are made from outside rather than from inside these groups. The SCDCP continues to follow rather than to attempt to lead the civil rights movement and is content with promoting support for the more radical civil rights groups such as the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). (U)

The recent success according to LA T-9, of the SCDCP in recruiting young people into the Communist Party has not extended to the members of the Negro race, with a few exceptions, and this is due primarily to the fact that the appeal of the Communist Party program has been to young intellectuals and there are but few Negroes in this category who find any merit in Communist Party theory. (U)

No information developed.

(B) OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS

(1) LOS ANGELES LOCAL - SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (LAL-SWP)

LA T-10 (12/4/64)

Source on above date advised that on November 18, 1964, the first session of the 1964 Los Angeles Local - SWP (LAL-SWP) Annual City Conference was held. EDMUND KOVACS, Organizer, in his report to the members stated in part that the 1963 SWP Resolution called for radicalization of the Negroes. The minority class had been damaged most by unemployment. The SWP pointed out that Negroes have reached a new stage of militancy, a rejection by Negroes of gradualism. The Negroes' press for human dignity is the most progressive force on the scene at this time. The SWP recommended independent political action to further the Negroe's push for equality. There should be a working unity between the vanguard of the Negroes to form an alliance with the SWP, but the main instrument at this time is propaganda. (U)

LA T-10 (12/9/64) (U)

According to above source, on December 2, 1964, the third and final session of the LAL-SWP Annual City Conference was held. During this session, STEVE ROBERTS, a member of the LAL-SWP, stated that over the past year, considering the size and strength of the LAL-SWP, they had done exceptionally well in the civil rights field. ROBERTS did not specifically identify the LAL-SWP accomplishments in this field. (U)

Source also stated that, according to ROBERTS, "Weakness on the part of the SWP towards the civil rights struggle does not mean that we are doing nothing." (U)

(2) LOS ANGELES BRANCH -
YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (LAB-YSA)

The "Daily Bruin," campus publication of the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA), in its issue of November 2, 1964, page 5, carried an article by MIKE GELDMAN entitled "YSA Reply." In this article the YSA was said to declare its full support for Clifton DeBerry, Socialist Workers Party candidate for President, and for other SWP candidates for elective office, and urged similar support from all American youth. The article stated that the real lines of confrontation "are between the capitalist rulers on one side and the workers and the Negro people on the other."

Cal.

The "Daily Bruin," in its issue of Monday, December 14, 1964, on page 4, carried an article by MICHAEL GELDMAN entitled "Young Socialist Reply - Introducing YSA." In this article GELDMAN states that the YSA is opposed to "racist practices" and to the "constant erosion of the Bill of Rights"; further, that "such feelings dissolve into cynicism when they cannot give rise to action; and that is why we in the YSA are concerned with politics. Participation in politics for us means participation in the struggle to end the system of inequality and insecurity under which we live, that system called capitalism, which places enormous political and social power in the hands of the tiny minority who own and control the economy. Our aim is to replace this system with a socialist organization of society, by which we mean the most profound and wide-spread democracy in all aspects of economic and political and cultural life. . . democracy can only be based upon a nationalized and planned economy, controlled and administered by the working people."

In this article GELDMAN also declared as follows: "The ever-rising tide of the Negro struggle has placed political action by the working people on the immediate order of the day. The most oppressed and revolutionary workers, the black workers of the ghetto, have begun to struggle, and if they are to make any real gains their next step must be to separate themselves from the Democrats and Republicans and build a black political party. Such a party would be the most powerful instrument yet devised to fight for Negro demands and would help break up the two-party con game that passes for democracy in the United States. In addition it would be a powerful stimulus for white workers to enter the political struggle."

(3) LOS ANGELES LOCAL - NEWS AND LETTERS COMMITTEES (LAL - NLC)

No information developed.

(4) PROVISIONAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE FOR A MARXIST-LENINIST COMMUNIST PARTY (POC)

[LA T-39 (10/19/64)] (U)

Source furnished a mimeographed leaflet issued by the Los Angeles Provisional Organizing Committee (LAPOC), which reflects, in part, as follows:

"Integration is the pipe dream being presented by U. S. imperialism through the Uncle Toms. This is done to divert the Negro people from the struggle for national liberation.

"Another concept that is being peddled by the agents of the ruling class is that we must vote in order to have full rights. We will never have full rights by voting for our enemies, whether JOHNSON or GOLDWATER. The only correct struggle is a fight to defeat U. S. imperialism and this will only be done through revolutionary struggle.

"The struggle for national liberation is an integral part of the struggle for the emancipation of the working class of America. The Negro question can not be solved until U. S. imperialism has been destroyed and replaced by the dictatorship of the proletariat."

[LA T-40 (1/27/65)] (U)

Freedom For the People (FFTP) was organized in Los Angeles by the LAPOC in October, 1964, and is currently in existence. It is an LAPOC front organization which is completely controlled by the LAPOC which selects FFTP leadership. Primary purposes of FFTP are LAPOC recruitment and pushing of the POC line.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

(A) DEMONSTRATIONS

(1) NOVEMBER 4, 1964

LA T-11 (11/18/64) (C) (U)

Source advised that a protest march and rally in opposition to the passage of Proposition No. 14 (an amendment to the Constitution of the State of California which nullified fair housing laws in the state) was held Wednesday, November 4, 1964, from 8:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. under the sponsorship of CORE. The parade assembled at Olympic and Broadway, Los Angeles, and proceeded to the Spring Street entrance of the Los Angeles City Hall where the rally was held. The marchers massed at the top of the steps of the City Hall and then faced the TV cameras and sang freedom songs. Approximately 185 persons took part in the march and 200 persons attended the rally.

Source advised that among those who attended the rally were SAM KUSHNER and DANNY GRAY.

Fleming Daniel Gray, Jr.

(2) NOVEMBER 9, 1964

LA T-11 (11/18/64) (C) (U)

Source advised that CORE organized a picket line at the Olive Street entrance to the Biltmore Hotel, Los Angeles, on November 9, 1964, from 6:00 p.m. to 9:05 p.m. to protest the passage of Proposition No. 14 and to protest the policies of the California Real Estate Association (CREA). Seven persons took part in the picketing and source advised that one of these persons was BESSIE GOGOL.

(3) JANUARY 1, 1965

Source advised that on December 29, 1964, a meeting of the Central Los Angeles Du Bois Club was held at 1104 North Mariposa Street, Los Angeles. FLEMING DANIEL GRAY, JR. attended this meeting with 13 other persons. GRAY distributed a flyer issued by the Non-Violent Action Committee (NVAC), a local splinter group of CORE which invited the recipient to attend a protest rally to be held at 3:00 a.m., Friday morning, January 1, 1965, at Van de Kamp's Restaurant at 1696 East Colorado Boulevard, Pasadena, California, which was along the route of the Tournament of Roses Parade which was to be nationally televised later New Years morning. After GRAY distributed the flyer at the meeting no further action was taken but GRAY urged those present to join him at the rally.

Pasadena, California, Police Department
(1/1/65)

On January 1, 1965, approximately 15 persons participated in peaceful picketing in the vicinity of Van de Kamp's Restaurant, 1696 East Colorado Boulevard, Pasadena, California, during the course of the Tournament of Roses Parade. The demonstrators carried placards demanding equal selection for non-Caucasians in the Rose Queen's court. No incidents occurred and no arrests were made.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

(A) NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE (NAACP)

LA T-2 (1/22/65) (U)

The Los Angeles Branch, NAACP, is the dominant and most active branch of the NAACP in the Southern California area.

LA T-9 (1/25/65)
LA T-2 (1/22/65) (U)

The SCDCP has no current program to infiltrate or attempt to gain domination of the Los Angeles Branch, NAACP.

LA T-9 further informed that the SCDCP has no current program to infiltrate or attempt to gain domination of any other NAACP branch in the Southern California area. (U)

"Los Angeles Times"
Los Angeles, California
Issue of 12/4/64

This issue in Part II, page 8, set forth an article captioned, "NAACP Group to Vote on President Dec. 13," which quoted Dr. CHRISTOPHER L. TAYLOR, President of the Los Angeles Branch, NAACP, as stating, "We have established a good climate here, for gains in civil rights, without riots or massive civil disobedience, and we can continue to make great strides in this atmosphere."

(B) UNITED CIVIL RIGHTS COMMITTEE (UCRC)

LA T-13 (10/20/64) (U)

MARNESBA TACKETT, Education Director, UCRC, and Reverend H. H. BROOKINS, Chairman, UCRC, were guest speakers at a rally of the Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs of Los Angeles, which was held at the Palm Room of the Alexandria Hotel, 5th and Spring Streets, Los Angeles, on October 14, 1964.

LA T-14 (11/30/64) (U)

Informant advised that on November 3, 1964, HENRY FOLICK, a member of the 24th Communist Party Section - SCDCP, called individuals to secure volunteers to work at the UCRC Headquarters on November 3, 1964, to help the UCRC with door to door precinct work.

LA T-15 (11/20/64) (U)

BEN GRAY, described as a spokesman of UCRC, attended a dinner meeting of the "People's World" Committee which was also a birthday celebration for SAM KUSHNER, Los Angeles "People's World" Editor. The meeting took place at the Hungarian Cultural Center, 1251 South St. Andrews Place, Los Angeles, on November 12, 1964. GRAY praised the "People's World" and SAM KUSHNER, for his active part in the civil rights movement.

The "People's World" is a west coast communist newspaper.

LA T-16 (12/11/64) (U)

On November 16, 1964, the UCRC held a meeting at 8501 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, and approximately 200 persons were in attendance. The five Du Bois Clubs of Los Angeles were each represented at this meeting by one member, including JIM SAGER. During the meeting a ballot was handed to all present to vote for nineteen persons who were up for election to the Board of Directors. One Du Bois Club representative instructed the other four representatives as to whom they should support.

LA T-17 (12/21/64) (U)

During December 1964, SAM KUSHNER, Los Angeles Editor of the "People's World," was in contact with the UCRC office concerning a one day conference UCRC was planning for January 6, 1965, and reported that UCRC was sponsoring the conference to get the various organizations of the Negro community to unite in the cause of getting a Negro as a candidate for the Los Angeles School Board. (U)

LA T-17 (1/12/65) (U)

During January 1965, SAM KUSHNER, Los Angeles Editor of the "People's World," was in contact with the UCRC Office concerning any proposed UCRC activities and reported that the UCRC was sponsoring a picket line at the Thriftimart Store, Adams and Vermont Avenues, at 12:00 noon, Saturday, January 16, 1965, and at 2:00 p.m., Sunday, January 17, 1965. (U)

LA T-8 (1/19/65) (U)

Informant advised that in her position within the SCDCP, she would be aware of any instructions from the leadership to make any organized effort to influence Los Angeles civil rights groups, including the UCRC. The informant advised that she knows of no such instructions. Informant advised that since the November 1964 elections, the SCDCP has made no efforts to influence the UCRC and further, that the Communist Party has made no plans to make a concentrated effort in this regard in the near future. (U)

LA T-11 (1/19/65) (U)

Source advised that there continues to be no indication that the SCDCP has been able to exert any influence on the UCRC. Source stated that there continues to be a few people associated with the UCRC who have Communist Party backgrounds, but that these people have not been able to influence the UCRC in any way.

Through a suitable pretext conducted by a Special Agent of the FBI on January 21, 1965, it was determined at the UCRC office, 8501 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, that a re-organizational meeting of the UCRC was held in December 1964. The same officers who were elected in mid 1964 were re-affirmed at this meeting, and in addition, some 30 individuals were elected to the Board of Directors. UCRC has made application to the State of California to become incorporated, but the incorporation papers have not been received as yet. Among those names mentioned as being officers of the UCRC were PERRY PARKS, Vice Chairman, VICTOR LUDWIG, Associate Treasurer, and FRANK MUNOZ, Associate Treasurer. Among those names mentioned as being members of the Board of Directors were MORRIS SAMUELS, EASON MONROE and ARTHUR SILVERS.

(C). CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (CORE)

Background, Aims, and Purposes

"Los Angeles Sentinel"
Los Angeles weekly Negro newspaper
(12/3/64)

ROBERT L. BAILEY, Chairman of the Southern California District Action Council of CORE announced the formation of a Regional Action Council to "gain more effective means and organization to solve the problems of widespread discrimination in the western states."

BAILEY said the aims of the group were to "mobilize CORE forces and reorganize for greater strength and to work more effectively" on a much broader scale than previously. He stated that CORE also will broaden its scope of interest and methods to "begin a massive assault on the very critical and deep problems that create and add to the practice of discrimination."

LA T-11 (12/3/64) (C) (U)

DON SMITH, the newly elected chairman of the Los Angeles CORE, stated that CORE has been directed in a wrong manner in the past, and that for the next year at least, things were going to be different. He wants to get CORE involved in more direct contact with parents of children. It is his desire that some sort of center be set up where children can get training and guidance under CORE; that in ten years many of these children will be adults or teenagers who will take part in CORE and he wants to be able to get to them before the Communists do.

LA T-11 (12/15/64) (C) (U)

A CORE meeting was held December 13, 1964, at 1903 West Olympic Boulevard, Los Angeles, to discuss future plans and activities. The point was emphasized that under the new leadership, participation in CORE by subversive groups is not wanted at all. The central idea was that the Negro must take over CORE and eliminate any members of a subversive group from CORE.

Officers

LA T-7 (1/25/65) (C) (U)

The following are current officers of the Los Angeles CORE:

Chairman	DON SMITH
1st Vice Chairman	REVEREND MORRIS SAMUELS
2nd Vice Chairman	TOM BOYD
Chairman - Membership Committee	DICK MOORE

Congress of Racial Equality members. Calif.

CP Penetration and Influence

LA T-18 (11/4/64) (U)

On November 4, 1964, ARVILLA JACKSON recruited people to participate in a CORE march to begin that day at 7:30 p.m. The march was to begin at Olympic and Broadway, Los Angeles, and proceed to City Hall in protest of the passage of Proposition 14 on the California ballot.

LA T-7 (11/30/64) (U)

Approximately 100 delegates and 50 observers attended the opening of the regional conference of CORE at 40th Street and Central Avenue, Los Angeles, on November 27, 1964. Informant identified two "known members or close friends" of the CP: JAMES GARRETT and BESSIE GOGOL.

LA T-7 (12/3/64) (U)

members

ROSE CHERNIN advised a group of CORE members in December, 1964, that her committee, the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, had authorized her to make the Committee lawyers and bail money available to certain civil rights groups. She said CORE should let her know when there was a likelihood of arrests and she would see what money could be raised to save bail fees.

(D) MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT

Source furnished a pamphlet of the above-captioned organization which indicated the scope and activities of this organized effort. The pamphlet pointed out that trained personnel were needed, and gave the address of the Mississippi Summer Project, 1017 Lynch Street, Room 10, Jackson, Mississippi, for applications. The pamphlet pointed out that "this summer" (1964), SNCC, in cooperation with many voting and civic groups, formed into the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO), was intending to launch a massive peace corps type of operation in Mississippi. The pamphlet stated in part as follows: "Students, teachers, technicians, nurses, artists, and legal advisers will be recruited to come to Mississippi to staff a wide range of programs that include voter registration, freedom schools, community centers, and special projects."

On October 16, 1964, a Special Agent of the FBI attended a public meeting of "Discussion Unlimited" (DU) at Fairfax High School, 7850 Melrose Avenue, Los Angeles. PERNELL ROBERTS, star of the "Bonanza" television series, was co-narrator of the program with FRANCES WILLIAMS, introduced by ROBERTS as an actress who played in "Raisin On The Sun." The DU program was entitled "Mississippi 1964 - A Story of Courage." ROBERTS first introduced JAMES GARRETT as being associated with the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) in Mississippi during the summer of 1964. GARRETT talked about his work on voter registration in Mississippi. He stated the people of Mississippi were ready for "work stoppages....boycotts. Ready for almost anything!...We are going to try to completely close down Laurel, Mississippi, after January." GARRETT stated that after working in Mississippi he returned to work in the office of SNCC, which he directs in Los Angeles. GARRETT stated he would later return to Mississippi.

PERNELL ROBERTS then introduced Dr. ROBERT M. PECK, who stated he worked in Greenwood, Mississippi, some time during the summer of 1964, as a physician, with other doctors and a nurse, treating those working in the voter registration drive. PECK stated "We are going to continue to send physicians and nurses to Mississippi."

PERNELL ROBERTS then introduced Attorney MAYNARD OMERBERG, who stated he went to Mississippi with others, including FRANK PESTANA, and described his work in defending civil rights workers who were jailed.

ROBERTS also introduced ROSE ROSENBERG as a lawyer who had gone to Mississippi. ROSENBERG described her experiences, especially relating to women civil rights workers, during her period in Mississippi. Rose S. Rosenberg Rose Schar Rosenberg M. 55 Cal. F.

(E) NON-VIOLENT ACTION COMMITTEE (N-VAC)

No information developed.

(F) LOS ANGELES FRIENDS OF THE STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE (LA-SNCC)

It was ascertained through an appropriate pretext on December 16, 1964, by a Special Agent of the FBI that JAMES GARRETT is the chairman of LA-SNCC which has an office located at 8501 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, California.

LA T-9 (10/19/64) (U)

LA-SNCC is fundamentally a paper organization with no membership. Two CP members have indicated an interest in LA-SNCC. These two are FRED RINALDO and FRANK PESTANA who have helped primarily with fund raising.

LA T-17 (10/20/64) (U)

On October 20, 1964, a representative of the Los Angeles Office of the "People's World" (PW) arranged with JAMES GARRETT at LA-SNCC Headquarters, 8501 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, to provide GARRETT with ten tickets for young people for the PW banquet to be held on October 25, 1964. (U)

LA T-19 (11/2/64) (U)

JAMES GARRETT, a young Negro representative of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) was a speaker at the annual PW banquet which was held on October 25, 1964, at Compton, California. GARRETT spoke of his exploits and experiences while organizing the Negroes of Mississippi. (U)

LA T-20 (11/2/64) (U)

JAMES GARRETT spoke briefly about the conditions in Mississippi at the annual PW banquet which was held in Compton, California, on October 25, 1964. GARRETT stated that Dr. W. E. B. DU BOIS did more than any other man to help the Negro. He said that DU BOIS formed clubs, helped educate Negroes, and helped them to register to vote and to find work. GARRETT said that he is a member of one of DU BOIS' clubs. He said that the House Committee on Un-American Activities must be abolished. GARRETT told the audience that they could then work for a socialist world; that it had to come.

LA T-21 (11/12/64) (U)

A meeting of the Central Los Angeles Du Bois Club was held on November 8, 1964, at 1104 North Mariposa, Los Angeles, California. The first order of business was what to do with $56.00 collected at the SNCC Benefit Halloween Party held on October 31, 1964, in Los Angeles. It was decided to send the $56.00 directly to SNCC since no prior agreed amount was due any Du Bois Club for fund raising aid for this event. It was also agreed to send SNCC a monthly sustainer in the amount of $10.00 to aid their work, once Du Bois Club incoming funds become stable enough to render aid to other organizations.

LA T-21 (11/25/64) (U)

A "Coffee Hour" sponsored by the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of Central and West Los Angeles was held at 1104 North Mariposa, Los Angeles, California, on November 20, 1964. JAMES GARRETT made a surprise after-meeting visit, but did not speak.

LA T-18 (12/3/64) (U)

A meeting of the Aaron Johnson Club, Moranda Smith Section, SCDCP, was held on December 2, 1964, at 1011½ Georgia Street, Los Angeles, California. ARVILLA JACKSON stated at this meeting that The W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs are Marxist study groups used as a bridge between Party and non-Party people. She said that youths are recruited from this group as well as from CORE and SNCC.

LA T-22 (11/30/64) (U)

Discussion Unlimited, Inc., sponsored a program and rally honoring the Negro people of Mississippi and the Mississippi Volunteer Workers, which was held at Fairfax High School Auditorium, 7850 Melrose Avenue, Los Angeles, California, on October 16, 1964. JAMES GARRETT, who was project coordinator for his region in Mississippi, spoke of his experiences in Mississippi. (U)

JAMES FORMAN, National Executive Secretary of SNCC, appeared as a special guest speaker. FORMAN spoke optimistically of SNCC's progress. (U)

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on October 5, 1964, that the National Lawyers Guild has chapters in various cities and that the Los Angeles Chapter and the Hollywood-Beverly Hills Chapter are affiliated with it.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations," revised December 1, 1961, page 121, describes the National Lawyers Guild as follows:

"1. Cited as a Communist front. (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149).

"2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.' (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally related september 17, 1950).

"3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are theNational Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection.'

Reference Bureau letter dated November 18, 1964, which advised of a forthcoming national conference of top Negro leaders scheduled to take place in Washington, D. C., during January, 1965. The Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) had plans to have certain of its members from various parts of the U. S. attend such a conference. Reference New York airtel dated January 11, 1965, copies only to WFO, "Cominfil, Negro American Labor Council, IS - C," forwarded a letterhead memorandum which reported on January 10, 1965, meeting of the National Board, Negro American Labor Council (NALC). It was decided that that organization's "State of the Race" conference originally scheduled for Washington, D. C., will now be held in New York City at the Riverside Church, January 30-31, 1965. According to the Bureau's source, the CP, USA, will not be invited or allowed to attend the conference. Also reference Bureau letter to New York dated January 15, 1965.

Enclosed with this airtel for the Bureau are ten copies of a letterhead memorandum captioned "Communist Infiltration, Negro American Labor Council." Four copies of the

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION
NEGRO AMERICAN LABOR COUNCIL

On January 29, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that WILLIAM TAYLOR, known to the source as a Communist Party (CP) member from California, was in Washington, D. C. and Baltimore, Maryland, on January 28, 1965.

According to the source, TAYLOR's purpose in travelling to Washington and Baltimore was to try to arrange for CP members to obtain admission to a conference of Negro leaders which is to be held on Riverside Drive, New York, New York, January 30 and 31, 1965.

TAYLOR has indicated that A. PHILLIP RANDOLPH, Head of the Negro American Labor Council, who has arranged for the conference to be held, is making determined efforts to keep CP members out of the conference and that only those who have special invitations may attend.

TAYLOR has further indicated that if he is unable to arrange for CP members to attend the conference, he will see to it that efforts are made by CP members to contact those attending the conference after it has been held in order that they might learn what went on during the conference.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS;
MISSISSIPPI FREEDOM DEMOCRATIC PARTY

The attached letter, signed Morton Stavis, was received at the Jackson Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on January 27, 1965.

On January 27, 1965, Mr. Edward Stern, Attorney, Legal Office of the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO), Jackson, Mississippi, was contacted by an Agent of the FBI and advised that the jurisdiction of this Bureau does not authorize the affording of protection of individuals and no protection would be afforded in connection with the taking of depositions by stenographers and lawyers of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party within the State of Mississippi. On this occasion, Stern advised that he was cognizant of the Bureau's jurisdiction regarding this matter, and that he fully understood the role of the FBI in civil rights matters.

Stern stated Stavis was presently at Newark, New Jersey, and was expected to return to Jackson, Mississippi, on January 29, 1965.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Morton Stavis was reported by confidential informants as a member of the Communist Party (CP) in 1945 and 1946 in New York and New Jersey. In 1950 he was reportedly a member of the Union County New Jersey CP, and in 1952, he was considered within Party circles as a lawyer who was a real leader and a good speaker and was considered a member of the Lawyers Club of the New Jersey CP.

Stavis has served as counsel for communist members in court and before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) hearings. He has been active in the affairs of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) from 1955 through 1964 during which time he has been a member of the National Council. [redacted] The ECLC [redacted] have been cited as communist fronts by the HCUA.

OTHER Removed per court order

Stavis and his wife both invoked the Fifth Amendment before the HCUA on 2/28/56 concerning all questions regarding past or present CP membership.

Re Bureau letter to New York 1/15/65.

On 2/2/65, [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, orally advised that on Saturday, 1/30/65, she had met with FRANCES GABOW, Political Action Secretary, CPEPD, who stated BILL TAYLOR (from National Office, CPUSA) had been in Philadelphia and met with GABOW.

According to GABOW, A. PHILIP RANDOLPH had called a "State of the Race" conference at the Methodist Council of Churches on 1/30 and 1/31/65 in New York City and the CP was most desirous of learning details of this affair. GABOW indicated TAYLOR had requested the informant, as [redacted] to call telephone number MO 2-5080 in New York City to a Mr. RUSTIC (possibly BAYARD RUSTIN) to learn details of this conference or possibly contact civil rights advocates in the Philadelphia area who may have attended this conference.

On Monday, 2/1/65, source contacted several civil rights advocates in the Philadelphia area concerning this conference but was unable to locate anyone who attended this.

ReBulet 11/20/64 which pointed out the fact that Harry Wachtel is steadily assuming greater importance as one of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s, group of advisors. It was noted that Wachtel's wife was a member of the Communist Party, USA, (CPUSA) at one time and that there was a strong likelihood that Wachtel, himself, may have also been a Party member. Certain instructions were issued relative to attempting to establish for certainty whether Wachtel had ever been a Party member. It was stressed that this matter be given prompt attention.

Your letter, 12/1/64, advised that your Office was reviewing appropriate files in an effort to locate individuals in the Bath Beach Club of the Party who might be in a position to advise concerning Wachtel, it being noted that Wachtel's wife had previously held a leadership position in this Club.

Your letter, 12/11/64, stated that your Office would continue efforts to locate individuals who were familiar with the activities of the Bath Beach Club in the early 1940's.

Your letter, 1/11/65, advised that file reviews have disclosed the names of Party people who might possibly have known Wachtel and that your Office is in the process of reviewing the files concerning the individuals themselves as a prelude in requesting permission to interview these people.

As you are aware, Wachtel's importance to the Bureau's investigation of CIRM as well as King is increasing day by day. For example, Wachtel's office is usually used as a meeting place for King and his advisors. Just within the past week, Wachtel contacted your Office and represented himself as an attorney for King. It is, therefore, imperative that as prompt a determination as possible be made as to whether Wachtel was ever a Party member. It is now over two months since the original Bureau instructions were issued in this matter. It is believed that your inquiry should be stepped up so that there is no further delay in obtaining the

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

A source advised on January 21, 1965, that the National Lawyers Guild (NLG), Chicago Chapter, held a briefing session at the Bismarck Hotel, Chicago, Illinois, on January 16, 1965. This session was for all lawyers interested in helping unseat Mississippi's "five man Congressional delegation."

It was decided as a result of this meeting that lawyers from all over the United States States, particularly Chicago, Detroit and New York, are going to Mississippi between January 25 and February 12, 1965, to take depositions from Negroes deprived of their voters rights.

According to the source, Chicago attorneys are joining this task force of more than 100 lawyers to seek evidence to unseat the Mississippi delegation in the United States House of Representatives. The attorneys will work for the Congress of Federated Organizations (COFO) to obtain "depositions" regarding Negro voting in Mississippi.

William M. Kunstler, Chairman of the COFO Legal Committee, Council of Federation Organizations was the main speaker at this briefing session and stated that if the move succeeds, the regular Mississippi Congressional delegation would not be replaced by a delegation chosen by the Freedom Democratic Party which has contested the seating on the grounds that many Negroes were not allowed to vote in the last national election. Kunstler instead predicted that a new election would be ordered.

The source said that the gist of the action being taken is expressed in a conclusion in one of several legal documents passed out at the above meeting which states in part "House of Representatives, Congress of the United States, notice of intention to contest election pursuant to Title 2, U.S.C., Section 201--in the matter of the contested election of Prentiss Walker in the Fourth Congressional District of Mississippi." This document directed to Prentiss Walker, Mize, Mississippi, from Annie Devine, in its conclusion contests Walker's election based upon the systematic and deliberate exclusion of Negro citizens from the political life of Mississippi, and because the Constitution of the United States provides that the House of Representatives alone "shall be the judge of elections returns and qualifications of its members" proposes that Walker's election be declared null and void.

The source stated that as a result of the above, there is hope that Congress will call up a new election in Mississippi. In addition, the source stated that the meeting dealt with the manner in which depositions could be taken under an 1806 or 1906 law and who could subpoena people requiring them to give depositions. In addition, the problem before whom and where the deposition could be taken was discussed. According to the source, four Negro notaries in the State of Mississippi, one an undertaker at Jackson, Mississippi, will be used in the taking of the depositions. It is expected that some of the depositions will be taken at the Negro Baptist Church in Jackson, Mississippi.

After the depositions are taken, pressure through letters, petitions, etc., from individuals and organizations to Congressmen will be brought urging them to vote for a new election in Mississippi with the Negro being able to exercise his voting rights.

According to the source, the following Chicago attorneys are committed to participate in the above described project:

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on October 5, 1964, that the National Lawyers Guild has chapters in various cities and that the Los Angeles Chapter and the Hollywood-Beverly Hills Chapter are affiliated with it.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations," revised December 1, 1961, page 121, describes the National Lawyers Guild as follows:

"1. Cited as a Communist front. (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149).

"2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.' (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally related september 17, 1950).

"3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are theNational Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection.'

12 Lawyers to Aid Southern Vote Case

As twelve Los Angeles attorneys volunteered to give legal aid in Mississippi during current challenges being made to congressional elections there, two actions have been pressed to aid them.

The local attorneys offered their services at a meeting of ACLU Lawyers Division at a recent meeting addressed by Ben Smith, New Orleans lawyer. Hugh R. Manes and Larry Sperber are acting as coordinators for the local group.

Rep. Phillip Burton (D-Calif.) meanwhile announced that the Justice Department had been asked to assign extra federal marshals and FBI agents to protect the lawyers. The first group has left from San Francisco.

Second action is the introduction of a bill in the State Legislature to provide that persons booked illegally while demonstrating for civil rights would not have to record their arrests in applying for jobs in California. The bill (AB471) was presented by Ass'yman Mervyn M. Dymally (D-53rd Dist.). He said 75% of the Californians arrested for civil rights demonstrations in the South could fit into this category. It would not cover those arrested in the recent UC free speech movement.

The challenge procedure is based on Title 2 USC Section 201 et seq.

The Department of Justice in separate action filed suit Jan. 15 in federal court in Jackson, Miss., to stop asserted discrimination against Negroes seeking to register and vote in Issaquena County, Mississippi. There are 640 white persons and 1,081 Negroes of voting age in the west central Delta county. All the whites and only four of the Negroes are registered to vote according to the complaint.

A characterization of Genne Kuhn is reported in the top paragraph, page three. It states that on 4/11/63 a source advised that Kuhn was regarded as the Chairman of the Ohio Valley Section of the Communist Party at Wheeling, West Virginia.

Because of Kuhn's most important position in the Party in the area in question and her involvement in the racial movement, it is believed that the characterization of her should be more current than of a date almost two years ago. The most recent report from your office, origin, concerning Kuhn, was that of SA John J. Russell, 8/19/64, and states on page E that informants have continued to state that Kuhn serves as a leader of the Party in the Ohio Valley area.

By return letter furnish a revised page three for rerep which should contain more current information characterizing Kuhn. Furnish a copy to New York but do not furnish copies to the outside agencies to whom local dissemination was made of rerep.

On 1/25/65, Mrs. DOROTHY C. EGAN, Assistant Registrar, Yale Law School, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, made available for perusal the law school academic folder of ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN. Contained in the folder were two photographs of LOWENSTEIN, however, both such photographs were taken prior to 1947. Mrs. EGAN also made available the class year book for the Yale Law School Class of 1954. Contained therein was a photograph of LOWENSTEIN taken during 1954. This is the latest photograph presently available to the New Haven Office of LOWENSTEIN and copies of the picture which appeared in the year book were made.

Referenced New York radiogram sets forth details concerning the arrival of MARTIN LUTHER KING at Kennedy International Airport, New York, on 11/30/64. It was revealed therein that KING and his entourage were observed by Special Agents of the New York Office and descriptions of various members of the entourage were set forth therein.

ReBuairtel 1-15-65 which instructed that efforts be made to identify the individual who on 1-11-65 visited with two attorneys in Washington, D. C., who have for some time been very close to the communist movement. It was suggested that the individual might be one of several officials of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference from Atlanta, Georgia, one of whom was Randolph Blackwell.

ReATairtel 1-29-65 which noted the similarity of the background of the unidentified individual when compared with that of Blackwell.

It is believed most significant that an individual who conferred with the attorneys in question is likely a close associate of Martin Luther King, Jr. It is therefore desired that further information be obtained which would tend to further establish that Blackwell was the individual. Noting that the unidentified individual indicated that he was leaving the attorneys' office to go to the airport and that he left the office at 4:08 p.m., WFO should attempt to obtain such airlines records as may be available which would help to further establish that Blackwell and the unidentified individual are one and the same. Any information which Atlanta may have which would assist in further establishing Blackwell as the individual in question should be made available to the Bureau and WFO.

NOTE:

Quarterly CIRM reports are due from all offices the first of February, May, August and November of each year. Quarterly reports concerning the CPUSA are due from all offices during the months of January, April, July and October each year. Specific dates due are staggered so that some are due the fifth, some the tenth, some the twentieth, and some the twenty-eighth. San Francisco's Party reports are due the twentieth and because of the short time span between the twentieth and the first of the next month when the CIRM reports are due, it is suggested a change in the due dates for CIRM reports. It noted that because of the nature of the information in the reports the Agents who work on the Party reports must also work on the CIRM reports.

Because of the staggered dates for the Party reports, a fact which San Francisco may not be aware of, the "burden" on many offices is far less than that for others. It is noted that we have only recently started receiving CIRM reports and until such time as we have received a sufficient sampling, we should reserve final judgment as to a possible change in the due dates. The suggestion will be considered in due course and if a change appears desirable appropriate action will be taken.

Re Bulet to Albany, copies to all offices, dated 8/28/64, providing for the submission of quarterly reports in the above-captioned matter on February 1, May 1, August 1, and November 1.

The experience of the San Francisco Office, and presumably other offices, has been that the above dates follow too closely the submission of the quarterly reports on the Communist Party (CP) on January 20, April 20, July 20, and October 20. Both reports require considerable research on the part of Special Agents, stenographic time, and use of facilities of the duplication unit within a space of ten days. Because of the nature of the information in the reports, the Agents who work on the CP itself must also work on the CIRM reports, resulting in two major reports submitted close together. This could be avoided if more time elapsed between the two reports, which could be accomplished if the CIRM deadlines were moved back one month to March 1, June 1, September 1, and December 1 of each year.

The San Francisco Office has no way of knowing whether the present dates on the CIRM reports are required by some commitment of the Bureau, but the Bureau is requested to consider the advisability of having the next CIRM report fall due on 6/1/65, and quarterly thereafter.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

On January 29, 1965, William Wayne Keeler, President of the Executive Committee, Phillips Petroleum Company, Bartlesville, Oklahoma, and Principal Chief of the Cherokee Indian Tribe, furnished the following information:

In 1960 he visited Russia as a member of the U. S. Petroleum Exchange group and during this visit a Soviet Official who accompanied the group remarked to him that the USSR wanted to help the Indians in the U. S. in breaking their chains and obtaining freedom. A few moments later another Soviet official, Dennis Pykoff (phonetic) expressed the same idea. The Soviets did not indicate the manner in which they would help the Indians in obtaining their freedom and Keeler ended the discussion of the matter by informing the Soviets that they should not worry about the American Indians as the Indians are not in chains in the U. S.

RUSSIA

Keeler advised that as a result of his being Principal Chief of the Cherokee Indian Tribe he has come in contact with many individuals, both private citizens and government employees, who have been active in the field of Indian Affairs for a number of years. One of the individuals he has had contact with in regard to Indian affairs is Dr. Sol Tax, an anthropologist at the University of Chicago. Tax has traveled extensively in the U. S. and South America studying Indian groups. JCL

ENCLOSURE

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

In 1961, through the efforts of Sol Tax a conference was held in Chicago, Illinois, composed of representatives from the various Indian tribes and U. S. Government officials. The purpose of the conference was to discuss and find ways to improve relations between the American Indians and the U. S. Government. Keeler attended the conference as part of the U. S. Government representation. When Keeler arrived at the conference he found that Tax and an associate, D'Arcy McNickle, had prepared a statement on the Indian position without obtaining the views of the Indian representatives. Thereafter Tax, McNickle, and a group of young Indians completely took over the Indian delegation at the conference. Keeler said this was an example of the "railroading tactics" used by Tax in his handling of Indian matters, and Keeler considered such tactics to resemble the methods employed by Communists. Keeler stated he has no specific information indicating that Tax is associated with the Communists or has ever received any assistance from the Communists in his work with the Indians. He stated Tax claims to be motivated only by a desire to improve the position of the American Indian. Tax has told Keeler that as an anthropologist he has a better understanding of the Indian than Keeler, in spite of the fact that Keeler is a Cherokee Indian and Chief of the Cherokee Tribe.

Keeler advised that Sol Tax and the group which supports Tax have taken over control of the National Congress of American Indians, an organization which was established approximately 20 years ago for the purpose of uniting the Indians for the promotion of their general welfare.

Keeler recalled that a number of years ago he had served on a Civil Rights Commission formed by the Ford Foundation to make a study of the status of civil rights among the various Indian tribes. He stated that Soya Lewellyn, a lawyer and teacher at the University of Chicago, was also a member of the Commission and Keeler noted that in questioning individual Indians Lewellyn tried to impress on them that they were being treated unfairly by the U. S. Government, and sought to instill in them an attitude of animosity toward the government. Keeler took it upon himself to inform Lewellyn that he did not believe the Indians had any feelings of animosity toward the government. Lewellyn replied that she has been associated with Dr. Sol Tax at the University of Chicago and that her knowledge in this field came from Dr. Tax, whom she considered to be an authority on Indian affairs.

Keeler advised that D'Arcy McNickle formerly held a high position in the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and he has heard that McNickle was forced to resign after refusing to answer questions before the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Keeler advised that during 1963, he had a conversation with the well known movie actor, Marlon Brando, while both were passengers on a plane bound for Europe. Brando expressed a strong interest in the cause of the American Indian. He mentioned Dr. Sol Tax and said he was familiar with the fine work Tax was doing in the field of Indian affairs. Brando discussed how he and other unnamed individuals planned to induce various Indian tribes in the U. S. and Canada to send representatives to a demonstration to be held in Olympia, Washington, in March, 1964. According to Brando the purpose of the demonstration was to obtain publicity and secure fishing rights in the Columbia River for the Yakima and other Indian tribes. Keeler asked Brando what his motives were in this undertaking and Brando said his only interest was that of protecting the rights of the Indians. Keeler asked Brando how many Indians had asked for his help in the matter but Brando made no reply.

After returning to the U. S., Keeler was contacted, telephonically, on two occasions by Brando. During the first call Brando indicated he had "lined up" several persons to take part in the Olympia demonstration and wanted Keeler to supply air transportation for those coming to the demonstration, but Keeler declined. Brando stated "the people from Chicago" would take part in the demonstration and Keeler took this to mean the Sol Tax people.

Thereafter Keeler received a second call from Brando advising that a demonstration had been held at Olympia and Brando and several Indians had been arrested. Brando was released but the Indians were held in jail. Brando asked Keeler financial assistance for the families of the jailed Indians. Keeler declined and advised Brando he did not believe the Indians really wanted to take part in demonstrations.

"We all understand how important the struggles in the South today are for the future of our whole country. Our work in the South makes important contributions in the struggle for democratic expansion in every part of the land. It costs money to achieve results in this work. In the year 1965 we plan to spend $10,000 for wages, travel and literature for the South. This represents a modest increase over 1964.

"Even this minimal spending will not take place unless there is a fight to get 100% payment of the Southern Solidarity Assessment. In the last number of years many Districts have failed to collect it or turn it in, or have treated it as a voluntary matter.

"Southern Solidarity Assessment is an involuntary assessment of one month's dues to be paid in December, at the end of the dues payment year. Most Districts have not yet completed turning in this Assessment for 1964.

ReBulet to NY, 1/6/65.

"The New York Times" of 10/5/61, on page 31, contains an article captioned, "On Civil Rights Frontier; Jack Greenberg." It was pointed out that JACK GREENBERG, a 36 year old white man, was the man who succeeded THURGOOD MARSHALL as general counsel of the NAACP, and it was mentioned that twelve years ago he accepted a job as assistant counsel in the NAACP because he regarded civil rights as one of the exciting frontiers of law-making. According to the article, GREENBERG was described as a man who worships the law and is a man for whom the law is a religion.

b. APPROX 1925

GREENBERG, according to the article, lives at [redacted] Long Island, NY. His wife is the former SEMA ANN TANZER of Wilmington, Delaware, and they have four children, [redacted] He attended Columbia University Law School in 1948 as a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar. It was stated that GREENBERG was in the Navy during World War II and served as a lieutenant junior grade.

b7C

According to the article, GREENBERG is the author of a book, "Race Relations and American Law" and is a co-author of "Citizen's Guide to Desegregation."

Indices of the NYO were reviewed in regard to GREENBERG, but no SUBVERSIVE information identifiable with him was located.

On 2/1/65 NY 1286-S* advised that ROBERT LEWIS (Counsel for United Electrical, Radio, Machine Workers Union) informed ISIDORE GIBBY NEEDLEMAN that testimony was being taken in New York from former residents of Mississippi who encountered or witnessed repressive acts by State or extra-legal agencies when Negroes considered registering to vote or attempted to register.

The "U.E. News" of 1/25/65 carries an article reflecting that over 100 attorneys are gathering evidence concerning the denial of rights to Negro citizens in Mississippi, in a move to have the present Mississippi delegation in the U.S. Congress removed from office on the grounds that 42% of population of voting age has been systematically denied the right to vote.

According to NY 1286-S*, LEWIS indicated that a hearing would be held on 2/11 or 2/12/65, which he hoped would be presided by a Supreme Court or Civil Court Justice. By 2/5/65 the five incumbent Congressmen were to be notified of the hearing, as they are entitled to be represented, and lists of witnesses were to be submitted to them. LEWIS stated that the Students Non-Vident Coordinating Committee and the Medical Committee were compiling lists of prospective witnesses and would direct them to attorneys who would take statements and prepare these people to make formal depositions at the hearing. LEWIS requested NEEDLEMAN to talk to some of these witnesses, obtain their stories, and determine their willingness to testify. NEEDLEMAN agreed to do so.

On 2/2/65 NY 1286-S* reported that NEEDLEMAN received a number of phone calls from doctors and nurses who had been in Mississippi during the summer of 1964. Most of these individuals had only negative information. One JUDITH HASSELBERGER, a nurse, 1233 York Avenue, NYC, advised NEEDLEMAN she had not witnessed acts of intimidation but had dressed the wounds of Negroes who had been injured (presumably in the course of such intimidation). A Dr. MANUEL GOTTLIEB, 2 East 54th St., NYC, advised that he and five other persons while staying at a hotel (place not mentioned) had received insulting anonymous phone calls threatening bodily harm if they did not leave town promptly. GOTTLIEB has recently returned to his office after a coronary attack and feels too swamped with work to spare the time for testifying.

ROBERT LEWIS instructed NEEDLEMAN to mail statements by witnesses to KUNSTLER, KUNSTLER, and KINOY, 511 Fifth Avenue, NYC, attention of RITA SCHWERNER.

The foregoing is submitted for the information of the Bureau.

ReBulet to NY 1/18/65, which in turn referred to NY airtel to Bureau dated 1/12/65, entitled as above.

The LHM enclosed with NY ~~letter~~ airtel dated 1/12/65, set forth information to the effect that TED BASSETT recently attended a meeting of church groups, "who were making plans for the campaign to seat rightful Mississippi delegation" to Congress. It is believed that the meeting TED BASSETT is referring to here was the rally sponsored by the NY Committee for support of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party Challenge, 514 West 126th Street, NYC, which rally was held at the Williams Institutional Church, 2225 7th Avenue, NYC, on 12/20/64, at which plans were formulated to oppose the seating of the Mississippi delegates and to seek support instead for the seating of Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party Delegates. This meeting was reported to the Bureau in NY letter dated 1/15/65, entitled as above, which also set forth information concerning the formation and activities of the NY Committee to support the MFDP Challenge. (U)

Investigation of the NY Committee is continuing and a LHM will be submitted incorporating any additional current information available concerning the NY Committee for support of the MFDP Challenge.

"The New York Times" of February 1, 1965, on page 12, contains an article captioned, "45 Negro Leaders Outline '65 Aims; Political Action and Voter Registration Stressed". The article, which was written by Paul L. Montgomery, stated that forty-five national Negro leaders declared yesterday (February 1, 1965) that their civil rights strategy for 1965 would emphasize voter registration and political action. It was indicated that the Negro leaders would insist on increased Negro representation in the Government bodies implementing the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Economic Opportunity Act, which created the Federal anti-poverty programs.

According to the article, the meeting which consisted of two days of discussions and workshops at the Interchurch Center, 475 Riverside Drive, New York City, was called by A. Philip Randolph, president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, who was described as the elder statesman of the civil rights movement. Randolph presided at a news conference which followed the closed sessions of the meeting.

According to the article, the following individuals were present at the meeting:

The Negro leaders indicated that of equal importance is their responsibility for undertaking an intensive educational campaign to acquaint Negroes with their rights and expanded opportunities under this new legislation. The leaders, according to the article, feel that some gains have been made but that there is still an enormous gap of social and economic inequality to be bridged.

The article mentioned that Jesse Gray, who was not invited to the meeting, made a statement on the evening of February 1, 1965, that the conference (called by Randolph) "will just end up a waste of time for everyone concerned" because the "grass roots of the ghettoes" did not participate.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 12, 1962, that Ossie Davis and his wife, Ruby Wallace (Ruby Dee), are not known to be members of the Communist Party; however, they have the reputation of supporting or aiding causes, through personal appearances, which are also supported by the Communist Party (CP).

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." (C)(U)

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

Demonstration By Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee At United States Court House, New York City, February 5, 1965
Racial Matters

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information February 4, 1965:

Eric Morton, Field Secretary for Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC), New York City, advised Bayard Rustin, February 4, 1965, that SNCC would stage a picketing demonstration at the United States Court House (USCH), Foley Square, New York City, commenced at about 3:00 p.m., on February 5, 1965; further that a sit-in would be attempted and some time after 3:00 p.m. several members of the SNCC would attempt to enter the office of Mr. Broderick Chief Assistant, United States Attorney, Southern District of New York, for interview and possible sit-in. The general purpose of the demonstration would be to demand federal intervention in the voter registration drive in Selma, Alabama. Bayard Rustin stated he was in full support of the action and would attempt to enlist the support of other individuals such as William Strickland of the New York Committee for Support of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party Challenge, and Dr. Logan of Haryou-Act, a Harlem Youth and Social Work Agency.

The following agencies were advised of the projected demonstration by SNCC on February 5, 1965:

A picketing demonstration and attempted sit-in was staged February 5, 1965, by SNCC at USCH, New York City. Some 55 demonstrators, male and female, predominantly white, began assembling in front of USCH at 3:45 p.m. They formed a picket line and carried signs demanding federal intervention in the voter registration drive in Selma, Alabama. At approximately 4:30 p.m. several of the pickets began making sorties up the steps of the USCH in an effort to gain admittance, but were forcibly restrained by United States Marshals who had taken positions at the head of the steps. Mr. Thomas Loughlin, United States Marshal's Office, USCH, reported that one of the pickets struck a United States Marshal with his fist. He was brought inside the USCH, by the Marshals for questioning and later released. He identified himself as Lawrence Shields of [redacted] New York City.

MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT

The "San Francisco Examiner," a daily newspaper on January 30, 1965, set forth that various court reporters were proceeding to Mississippi as volunteers on the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party challenge. The women are to take depositions in the challenge of the congressional elections on the charge Negroes were excluded from voting. The article pointed out that local court reporters were not available for this duty and that the visiting court reporters proceeding to Mississippi would be part of a team consisting of two attorneys, one Council of Federated Organizations member and the court reporter.

Among a group of court reporters proceeding from the San Francisco Bay Area is MARGARET ANNE MERRITT, nee SCHROETER, also known as MARGARET ANN PURSLEY.

A source reported in June 1944 that MARGARET ANN PURSLEY was a new member of the South-west Berkeley Club, Alameda County Communist Party. This source reported Subject attended meetings of this club in 1947, 1948 and 1949.

MARGARET ANNE MERRITT is described as follows:

Born:	8/22/22, Canton, Ohio
Height:	5'5"
Weight:	135 lbs.
Complexion:	Fair
Hair:	Light Brown
Eyes:	Blue

In 1959, MERRITT was employed as a legal secretary and in 1960 attended the Academy of Stenographic rts.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to memorandum dated February 3, 1965, at New York, New York.

The January 11, 1965, issue of the "New York Times," in an article captioned "21 Lawyers Begin Mississippi Drive," indicated that 21 lawyers meeting at the Broadway Congregational Church, 211 West 56th Street, New York City, on January 10, 1965, pledged to go to Mississippi beginning January 11, 1965, to take depositions for the purpose of ousting Mississippi's five present members of the United States House of Representatives. Morton Stavis, a Newark lawyer, was identified in this article as a participant in the "deposition caravan" and was identified as the national coordinator of the caravan.

The "Newark Evening News" in its February 3, 1965, edition carried an article entitled "Stavis Sees Gains." "Gathering Evidence in Mississippi." This article stated that Morton Stavis, a Newark lawyer, who had spent most of the past three weeks in Mississippi, had announced that he had been there gathering evidence to help unseat the state's Congressmen and that his efforts have been "quite successful." Stavis pointed out that 70 volunteer lawyers were in Mississippi attempting to prove that the state's present Congressmen were improperly elected because Negroes were systematically prevented from voting. He indicated that this activity was part of a challenge to the Representatives by the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party. Stavis went on to state that the lawyers had been taking depositions from state, county, and municipal officials as well as leaders of White Citizens Councils. Stavis further indicated that he expects to return south again before the taking of depositions by the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party ends on February 13, 1965.

On October 28, 1955, NK T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past and who stated that during the period 1943 to 1944 he was a member of the OPA communist group and later served as Captain of this communist group, furnished a signed statement in which he stated that he knew Morton Stavis to be a loyal Communist Party (CP) member and that Stavis had indicated to him that he had been associated with the CP for a long period of time and that his loyalty to the Party was clearly established.

NK T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 3, 1954, that Morton Stavis was known to him as a CP member and that in the presence of a third person, also known to NK T-2 as a CP member, Stavis had discussed action to be taken when approached by members of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

On January 5, 1952, NK T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated he believed Morton Stavis to be a member of the Professional Club, sometimes called the Lawyers Club, of the New Jersey CP in January, 1952.

On January 27, 1953, William Wallace, a self-admitted former CP member from 1949 to 1955, stated that all members of the CP in New Jersey had received instructions that should they be interviewed by agents of the FBI they should report what had gone on at the interview to Morton Stavis.

Morton Stavis invoked the Fifth Amendment before the House Un-American Activities Committee on February 28, 1956, when asked questions concerning present or past CP membership.

Dr. Hosea W. Kilgore, Jr., Pastor, Second United Church, 2110 Griffith Street, Los Angeles, California, Director of the CAC, which is the West Coast branch of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), appeared on a live-TV hour program featuring Jack Lemmon at 11:00 p.m. on February 7, 1965. In the course of an interview on that program, Kilgore stated that he could lead a mass demonstration on February 8, 1965, on the steps of the City Hall, Los Angeles, California, in protest of the arrest of Dr. Martin Luther King, in Selma, Alabama, on February 1, 1965, and that this protest could be directed to the U. S. Department of Justice.

The "Los Angeles Times", Los Angeles, California issue dated February 8, 1965, in part on page 21, col. 6 contained an article entitled "Return to Dr. King's March Ordered". This article noted as follows:

"A mass demonstration will be conducted on the steps of City Hall at 3 p.m. today in protest against the arrest of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and other leaders in the voter registration drive at Selma, Ala., it was announced today.

"The rally was called by Dr. Hosea Kilgore Jr., director of the West Coast branch of Dr. King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference. The first demonstration the pair had planned here."

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 3, 1965, that a protest demonstration was held on the steps of the Los Angeles City

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY,
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA (ANPLA)
also known as the American Nazi Party
Western Division (ANPWD)

A source has advised on August 2, 1963, that the American Nazi Party, Los Angeles, California (ANPLA), which branch has also been known as the American Nazi Party, Western Division (ANPWD), came into existence as follows:

In October, 1960, LEONARD HOLSTEIN was made a member of the American Nazi Party (ANP) by the national headquarters of that group as a result of his leading a picket line protesting the marriage of a Negro to a Caucasian. At that time HOLSTEIN told the Los Angeles Police Department he was in complete accord with the thinking of GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL, National ANP leader. He said he, HOLSTEIN, is trying to wake up the people to what is going on; that the Jewish-owned press and radio would not let the people know the truth.

On March 7, 1962, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that HOLSTEIN was one of his leaders in Los Angeles.

At a press conference on May 2, 1963, in Los Angeles, California, RALPH PERRY FORBES stated he is a lieutenant in the ANP and the ninth-ranking officer of the organization. He stated he arrived in Los Angeles May 1, 1963, to take charge of the party's headquarters in the Los Angeles area, which has control over party activities in the Southwestern United States.

GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL arrived in Los Angeles on May 6, 1963, and was photographed by the local press with RALPH PERRY FORBES. ROCKWELL was quoted by the press as saying he came to Los Angeles because of the arrest of five members of the ANP as a result of an altercation at the Shrine Auditorium on April 28, 1963, where a Salute to Israel rally was being held. He was also quoted as stating local headquarters were to be established in California.

MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT

At 5:25 p.m., February 3, 1965, DORIS THOMAS, Administrative Assistant to Congressman PHILLIP BURTON, San Francisco, California, telephonically advised the San Francisco Office of the FBI, that Congressman BURTON was alarmed over activities at Bogalusa, Louisiana, with reference to some of his "constituents." Miss THOMAS advised that BURTON had called the Chief of Police and Mayor at Bogalusa advising them that STEVEN ROY MILLER was in Audrey's Cafe, 507 Third Avenue, Bogalusa, Louisiana, and that cars were cruising the area and mobs were forming. Miss THOMAS asked whether the FBI had Agents at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, who could be dispatched to the area. Miss THOMAS advised that STEVEN ROY MILLER is engaged in Negro voter registration work in Bogalusa, Louisiana.

At 7:39 p.m., February 3, 1965, Mrs. HUGH (HELEN) MILLER, 355 Roosevelt Way, San Francisco, California, telephonically advised that she is of the opinion her son is in danger of his life. She stated that at that time her son was in a bar at 309 Third Street, Bogalusa, Louisiana, and that she had talked to him on the telephone. He claims to be in danger of his life and said he had just been interviewed by the FBI, but that the FBI had gone. Mrs. MILLER advised she called the New Orleans FBI Office before calling the San Francisco Office and wanted Agents to go and sit with STEVEN at the bar. She was very insistent on having Agents with her boy. She was advised that the FBI could not furnish a bodyguard for her son.

Also during the evening of February 3, 1965, the San Francisco Office of the FBI received a telephone call from MAURICE T. MURPHY, 2550 - 31st Avenue, San Francisco, who said he was a Post Office employee and who said that a friend of his, PEGGY SARASOHN, had just received a telephone call from Mrs. HUGH MILLER in which Mrs. MILLER had told her that she heard shots in the background when she talked to her son in Louisiana.

A source advised that DORIS ROSEZINA THOMAS, Administrative Assistant to Congressman PHILLIP BURTON, during 1963 had a yearly subscription to the "People's World," a West Coast communist newspaper.

A second source advised that in 1962-1964, CARL BLOICE, Northern California District CP Committee member and reporter on the "People's World," was in frequent contact with THOMAS. This source advised that THOMAS was born in Mississippi; attended Hampton Institute and Howard University, and was a social worker before joining BURTON as his Administrative Assistant.

It is stated in an article in the "San Francisco Examiner," daily newspaper, dated January 16, 1964, captioned, "A Precedent, Damages to Housing Bias Victim," that a San Francisco jury awarded $1,250.00 damages to a Negro woman victim of housing discrimination in its first verdict of its kind ever recorded in San Francisco. The verdict was in favor of Miss DORIS THOMAS, Administrative Assistant to PHILLIP BURTON.

A third source reported that during the early 1940s Dr. THOMAS P. BURTON, father of PHILLIP BURTON, had been a Communist Party (CP) member.

MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT

JACK PATTEN appeared as a witness in public sessions of the House Committee on Un-American Activities in San Francisco on June 19, 1957, and in sworn testimony stated he had been a member of the Professional Section of the CP in San Francisco from 1942 to 1947, and that he knew PEGGY SARASOHN to have been a CP member.

A fourth source advised that in 1956, PEGGY SARASOHN was CP Organizational Secretary of the San Francisco County Professional Section.

A fifth source advised that SARASOHN dropped out of the CP in April, 1957.

A sixth source advised that San Francisco attorney HUGH MILLER had been a member of the Professional Section, CP, San Francisco, from 1945-1951.

This source advised that HELEN MILLER had been a CP member from 1937 to 1950.

The San Francisco Office indices contain no record identifiable with MAURICE T. MURPHY.

Demonstrations By Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee At City Hall, New York City, And At United States Court House, New York City, February 3, 4, 1965
Racial Matters

Detective Jack Barnathan, Bureau of Special Services (BSS), New York City Police Department (NYCPD), furnished the following information, February 4, 1965:

A picketing demonstration was conducted by the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), commencing at 8:15 p.m., on February 3, 1965, at City Hall, New York City, location of the Mayor's Office. At approximately 8:30 p.m., SNCC was joined by Jesse Gray, Harlem Rent-Strike Organizer, and his supporters from the Community Council on Housing, 6 East 117th Street, New York City, of which council Jesse Gray is Director. Both groups demonstrated opposite City Hall and at 11:15 p.m., several of them went into City Hall and notified a patrolman there that they would demonstrate all night to have the Mayor of the City of New York intercede through the President of the United States for Federal intervention in the current voter registration drive in Selma, Alabama. According to Detective Barnathan, by 1:40 a.m., February 4, 1965, because of the extreme cold weather, all demonstrators had dispersed from City Hall. No disturbances were reported at City Hall.

On February 4, 1965, at 3:15 p.m., SNCC again assembled both inside and outside the United States Court House (USCH), located at Foley Square, New York City, which is a short distance from City Hall. Twenty nine demonstrators representing SNCC and carrying signs reading "Federal Registrars in Selma" attempted to enter and sit-in within the lobby of the USCH, however, they were restrained by United States Marshals.

Demonstrations By Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee at City Hall, New York City, and At United States Court House, New York City, February 3-4, 1965

Worth Long, Spokesman for the group and described as former Project Director at Selma, together with several other representatives of SNCC, were granted an interview with Vincent L. Broderick, Chief Assistant to the United States Attorney, Southern District of New York. They presented to the Department of Justice the following demands:

1. Dropping of all charges against and release of all prisoners for voter registration activities in Alabama;

2. Immediate dispatch of non-Segregationist Federal Rigistrars to Alabama;

3. Prosecution of Sheriff Jim Clark of Dallas County, Alabama.

4. Filing of additional suits by Justice Department under the 1964 Civil Rights Act, to restrain interference with right to vote.

After the interview with Mr. Broderick, these individuals were asked to leave his office. Upon their refusal, they were escorted by United States Marshals from the office and out of the USCH. None of the demonstrators was arrested and no assistance from the New York City Police was requested. By 6:00 p.m., February 4, 1965, all demonstrators had dispersed from the area.

Mr. Silvio Mollo, Chief, Criminal Division, United States Attorney's Office, and Captain of the Guards, USCH, were advised of the projected Demonstration at USCH, Foley Square.

Demonstrations By Student Non-Violent
Coordinating Committee at City Hall,
New York City, And At United States
Court House, New York City,
February 3-4, 1965

No information was developed by BSS indicating that Jesse Gray participated in the demonstration at the USCH.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been the organizer for the Harlem Region (HR) of the Communist Party (CP) but this position terminated during November, 1958.

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 24, 1964, that according to William Patterson, Chairman of the New York District, CP, Jesse Gray is no longer a CP member, but is friendly to the CP.

February 3, 1965

On February 3, 1965, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, leading functionary of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, remarked that while in Ghana recently he had talked to that country's Foreign Minister. He was told by the Foreign Minister that if necessary he could talk to ALEX QUAISON-SACKEY, President of the current General Assembly of the United Nations, New York City, on matters relating to Negro race relations and the freedom movement in the U.S. He intimated that QUAISON-SACKEY would relay any pertinent information to him, the Foreign Minister.

In this connection, LIGHTFOOT remarked that after his return to the U.S. in late January, 1965, he had actually attempted to talk to QUAISON-SACKEY, but was unsuccessful since that individual was then in London for the funeral of WINSTON CHURCHILL.

Copies of this report have been disseminated to local intelligence agencies in accordance with Bureau instructions.

For the information of the Bureau, a separate appendix section has been utilized in this report for the purpose of characterizing individuals and organizations mentioned in the report. It was felt that to set forth such a large number of characterizations immediately following the place where they are mentioned in the details would have detracted from the continuity of the report. However, in some instances where it was felt for purposes of clarity, ease in reading, and in order to obtain the full impact of the information, characterizations of individuals have been included immediately after the mention of the name. The appendix contains all of the individuals who can be characterized.

For information of the Bureau the "New York Times" issue of 1/5/65, page 1, contained the following concerning the annual NAACP Board of Directors meeting held in New York City, 1/4/65.

"The NAACP announced yesterday a nation wide program of 'citizenship clinics' designed to strengthen the Negro Community from within.

"ROY WILKINS, NAACP Executive Director, said the clinics would not confine their duties to combating discrimination. The 'broad goal', he said 'Will be the assumption of full citizenship responsibilities along with utilization of full citizenship rights'.

"The announcement of the clinics will be a significant departure from the programs developed by the civil rights movement in recent years....."

The following information is not being included in that section of the report concerning the Negro American Labor Council as it is felt that the nature of the information might tend to disclose the identities of [redacted] and [redacted] b7D

It was ascertained that on June 16, 1964, JAMES TORMEY advised LEO RABOUINE that he did not like the report that AGNES WILLIS gave recently to the New York District, CP, USA, Trade Union Commission. He stated that he could not understand why she had said that the NY NALC CP caucus had gotten very little help from the CP, USA leadership. TORMEY said that he had been working with the caucus for some time now and he wondered what she thought he was doing over this period of time.

TORMEY also advised that the "Industrial Group" CP, USA is greatly concerned with the activities of the Negro American Labor Council (NALC). He said that he feels that he can get this group to go along with his program in the NALC. He invited RABOUINE to attend an Executive Session of the Trade Union Commission, New York District CP which he also referred to as the "Industrial" on June 19, 1964 where a discussion would be held as to how the commission would approach becoming active in the NALC.

TORMEY told RABOUINE that he should attempt to broaden the Schaefer Brewery, Brooklyn, New York, boycott and that he would like to have the NALC take an active part in the boycott.

It was ascertained that on June 28, 1964, JAMES TORMEY, AGNES WILLIS and LEO RABOUINE held a meeting.

WILLIS gave the others a report on a meeting of the National Executive Board, NALC, which was held on June 27, 1964. She stated that discrimination in hiring in the brewery industry was discussed and that A. PHILIP RANDOLPH appointed CLEVELAND ROBINSON as the "top" NALC individual concerning the brewery situation.

TORMEY said that he wanted WILLIS and RABOUINE to attend the next meeting of the Trade Union Commission Executive Committee which was to be held on July 24, 1964.

It was ascertained that on August 28, 1964, LEO RABOUINE told JAMES TORMEY about a meeting of the NY NALC and the latest developments in the Schaefer Brewing Company situation. He told TORMEY that three of the Negro brewery workers had joined the NY NALC.

TORMEY told RABOUINE that the agenda for a meeting of the Trade Union Commission which was to be held on August 30, 1964, called for a discussion concerning the political situation in the United States but that he wanted RABOUINE to be prepared to give a short report on the NALC and the brewery situation. TORMEY stated that he believed that it was important enough to be included on the agenda.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis: Summit conference of civil rights groups was called for the latter part of 1964 in Washington, DC, the theme of which was to be "State of the Race" and its purpose to discuss 1965 outlook for civil rights movement. Certain CP leadership desire as many delegates as possible from civil rights groups attend as well as Party people even though A. PHILIP RANDOLPH stated he wants no Communists present. CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and HENRY WINSTON in October, 1964, desired that CP leaders discuss possible role which Party can play in preparing a program in the 1965 civil rights movement and implement this program, if possible, into this forthcoming summit conference. CP, USA National Negro Commission held a meeting in NYC in November, 1964; LIGHTFOOT discussed a national conference of top Negro leaders which after postponements was scheduled for January, 1965 in Washington, DC and he said CP members should attend. At a meeting of the National Board of the CP, USA in November, 1964, LIGHTFOOT discussed the "State of the Race Conference" and stated the CP should be present and participate. In November, 1964

SYNOPSIS CONTINUED

GEORGE MEYERS stated the CP felt that the Negro people in the US were on the move and that CP must continue to keep up its fight for Negro and white unity. In November, 1964, CP leaders analyzed the results of the 1964 elections and feel it was a break-through for civil rights and that the labor and Negro alliance emerged in a stronger position and these forces must struggle to direct the JOHNSON Administration toward progressive policies. In regard to civil rights organizations, LIGHTFOOT, in November, 1964, said they must learn to depend on "us" as initiators not as those who merely comment on their activities. "The Worker" of 11/15/64 stated terror and intimidation in the South, especially in Mississippi, must be answered and the people must demand Federal intervention to assure protection of the Negro people and their white allies. "The Worker" of 12/6/64 urged all class-conscious and militant trade unionists to work toward attaining the rights for Negro people to which they are entitled. NAT WEINSTEIN of the SWP, in December, 1964 discussed a planned meeting in Harlem at SWP Headquarters which was being called to form political units to struggle against Democratic and Republican politicians, and to form alliances politically to advance the Negro struggle. WEINSTEIN claimed SWP was responsible for this radical departure from traditional Negro thinking. Workers World Party continues to work in behalf of WILLIE MAE MALLORY. LIGHTFOOT stated in latter part of 1964 that the Party must concentrate on building NALC at all costs. Reverend MILTON A. GALAMISON plans boycott of NYC Public Schools for 2/3/65. (X) U

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, USA (CP, USA)

1. Plans, Strategy Made at National Level of the Party

A summit conference of civil rights groups initially called for October 10-12, 1964, in Washington, D.C., and later postponed to November 10-12, 1964, has again been postponed to December 11-13, 1964. This summit conference is to be held at Howard University, in Washington, D.C. The participants are to be made up of various civil rights groups in the country including NALC, NAACP, SNCC, CORE, and the Urban League.

The theme of the conference is to be "State of the Race", and its purpose is to discuss a 1965 outlook for the civil rights movement in this country.

In connection with the summit conference, certain of the Communist Party (CP), USA, leadership desire that as many delegates as possible from civil rights groups attend as well as Party people, even though A. PHILIP RANDOLPH stated that he wants no Communists present.

Both CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and HENRY WINSTON desire that, at a CP meeting on or about October 28, 1964, in New York City, of CP, USA leaders, they should plan to discuss a possible role which the Party can play in preparing a program in the 1965 Civil Rights Movement and implement this program, if possible, into the forthcoming summit conference.

On October 27, 1964, WILLIAM PATTERSON engaged in a conversation with a man whom the source could only identify as BILL in CP Headquarters, New York City. In commenting on the Negro Freedom Movement, BILL stated that the thing that was lacking in it was that they have allowed American imperialism to swing it away from developing any form of internationalism. He stated "we" have some responsibility in tying up our struggle with the struggles of these people for their freedom. U

PATTERSON stated that there was a need to integrate the Negro into the general American life. He said that Negroes should be brought along in order to show the relationship of the peace fight to their own fight for equality. U

The meeting was called to order by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, the Chairman of the National Negro Commission. LIGHTFOOT said that the meeting was called hurriedly following the national elections and that he had no set report to give. LIGHTFOOT said that he intended to throw out a few proposals to see what reactions he might obtain from the group and hoped to prepare a basis for a report to be made at a later meeting. (U)

LIGHTFOOT stated that since the death of BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, there had been no one in the National Negro Commission to work with him. LIGHTFOOT said that a Steering Committee was needed to lay out a program of action. LIGHTFOOT then proposed that the Steering Committee consist of five persons and he suggested that CP members JAMES JACKSON, HENRY WINSTON, WILLIAM PATTERSON and himself, LIGHTFOOT, be on the committee. (U)

Some objection was raised to the fact that there was no white person on the committee and that there were no women named for the committee. GEORGE MEYERS was then proposed and accepted. A young Negro named "ALVA" was also proposed and accepted a position on the committee. (U)

LIGHTFOOT suggested that the National Negro Commission change its name to Civil Rights Commission of the CP. There was a discussion, with some objection to this change, and it was decided that the Steering Committee would discuss this change of name with the CP National Board. (U)

TED BASSETT, who is a reporter for "The Worker," then talked about the recent national elections, emphasizing that more Negroes had voted in the recent national elections than ever before in the history of the country. (U)

Following luncheon, LIGHTFOOT asked MILDRED MC ADORY to make a report on the memorial meeting for BENJAMIN J. DAVIS. MC ADORY said that she felt that the memorial for DAVIS should take place in Harlem, New York City, in February, 1965. She said that considerable work still had to be done in connection with the preparation of leaflets and the advertising of the event. CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT then proposed that each CP District have a Davis memorial. This was discussed and it was decided that each district would take steps to hold its own memorial for DAVIS. (X) U

LIGHTFOOT stated that A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, Head of the Negro American Labor Council, had proposed a national conference of top Negro leaders and that after several postponements, this conference was to take place in Washington, D.C., during January, 1965. LIGHTFOOT then stated that CP members should attend this conference. He directed GEORGE MEYERS and JACOB GREEN to see to it that 40 persons attend. (X) U

The National Board of the CP,USA held a meeting on November 18, 1964, through November 21, 1964, at the Martinique Hotel, Broadway and 32nd Street, New York City. On November 18, 1964, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT described the JOHNSON victory as a break-through in the fight for civil rights. He said the civil rights movement must elect more Negro candidates and he urged non-partisan unity of Negroes supporting Negro candidates.

GIL GREEN said that even though Big Business gave its support to President JOHNSON, it will seek to bend the electoral mandate to its own interests. He asserted Big Business does not see the end of colonialism, the end of the cold war and is against publicly financing building programs. He said the labor movement and Negro alliance emerged from the elections in a stronger position and these forces must struggle to direct the JOHNSON Administration toward progressive policies.

According to GREEN, the CP, USA must seek a greater unity of the left, an end to United States involvement in Viet Nam, changes in the seniority systems in Congress, abolishment of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, protection of the rights of Negroes, recognition of Red China, an end of the cold war, a nuclear ban agreement, a greater push to the poverty programs, an end of all anti-labor demonstrations, and an end to Communist prosecution. On November 19, 1964, ROBERT THOMPSON spoke generally of coalition of forces such as Negro and labor during recent elections as an area in which CP,USA should develop so that forces will emerge in the post-election period and be influential in coming local, city, and state elections. U

On November 19, 1964, TOM DENNIS spoke of the elections in Michigan and said one of the most important developments there was the election of a Negro to Congress. He said there is a developing of a Negro Trade Unionist Movement, but he said he did not know where it would go. U

On November 19, 1964, IRVING POTASH spoke of the Democratic landslide in New Jersey and said the Party's main drive was concentrated on inspiring and promoting people's coalitions. He said in many cases it was the initiative of a single militant progressive and these units worked within trade union and civil rights movements in areas where the regular Democratic organization was dead. U

On November 21, 1964, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT made reference to a "State of the Race Conference" called by A. PHILIP RANDOLPH to enable Negro leaders to discuss strategy and tactics of the Negro freedom movement. All shades of opinion are to be represented, including Muslims, but not Communists. This conference is now set for mid-January, 1965. LIGHTFOOT said the CP should be present and participate, and the CP Negro Commission has met to accomplish this, and that the purpose of his speaking is to get cooperation of CP districts. He asserted the Negro movement does not intend to sit back and wait on President JOHNSON, but to go on to new levels, although there is no hostility to him. The January conference will be the first centralizing action of the freedom movement since the election. U

On November 21, 1964, DANNY RUBIN gave what he called a preliminary report on organizational matters and called for ideas. He thought there should be major changes because of the following: 1. Failure of the CP to grow among Negroes and youth; 2. Failure of "The Worker" and the "Peoples World" to achieve better circulation, and, 3. Failure to improve financial resources. RUBIN called for concentration on youth, both Negro and white, and for a crash cadre program.

"PEOPLES WORLD" is a west coast Communist publication.

On November 21, 1964, HENRY WINSTON commented that the issue of Negro-White solidarity should be raised, otherwise the South will not be organized. (X) U

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT commented in regard to the National election that in this election the people not only voted against something, but also for some things. The conditions now exist for achieving a break-through for civil rights during the next four to six years. The Negro civil rights movement for some time stood alone as a protest; but today this is not only one issue by itself but covers an entire spectrum of people and demands ranging from the broad issue of peace on into other areas. As the results have indicated, the Negro people are no longer alone. When the goal of two million Negro voters in the South is reached, a realignment will result which will lead to the retirement of the Dixiecrats.

(X) U

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

GIL GREEN read a resolution which purportedly set forth the position of the CP, USA with regard to the recent national elections. In part, GREEN stated that of all social forces in our land, the Negro people are the most dissatisfied with their lot, unable and unwilling to live in the old way and determined not to sell their birth right and self-dignity for some minor advances. Yet the fulfillment of their battle cry, "Freedom Now," requires far reaching changes in American life and not least of all in its economy. For these reasons, the Negro people's movement is the most determined and militant force in America today. Its courage, self-sacrifice and noble ideals have attracted to it also many of the best of the young White generation who understand that by winning freedom for Negro America they will insure freedom for all America. (U)

Because the root cause of Negro oppression is economic, and because the great majority of Afro-Americans are working people, there is the basis for a natural alliance between the labor and Negro people's movements. This already exists in loose form and could exist in complete and solid form once the labor movement takes greater initiative in the struggle for Negro rights and in the great battle for peace and against poverty. When the spirit which today animates the Negro people's movement sweeps over into the ranks of labor, a great new rebirth of the labor movement will take place. It will complete the job of organizing the millions of still unorganized industrial, white collar and professional workers and place itself in the recognized leadership of all those working for social progress in the United States. It is toward that day that all class-conscious and militant trade unionists should work. (U)

Among those tasks which confront them in the very next few weeks according to GREEN is to demand federal protection for the constitutional rights of the Negro people in the deep South and to get the JOHNSON Administration to stop all federal funds to states which refuse to comply with federal law. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

On November 21, 1964, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT gave a report on the status of the racial struggle at the meeting of the National Board of the CP. He stated that the main problems confronting the Negro today in his struggle for equality are how to expand the Negro labor alliance and how to place working class leaders at the helm of the Negro freedom movement. (U)

LIGHTFOOT mentioned that A. PHILIP RANDOLPH is calling a conference on "State of the Race" as a result of a resolution of the Negro American Labor Council. This is to be a meeting of the top Negro leaders and will concern itself with the subject of how to raise the level of struggle and how to raise the issues and what methods and tactics are to be used. He said that this meeting will consist of all Negro leaders, including Muslims, but no Communists. The meeting, according to LIGHTFOOT, will be held some time in January. LIGHTFOOT said we want our Party ready to participate in this conference, and he said that the participation should be at the maximum. In this regard, LIGHTFOOT stated that the Districts should begin work in this direction at once. (U)

LIGHTFOOT stated that the Negro freedom movement after the election has a dependence upon President JOHNSON. According to LIGHTFOOT, this conference in January will mark the beginning of the renewal of the struggle for Negro freedom and will organize a real struggle for economic demands. In regard to the conference, he said that in order for it to be effective, there must be organization on lower levels in each city. He mentioned that anti-Communist clauses such as those in the NALC, will mean little if there is a struggle, and he said that they must learn to depend upon "us" as initiators not as those who merely comment on their activities. "December 10, 1964

"Memorandum

"From: National Negro Commission and Org. Dept.

To: All Districts and comrades responsible for Negro work.

Re: Negro History Week Activity for February, 1965.

The recent meeting of the National Negro Commission held in New York City had a three-point agenda:

1. An analysis of the elections in the Negro community.
2. We took note of the preparations for a summit meeting called by the Negro American Labor Council some time in January in Washington, D.C.
3. Negro History Week Activity.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

"In this memo, we shall forego a discussion on the first two points. We believe that the election results are now common knowledge and when the reports as well as the Draft Resolution on the election results is available, this will more than suffice to show the role of the Negro vote and the problems thereof.

"In regard to the second point, this matter has been discussed with all districts.

"We shall therefore discuss Negro History Week 1965.

"Our approach to organizing activity around this issue must be of a twofold character. On the one hand, we must assist all broad forces interested in Negro History Week activity to make 1965 a turning point in the character of the observation of Negro History Week. Heretofore, the observation has taken the form mainly of highlighting Negro achievements in various fields of endeavor. Naturally, individual Negro achievements, past and present, are important. But we are of the opinion that the struggle must now be mounted on a higher level. In line with the new developments within the country in which all segments of the American people have come closer to a realization of the importance of the Negro question, it is now possible to broaden the scope of Negro History Week, making it a focal point for the struggle to include the true role of the Negro people and the Negro question, past and present, in the curricula of all schools throughout the nation. This involves pressure on school boards and other governmental levels. Appropriate speakers in schools during and after this period is also a valuable form. We should also assist other forces to prevent Negro History Week from being only an observance of brotherhood. We should encourage trade unions to undertake appropriate programs. The other aspect of this year's observance must take the form of highlighting the contributions of the American Communist Party to the struggles of the Negro people,

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

past and present. There is a great urgency for us to raise our Party's participation in this regard to a higher level than ever before in our history. The chief endeavor of the bourgeoisie in these cold war years in the Negro field has been to bury the contributions the CP has made. Tons of literature have been poured out in which either the role of the Party was deleted or grossly distorted. A whole new generation of freedom fighters has risen up without any knowledge of our contribution. Many of these young fighters are searching for answers that the present leadership of the Negro liberation movement does not fully provide. It is therefore imperative that our contributions reach these youth.

"Hence, in the framework of modesty, we must prepare meetings and materials which will serve this purpose. We propose that the central figure highlighting the contributions of American Communists should be around the person of Comrade BEN DAVIS.

"We, therefore, propose that Memorial meetings commemorating his memory and highlighting Communist contributions be organized.

"In New York, the plan is to organize in Harlem one of the largest rallies in the last ten years and preparations are under way to achieve this objective. In all the districts on the Eastern seaboard, such as Connecticut, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Massachusetts- where BEN went to school-, Maryland- where he first worked, etc., we urge full participation in supporting the meeting being organized in Harlem. It is likewise proposed that all other Districts organize BEN DAVIS Memorials, no matter how small or large, although the emphasis must be to give such meetings attention such as we have not done in recent years. The National Office will make speakers available. Comrades WINSTON, JACKSON, PATTERSON, LIGHTFOOT, HALL and others, will be available for such gatherings.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

"All such memorials should be of a united front character, as broad as possible given the local situation. But in all instances, the breadth of such gatherings must not negate the ability to bring forward in the clearest manner the role of BEN DAVIS, the Communist.

"A pamphlet highlighting the life's work of BEN DAVIS is in preparation. We urge the widest distribution of this pamphlet and especially must we guarantee that the young cadre within the various civil rights organizations get a copy of this pamphlet.

"In addition to this, we are proposing that a special supplement be prepared for The Worker which will highlight all the various achievements of the CP throughout the years. We urge preparations for maximum circulation.

"Thirdly, it would be very good if progressive book stores were encouraged to make available package sales of various literature that Communists and other progressives have written on the Negro question.

"Lastly, the Org-Ed Commission is working on an outline for theoretical discussion on the Negro question in all levels of Party organization, to be ready for Negro History Week."

3. Plans, as Revealed in Party Publications

"The Worker" is an east coast Communist newspaper.

"The Worker" of November 1, 1964, on page three contains an editorial in which it was stated that the latest events have dramatized the fact that Mississippi is in a state of insurrection against the United States and that without the intervention of the Federal Government there can be no guarantee of the rights of the people, both Negro and white, or of the rights of those who insist on their rights. The article continues that those who are guilty of practicing violence and intimidation against the Negro people are allowed to go free. It was stated that this is a mockery of the constitution of our land and its Bill of Rights. It was further stated in the article that the JOHNSON Administration and the Department of Justice bear a major responsibility for the situation and that this is the fruit of their refusal to use Federal power to enforce the rights and protect the lives of all citizens of Mississippi.

[redacted] (U)

In regard to elections, it was stated that third party candidates should be put forward wherever this can help strengthen the mass movement and struggle and where no real choice is given to the people. According to the article, under no circumstances should they be put forward where this would mean a conflict with the labor or Negro people's movements or where the only result would be a victory for the ultra-right.

Continuing, it was mentioned that "the left" should actively wage the labor and Negro people's movements to begin fighting for increased representation all along the line to put forth their own more advanced candidates in primary struggles and to refuse to go along with those chosen by the political machines. It should help stimulate the formation of a liberal-progressive bloc in Congress and in state and city legislative bodies.

In "The Worker" of January 3, 1965, on page three, in an editorial, it was stated that the opening of the new Congress will initiate a struggle to deny seats to some members of the Mississippi delegation who have held their seats solely on the basis of the "disfranchisement" of Negro citizens. It was pointed out that the struggles of the Negro people to acquire Federal law enforcement protection in exercising their rights to freedom of political participation and action in the South and the nation can be won this year. This is a cause vital to the strengthening of the democratic structure of the electoral system for the country as a whole.

(U)

It was further stated that this outrageous disregard of the Constitution in Mississippi demands a smashing defeat for GOLDWATER and the insistence of all people and their organizations that the President and the Department of Justice use all the Federal power necessary to establish the rule of the Constitution of the United States in Mississippi and the guarantee of life and liberty to all of its citizens.

"The Worker" of November 15, 1964, on page three contains an article captioned "And Now Forward", in which the November, 1964 election was discussed and the "mandate of the votes." It was stated that almost 6,000,000 votes cast by Negroes, most of them against GOLDWATER, were decisive in many states, North and South, and in many of the Congressional and local elections.

It was stated that now the "people's forces" should demand unitedly that a Negro be named to the President's cabinet, and that Negroes be named to posts at all levels in the Federal government and in the judiciary, in accordance with their role and in order to make full use of the Negro people's talent.

It was stated that the terror and intimidation in the South, especially in Mississippi, must be answered, and the people must demand Federal intervention to assure protection of the Negro people and their white allies. In view of the election results, there should be full implementation of the Civil Rights Law.

There appears in "The Worker" of December 6, 1964, on page six, an article captioned "Passage to Progress." Under the heading of "Negro People's Movement," it was stated that of all the social forces in our land, the Negro people are the most dissatisfied. It was stated that the Negro people are unwilling to live in the old way, and they are determined not to sell their birthright and self-dignity for some minor advances in regard to Civil Rights. The Negro people's movement is the most determined and militant force in America today. It was pointed out that all class-conscious and militant trade unionists should work toward attaining the rights for Negro people to which they are entitled. It was pointed out that there is a natural alliance between the labor and Negro people's movement.

In this article ROSEN uses seven headings to discuss this matter as follows:

Strategy and Tactics. ROSEN set forth that "The immediate prospective for the liberation movement is the goal of independent political power. This is especially true for the South. It is necessary for the Negro masses to contemplate and act to acquire their own territory and if need be to hold it against federal and local intervention."

ROSEN goes on to state that Negro workers in the North will be in the forefront of the national struggle as well as the class struggle....

"Based on the class national struggle in the communities in the North, the Negro workers can begin to control the community and take it away from the police terror, landlords and other scum laying the basis for the eventual seizing of the community."

ROSEN's next heading is captioned "Nationalism" under which he discusses what errors are to be avoided in not recognizing nationalism as a positive factor in the struggle.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

ROSEN's third point is captioned "Economic" in which ROSEN states that he believes that imperialism rests to a great degree on exploitation of the Negro people.

ROSEN's next point is captioned "Ruling Class Tactics" in which ROSEN claims that the ruling class tactics will be on two levels. The first is "deception, persuasion and bribery". The second is increased brutality against the masses trying to prevent them from rallying to new revolutionary leaders.

ROSEN's next point is captioned "Revolutionary Struggle" in which ROSEN states that the Negro liberation movement must be a revolutionary movement which will be sharp, of long duration and will include armed struggle.

ROSEN's last point is captioned "Self-Determination" in which he states "The Negro people have already begun to determine their own destiny. They do not need our sanction. We hail their efforts for self-determination which start now and not after victory of socialism."

Source furnished the Pre-Convention Discussion Bulletin Number 2, captioned "The Black Liberation Struggle and the Right to Revolution" which is described as "Minutes of the October, 1964, Meeting of the National Coordinating Committee of the PLM".

This pre-convention discussion centered around whether or not to adopt a black Negro nation on the principle of self-determination as advanced at one point by the Communist Party (CP) or the Negro people as a nation as defined by STALIN. The discussion centered around the necessity of a definition of terminology and the necessity for establishing a clear cut line since confusion exists in concepts, definitions and even in the nature of revolution and revolutionary tactics.

The Discussion Bulletin sets forth on page 25 that according to MILTON ROSEN, PLM National Chairman, he stated that in the North we have to have long range strategy where the Negro workers begin to control their communities in slow but sure stages. As examples ROSEN gave rent strikes and the Harlem Defense Council. According to ROSEN, this could not happen right away but when people begin to control their communities and their political affairs. It also puts them in the position of having to control the fundamental things, that is their economic affairs.

ROSEN further stated when talking about positive nationalism, that PLM's job as Communists is not to move black workers against white workers but move them against the ruling class where necessary, and if it has to be, to fight against the ruling class.

According to the bulletin, part of the discussion centered around the Harlem riots in New York City, July, 1964, and SELMA SPARKS voiced the opinion that they were defeated because there was a lack of the base in the community.

MILTON ROSEN disagreed with this argument and stated that the old CP did not lose whatever base it had among the Negro people because the white leaders in the CP control the CP but because it abandoned its revolutionary outlook which the PLM must not do.

The contents of this booklet were described as being "formulated through a lengthy discussion within the PLM concerning correct policy for Marxist - Leninists at home and abroad. The discussion was based on a report made by MILTON ROSEN, PLM Chairman to the National Coordinating Committee of the PLM on October 23, 1963. That body consisting of twelve members adopted the main line of the report unanimously with one abstention. The report was re-drafted and issued for discussion. After three months of discussion, the report was again revised based on the changes suggested by the PLM members."

This booklet is broken down into twelve chapters and in chapter 7 it is set forth that the Negro liberation movement is the key to the development of a successful revolutionary movement in the United States. The booklet goes on and states that "The absence of a genuine Marxist vanguard deprived the Negro people of a consistently anti-imperialist force which fights the poison of white chauvinism and develops the necessary unity between the freedom struggle and the class struggle which must be jointly waged by Negro and white workers and their allies."

On October 2, 1964, a group calling themselves the Brooklyn Civil Liberties Committee held a meeting at the Town Hall, 25 Clark Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Among the speakers was WILLIAM EPTON who spoke concerning the Harlem riots and stated that it started from the report by the press and the Police Department on the blood brothers in Harlem. EPTON claimed that on July 18, 1964, the Police in Harlem openly fired bullets into a group of peaceful demonstrators protesting against brutality.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

EPTON stated that he organized the Harlem Defense Council for the protection of the Negroes against state power. EPTON stated that he did not tell the Negroes to kill the Police and Judges, but he said that what he told the people of Harlem was that they must defend themselves against police brutality.

EPTON claimed that the Negro policemen in Harlem are just as bad as the white policemen and that the Negro police captain is a representative of the state power over the people.

On October 15, 1964, an open meeting was held at the Manhattan Center in New York City which was sponsored by the Ad Hoc Committee to Combat Fascism.

Among the speakers was WILLIAM EPTON from Progressive Labor who talked about the horrible way things were in Harlem and the only way to do something about it was for the Negroes to organize. EPTON stated that through the Harlem Defense Council they are instructing the residents of Harlem to join together block by block and house by house to protect themselves against the police.

On November 28, 1964, Special Agents (SAs) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed a PLM street rally held in front of the Harlem PLM Club, 336 Lenox Avenue, New York City. This rally was held to protest United States intervention in Viet Nam and the Congo.

NY 100-153735

Among the speakers was SELMA SPARKS who advocated violence now and stated that the Negro must not make any more arms and ammunition for the white man because it is being used to kill "our Negro brothers". The arms and ammunition must be used by the Negroes themselves. SPARKS stated that the white man can be killed and now is the time right here.

On November 28, 1964, a demonstration sponsored by the Harlem Progressive Labor Movement was held at Lenox Avenue and 127th Street, New York City, between 1:15 p.m. and 5:15 p.m.

This demonstration was presided over by WILLIAM EPTON and all of the speakers tried to incite the crowd to unite and take action against the United States government and the JOHNSON administration for the murdering of Congolese Nationals and against the City of New York and Police Commissioner MURPHY for exonerating Lieutenant GILLIGAN in the killing of the POWELL youth.

At 4:30 p.m., the leaders of the demonstration announced that they would like to have all of those assembled to take part in a planned protest march. The route of the march was announced and several people made the march down Lenox Avenue to 116th Street, across 116th Street to 7th Avenue, North on 7th Avenue to 125th Street, East on 125th Street to Lenox Avenue and 127th Street.

On December 7, 1964, SAs of the FBI observed a PLM sponsored public street meeting at the corner of 105th Street and Columbus Avenue, New York City.

One of the speakers was FRED JEROME, who protested against police brutality and graft. JEROME also made an issue of the slum conditions and high rents in that area and also in the lower East Side area.

BILL EPTON also spoke and accused the police of taking graft. EPTON stated that the people must defend themselves as they get no police protection.

"Organize apartment by apartment, house by house.

"The Harlem Defense Council calls on all black people of Harlem to set up block committies with the purpose of defending each and every block in Harlem from the cops.

"Mass Demonstrations.

"Each home and each block must be so organized that on Saturday, July 20, we will be able to have an organized march.

"The mobilization will start on 116th Street and Lenox Avenue at 4:00 p.m. Our objective will be the 32nd Precinct on 137th Street, between 7th and 8th Avenues.

Source furnished a flyer captioned "In Defense of Bill Epton in the Black Community" which was issued by the Harlem Defense Council, 336 Lenox Avenue, New York City.

This flyer claims that BILL EPTON and the Harlem Defense Council stand solidly on the side of the people but that the New York City administration, the FBI and the JOHNSON administration are out to "get" BILL EPTON.

The flyer goes on to state that the people of Harlem will not be intimidated into giving up their right for free speech, peaceful assembly or their fundamental right to self defense. The only way that the people of Harlem can regain their constitutional rights is to organize their apartments, their houses and their blocks into a militant force where they will be in a position to win.

This flyer shows that it was issued by the Harlem Progressive Labor Club and demands the immediate arrest of Lieutenant GILLIGAN for the murder of JAMES POWELL. It also calls for unity of all black people of Harlem regardless of their religious or political beliefs. It calls for the people to unite around the militant program of struggle for black liberation not only in New York but all over the country. This call for unity is being made because "If we don't have it next summer when they move in the troops to occupy Harlem, what happened last summer will seem like a Sunday School picnic."

The flyer also demands that the Negro people have the constitutional right to assemble and demonstrate peacefully without harassment, brutality, murder and general terror from the Police Department and that all police not regularly assigned to Harlem be removed and that the murder weapons be removed from the police.

Source furnished a pamphlet captioned "Police Terror in Harlem" which was issued by the Harlem Defense Council, 336 Lenox Avenue, New York City.

This pamphlet discusses the Harlem riots and the events preceding the riots in Harlem.

The pamphlet states that the people of Harlem fought back gallantly and magnificently against tremendous odds despite the fact that they were unarmed and unorganized and had only the desire and their own ingenuity to fight off the fascist police.

The pamphlet sets forth what are termed as the "people's demands" which includes the right to demonstrate and to present to the City the demands of the people.

The pamphlet claims that the black people in Harlem are repressed and there is a crusade of terror against the black people all over the United States.

The pamphlet ends up with the statement "The black people from Harlem to Los Angeles and across the South will continue to rise up against tyranny and achieve their liberation".

PUBLICATIONS

The PLM has three publications which includes the "Marxist - Leninist Quarterly", a theoretical magazine, the "Progressive Labor" magazine, a monthly publication and "Challenge", a weekly newspaper published in New York City.

"Challenge" continually carries articles in English and Spanish concerning police brutality, job discrimination, poor housing and poor schools in New York City.

The New York City police are frequently referred to in this publication as "gestapo" and "killer cops".

These articles in "Challenge" are published to promote and create racial unrest among the Negroes and Puerto Ricans in New York City. Many of the articles are printed with pictures and further point out the injustices imposed on the Negroes and Puerto Ricans in New York City.

Examples of articles which appeared in "Challenge" are as follows:

The November 3, 1964 issue carried the headline "Cops Fire on Students in Puerto Rico".

The November 10, 1964, issue carried an article captioned "Brooklyn Cops Beat Afro-American Youth", which reports in detail how bloody the youth was after the New York City Police arrested and beat him for allegedly possessing a weapon.

The November 17, 1964 issue on its front page carried a re-print photo of a poster "Wanted For Murder Gilligan the Cop" and carried a headline "Cops 'Clear' Cop" with an accompanying article in a form of an open letter to the people of New York City.

The December 22, 1964, issue carried a headline captioned "Cops Assault Harlem Mother".

The January 12, 1964 issue carried an editorial captioned "New Police Murder in Harlem" which asks how many lives and how many murders of innocent people by trigger happy killers in police uniforms will it take before the people act.

It also asks how many young Afro-Americans and Puerto Ricans will be railroaded into prison by crooked cops and sadistic judges.

The editorial then sets forth the names of Negroes and Puerto Ricans who have been killed by the New York City Police.

The editorial sums up by setting forth five proposals which are as follows:

"United City wide campaign to oust Police Commissioner MURPHY.

"A united campaign to nominate and elect a workers candidate, an Afro-American candidate as Manhattan District Attorney

"The establishment of more groups like the Harlem Defense Council to organize block by block self defense by the working people of this city against police terror.

"A city wide people's investigating committee which will take upon itself the responsibility of digging into and publicizing every suspicious case involving the arrest of a Negro or Puerto Rican youth by the New York cops.

"A lawyers council to provide free of expense the honest legal assistance to victims of police violence".

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (SWP)

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

At a membership meeting of the New York Local (NYL) of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) held on October 15, 1964, NAT WEINSTEIN announced to the membership that he had had a series of discussions with JAMES SHABAZZ and had asked him to give an educational talk following a future membership meeting of the NYL. WEINSTEIN stated that SHABAZZ would present his view of the role of the Negro in society today, and also the relation of the Negro worker with the White worker. (X)(L)

A characterization of the NYL, SWP is contained in the Appendix hereto.

At a membership meeting of the NYL held on September 23, 1964, JAMES SHABAZZ was the speaker at an educational following the business portion of the meeting. His topic was "The Unique Character of the Black Man in America" and some of the statements he made were as follows:

1. "Many changes will be manifested in the next one and two years". This was spoken in the tone of a warning.

2. An organization must be formed and work "in darkness underground".

3. " The printed word (meaning a secret publication) must be used to educate the Negro." He proposed to educate the Negro so they would know what they were fighting against.

4. "Narcotics were brought into Harlem to keep Negroes nodding rather than doing positive things".

(X)(L)

5. The existing "power structure" must be done away with.

6. The United States Government will let an organization exist "as long as it does not threaten the power structure".

7. "I am in favor of anything that is destructive to anything I am not in favor of".

When asked if he had any suggestions to make to the SWP audience, SHABAZZ said he read "The Militant", and in particular looked for articles about the Negro struggle. He said he felt "The Militant" aimed above the level of understanding of many of its readers, who found it difficult to understand. (X)(U)

At a membership meeting of the NYL held November 19, 1964, NAT WEINSTEIN announced that a request had been received from PAUL BOUTELLE for use of the NYL meeting hall for a social by the Freedom Now Party on November 28, 1964. The membership agreed that a contribution should be accepted from BOUTELLE for use of the hall and WEINSTEIN said he would arrange to have about six SWP members in attendance. (X) U

At a membership meeting of the NYL held December 10, 1964, NAT WEINSTEIN reported that there would be a rally in Harlem on the coming Sunday of the organization led by MALCOLM X. He said that the Executive Committee of the NYL had decided to attend and sell copies of "The Militant". Assignments were made. WEINSTEIN also announced that there would be a meeting in the coming week in Harlem of black leaders calling for stepping up the Negro struggle. He said that the leaflet calling for this action quoted "The Militant" almost word for word in its rejection of the two-party system and in calling for independent black political action. (X) 4

December 18, 1964] (X) 4

NAT WEINSTEIN further discussed the planned meeting in Harlem at SWP headquarters on December 14, 1964, in the presence of a number of SWP members. WEINSTEIN said that the Harlem meeting would be participated in by such leaders of the black movement in the United States as MALCOLM X, PAUL BOUTELLE, and the Reverend MILTON GALAMISON. He said the conference was being called to form political units to struggle against Democratic and Republican politicians, and to form alliances politically to advance the Negro struggle. In the course of the discussion, WEINSTEIN claimed that the SWP was responsible for this radical departure from traditional Negro thinking. He said that the SWP election campaign in Harlem had said exactly what this call by the leaders of the Negro community said. He maintained that this was living proof of the effectiveness of the SWP thrust. WEINSTEIN added that it would be useless to count on "radicals" like GALAMISON because he said that GALAMISON was still politically tied to the Communist Party and under their control. (X) 4

The letter further set forth "the importance of maximum attendance by comrades cannot be over-stressed.....We have extended ourselves to the extent of over $500.00 for advertising and other expenses to make this meeting a political success. You can make the difference! Come, and bring your friends, relatives and comrades". (U)

A Militant Labor Forum was held on December 11, 1964, at 116 University Place, New York, New York, with NAT WEINSTEIN speaking on the topic "Where Does the Freedom Struggle Go from Here?" WEINSTEIN criticized the March on Washington, saying the demonstration turned out to become a picnic with censored speeches and members of the "power structure" joining in as speakers. He quoted MALCOLM X as saying, "How can there be a demonstration against the Government if members of the Government join it?" In discussing the Black Nationalist Movement WEINSTEIN said it was not effective because no one could make decisions that counted when the leader was absent. He claimed further that the Black Nationalist leaders had no experience or knowledge to deal with problems at a distance from where they found themselves, that is, the Congo, Viet Nam, and the United Nations. WEINSTEIN said that even MALCOLM X, in speaking about "back to Africa", seemed more an emotional statement than one apt to produce tangible results.

WEINSTEIN said that in his opinion white labor is not at this time ready to join black labor because white labor is not ready to give anything worthwhile. He closed his talk with a plea for socialism to solve human needs, including peace.

A NYL membership meeting was held December 12, 1964, during which the educational portion involved a discussion on the SWP 1964 election campaign. It was stated that the purpose of the campaign was:

1. distributing the policies of socialism
2. opposing two capitalist parties
3. recruitment

Attendance was estimated at between 500 and 600 persons and they responded enthusiastically to the speech of MALCOLM X. A general issue in the speech was to the effect that any colored man who sided with a white man or any colored man conservative in outlook was an "Uncle Tom". MALCOLM X included MARTIN LUTHER KING and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in this. He stated that during his trip to Africa he had found copies of "The Militant", and he said this was because it printed "the right things". He said that if more of "the right things" were said he would make sure they got around more than they are now. He said that the 22 million Negroes in the United States should organize because they hold the balance of power. He said that if ever an organization patterned on the Mau Mau existed in the United States, he would be the first to join.

News stories are regularly carried in "The Militant", weekly newspaper of the SWP, concerning the civil rights struggle of Negroes in various parts of the country. In addition, editorial comment has also been made, usually in the form of an attack on law enforcement agencies.

A front page editorial was printed in "The Militant" of November 30, 1964, entitled, "High Time to Fire J. EDGAR HOOVER". The editorial accused Mr. HOOVER of contempt for the civil rights movement, saying he had a record of persecuting, witch hunting and smearing the movement. It was further claimed that the FBI had followed a deliberate policy of not using its full powers on behalf of the constitutional rights of Negroes.

In the same issue of "The Militant", an article was printed praising as a good example the decision of a union in Laurel, Mississippi, to have its members armed for self-defense against the Ku Klux Klan.

Again in "The Militant" of December 7, 1964, an editorial was printed accusing the FBI of inactivity in the investigation of civil rights cases. The editorial set forth, "The Justice Department and the FBI are under orders to co-operate with the same local white-supremacist officials who are involved in the conspiracies to terrorize and murder Negroes and civil rights workers."

In the issue of "The Militant" dated December 14, 1964, an editorial was printed urging greater militancy by middle-class Negroes. It was stated, "The struggle of the black ghetto for human rights is becoming more militant whether middle-class leaders like it or not. And nothing short of mobilizing the masses of ordinary people will be enough to win real gains for the ghetto. The...middle-class leaders. . .had better get with it --become more militant and concerned with the needs of working-class black people -- if they wish to maintain any influence in the ghetto. For, as the struggle of the ghetto grows, it will select and forge a leadership ready to go all the way for freedom now."

On November 12, 1964, there was a meeting in the basement dining room of the Siloam Church, Jefferson and Marcy Avenues, Brooklyn, New York, at 9:00 p.m. with approximately 75 people in attendance. Reverend MILTON A. GALAMISON made some opening remarks concerning effective methods for obtaining integration in the school system without delay. One method mentioned was a water wasting idea in which Negroes would turn on all taps at once in their homes and let the water run for days until the water supply was depleted and attention focused on the reason for this action, the integration of schools. Reverend GALAMISON rejected this idea because he felt that not enough people could be depended upon to cooperate in order to make the plan feasible. He called for various methods of attaining integration in the schools. (S) (U)

Among the groups represented at this meeting was the Du Bois Club.

Among the people in attendance at this meeting were THELMA HAMILTON and CAROL WEINSHENKER. N.Y.

On December 10, 1964, approximately 125 people gathered at the Siloam Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, New York, for a meeting called by Reverend MILTON GALAMISON representing the City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools in order to make plans for the shut-down of schools scheduled for February 3, 1965. Members of the Brooklyn and New York Chapters of Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) were present as well as various members of Du Bois Clubs. (S) (U)

GALAMISON stated that the Du Bois Clubs were going to raise funds for "Operation Shut-Down". It was also mentioned that JERRY COVICI was in charge of Public School 57, Brooklyn, New York, as coordinator and picket captain. (S) (U)

During the course of the meeting, Reverend GALAMISON began to form city-wide committees including transportation, food, and children's activities. DAN WATTS offered to chair the transportation project in order to see that cars and drivers were provided at each school. (U)

ISAIAH ROBINSON rose to say it was not his understanding that the children were to be given shelter in churches or freedom schools set up during the shutdown and that plans were going forward to send some of them into various department stores. GALAMISON commented that he would take this matter up later, but he indicated that some of the children would go to stores in Brooklyn. GALAMISON also commented that the overflow of children not going into stores or to the United Nations, or the museums or other planned missions must have a place to go. (U)

An article in "The New York Times", December 30, 1964, entitled, "Rights Groups Hit At School Plan", quoted GALAMISON as stating that the City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools, which he heads is planning to close down one school on January 19 and a second on January 22, 1965, as a prelude to the beginning of mass shutdowns on February 3, 1965, the anniversary of the organization's first city-wide boycott.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. COMMITTEE TO ADVANCE RACIAL INTEGRATION IN THE SCHOOLS (CARIS)

On October 1, 1964, a meeting of the Boro Hall Club, Kings County, CP, was held in apartment 2F at 35 Orange Street, Brooklyn, New York. MILTON KESSLER was one of the members present at this meeting. During the meeting, the position of Boro Hall Club organizer was offered to MILTON KESSLER, but he contended that he was so active and successful in his work in CARIS in the Williamsburg area of Brooklyn that he would not have the time to do the type of job which should be done. B. CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (CORE)

Investigation of CORE is directed solely towards establishing the extent of Communist influence. The Federal Bureau of Investigation is not investigating the legitimate activities of this organization.

The Congress of Racial Equality will be referred to as CORE in this report unless reference is being made to a chapter of CORE. The designation then will be proceeded by the name of the chapter.

The Communist Party, USA, will be referred to as the CPUSA.

PRESENT PURPOSES AND AIMS

The "New York Times" issue of November 24, 1964, on Page 25, contained an article entitled "CORE PLANS ROLE IN EVERYDAY LIFE" and a subtitle of "Will Stress More Political and Social Activity". This article in part stated:

"The national director of the Congress of Racial Equality announced a general plan yesterday for 'a more meaningful militancy' that would involve CORE members more directly in the political, economic and social life of Negro communities.

"To assist in working out the program, the national director, James A. Farmer, announced the creation of a new CORE executive position, associate national director, to be held by Dr. George A. Wiley, founder of the CORE chapter in Syracuse and an assistant professor of chemistry at Syracuse University.

"The announcements were made during a press conference at CORE headquarters, 38 Park Row, across from City Hall. They prompted questions whether the national CORE was abandoning its 'direct action' policy of demonstrations and civil disobedience.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

"Certainly not' , Mr. Farmer replied. 'There will still be street demonstrations where they are called for, but under our new community action program we hope to have block-by-block influence and the ability to rally entire communities to protest, not merely our own members.'

"Chapter Policies Vary

"There are 114 CORE chapters throughout the country, with an enrollment of 82,000 members, Chapters vary in their militancy, pursuing independent policies in some cases. Last Tuesday, for example, the New York chapter of CORE announced it would move away from the 'sit-in' approach in favor of 'down-to-earth' local action.

"Mr. Farmer said he did not agree that the national organization was now following such a path of moderation. 'This is not moderation,' he declared, 'this is a move toward more meaningful militancy.'

"Explaining how the new program would differ from that of the past, Mr. Farmer said" 'The abstract political issues that arise every week will not remain abstract with CORE.'"

MISCELLANEOUS

On October 26, 1964, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed the following:

From 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., a peak number of 250 individuals demonstrated on Eighth Avenue, between 50th and 51st Streets, New York City, in protest of a political rally for Seaator BARRY M. GOLDWATER, which was being held at Madison Square Garden, 50th Street and Eighth Avenue, New York City.

The demonstrators carried placards identifying themselves as affiliated with the Downtown, Queens College, City College of New York, New York City, and Bronx Chapters of the CORE. In addition some of the demonstrators distributed literature and carried signs showing their affiliation with the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America and Youth Against War and Fascism (YAWF). Placards carried by these demonstrators called for the defeat of GOLDWATER in the presidential election.

There were no incidents at the CORE picketing.

When the CORE picketing at 50th Street and Eighth Avenue, New York City, concluded at 9:30 p.m., on October 26, 1964, these pickets proceeded south to 49th Street, where a large number of GOLDWATER supporters were assembled outside Madison Square Garden, New York City, between Eighth and Ninth Avenues,

The "New York Courier", a New York weekly newspaper, in its issue of November 7, 1964, page two, published an article entitled "COFO Continues Summer Project". The article stated that the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) "because of increasing violence and social injustice in Mississippi, announced it will continue its summer project throughout the fall and winter and has urged the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) to continue to provide volunteer legal aid to COFO freedom fighters". The article stated that NLG has responded by establishing a new "Southern Regional Office" of the Guild in Jackson, Mississippi, to provide the necessary volunteer attorneys for Mississippi, as well as conduct normal bar association activities in the entire South. Other functions of the Guilds' new office will include conducting workshops on legal subjects for Southern attorneys.

The letter was addressed "Dear Guild Member" and informed that the Guild had reopened its Southern Regional Office at the same address occupied by its summer office in Jackson, Mississippi. It stated that the NLG had secured volunteer attorneys to carry its program to the end of this calendar year and asked for additional attorneys to come to Mississippi for a two weeks period during the first six months of 1965. The Guild hoped to have a minimum of two volunteer attorneys in the State of Mississippi at all times. The letter was signed CLAUDIA SHROPSHIRE, Director, Southern Regio Office. (X) U

Federation for Independent Political Action

The "National Guardian", a weekly publication, New York City, dated December 26, 1964, page four, in an article, entitled "Political Action Federation Outlines Steps At Conference", announced that preliminary steps were taken December 19 to establish a Negro power bloc in New York at the Federation for Independent Political Action's first conference on "The Black Revolution-A Struggle for Political Power."

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

The following is quoted from the "National Guardian" article:

"In a day-long discussion, leaders of New York's community-based Negro organizations approved a series of immediate moves to alleviate conditions in the ghettos and named an interim committee to formulate long-range goals and plans. The call to the conference stated its aim thus:

"'Black independent political action means active organized involvement of the man-in-the-street, the victims of ruthless slumlords, the unemployed and youth to change rotten conditions in the ghetto. Through struggle, political power can be built by the people for liberation from white-dominated political control and economic exploitation. With independent political power, the black revolution can boldly move forward in advancing the interests of the masses.'"

The conference was described as "all-black" even the press was asked to send Negro reporters and television crews, but none came, according to the article.

The article related that interim committee members named were: ISAIAH ROBINSON, chairman of the Harlem Parent's Committee and vice chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee to Support the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party Challenge; JESSE GRAY; Reverend MILTON GALAMISON, school boycott leader and chairman of the Brooklyn Parents Workshop for Equality; JIM HAUGHTON, director of the Harlem Unemployment Center; WILLIAM STRICKLAND, Northern Student Movement; CLARENCE JONES, attorney; JOHN HENRIK CLARKE, an editor of "Freedomways", and MALCOLM X.

Among specific actions supported is the scheduled February 3 shut-down of 31 junior high schools and 15 of the so-called "600" schools (for difficult pupils). The aims of the shut-down are (1) upgrading of 200 Negro and Puerto Rican teachers to supervisory and administrative positions; (2) establishment of a curriculum and screening of evaluation process for "600" schools; (3) the hiring of Negro custodians; (4) halting of school construction on present sites.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

The federation also decided to support the drive for passage by the State Legislature of the "emergency repair bill" empowering the city to collect rents and make building repairs five days after a complaint is filed. A delegation to Albany at the opening of the Legislature January 4 will demand passage of the bill.

Two themes were stressed by the speakers (1) Unity among all grassroots groups to form a political action movement (2) house-by-house organization to fight for the needs and desires of the people.

In his keynote address, JESSE GRAY stated that "a revolutionary movement is in the making." He said: "The lack of unified, organized black political power is one reason we are not yet a revolutionary movement. Another is that we require revolutionaries. Real revolutionaries are out in the streets organizing people around their day-to-day problems."

The article further related that VICTORIA GRAY, one of the three Freedom Democratic Party congresswomen from Mississippi, related the history of the attempt by the Mississippi Negroes to gain a voice in politics first through the regular Democratic Party-which almost totally bars Negro participation-and then through the formation of the FDP. Mrs. GRAY asked conference delegates to support the party's challenge to the seating of the five "regular" Mississippi representatives in Congress next session.

The article noted that identification with Modern Africa and the American Negro's Cultural Heritage in Africa was apparent in the emblem of the Federation for Political Action (FIPA)-a stylized African lion.

The "National Guardian" is characterized in the Appendix.

Negro American Labor Council (NALC)

Investigation of the NALC is directed solely towards establishing the extent of Communist influence. The Federal Bureau of Investigation is not investigating the legitimate activities of this organization.

The Negro American Labor Council will be referred to in this report as the NALC, the Greater New York Chapter of the NALC will be referred to as the NYNALC and the Communist Party United States of America, as the CPUSA.

In July, 1959, more than seventy five Negro trade union leaders met in New York to explore the possibility of establishing an organization designed to fight discrimination in industry, government and trade unions. After much planning, the NALC was officially founded in Detroit, Michigan, May 28, 29 and 30, 1960. A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, veteran trade union leader and President of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, was elected President at the Founding Convention. At the Second Annual Convention held in Chicago, Illinois, November 10, 11 and 12, 1961, the NALC broadened its membership base to include not only trade unionists, but all Negro workers in response to the developing job crisis suffered by colored workers.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

On the evening of December 3, 1964, a meeting was held at the Second Baptist Church, Poughkeepsie, New York, sponsored by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporate (SCEF). The meeting was open to the public, and the subject was l as "What really gives today in the South".

Speakers were Mr. SLATER H. KING who was listed as a leader of "The Albany Movement", Albany, Georgia; Reverend JAMES A. ZELLNER, Pastor of the Community Church, Valparaiso, Florida, and WILLIAM H. MELISH, who was described as Eastern Representative of SCEF.

Approximately 100 persons were in attendance. The meeting was orderly and no incidents or demonstrations occurred.

Reverend ZELLNER spoke of the "good people" in the South and that their conscience was awakening. Mr. SLATER KING related that his wife, who was five months pregnant, lost her baby as the result of a beating administered to her when she brought clothing and food to integration workers who had been arrested in Albany, Georgia.

Mr. MELISH related about his trip through the South and talked about the work the SCEF was doing in Louisiana in challenging the subversion and anarchy laws of that state. He also spoke of his pride in his son BILL, who of his own volition, had volunteered to work in the South in promoting integration and voter registration, and who had been staying in a freedom house in Vicksburg, Mississippi, which had been bombed.

A collection was taken with the proceeds to go to the SCEF.

JEWISH CULTURAL CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

A source advised on April 27, 1954, that the former leaders, including GEDALIA SANDLER, Executive Secretary, of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order (JPFO), Jewish nationality section of the International Workers Order (IWO) had established a committee at 1133 Broadway, New York, New York. Through this committee they were organizing cultural clubs and societies based on JPFO lodges which had been dissolved on December 15, 1953, in the course of proceedings by the New York State authorities culminating in the liquidation of the IWO.

A second source advised on March 15, 1961, that a meeting of the National Groups Commission of the Communist Party, United States of America, was held on March 2, 1961, in New York City. GEDALIA SANDLER was among those present and spoke of his experiences in maintaining the Jewish lodges after the dissolution of the IWO, which, to avoid prosecution, have no national name or organization.

SANDLER stated that these lodges "lived" as clubs and societies by maintaining their cultural, fraternal, and civic activities, but which activities are less political than in the former lodges. New York gave leadership to the rest of the country since the New York lodges were the strongest and had the more politically developed comrades.

These clubs and societies still maintain a medical plan, funeral benefits, and mutual aid funds. There are 132 clubs and societies nationally, 63 of which are located in New York City.

A third source furnished information on May 18, 1964, that the clubs and societies are located at 1133 Broadway, Room 1429, New York, New York, under the name of the Jewish Program Service Committee, but are more widely known as the Jewish Cultural Clubs and Societies.

The IWO and the JPFO have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The following observations are bing brought to your attention for corrective action where indicated and for the future guidance of your office in preparing reports in captioned and related matters.

(1) Details failed to reflect use of T-11 which source is indicated on page C as utilized for the characterization of Alfred Featherston. From the characterization of Featherston, as appearing on pages five and six, it would appear that for at least one of the paragraphs of information attributed to T-10, the attribution should have been to T-11. Advise as to corrective action necessary.

(2) In the listing of information under the "Location" column on page B, the informant file number for T-2 and T-3 is followed with the statement "by date." Serial numbers are required.

(3) Some of the information in the "Location" column for T-3 is extraneous. Similar observation made to your office by 0-17 11/13/64 concerning last previous CIRM report.

(4) Characterizations of G. J. Sutton (almost two complete pages) and Featherston (almost two complete pages), too lengthy. Note original Bureau instructions in Bulet to all offices 8/28/64 relative to necessity for characterizations to be succinct.

(5) Pages fourteen and fifteen are devoted to an Appendix characterization of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of America.

ReWFOairtel, 1/14/65, advising that an unidentified man from Atlanta, Georgia, visited JOSEPH FORER, Attorney for the CP,USA, in Washington, D. C., from 3:45 p.m. to 4:08 p.m., when he left saying he was on his way to the airport.

Atlanta has advised that the information known about the unidentified man fits RANDOLPH BLACKWELL, who in September, 1964, joined the Southern Christian Leadership Conference as Program Coordinator.

In an effort to more definitely identify the man as BLACKWELL, the following investigation was conducted by SA C. EDWIN GLASS, JR.

WILLIAM P. BERNAL, District Sales Manager, Delta Airlines, 1605 K Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., advised on 2/5/65 that their records show that on 1/11/65, at 12:30 p.m. R. BLACKWELL, who was staying at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Room 801, made a reservation on flight 729, Delta Airlines, for Atlanta, at 5:00 p.m. on January 11, 1965; however, BLACKWELL did not show. Delta has no other flights for Atlanta that a person would ordinarily take when leaving for the airport at 4:08 p.m.

DON SHANKS, Station Manager, Piedmont Airlines, National Airport, Washington, D. C., advised SA GLASS on 2/8/65, that BLACKWELL was not on pertinent Piedmont Flights to Atlanta on 1/11/65 (#67 at 5:05 p.m.; #809 at 5:40 p.m.; and 45 at 5:45 p.m.)

Inquiries by SA GLASS at Eastern Airlines on 2/5/65, reflect that information on Eastern Flights are maintained at the Miami, Florida, Airport. Inquiries should be made to C. J. POWERS, Passenger Statistical Section, Accounting Department, Eastern Airlines. The flights to be checked are # 555 at 5:00 p.m.; #515 at 5:35 p.m.; and #323 at 7:45 p.m.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., ANDREW YOUNG, and RALPHT ABERNATHY were also in Washington on 1/11/65. The above inquiries at the airlines failed to reflect that these men were on any of the flights checked.

Inquiries were made discreetly so that the names were not used. SA GLASS said he was looking for a passenger named BLACK who could have used another name.

The following Bureau observations are being made for the future guidance of personnel in your office responsible for the preparation and approval of reports in captioned as well as similar matters.

Cover Pages B and C lack information in the "Location" column for T-13, T-17, T-18 and T-19. Such information is required.

On page 5 information is reported concerning a meeting of a CPUSA club held at the offices of the "Glos Ludowy." Because the site of the meeting was identified, a characterization was set out on page 32a, this being an Appendix characterization of "Glos Ludowy." As the site of the meeting is not in itself particularly significant, it is believed that it should not have been mentioned in the details, thus avoiding the necessity for page 32a. This observation is made in light of the fact that the meeting was of a Party club which in itself was sufficiently derogatory.

Pages 11-14 contain lengthly excerpts from a publication. This information should have been summarized rather than utilizing almost four complete pages. Same observation made in Bulet 11/27/64 concerning the CIRM report of SA [redacted] dated 10/30/64.

FEB 11 1965 COMM-FBI

Page 26 contains a characterization of Harry M. Philo which merely reports that in 1957 Philo appeared before a Senate Committee and denied that he was then a member of the Party and invoked the Fifth Amendment relative to prior Party association. Philo is a Security Index subject of your office. Your file contains considerable information concerning him, including positive information as to past Party membership. It is believed that a much more definitive, yet succinct, characterization of Philo could have been prepared from information available to your office.

Re: Communist Influence in

On February 4, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that at a meeting of a Communist Party (CP) club, West Side Section, New York County CP, held on February 3, 1965, at 320 West End Avenue, New York, New York, Sherring Mills, Organizer of the club, announced there would be a picket line in front of the First National City Bank, 96th Street and Broadway, New York, New York, on the evening of February 5, 1965. This demonstration, sponsored by the West Side Civil Rights Committee, is being held to protest the purchase of State of Mississippi bonds by the First National City Bank, and is scheduled for the evening of February 5, 1965, because the above branch of the bank is open to 7:00 p.m. that date. Mills urged as many club members as possible to participate in this picket line.

The same source further related Sherring Mills further indicated at the above meeting that her husband, John Mills, also a member of this CP club, has agreed to serve on the Executive Committee of the West Side Civil Rights Committee. According to Sherring Mills, John Mills is the only CP members on the Executive Committee.

Re: Communist Influence in

On February 5, 1965, the same source advised that on the evening of that date, approximately 30 whites and Negroes were observed in a picket line in front of the First National City Bank, 96th Street and Broadway, New York, New York. This demonstration was sponsored by the West Side Civil Rights Committee and the Seven Arts Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) to protest the purchase of State of Mississippi bonds by the First National City Bank. The source further advised that John Mills, a member of a Communist Party club of the West Side Section, New York County CP, participated in the picket line. No incidents of violence or other disturbances took place.

On February 5, 1965, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed at 5:00 p.m., when the First National City Bank, 96th Street and Broadway, New York City, opened its doors for Friday evening business, a small group of demonstrators began to picket in front of the bank. This small group of ten pickets increased until at the closing time of the bank at 7:00 p.m., the group consisted of approximately 30 people. The pickets sang freedom songs, chanted freedom slogans, and carried placards indicating that the First National City Bank had purchased Mississippi bonds and suggesting that people not use the bank. Flyers were also distributed which stated that investing money in Mississippi is an investment in segregation, terror, and murder.

The demonstration, which ended at 7:00 p.m., was orderly, and there were no incidents or arrests.

CLAUDIA SHROPSHIRE, Office Counselor, Southern Regional Office, National Lawyers Guild, 507½ North Farish Street, Jackson, Miss., has been contacted onsseveral occasions in the recent past in connection with investigations being conducted by this office. She furnishes information only on a self-servicing basis and declined to furnish identities of any attorneys presently in Mississippi obtaining depositions in connection with the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party Challenge.

ROBERT L. T. SMITH, JR., a member of and active in the NAACP and the civil rights movement, on 2/4/65 advised that attorney EDWARD STERN from San Francisco, California, had arrived in Jackson, Miss., recently to participate in the Challenge. STERN is the coordinator of the group of attorneys from San Francisco. SMITH said that about 20 attorneys were arriving from California. He identified TERRY FRANCOIS as another attorney in the group from California. SMITH stated that he arranged sleeping accommodations for four attorneys for one night; however, does not recall their names. SMITH continued the attorneys report into Jackson, get their assignments, and immediately depart for various parts of the state. When their assignments are completed, they return to their respective homes.

SMITH stated he doubts if anyone has a list of all the attorneys who are or have been in the state. He said in his opinion, the program is rather disorganized, in that no one person knows exactly what the other is doing.

SMITH could furnish no additional information regarding this matter.

It is to be noted that information regarding FRANCOIS and STERN, as well as other attorneys identified as coming into the State of Mississippi, was submitted in LHM form by San Francisco under date of 1/19/65.

On 1/20/65, ALVIN GOLDSTEIN, who identified himself as an attorney, from San Francisco, California, telephonically advised SA [redacted], Meridian, Miss., that he had been to the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) office in Meridian and it was recommended that he call the FBI to report his presence in the Meridian area. He then stated he and BENJAMIN DREYFUS, also from California, were in the Lauderdale County area taking depositions concerning the challenges to the Mississippi Congressional delegation. b6 b7C

Information regarding DREYFUS, GOLDSTEIN and other attorneys identified as coming to Mississippi set forth in LHM form by San Francisco under date of 1/20/65.

On 1/20/65, HARRY J. LOHSTROH, Attorney, Pleasant Hill, Calif., and M. J. WADLEIGH, Attorney, San Francisco, Calif., while obtaining depositions from Negroes in Leake County, Miss., advised SAs [redacted] and [redacted] that they had volunteered their services to the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party for a number of days in order to secure depositions from persons in the 4th Congressional District of Mississippi for purpose of challenging the Mississippi delegation.

Background information regarding LOHSTROH is included in the LHM submitted by San Francisco dated 1/19/65.

An article appearing in the "Clarion-Ledger," page 8, 1/26/65, entitled "Attorneys for FDP Taking Depositions" indicates that MORTON STAVIS of Newark, New Jersey, is one of the coordinators of the project.

For the information of the Bureau, STAVIS is a security index subject of the Newark Office.

On 1/28/65, HERBERT SEMMEL, contacted SA [redacted] in Laurel, Miss., and stated he is an attorney from the State of New York, and was in Laurel making arrangements for taking depositions from witnesses. He furnished this for information and made no requests of the FBI.

Background information being requested.

In a syndicated article appearing on page two of the "Clarion-Ledger," a Jackson, Miss., daily newspaper dated 1/25/65, MORTON STAVIS said he and at least one other New Jerseyian, Attorney WALT WITTMAN of Havensack, will work in Jackson, Miss., taking depositions.

The article stated that attorneys directing the case itself are ARTHUR KINOY and WILLIAM KUNSTLER of New York City, and BENJAMIN SMITH of New Orleans, Louisiana.

Background information being requested for ARTHUR KINOY and WALT WITTMAN.

Information regarding WILLIAM KUNSTLER was furnished by LHM from New York under date 12/21/64.

On 1/28/65, Mrs. DAVID (PEGGY) LILLIENTHAL, JR., telephonically contacted the FBI Office concerning a bomb threat received at MFDP headquarters, Jackson, Miss. She also advised that her residence is Martha Vineyard, Mass., and that she has been in Jackson, Miss., for approximately one week taking depositions. She said she has been working with Mr. FRANK PASSANO, an attorney from California.

Background information being requested regarding above individuals.

An article appearing in the Sunday edition of the "Delta Democrat - Times," Greenville, Miss., page one,

1/31/65, identifies JOSEPH GRODIN, ARTHUR T. BERGGREN, and DAVID P. WEAVER, JR., all of San Francisco, Calif., as working in that area.

Background information regarding GRODIN set forth in San Francisco LHM 1/19/65.

Background information regarding BERGGREN and WEAVER being requested.

The Jackson Office is remaining ever alert for the identities of attorneys who are presently in this state in connection with the Freedom Democratic Party Challenge, and when identified, requests will be made of offices covering their residences for background information and subversive information.

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

The January 25, 1965, issue of "U. E. News", official organ of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, contains an article reflecting that over 100 attorneys are gathering evidence concerning the denial of rights to Negro citizens in Mississippi, in a move to have the present Mississippi delegation in the United States Congress removed from office on the grounds that 42% of the population of voting age has been systematically denied the right to vote.

On February 1, 1965, a confidential source advised that Isidore Gibby Needleman was informed by Robert Z. Lewis that testimony was being taken in New York from former residents of Mississippi who encountered or witnessed repressive acts by State or extra-legal agencies when Negroes considered registering to vote or attempted to register.

Lewis indicated that a hearing was to be held on February 11 or 12, 1965, which he hoped would be presided over by a Supreme Court or Civil Court Justice. By February 5, 1965, the five incumbent Congressmen were to be notified of the hearing, as they are entitled to be represented, and lists of witnesses were to be submitted to them. Lewis stated that the Students Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and the "Medical Committee" were compiling lists of prospective witnesses and would direct them to attorneys who would take statements and prepare these people to make formal depositions at the hearing. Lewis requested Needleman to talk to some of these witnesses, obtain their stories, and determine their willingness to testify. Needleman agreed to do so.

On February 2, 1965, the above source learned that Needleman had been in touch with a number of doctors and nurses who had been in Mississippi during the latter part of 1964. Most of these individuals had only negative information. One Judith Hasselberger, a nurse, [redacted] b6 b7C New York City, advised Needleman she had not witnessed acts of intimidation but had dressed the wounds of Negroes who had been injured (presumably in the course of such intimidation). A Dr. Manuel Gottlieb, dentist, 2 East 54th Street, New York City, advised that he and five other persons, while staying at a hotel, had received insulting anonymous phone calls threatening bodily harm if they did not leave town promptly.

Robert Lewis instructed Needleman to mail statements by witnesses to Kunstler and Kunstler, 511 Fifth Avenue, New York City, attention of Rita Schwerner.

The "U. E. News" of December 23, 1957, contained an item reflecting that Robert Z. Lewis is the counsel for the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, and that he contributes a column entitled "Legally Speaking" to the "U. E. News".

> In recent years confidential sources have advised that Isidore Gibby Needleman, a practicing attorney in New York City, was formerly employed by the Amtorg Trading Corporation, registered Soviet trade agency in the United States, in a legal capacity and continues to represent this agency from time to time. Needleman has appeared in behalf of former or current members of the Communist Party before Congressional committees and in the courts. He had contributed money and effort to numerous Communist front activities and has served as a custodian of Communist Party funds. Needleman has described himself as favoring strict adherence to Marxist-Leninist doctrines and at one time participated in the solicitation of a fund to promote Marxist study and research.

Re: Communist Influence in
Racial Matters

Characterizations of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America are attached hereto.

The Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory, 1965 Edition, reflects that William Kunstler and Michael J. Kunstler are members of the law firm Kunstler and Kunstler, 511 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

On October 29, 1962, a confidential source advised that a rally sponsored by the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee was held at the Manhattan Center, New York City, on October 24, 1962. William Kunstler spoke at this rally and told the audience that the House Committee on Un-American Activities interferes with social progress and the brotherhood of man, and called for the abolition of the Committee.

A characterization of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee is attached hereto.

In May, 1961, a confidential source learned that the name of Mike Kunstler was on the mailing list of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

A characterization of this organization is attached to this memorandum.

The "New York Herald Tribune" of June 23, 1964, page 4, contains an article reflecting that Rita Schwerner is the wife of Michael Schwerner, one of the three civil rights workers who disappeared near Philadelphia, Mississippi, on or about June 21, 1963. She and her husband headed the Meridan, Mississippi, office of the Council of Federated Organizations, a coalition of civil rights groups.

1. APPENDIX

UNITED ELECTRICAL, RADIO AND MACHINE WORKERS OF AMERICA

The "UE Shop Steward Guide," United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America (UE) Publication Number 212, Sixth Edition, 1952, discloses on pages 32-34, "UE - the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America" was established in 1936 at a convention in Buffalo, New York. At that time, the organization was called the United Electrical and Radio Workers of America. Shortly thereafter, a large group of American Federation of Labor machinists' locals joined the UE and the full name became the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America (UE).

"The UE is known as an 'International Union' because companies of both the United States and Canada are under contract."

"100 Things You Should Know About Communism and Labor," prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., 1951, relates the following information. In 1944, the Committee on Un-American Activities found the "United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America (CIO)" to be one of the unions which was described as having "Communist leadership... strongly entrenched." The "United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America" was listed as one of the Unions which was expelled from the Congress of Industrial Organizations in 1950 because of its Communist domination.

The "Internal Security Annual Report for 1957, Report of the Subcommittee to Investigate the Administration of the Internal Security Act and other Internal Security Laws, of the Committee on the Judiciary, United States Senate," on page 61, refers to UE as "one of the strongest Communist controlled unions in America."

The International Headquarters of UE is located at 11 East 51st Street, New York, New York, according to the April 20, 1964, edition of UE News," official organ of UE.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

A source on February 8, 1965, advised that the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) held a demonstration in sympathy with the voter registration drive in the South on February 8, 1965, at the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. Source advised that this demonstration, which never exceeded 12 persons, was held on the sidewalk in front of the Federal Building, Dearborn Street side, between the hours of 3:50 PM and 5:30 PM. The demonstrators were orderly, and there were no incidents. The individuals who participated in this demonstration carried signs which read as follows: "Freedom Now-CORE," "One Man One Vote," "Democracy-America," "Equal Rights to Vote," "Register all Americans to Vote."

In addition to the placards, it is to be noted that the demonstrators also approached passerbys and attempted to solicit signatures for a Chicago CORE petition which calls for the United States Government to send more United States marshals to Mississippi and Alabama.

Source advised that among the 12 individuals who participated in this demonstration were Rosalyn Dean and Dennis Schreiber.

ROSALYN DEAN

A second source advised on October 23, 1963, that Rosalyn Dean is a member of a Communist Party (CP) Club within the CP of Illinois and a member of a west side unit of CORE.

DENNIS J. SCHREIBER

A third source on August 27, 1964, advised that during August, 1964, Dennis Schreiber attended a meeting of the Executive Board of the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR).

Attached hereto is a characterization of the CCDBR.

MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT

HUGH BRAZEL MILLER appeared at the San Francisco Office of the FBI on February 8, 1965. He stated that he spent the first week of February, 1965, as a volunteer worker on the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party challenge. He stated he was assigned to three counties in the Northwest Section of Mississippi, which included Sharkey and Washington Counties. He stated he operated principally out of Greenville, Mississippi.

A source advised that San Francisco attorney HUGH MILLER had been a member of the Professional Section of the Communist Party (CP) in San Francisco from 1945-1951. Source advised that MILLER's wife, HELEN MILLER, had been a CP member from 1937-1950.

A second source reported that as of March, 1964, HUGH B. MILLER, 123 Second Street, San Francisco, was a member of the San Francisco National Lawyers Guild (NLG).

A characterization of the NLG is contained in the appendix.

The source used to characterize the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, is THEODORE W. KHEEL, 477 Madison Avenue, New York City.

Enclosed letterhead memorandum is classified "~~Secret~~" because of the extremely sensitive nature of NY 4092-S* and [redacted] The unauthorized disclosure of information furnished by these sources could seriously impair the investigation of subversive matters and thereby endanger the national defense interests of the United States.

The Bureau desires that all offices identify the various lawyers participating in "Deposition Caravan" through established sources in order that the extent of Communist influence and/or participation may be developed.

Accordingly, New Orleans is requested to furnish the Bureau by letterhead memorandum all information concerning the participation of BENJAMIN E. SMITH in this project, as well as information concerning anybody else who may be a participant.

Although there is no information that the six lawyers from Seattle, identified in enclosed letterhead memorandum, are participants in this project, the possibility exists that they are involved. Therefore, Seattle is requested to conduct the same investigation as set forth for New Orleans.

An information copy is being furnished Newark because of reference in enclosed letterhead memorandum to MORTON STAVIS. It is noted that relet identified STAVIS as National Coordinator of "Deposition Caravan" and it is assumed that Newark has previously furnished information concerning STAVIS as well as his participation in this project.

ARTHUR KINOY, mentioned in enclosed letterhead memorandum (Bufile [redacted] is currently on the Security Index of the New York Office. b6 b7C

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters

The December 5, 1964 issue of the "New York Times", in an article captioned, "Mississippi Seats Under Challenge", related that a spokesman for the Freedom Democratic Party (FDP) announced at a news conference in Washington, D.C., that a "Legal Peace Corps" of more than 100 lawyers would go to Mississippi to gather evidence to challenge the seating of all five members of the Mississippi delegation to the House of Representatives. This article further related that William M. Kunstler of New York, counsel for the FDP, said the challenge would be based on two principal grounds:
1. The Constitutional requirement that members of the House be elected by all the people, which was violated because many Negroes were not permitted to register and vote; and
2. Mississippi disenfranchised Negroes in its Constitution of 1890, thus violating a compact under which it was readmitted to the Union after the Civil War and which compact promised to maintain nondiscriminatory voting procedures then in effect.

The December 18, 1964 issue of the "New York Times" contains a letter dated December 11, 1964, signed by a group of attorneys from Seattle, Washington, self-identified as volunteers of legal assistance to the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) in Mississippi last summer. In the letter, this group urges establishment of a special committee to investigate voting and registration practices in Mississippi and Alabama so that the House of Representatives "will be in a position to determine the number of Representatives these states are entitled to, if any". Individuals comprising this group and shown as signers of this letter were: John Caughlan, Samuel Pancher, David Hood, Thomas Lynch, Carl Maxey and James Wilson. Wash, Miss,

The January 8, 1965 issue of the "New York Times", in an article entitled, "Lawyers Recruited To Aid in Unseating Five Mississippians", stated that William M. Kunstler of New York, lawyer for the FDP, said more than 50 lawyers had been signed to take depositions in Mississippi to be presented to the House Administrative Committee in an attempt to prove systematic exclusion of Negroes from voting in Mississippi. In this work, Kunstler related he had received help from two liberal lawyers' groups, the National Lawyers Guild (NLG), with headquarters in Detroit, and the Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee, which was formed last year to defend civil rights workers arrested in the South.

A characterization of the NLG is attached hereto.

The January 11, 1965 issue of the "New York Times", in an article captioned, "21 Lawyers Begin Mississippi Drive", indicated that 21 lawyers, meeting at the Broadway Congregational Church, 211 West 56th Street, New York City, on the previous day, pledged to go to Mississippi beginning January 11, 1965, to take depositions for the purpose of ousting Mississippi's five present members from the United States House of Representatives. Identified as participants in this "Deposition Caravan" were: Ephraim Cross, professor emeritus of romance languages at City College; Morton Stavis, a Newark N.J. lawyer who is national coordinator of the caravan; William Kunstler; Arthur Kinoy and Benjamin E. Smith of New Orleans, La. the latter two being general attorneys for the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP). According to the article, the lawyers would seek subpoenas for depositions throughout N.Y. Miss.

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters

Mississippi's 22 counties and among those to be served and questioned about charges that Negroes have been systematically excluded from voting in Mississippi are Governor Paul B. Johnson, Jr., Attorney General Joe T. Patterson and Secretary of State Heber Ladner.

NY T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on October 29, 1962, that a rally was held on October 24, 1962, sponsored by the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) at the Manhattan Center, 34th Street and Eighth Avenue, New York City. William Kunstler spoke at this rally and told the audience the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) interferes with social progress and the brotherhood of man and called for the abolition of the HCUA.

NY T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on September 17, 1963, furnished a partial list of sponsors for the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC) as of September 1, 1963. William M. Kunstler, New York City attorney, was listed as one of the sponsors.

Characterizations of NYCAHUAC and NCAHUAC are attached and sources mentioned therein have furnished reliable information in the past.

NY T-3, who was in a position to furnish reliable information, on February 25, 1964, furnished information that William Kunstler gave a speech at the NLG Convention held February 21 and 22, 1964, at the Henrose

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters

Hotel, Detroit, Michigan. Following his speech, Kunstler returned to a panel discussion on the problems of the integration of the Bar.

In October, 1963, NY T-4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that William Kunstler was in contact with Clarence Jones, who, as of September 15, 1963, was General Counsel for the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York City.

NY T-5, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on February 26, 1957, identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as the person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954, to be a member in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League (LYL).

A characterization of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights is attached hereto and the source mentioned therein has furnished reliable information in the past.

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

NY T-6, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information at various times from August, 1962 through January, 1963, indicating that William Kunstler and his wife, Lotte Kunstler, were in contact during this period with Stanley Levison, relative to matters pertaining to civil rights and also as to an affair held at White Plains, New York, on December 11, 1962, as a fund raising campaign for Martin Luther King, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC).

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters

On February 27, 1964, NY T-7, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Ephraim Cross was then a member of the Advisory Committee of the NYCAHUAC, but that the Committee was not then active.

On December 14, 1962, NY T-8, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Cross was Faculty Advisor for the Marxist Discussion Club, CCNY, (City College of New York), for the year 1962.

"The Worker" issue of April 10, 1962, page one, column one, and page 7, column one, reflected that Professor Ephraim Cross of the Romance Language Department, CCNY, introduced Gus Hall when Hall spoke on the "Communist Program for America" at the invitation of the Marxist Discussion Club, on Thursday, April 7, 1962.

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

On October 14, 1964, NY T-9, who has furnished reliable information in the past, identified Gus Hall as General Secretary of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA).

A characterization of the Marxist Discussion Club is attached hereto and sources mentioned therein have furnished reliable information in the past.

On August 5, 1964, NY T-10, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available information which indicated that as of June, 1964, Arthur Kinoy was a Vice President of the NLG.

GANDHI SOCIETY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

A source advised on August 2, 1963, that the Gandhi Society for Human Rights is an organization which was formed for the purpose of developing a philosophy and technique of non-violent civil rights protests. It allegedly makes no attempt to influence legislation nor to participate in demonstrations. The Society furnished legal assistance in civil rights cases. The Society was incorporated on June 14, 1962.

MARXIST DISCUSSION CLUB,
CITY COLLEGE OF NEW YORK

On May 15, 1964, a source advised that the Marxist Discussion Club (MDC) of City College of New York, 139th Street and Convent Avenue, New York City, is a student organization which was formed several years ago by the students for the purpose of conducting a balanced program of pro-Marxist and anti-Marxist speakers, and to hold discussions about Marxism.

The source stated that the MDC holds a charter at the College as a recognized campus activity, must conform to the rules of the college, and is entitled to the same privileges of all student organizations.

The source stated that although not all members of the MDC are sympathetic with the Communist Party (CP), the MDC seems to attract many students with such sympathies, and has often chosen as its faculty advisor a member of the faculty who at one time or another has gained some notoriety in connection with CP front organizations.

The source further stated that the MDC participates in demonstrations for peace and civil rights. The club has been more inclined to invite "left-wing" speakers and during the recent Fall and Spring semesters has had some leading Communists for guest speakers.

On May 18, 1964, a second source advised that William L. Patterson was a featured speaker at the MDC meeting on May 15, 1964.

On January 3, 1964, a third source advised that William L. Patterson is the Chairman of the New York District CP.

The Bureau by airtel 1/22/65 instructed that all offices attempt to determine the identity of various attorneys participating in the State of Mississippi in an effort to obtain evidence in support of the allegation that Negroes had been improperly deprived from registering to vote in the November, 1964, election in Mississippi. The Bureau desires background information regarding these attorneys in order that the extent of communist influence and/or participation may be developed.

An article appearing in the "Commercial Dispatch", Columbus, Miss., 2/7/65, identified Attorney THOMAS FIKE of Berkeley , California as one of a group of attorneys representing the Freedom Democratic Party.

An article appearing in the "Delta Democrat Times", Page 1, Greenville, Miss., 2/4/65, identified HUGH MILLER of San Francisco and HARRIETT BUDHAI of Hollywood, Calif., as representing the FDP.

During investigation of another matter, a Special Agent of the FBI determined that Attorney JOHN J. DUFFY, [redacted], was one of the attorneys taking depositions for the FDP.

INTERNAL SECURITY - C

The January 29, 1965, issue of "The Record", published daily at Hackensack, New Jersey, on Page 13, contained an article headed, "Lawyer Going to Mississippi", which stated that Walter T. Wittman, a well known local attorney of Paramus, New Jersey, left for Jackson, Mississippi, on January 28, 1965, to join a task force of lawyers from throughout the country, who will take depositions from Negroes who charge they have been denied the right to register as voters.

According to the article, WITTMAN will be one of about thirty-five attorneys working under the sponsorship of the Lawyers Constitution Committee, which will take testimony in an effort to oust five Mississippi congressmen on the grounds that they were elected by disenfranchising Negroes. In the article, Wittman is described as the local borough attorney and is described by the Mayor of Hillsdale, New Jersey, as "a very high-principled man".

NK T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 19, 1953, that Walter Wittman was a member of a professional group of the Communist Party (CP) from 1947 until late 1950 or early 1951 and attended meetings of the group, some of which were held at Wittman's residence.

Chief of Police Carl Jockish, Paramus, New Jersey, advised on September 23, 1964, that Walter T. Wittman,

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

The December 18, 1964 issue of the "New York Times" contains a letter dated December 11, 1964, signed by a group of attorneys from Seattle, Washington, self-identified as volunteers of legal assistance to the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) in Mississippi last summer. In the letter, this group urges establishment of a special committee to investigate voting and registration practices in Mississippi and Alabama so that the House of Representatives "will be in a position to determine the number of Representatives these states are entitled to, if any." Individuals comprising this group and shown as signers of this letter were: JOHN CAUGHLAN, SAMUEL FANCHER, DAVID HOOD, THOMAS LYNCH, CARL MAXEY, and JAMES WILSON.

The following information is noted with respect to JOHN CAUGHLAN: WASH ALA MISS

CHARLES CLARK HARPER, a member of the Communist Party (CP) at Seattle, Washington, from 1943 until he appeared as a Government witness in the Smith Act trial at Seattle in 1953, has advised that on March 19, 1949, a meeting of the 12th District CP was held at Washington Hall, 14th and East Fir Street, Seattle, Washington. The informant said that at this meeting, HENRY P. HUFF, District Chairman of the CP, stated that recently there had been several difficulties of a political nature with the "legal staff." According to the informant, HUFF stated, "This is factionalism, and it is bad." HARPER advised that HUFF said the County Board of the CP had a long meeting with CAUGHLAN who "admitted his anti-Party activity and said that he had permitted himself to get completely off the track." HARPER also stated that CAUGHLAN had promised to correct his attitude.

According to HARPER, HUFF further stated that a second meeting of the CP County Board was held with CAUGHLAN at which time CAUGHLAN had a complete change of attitude and admitted his failure to keep his pledges. The outcome of this second meeting was that CAUGHLAN never thought he would find himself in a position where he was going to be expelled from the CP since the CP was his whole life. HUFF said CAUGHLAN pleaded for an opportunity to continue, and stated that in the past, he did not think he had any obligation to the Party except as a lawyer. HUFF also stated it has been decided by the District that CAUGHLAN must continue as an attorney for defendants in contempt cases, and any refusal to do so would mean expulsion from the Party.

At hearings conducted by the Washington State Un-American Activities Committee (Canwell Committee) in 1948, the following witnesses testified that they knew JOHN CAUGHLAN to be a member of the CP:

Mrs. ISABELLE HARRIS COSTIGAN, Box 95, Tranquility, Fresno County, California, a former admitted member of the CP, testified that she had attended closed Communist meetings with JOHN CAUGHLAN in late January or early February, 1940.

Mrs. KATHRYN FOGG, 2764-14th Avenue Southwest, Seattle, Washington, an admitted former member of the CP from 1937 until the spring of 1939, testified that she attended closed meetings of the CP with CAUGHLAN between the period of 1937 and 1939.

WARD F. WARREN, 905 Jefferson Street, Seattle, Washington, testified that he was a member of the CP in the early part of 1937 and was in good standing with the Party for at least one and one half to two years. He stated that he had attended closed meetings of the CP with CAUGHLAN.

SARAH MARY ELDREDGE, [redacted] Seattle, Washington, a former admitted member of the CP, testified at these hearings that she belonged to the same unit of the CP as JOHN CAUGHLAN. b6 b7C

"The Seattle Times," a daily newspaper in Seattle, Washington, on July 12, 1964, carried an article indicating that six attorneys are planning to go to Jackson, Mississippi, to help defend student civil rights workers arrested in that state.

The article indicated that CARL MAXEY, a Negro, SAMUEL FANCHER, and THOMAS LYNCH, of Spokane, Washington, would leave Tuesday, July 14, 1964, for an indefinite stay in the South and that Dr. DAVID DANELSKI, of the University of Washington, JOHN CAUGHLAN, and JAMES E. WILSON, all of Seattle, Washington, will leave sometime in August. (It is noted that this office has previously reported that JAMES BARKER WILSON, [redacted] Seattle, Washington, would go to Mississippi in connection with the Mississippi Summer Project (MSP). No JAMES E. WILSON is listed in the 1964 R. L. Polk and Company Seattle City Directory or the 1964 Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone Directory as an attorney.) b6 b7C

DOB 4/19/12

SE T-1 and SE T-2 have advised that Attorney THOMAS FRANCIS LYNCH had spoken at four functions and attended seven functions of the Washington Pension Union and Idaho Pension Union between August 1, 1954, and August 25, 1957.

Hildegarde Strickland Lynch

Both the Washington Pension Union and the Idaho Pension Union have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive [redacted] Order 10450.

SE T-1 has advised that Attorney THOMAS FRANCIS LYNCH donated $50.00 to and spoke at a Civil Rights Congress meeting on August 29, 1954, at Spokane, Washington.

The Civil Rights Congress has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

SE T-3 advised on November 1, 1956, that THOMAS FRANCIS LYNCH subscribed to the "People's World" (PW), which would expire in 1957, and on April 12, 1961, he advised LYNCH subscribed to the same newspaper for the year 1961. SE T-4 advised on January 28, 1960, that LYNCH was a subscriber to the PW; he advised on April 16, 1964, that LYNCH was a current PW subscriber and that the subscription would expire in 1965.

The PW is a West Coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

SE T-5 advised on February 13, 1962, that THOMAS FRANCIS LYNCH attended a PW meeting held in Seattle, Washington, on February 10, 1962.

SE T-6 has advised in the past that TIMOTHY FRANCIS LYNCH, son of THOMAS FRANCIS LYNCH, was in 1961, a member of the University of Washington CP Club, Seattle, Washington.

On April 9, 1959, SE T-1 advised that although THOMAS FRANCIS LYNCH is not a CP member, he is friendly with many of the CP members in Spokane, Washington, and has sympathies toward their cause.

The Butte FBI Office advised on August 1, 1959, that THOMAS FRANCIS LYNCH, born April 19, 1912, according to the records of the Kellogg, Idaho Police Department, was arrested on June 2, 1959, for driving while intoxicated after he had run into a ditch. LYNCH, from Spokane, Washington, posted a bond for trial on June 11, 1959; however, Sheriff LEWIS GARDNER, Wallaca, Idaho, said the case "was quietly disposed of."

SE T-7 advised on September 14, 1959, that Attorney THOMAS FRANCIS LYNCH, Spokane, Washington, also the owner of the Turf Cafe and Cocktail Lounge, Spokane, has been living with his office secretary, HILDEGARDE STRICKLAND, at [redacted] Spokane, for quite some time. This source advised that LYNCH was sending his wife MADELYN out of town to get a divorce to avoid any local publicity. He stated also that LYNCH closely associates with pimps and prostitutes, as well as the general criminal element and the "radical" element in Spokane, and represents them as their attorney and has little business other than from this element. b6 b7C

On September 14, 1959, O. K. SHERAR, Captain, Detective Division, Spokane Police Department, advised that LYNCH was well-known to the Spokane Police Department as a "shyster lawyer" who represents the "radical" and criminal element in Spokane, Washington.

Records of the Spokane, Washington Police Department and Spokane County Sheriff's Office contain only minor traffic citations for LYNCH. The Spokane Credit Bureau files show that THOMAS FRANCIS LYNCH, 1804 East 12th Street, Spokane, Washington, is divorced from MADELYN and his present wife is HILDEGARDE. Their record shows his credit is poor and that there are fifteen unpaid collection items and three paid collection items in his file.

SE T-1 advised on February 15, 1952, that Attorney CARL MAXEY, Spokane, Washington, was a speaker at the Washington Pension Union meeting on February 7, 1952.

On February 17, 1960, JAMES ALLEN, Detective, Spokane County Sheriff's Office, Spokane, Washington, advised that his office had received a number of complaints regarding Attorney CARL MAXEY's attempts to date his clients and other women in Spokane. ALLEN advised that in the recent past, he had an opportunity to arrest MAXEY for cohabiting with a Spokane woman, but the Prosecuting Attorney did not give Detective ALLEN authority to obtain a warrant.

The Spokane, Washington Police Department and Spokane County Sheriff's Office files contain only minor traffic violations concerning MAXEY. The Spokane Credit Bureau files indicate CARL MAXEY, also known as LEONARD L. MAXEY, born [redacted] an Attorney residing at [redacted] Spokane, Washington, wife NINON, has a satisfactory credit rating with only one collection item. b6 b7C

No record of SAMUEL FANCHER is contained in the files of the Seattle FBI Office and only minor traffic violations are contained in the files of the Spokane, Washington Police Department and Spokane County Sheriff's Office, Spokane, Washington. The Spokane Credit Bureau shows SAMUEL W. FANCHER, Attorney, resides at [redacted] Spokane, that his wife is CATHRINE, and that he has one "unsatisfactory" credit account, the others being "slow" or "satisfactory."

The PW, Northwest Edition of July 18, 1964, carried an article on Page 3, relating that three Spokane lawyers were scheduled to arrive in Mississippi on July 15th, "as the first contingent of at least a half dozen Washington State members of the Bar who will participate as legal advisors to young people engaged in the education and registration campaign." Continuing, the article stated, in part, "Spokane members of the team are CARL MAXEY, THOMAS F. LYNCH, and SAM FANCHER.

"MAXEY, a Negro, is Chairman of the Washington State Advisory Committee to the United States Commission on Civil Rights.

* * * * *

"Scheduled to leave in August from Seattle..... are JOHN CAUGHLAN and JAMES WILSON."

The PW, Northwest Edition issue of January 25, 1964, carried an article on Page 3, relating that five or six Washington State attorneys committed to go to Mississippi were participating under the auspices of the Committee for Legal Assistance in the South (CLAS).

The PW, Northwest Edition issue of August 8, 1964, carried an article on page 4, column 3, captioned, "Attorneys Report on Mississippi." The article related that CARL MAXEY, SAMUEL W. FANCHER, and THOMAS F. LYNCH gave reports at a meeting held at the Unitarian Church in Spokane, Washington, on July 29 (1964) regarding their activities in Mississippi where they had aided in the voter registration drive.

The January 13, 1965 Seattle "Post Intelligencer," a daily newspaper published in Seattle, Washington, contained an article indicating that CREDO, INC., an organization to raise funds for the support of civil rights activities in Mississippi, has been formed in Seattle by a group of attorneys and businessmen. The article indicated that JAMES B. WILSON was the President. The article indicated that the initials in CREDO stood for Civil Rights Education and Defense Organization.

The "Seattle Times," a daily newspaper published in Seattle, Washington, also on January 13, 1965, contained an article concerning CREDO, INC. This article reported DAVE HOOD, Attorney, was a member of CREDO and had given volunteer legal services in Mississippi.

The files of the Seattle Police Department and the King County Sheriff's Office, checked February 8, 1965, contained no record of DAVE HOOD, previously mentioned as being a member of

DAVID T. WOOD MASS. T. WOOD

CREDO who had served in Mississippi. The files of the Seattle Credit Bureau, checked the same date, show that DAVID R. WOOD, wife KATHY M., resides at [redacted] Seattle, and is an attorney with the law firm of McDONALD, HOAGUE and BAYLESS. Its files also show that he received his L.L.B. degree from Harvard in June, 1963, and that he is approximately [redacted]

MR/MRS MISS. ALA b6 b7C

WA-H

The following information concerning JAMES B. WILSON was developed by this office in June, 1964:

On June 17, 1965, MELVIN L. WULF, LEO PFEFFER, and CARL RACHLIN, of the Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee, advised the Memphis FBI Office that among attorneys who would be in the South serving on behalf of the committee was one J. B. WILSON, [redacted], Seattle, Washington, who would be in the South during the period August 15 to August 30, 1964.

J. B. WILSON, [redacted] Seattle, Washington, according to records of the Seattle Police Department checked June 29, 1964, is JAMES BARKER WILSON, Attorney. He has been arrested by the Seattle Police Department on October 13, 1954, October 7, 1961, and February 15, 1963, on drunk charges. The first and last charges were dropped; however, on November 28, 1961, he was fined $75.00 on the October 7, 1961 drunk charge.

Arrest report on the above October 7, 1961 charge indicates that WILSON and another individual were arrested in an automobile being driven in the City of Seattle. The report notes that WILSON was "combative and cocky" and had to be held to prevent his walking away and handcuffed to protect himself from injuries to himself. WILSON also slapped one of the officers and used considerable profanity toward them.

In connection with the February 15, 1963 arrest, the arrest report indicates that WILSON was drunk in a bar at 2030 East Madison Street, Seattle, Washington, and had created a distrubance after having been refused a drink due to his intoxicated condition. The report also notes that WILSON was creating a distrubance by trying to pick up the Negro males in the premises by telling them "how cute they were, etc." The report also notes that WILSON had to be forcibly subdued because he resisted arrest.

J. B. WILSON MR/MRS

The records indicate JAMES BARKER WILSON, Attorney, is a white male, born [redacted] in Visalia, California, is 6'2" in height, weighs 180 pounds, has brown hair, and blue eyes. His wife's name is JOANN WILSON b6 b7C

JAMES WILSON JAMES B. WILSON

Records of the Seattle Credit Bureau, Seattle, Washington, checked June 29, 1964, show that WILSON, an attorney, had his credit canceled in 1960 by two oil companies for failure to pay his bills. It is also noted that there is a $50.00 collection item placed in 1960 against WILSON's account by the EDWARDS CLINIC and in April, 1961, the United States Government (Internal Revenue Service) filed a lien against him for $567.00. The record further shows that WILSON, in addition to his employment as an attorney, was the Assistant General Counsel for the University of Washington in March, 1964, and that his wife in December, 1963, was a legal clerk for Washington Supreme Court Justice HUGO ROSELLINI.

3505 EAST OLIVE, SEATTLE, WASH

WILSON, according to the files of the Seattle FBI Office, was formerly a Democratic candidate for Congress (in 1956) and also formerly held the position of the Washington State Assistant Attorney General.

SE T-8, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 5, 1957, that JAMES B. WILSON spoke against the Walter McCarran Act at a May 17, 1957 meeting of the Washington Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (WCPFB) held at Humanist Hall, 6th and University, Seattle, Washington.

SE T-9, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 8, 1961, that JAMES B. WILSON spoke at the meeting of the Washington Cultural Cooperative (WCC) held January 29, 1961, at the Vance Hotel, Seattle, Washington.

SE T-10, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 18, 1962, that JAMES B. WILSON spoke at a meeting of the University of Washington Young Socialists, an officially recognized group on the campus of the University of Washington, held April 12, 1962, at the campus of the University of Washington, Seattle, Washington. The other speaker at that meeting was BOGDAN DEMITCH, of Berkeley, Calfiornia, an official spokesman for the Socialist Party.

On January 15, 1965, SE T-11 furnished a National Lawyers Guild (NLG) booklet, captioned, "Project Mississippi." The booklet states, "Two years ago, the guild set up a committee, now known as the Committee for Legal Assistance in the South (CLAS) whose announced purposed was 'to help fill the need created by the refusal of practically the entire bar in the South to provide effective legal representation to Negroes and their white supporters in the effort to achieve their constitutional rights.'"

The above booklet contains the following tabulation of lawyers participating in the CLAS summer project under the caption, "The National Lawyers Guild Operation in Mississippi: Summer, 1964:

Name	Home	Assignment Station	Week Of
CAUGHLAN, JOHN	Seattle	Hattiesburg	August 24th
FANCHER, SAMUEL	Spokane	Meridian	July 13th
HOOD, DAVID	Seattle	Meridian	August 24th
LYNCH, WILLIAM	Spokane	Jackson	July 13th
MAXEY, CARL	Spokane	Jackson	July 13th

No information has come to the attention of the Seattle Office to indicate that JOHN CAUGHLAN, noted above, actually went to Mississippi to participate there in the summer project.

Subsequent to the letter of December 11, 1964, described in the December 18, 1964 issue of the "New York Times," noted above, there has been no further activity reported on the part of the trip of the attorneys from Seattle and Spokane, Washington, with regard to investigation of voting and registration practices in Mississippi and Alabama.

Characterizations of the National Lawyers Guild, Free Press Discussion Club, Washington Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, and the Washington Cultural Cooperative are attached hereto.

FREE PRESS DISCUSSION CLUB

A source advised on December 1, 1953, that the Free Press Discussion Club (FPDC), Spokane, Washington, was initiated by action of the Spokane Local of the Washington Pension Union as a forum to commence meetings on December 6, 1953. Officers selected by the FPDC, according to later reports by the same informant, have been predominantly members of the Communist Party, USA. On February 16, 1955, source stated that the purpose of the FPDC is to raise funds for the "Daily People's World" and the "National Guardian" through a program of dinners, socials, and other activities, and although some of the participants are non-Communists, nevertheless the FPDC undoubtedly would cease its existence but for the support of Communist Party members.

The Washington Pension Union has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily People's World", now known as the "People's World" was described by the California Committee on Un-American Activities in its 1948 report as the "west coast mouth-piece of the Communist Party". The 1949 report of the same Committee cited the "National Guardian" as a publication which, from its inception, was notoriously Stalinist in its staff, writers, management and contents.

On January 11, 1960, the same source furnished a copy of new bylaws adopted October 18, 1959, which included the following preamble: "To further the study of social, political, economic, and scientific problems of today and contribute to a sustaining fund for the Northwest edition of the 'People's World' we progressive-minded citizens of Spokane and vicinity hereby organize under the name of Free Press Discussion Club....."

A second source in April, 1964, advised that a regular meeting of the FPDC was held at Spokane on April 5, 1964.

WASHINGTON COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN

"The Lamp", official organ of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (ACPFB), in its August, 1949, issue reported that the Northwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (NWCPFB) was established at Seattle, Washington in July, 1949 as a part of the ACPFB.

> The ACPFB has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Mrs. BARBARA HARTLE, admitted member and officer of the Communist Party in Washington State during the period 1934 to 1954, testified on December 13, 1956, that the NWCPFB, in 1954, changed its name and became the Washington Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (WCPFB); that the NWCPFB, the WCPFB, and ACPFB were parts of the same organization; that the WCPFB was controlled lock, stock and barrel by the Communist conspiracy; and that WCPFB officers MARION KINNEY, Executive Secretary; CECELIA CORR, Treasurer and CLARA A. PAULSON, Recording Secretary, were each known to her as a "Communist."

A mimeographed letter disseminated in November, 1956, with the return address of the WCPFB, stated that, "The Committee is an unaffiliated non-partisan body devoted to the preservation of democratic rights of all foreign born residents of the United States. Its program is to arouse widespread and unceasing public protest against the application of the hundreds of unfair and inhumane provisions of the Walter McCarran law...We work to effect repeal of the law and to secure enactment of a humane democratic immigration code. We help provide legal defense and public support of any foreign-born person requesting our assistance.

In March, 1964, a leaflet was distributed in the vicinty of Seattle, announcing an international dinner and program to be sponsored by the WCPFB on April 25, 1964, at Washington Hall, Seattle.

WASHINGTON CULTURAL COOPERATIVE (WCC), Aka Washington Cultural Co-op Association

On February 23, 1960, a source reported that the Communist Party (CP), Northwest District Committee, at a meeting in January, 1960, decided to prepare for opening a cooperative bookstore and directed the CP State Board to set up a Party committee for this purpose.

The above source also reported that at a state-wide CP conference held on August 27, 1960, CP District Chairman BURT NELSON reported on the WCC. NELSON announced that the committee was determined to have the bookstore opened by the earliest possible date, probably October 15 (1960). He urged support of the WCC.

A second source in February and March, 1960, advised that a committee of CP members during those months commenced organization of the WCC with authorized capital of $2,000.00 which was to sell shares and make other plans for operation for a bookstore selling "progressive" literature at Seattle. In May and June, 1960, this source reported that BURT NELSON, on May 18, 1960 stated the CP District Literature Commission would concern itself with the bookstore and other types of literature to be sold. On May 31, 1960, BURT NELSON suggested October 1, 1960 as the tentative opening date of the bookstore.

The second source advised on November 2, 1960, that the principal aim of the WCC is to establish a bookstore in the Seattle area, inasmuch as this need has long been recognized by the Washington State CP due to difficulties encountered in maintaining a Party literature apparatus, and they desire to have available public facilities to attract supporters and sympathizers. This source stated that the WCC had obtained a location for its bookstore at 710 Stewart Street, Seattle, and that operations commenced at that location on November 5, 1960.

A third source advised on April 24, 1964, that the WCC held a meeting of the Board of Trustees on April 5, 1964 at "Co-op Books", the bookstore of the WCC, 710 Stewart Street, Seattle.

Re your delay letter (FD-205), 1/29/65 and St. Louis report of SA Walter A. Hilgendorf, 2/4/65.

The following Bureau observations concerning referenced communications should be brought to the personal attention of SA Hilgendorf and the Supervisor on whose desk captioned matter is being handled.

The FD-205 failed to contain the name of your office after "From: SAC," thus necessitating research at the Bureau to determine the source of the letter.

The FD-205 advised that the Bureau deadline of 2/1/65 would not be met because of "Unavailability of sources." The Bureau questions the validity of your reason for the delinquency when it is noted that rerep is a quarterly report and covers a period which was established by Bureau instructions dated 8/28/64. Further, the sources to whom you apparently are making reference are all established security informants who are required to be contacted each two weeks. Rerep reveals that on 2/2/65 (after the deadline for the report), several informants furnished information. Information available from these informants should have been obtained sufficiently in advance of the deadline date and thus would have avoided the necessity for the submission of the FD-205 and would have enabled your office to meet the deadline.

The Bureau will expect that future deadlines are met and, when not met, only sound reasons exist therefor.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

All sources utilized in this memorandum have furnished reliable information in the past, unless otherwise indicated.

The attached newspaper article reports that six named Los Angeles attorneys would travel to Mississippi to assist citizens in challenging the authority of representatives in Congress from Mississippi who were selected despite the exclusion of Negro voters. There was no indication in the article that the attorneys were going as representatives of any organization or group.

On February 8 and 9, 1965, by appropriate pretext interview by a Special Agent of the FBI, it was determined through Attorney Charles B. Stewart, Jr., that he had just returned from Mississippi. He advised the six attorneys named were all volunteers; and since they went as individuals, their activity was not as effective as it might otherwise have been. Mr. Stewart stated the person who really organized the attorneys for this action in the Los Angeles area was Attorney Hugh Manes, who is presently in Mississippi, and who expects to return early next week.

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on October 5, 1964, that the National Lawyers Guild has chapters in various cities and that the Los Angeles Chapter and the Hollywood-Beverly Hills Chapter are affiliated with it.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations," revised December 1, 1961, page 121, describes the National Lawyers Guild as follows:

"1. Cited as a Communist front. (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149).

"2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.' (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally related september 17, 1950).

"3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are theNational Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection.'

6 Lawyers to Visit Miss.

Six local attorneys will leave for Jackson, Miss., Sunday to assist citizens there in challenging the authority of representatives in Congress from Mississippi who were selected despite the fact that Negroes were excluded from voting in the State.

Attorneys Henry W. Sands, Charles Stewart, Carl Cain, Frank Phillips, Frank Evans and Hiram Smith are the L. A. Lawyers who will make the trip.

Pointing out the purpose of the trip, Atty. Sands said:

"There is no excuse for not going. It is high time that we do more about our citizens' inability to vote in the areas such as Mississippi than just talk about it.

"Congress has given us a law (the Civil Rights Act of 1965) which will allow us to challenge the election of any representative from any jurisdiction where Negroes are not allowed to vote. And it behooves us to take advantage of this.

"Our function, and the purpose of our trip is to take testimony from Negroes who have not been permitted to vote.

"We are aware of the risks, but they are not sufficient reason to stay home," Sands concluded.

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters

OTHER Removed per Court Order

The release as prepared was as follows: (U)

"Recent events in Selma, Alabama, have disclosed the persisting barriers to enfranchisement of Negroes in the South. If the rate of registration manipulated in Selma were to prevail, it would take several decades to register eligible Negroes. The mandate of the American People and the intention of Congress are subverted by these conditions. There is a clear and urgent need for new and approved Federal legislation and Executive action to eliminate these undemocratic barriers. To pursue this objective, conferences in Washington are being planned. The pressure of international affairs have made impractical a Monday conference with the White House. However, on Tuesday, I will be meeting with Vice President Humphrey in his capacity as Chairman of the newly formed Council for Equal Opportunity, and the Attorney General, Nicholas De Katzenbach. Following the preliminary explorations of the issue, plans will be made for further discussion on appropriate levels where the programs we believe to be indispensable for solution of problems can be examined." (U)

"To pursue this objective conferences in Washington have been scheduled. The pressure of international developments has made impractical the scheduled Monday conference. However, on Tuesday, I will be meeting with Vice President Humphrey in his new capacity as Chairman of the newly created Council for Equal Opportunity, and with Attorney General Nicholas De Katzenbach. I am in communication with the White House concerning a possible meeting with the President. While there are no definite arrangements for such a meeting, I am hopeful that such a conference will be held on Tuesday. Following the preliminary explorations of the issue, plans will be made for further discussion on appropriate levels where the programs we believe to be indispensable for solution of problems can be examined." Communist Influence In Racial Matters

Harry Wachtel is the Executive Vice President of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York. He resides at 29 Split Rock Drive, Kings Point, Long Island, New York. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in December, 1949, that Harry H. Wachtel, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild. (U)

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild is attached hereto. (U)

On March 5, 1944, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that the name Harry Wachtel was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party (CP) at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York. (U)

Regarding Harry Wachtel's wife, Leonora, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP. (U)

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president, and serves to raise funds for the SCLC. (U)

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states. (U)

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. (U)

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957. (U)

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." (U)

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates. (U)

and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA. (U)

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964. (U)

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in June, 1958, that Michael Harrington held the position of National Chairman of the Young Socialist League (YSL). (U)

A characterization of the YSL is attached hereto. (U)

In September, 1958, the same confidential source advised that Michael Harrington was a member of the Young People's Socialist League (YPSL) following the merger of the YSL with the YPSL. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963, and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

Enclosed herewith for New York are 1 copy each of amended pages B and 15 (incorrectly numbered 14) of rerep.

Item Number 1 in referenced airtel points out details of rerep failed to reflect use of SA T-11. A review of rerep by San Antonio reflects information from SA T-11 is set forth on page 5, paragraph 2, lines 10, et seq.

Items Number 2 and 3 in refairtel point out Bureau's observations regarding documentation in rerep. The enclosed amended page B reflects the corrective action in this regard. San Antonio copies are being corrected, and New York and the Bureau are requested to insert enclosed amended page B in their copies.

Item Number 4 of refairtel points out that the characterizations of G. J. SUTTON and ALFRED FEATHERSTON in rerep are too lengthy. San Antonio will correct these in future reports.

Item Number 5 of referenced airtel deals with pages 14 and 15 of rerep which are a characterization of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA). These pages were determined to be in reverse order in San Antonio copies of rerep and are being corrected. New York is requested to correct its copy in this regard and to insert the enclosed amended page 15 (incorrectly numbered 14).

Also in Item Number 5 the Bureau explained that the characterization of DCA appearing on pages 14 and 15 of rerep was not the latest available from the San Francisco office. In this regard, a review of San Antonio files reflects the Bureau-approved thumbnail sketch or characterization of DCA is located in the following communications:

1. SAC Letter No. 64-39 dated 7/30/64, captioned Subversive Organization Characterizations, IS - C.

2. San Francisco letter to the Bureau dated 7/17/64 captioned W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America, IS - C.

This Bureau-approved thumbnail sketch was used in rerep; however, a perusal of San Antonio file on DCA (San Antonio 100-9784) subsequent to receipt of referenced airtel reflects a different characterization of DCA than that set forth in the two above-mentioned communications. This different characterization first appears in San Antonio file in the appendix of San Francisco LHM dated 1/19/65 captioned W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA); IS - C, ISA of 1950, et al, pages 5 and 6.

In view of the above, San Antonio has prepared amended page 15 (incorrectly numbered 14) of rerep for New York and San Antonio copies, utilizing the characterization of DCA appearing in above-mentioned San Francisco LHM of 1/19/65, assuming this was the latest available characterization mentioned in referenced airtel. In the future San Antonio will utilize this characterization of DCA UACB.

Concerning Item Number 6 of refairtel dealing with reproduction equipment, this has been brought to the attention of appropriate personnel. Since date of rerep, the reproduction machine in the San Antonio Division has received a maintenance inspection and has been corrected.

The Bureau's observations in referenced airtel have been noted and are appreciated. It is believed all corrective action necessary at this time has been accomplished by this airtel and its enclosures. Steps will be taken to avoid a recurrence of the points set forth by the Bureau in referenced airtel.

All were sharply critical of history of that committee. It was also noted that appointment of DAVID E. LILIENTHAL, Sr. as Chairman of AEC resulted in wide-spread, controversial publicity.

Charlotte Office under date of 7/10/64 submitted letterhead memorandum which went to Bureau listing MARGARET A. LILIENTHAL as one of several victims in case under Desegration of Public Accommodations, Civil Rights Act of 1964. She furnished signed statement on 7/8/64 to Charlotte agents in connection with the matter and identified herself as a housewife and her address as [redacted] Edgartown, Mass. Two copies of letterhead memorandum being submitted to Jackson for background purposes. b6 b7C

No additional action being taken by Boston in relation to Mrs. DAVID (PEGGY) LILIENTHAL, Jr.

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

CDM

Pages 1908-1918. Senator Eastland, (D) Mississippi, spoke concerning the Communist influence in the Negro revolution in the United States. He stated "From inside the United States, aid and incitement for the Negro revolution is not coming entirely from Communist and pro-Communist sources, it is being provided also by others, including both persons and organizations which are demonstrably not Communist, and which may not even know that they are serving the purposes of world communism and helping toward the achievement of a Communist objective." Mr. Eastland comments on the activities of the Freedom Party and sets forth background information on this organization. He included newspaper articles with his remarks. Senator Stennis, (D) Mississippi, joined Eastland in his remarks. Mr. Stennis stated "Do not the facts disclosed by the Senator fully underscore and bring out the correctness of the repeated warnings that have been made by J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, about the efforts of the Communist Party to infiltrate any part or element it can in regard to the racial struggle? I should like to quote something that Mr. Hoover recently said, as late as January 1965, as set forth in an FBI release: 'The Communist Party is making every effort to increase its influence in the racial struggle and continues to promote the false impression that it is a legitimate political party.' Those are not idle words; they do not come from an idle source, a questionable source, or a biased source." Eastland comments on the activities of Robert Parris Moses, field secretary of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, in connection with the USA Freedom Party. Eastland stated "In January 1963, Moses and others filed suit against the Attorney General of the United States and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation seeking to compel them to take action against local authorities and other individuals alleged to have violated or to be violating the rights of Moses and others. Synopsis: FOR THE PERIOD 10/31/64 THROUGH 1/31/65

No information developed concerning communist strategy in racial matters in the Cincinnati Division territory. ANNE BRADEN identified as a member of the CP in Louisville, Kentucky, during the period 1/51 to 12/54, spoke to about 125 persons on 11/11/64, at the Unitarian Universalist Church, Columbus, Ohio. Her topic was "HUAC: Bulwark of Segregation." Appearance of BRADEN sponsored by SLA, Ohio State University Campus Organization. During appearance, BRADEN spoke about the civil rights movement in the South. She commented that the label of "communist" has been applied by segregationists to anyone joining the civil rights movement. She attacked the House Un-American Activities Committee and the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee because she said they label persons and groups as Communists unjustly. During the speech, Mrs. BRADEN identified her organization as the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. Some of the persons identified as being present at BRADEN's speech shown to have a background of involvement in communist activities.

DETAILS:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

No information has been developed in the Cincinnati Division territory concerning communist strategy in racial matters.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

(A) Activity in Columbus, Ohio, November 11, 1964

On November 2, 1964, CI T-1 advised that a brief announcement had appeared in a newsletter published by the Columbus Civil Rights Council, Columbus, Ohio, stating that Mrs. ANNE BRADEN would appear at the Wesley Foundation, 118 16th Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, on November 11, 1964, sponsored by the Students for Liberal Action (SLA). No time was noted in the announcement.

ANN BRADEN

ALBERTA AHEARN, 2311 Payne, Louisville, Kentucky, a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party, in Louisville, Kentucky, on December 13, 1954, in her testimony in Jefferson County, Kentucky Court in the prosecution of CARL BRADEN under a state sedition statute, testified that CARL BRADEN and his wife, ANNE BRADEN, were known to her as members of the Communist Party in Louisville, Kentucky, from January, 1951, to December, 1954, which was during the period of her, AHEARN's, Communist Party membership.

The source advised the announcement indicated that telephone numbers 291-7097 or BE 1-4137 could be contacted for information regarding the appearance of Mrs. BRADEN.

The July 7, 1960, edition of "The Ohio State Lantern," a student newspaper of Ohio State University (OSU), had an article captioned, "SLA Program Awaits Action of Trustees on Housing Issue," which mentioned that SLA planned to continue efforts to end campus discrimination. The article said that, "In the area of international affairs, SLA advocates unilateral support of disarmament and discontinuation of nuclear testing, UN survey of world overpopulation problems, and the elimination of U. S. occupation in pertinent areas." It continued by saying that, "nationally, the organization proposes further protection of civil rights, including a Federal anti-lynch bill, provisions for investigation of anti-boycott laws, immediate enforcement of school desegregation, enforced protection of Federal voting rights, Federal investigation of anti-minority organizations and the abolition of capital punishment." Also, the "SLA supports student educational and cultural exchange programs, and calls for their expansion." It also announced its support of Federal aid to education, and opposes a disclaimer affidavit as a condition of Federal assistance. The organization opposes Federal aid to segregated schools.

ANN MAYER

On November 23, 1964, CI T-2 advised that the subscriber to telephone number [redacted] was ANNE MAYER, [redacted] Columbus, Ohio, and the subscriber to telephone number [redacted] was FAYE S. SCHWARTZ, [redacted] Columbus, Ohio.

b7C

A letter signed by ANN MAYER, President of SLA, appearing on page four of "The Ohio State Lantern," dated November 4, 1964, indicates earlier in the month SLA invited EDWIN SHAW, the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) vice-presidential candidate, to speak on the OSU campus. The article shows that because of a 1960 Board of Trustees rule, SHAW was not allowed to speak.

CONFIDENTIAL

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On November 2, 1964, CI T-3 advised that on October 28, 1964, the SLA, OSU, Columbus, Ohio, a recognized campus organization, submitted a petition for authorization for ANNE BRADEN to speak in the Law School Auditorium, OSU, on November 11, 1964, under the auspices of SLA. The source said the petition was submitted by ANNE MAYER, a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, OSU, and President of SLA, and carried the approval of the faculty adviser for SLA, Professor DAVID G. MC CONNELL.

CI T-3 said authorization for the appearance of Mrs. BRADEN on the OSU campus had not been extended as yet, and the OSU administrative officials were reluctant to authorize her appearance.

An article appeared on page one of "The Ohio State Lantern." on October 28, 1964, indicating that, "Dr. DAVID G. MC CONNELL, absentee adviser to the SLA, will not resign his position." The article identified MC CONNELL as a visiting professor at the University of Wisconsin who had written a letter to the OSU President requesting permission for EDWARD SHAW, SWP vice-presidential candidate, to speak on campus.

On November 6, 1964, CI T-3 advised that as a result of a consultation with OSU administrative officials, SLA had agreed to withdraw its request for authorization for Mrs. ANNE BRADEN to speak on the campus of OSU on November 11, 1964.

"The Columbus Sunday Dispatch," a newspaper in general circulation in the Columbus, Ohio, area, on November 8, 1964, carried an article on page 19A entitled, "Communist-Tagged Speaker Slated to Speak in OSU Area Wednesday."

That article, at the outset, stated, "ANN_ BRADEN, accused in the U. S. Congress of being a Communist, will speak in the Ohio State University area Wednesday, a local civil rights group reported." The article then stated a notice of the speech was carried in the October 26, 1964, "Freedom Torch," identified as the publication of the Columbus Civil Rights Council, 355 East Long Street, Columbus, Ohio.

The article declared, "Mrs. BRADEN and her husband, CARL, were described as Communists in a Senate speech by U. S. Senator STROM THURMOND, R-S.C." The article then noted the OSU area speech apparently would be to criticize the United States House Un-American Activities Committee.

The article quoted the "Freedom Torch" notice as stating, "Keep your eyes open for talk by ANN_ BRADEN, dedicated worker for human rights and author of 'HUAC, Bulwark of Segregation,' near OSU campus on Nov. 11. Sponsored by SLA in Wesley Foundation on E. 16th."

On November 10, 1964, the "Columbus Evening Dispatch," a newspaper in general circulation in the Columbus, Ohio, area, carried an article on page 1B entitled, "HUAC Critic To Speak Here."

That short article stated that, "ANN_ BRADEN, critic of the U. S. House Un-American Activities Committee, and author of 'HUAC, Bulwark of Segregation,' will speak Wednesday at 8:00 p.m. in the Unitarian Universalist Church, 121 16th Avenue, under sponsorship of SLA."

On November 10, 1964, CI T-3 advised that a hand-printed placard had been placed on the door of Pomerene Hall Refectory, on the campus of OSU, on the morning of that date, announcing that ANNE BRADEN would speak on "HUAC: Bulwark of Segregation," on Wednesday, November 11, 1964, at 8:00 p.m., at the Universalist Church, 121 16th Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, sponsored by SLA. The source did not know the identity of the person or persons who had prepared the placard or placed it on the door of Pomerene Hall. The source said the placard was removed promptly by a member of the OSU staff.

On November 11, 1964, CI T-4 advised that ANNE BRADEN spoke from 8:20 p.m., to 10:10 p.m., on November 11, 1964, at the Unitarian Universalist Church, 121 16th Avenue, Columbus, Ohio. Her topic was "HUAC: Bulwark of Segregation." Approximately 125 persons attended the speech, many of whom appeared to be students.

The source said ANNE BRADEN was introduced by ANNE MAYER, who signified she was President of the SLA, and who indicated that campus organization was sponsoring the appearance of Mrs. BRADEN. ANNE MAYER also introduced TOBY EMMER as the Secretary of SLA, and stated that anyone present who was interested in joining SLA should see TOBY EMMER following the speech by Mrs. BRADEN.

The source said Mrs. BRADEN commented on the progress of the civil rights movement in the South, and she felt that part of the struggle in the South relating to integration has been won. Mrs. BRADEN indicated a milestone in the integration movement had been the integration of public accommodations, but conditions really have not changed with respect to job and housing discrimination. Mrs. BRADEN suggested that the whites and Negroes must unite their efforts to correct social evils now existing.

The source said Mrs. BRADEN commented that the label of "communist" has been applied by segregationists to anyone joining the civil rights movement, and this has immobilized people and slowed the movement itself. She contended the label of "communist" immediately is applied to anyone who tries to join the civil rights movement, and the movement has been labeled as a "communist plot."

According to the source, Mrs. BRADEN indicated the feeling exists in this country that Communists are not human beings.

CI T-4 continued by stating Mrs. BRADEN signified that "McCarthyism" debilitated democracy, and people were afraid to attend any meeting of any type because their attendance or what they said might be used against them. According to Mrs. BRADEN, in 1954, the whole country was demoralized by Senator MC CARTHY, so much so that decent people did not organize.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

The source said Mrs. BRADEN then attacked the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) and the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee because she contended they label persons and groups as Communists unjustly. Mrs. BRADEN, according to the source, contended that the various investigating committees "scratch each others backs" in quoting each other as the basis for citing individuals and organizations as subversive. She contended that "one man," Senator JAMES EASTLAND, can cause citations of persons and organizations by virtue of his position as Chairman of the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee.

CI T-4 went on to say that Mrs. BRADEN said her organization, the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF), is under investigation by the Louisiana Un-American Activities Committee, established as a result of a Louisiana anti-subversive law.

A characterization of SCEF is contained in the attached appendix.

According to the source, Mrs. BRADEN contended the outlawing of the Communist Party endangered the suppressing of all ideas, and she stated that in the United States Communists are depicted as "witches" and communism is a "scare-word." Mrs. BRADEN said such a label was bad because people identify whatever they dislike with communism.

Mrs. BRADEN, according to the source, signified she believed the Communist Party should not be outlawed in the United States because the ideas of the Communist Party were not illegal.

Mrs. BRADEN, during the speech, contended that the HUAC restricted ideas and was a step toward tyranny by governmental control over thoughts. She stated the files of the HUAC were repleat with citations of persons which were untrue, and, therefore, the HUAC must be discredited. She then contended that the existence of the HUAC was unconstitutional.

The source said Mrs. BRADEN stated the Bill of Rights in the United States must be re-established.

CONFIDENTIAL

According to CI T-4, a question and answer period followed the speech by Mrs. BRADEN, and Professor DAVID KETTLER, of the Political Science Department, OSU, acted as the moderator. During that period, Mrs. BRADEN was asked by an unidentified member of the audience whether or not she was a member of the Communist Party; she refused to answer that question and stated she would not answer it as long as committees such as HUAC were in existence. However, the source said Mrs. BRADEN did not fix any conditions under which she would answer such a question.

The source said the following literature was readily available to all persons in attendance at the meeting:

(1) Pamphlet entitled, "The Albany Case," published by the National Committee for the Albany Defendants, Albany, Georgia;

(2) Leaflet entitled, "What Can I Do Now to Break Through the Color Wall?," issued by the SCEF;

(3) Envelope for contribution to SCEF;

(4) Leaflet entitled, "The Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., Its Planned Activities and Financial Requirements, 1964";

(5) Reprint of an article from "The Southern Patriot," published by SCEF, dated June, 1964, entitled, "An Upsurge in Carolina";

(6) Pamphlet entitled, "HUAC: Bulwark of Segregation," by ANNE BRADEN.

On November 20, 1964, Officer DONALD SHARTZER, Columbus, Ohio, Police Department, advised that the following individuals were among those in attendance at the speech by Mrs. ANNE BRADEN at the Unitarian Universalist Church on November 11, 1964:

OSCAR and EDITH SMILACK

CI T-5 advised in October, 1944, that OSCAR SMILACK was a member of the Communist Political Association (CPA) in 1944. U

CI T-6 advised in March, 1945, that SMILACK was a member of the CPA in 1945. This same source advised in October, 1946, that SMILACK had been a member of the Communist Party (CP) since 1938. He attended meetings of the CP and CPA from 1944 to 1949, and contributed large amounts of money to the CP and the CPA from 1945 to 1951. U

OSCAR SMILACK paid a fine of $300.00 and costs in Franklin County, Ohio, Common Pleas Court in May, 1954, for contempt for refusal to answer questions of the Ohio Un-American Activities Commission in May, 1953. U

SMILACK was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in 1956, at which time he exhibited a hostile attitude. U

Mrs. DONNA CHILDERS

On May 19, 1964, CI T-7, made available a letter dated May 14, 1964, on the stationery of the Columbus Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights, 3049 Polley Road, Columbus 21, Ohio. That letter enclosed a pamphlet entitled, "HUAC: Bulwark of Segregation," by ANNE BRADEN, and stated, in part, the pamphlet was being distributed in the belief ANNE BRADEN's work deserved debate and discussion throughout the nation. The letter also requested a contribution for the Columbus Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights. The letter identified DONNA CHILDERS as Chairman of the Columbus Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights. U

The article stated the three claimed they were at the university "to gather support for the U. S. Socialist presidential campaign, spread the ideas of socialism and publicize a Socialist conference to be held in Detroit, Michigan, later this month."

The article stated they sat in on activities of the Soap Box Forum on the OSU campus and the meeting of SLA.

The article also stated that at the SLA meeting they continued to sell their literature and spoke briefly. After the meeting, HOUSER told the "Lantern" he had been a member of SLA, but had resigned voluntarily the previous night because SLA had dropped plans to sponsor an off-campus meeting featuring EDWARD SHAW, vice-presidential candidate of the SWP, and he said the meeting was cancelled on "extremely short notice."

On 2-9-65 Miss Kendall telephonically contacted the Bureau and spoke with SA Thomas B. Coll of the Crime Research Section.

Miss Kendall advised that she was most interested in obtaining any information concerning comments which the Director may have made regarding communist influences in the racial movement. She requested, if available, copies of any material dealing on the subject with particular emphasis on the leaders of the Negro movement.

Bufiles indicate that Miss Kendall and her father Messmore Kendall, former President General of the Sons of the American Revolution, visited the Bureau in 1940 and were afforded a special tour. The Bureau has had cordial correspondence with Mr. Kendall in the past. Miss Kendall has previously called at the Bureau and furnished information concerning certain organizations which she thought were possibly subversive. In 1964 she also contacted the Department and volunteered her services to the Department to register the Communist Party. At the time the Department was considering the re-indictment of the Communist Party.

Reprint material concerning communist influences in the racial movement has been furnished to Miss Kendall.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

On February 5, 1965, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, related that it was recently learned that Eugene Tournour, a Communist Party (CP) member and a member of the National Staff of the Congress Of Racial Equality (CORE), assigned to Chicago as head of the CORE Task Force, had been recently fired by the National CORE Office on a charge of insubordination. In speculating as to the reason for the dismissal, Tournour recalled that he had led a fight in St. Louis within the CORE ranks on the question of the right of the CP to participate in CORE. Tournour defended the right of the CP to participate and he felt this could have predicated his dismissal.

Tournour reported that he had attended a CORE meeting in Detroit, where he was forewarned that the National Office intended to fire him. Following this meeting, Tournour discussed the matter with the CP of Illinois leadership and they agreed that if this problem should arise, their strategy would be to avoid any split in CORE if possible; at the same time, they agreed that their strategy would include a fight on the need to make a strong drive for an active CORE program.

Subsequently, a small emergency meeting of the National Steering Committee of CORE was held in New York with Tournour in attendance. A group of the national leaders indicated a great deal of dissatisfaction in the CORE organization because of a weakness in the national leadership resulting in their failure to give leadership to specific Negro struggles. Tournour, therefore, felt it appropriate to raise the question of the need for a more active program, at this meeting. According to Tournour, very weak discussions concerning the CORE program took place at this national meeting.

Following the meeting Tournour was called in by some national staff members and asked to resign. He refused to resign and returned to Chicago; however, following his return to Chicago the National CORE Office sent letters to all Midwest Chapters of CORE, stating that Tournour had been fired. Following this step, Tournour called a Midwest Regional Meeting of CORE Chapters during the weekend of January 23-24, 1965, wherein about 60 delegates attended.

At this meeting Tournour discussed the CORE Community Program and also related that he had been fired as a staff member. According to Tournour, the delegates decided not to accept his being fired by the National Office; but rather than cause a split in CORE, the regional representatives decided to establish themselves as a permanent regional group and as such they agreed to hire Tournour as a staff worker and have each chapter chip in toward paying his salary.

The source presumed that Tournour will continue his work as head of the CORE Task Force in Chicago.

PORTLAND W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUB (PDC)

The sources utilized in this memorandum have furnished reliable information in the past.

On Saturday, February 13, 1965, four individuals representing the Portland W. E. B. Du Bois Club (PDC), Portland, Oregon, including Timothy Lukes Wheeler and Joyce Maile Wheeler, went from door to door in the predominantly Negro community in the vicinity of Lampus Company, 2656 N. E. Union Avenue, Portland, Oregon, from about 2:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., passing out leaflets, the same leaflet to be passed out Sunday, February 14, 1965, but stamped at the bottom "Sunday, 1 thru 3 P.M.", advertising a PDC sponsored picket - demonstration of Lampus Company to be held Sunday afternoon, February 14, 1965, from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. and endeavored to have Negroes sign up to participate in the picket line. The leaflet has the telephone number [redacted] at the bottom, which is the telephone number of Donald Lee Hamerquist, [redacted], Portland, Oregon. b6 b7C

Near the front door of the Lampus Company was an enlarged reprint from "The Oregonian", a Portland, Oregon, daily newspaper, page 33, of the issue dated October 25, 1964, with caption "FBI Chief Labels Du Bois Clubs 'Marxist'; Local Leadership Says Group 'Left Wing'".

A total of approximately 24 names of Negroes in the community were obtained who indicated that they would picket Lampus Company on Sunday, February 14, 1965. The four individuals then drove to the residence of Donald Lee Hamerquist and Susan Elizabeth Hamerquist, [redacted] Portland, where a report on the work done was given to Donald Lee Hamerquist.

PORTLAND W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUB

Characterizations of the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America and PDC appear in the appendix attached hereto.

Donald Lee Hamerquist is Oregon Communist Party (CP) state executive secretary and member of the Portland CP Youth Club, Portland, Oregon.

Second Source, February 12, 1965

During the fall, 1964, Susan Elizabeth Hamerquist, Timothy Lukes Wheeler and Joyce Maile Wheeler were members of the Portland CP Youth Club, Portland, Oregon.

Third Source, November 5, 1964

On February 14, 1965, at 10:15 a.m., Detective Charley F. Trimble, Intelligence Squad, Portland, Oregon, Police Department, and on February 14, 1965, at 11:45 a.m., Mr. Harvey D. Marsh, Special Agent, 115th INTC Group, Region III, Portland Field Office, Portland, Oregon, were advised of the proposed PDC picket - demonstration.

On February 14, 1965, between 1:05 p.m. and 3:00 p.m., a Special Agent of the FBI, Portland Office, observed seven persons participating in a picket - demonstration in the vicinity of Lampus Company, 2656 N. E. Union Avenue, Portland, Oregon, among whom were Donald Lee Hamerquist, Susan Elizabeth Hamerquist, Benjamin Gerald Jacobson, Timothy Lukes Wheeler and Sharron Lorine Farrell. Six persons participated in the picketing in the front and south side of the Lampus Company, carrying placards containing wording such as "Boycott Lampus", "Du Bois Club Demands Fair Hiring", "We Demand Fair Hiring", "Don't Buy Where Negroes Can't Work", "Lampus Doesn't Hire Negroes" and "No Negroes Work at Lampus", and one person handed out leaflets at the back door. Only two Negroes, one adult male and one adult female, were noted participating in the picket line. From approximately 1:05 p.m. to 1:45 p.m., Timothy Lukes Wheeler handed out a leaflet of the Portland Du Bois Club, a copy of which is attached, near the back door in the parking area of the Lampus store. Donald Lee Hamerquist relieved Timothy Wheeler about 1:45 p.m. at the back door and remained there until 3:00 p.m. Tim Wheeler, after being relieved by Hamerquist, joined the picket line.

Conspicuously mounted on the outside wall next to the front and back entrances of the Lampus Company were enlarged reprints, measuring approximately three feet by two feet, of an article from page 33 of the October 25, 1964, issue of "The Oregonian" entitled "FBI Chief Labels Du Bois Clubs 'Marxist'; Local Leadership Says Group 'Left Wing'". The words "Marxist" and "Left Wing" were underlined with a thick black line and in large block letters under the article was the wording "Please Note!"

Mr. Angelos Lampus, owner, Lampus Company, placed 30-gallon capacity galvanized trash receptacles inside the store near the front and back entrances with a large sign "Waste Paper" taped to the cans.

About 2:00 p.m., Mr. Angelos Lampus removed the newspaper reprints from the outside walls, mounted the reprints on heavy cardboard at the top back section of the galvanized trash receptacles. Many customers entering the back entrance of the store, after being handed a PDC leaflet by Donald Lee Hamerquist, were noted to stop, read the caption on the newspaper reprint atop the trash receptacle and then dropped the leaflet into the trash receptacle.

The picket - demonstration ceased at approximately 3:00 p.m., and the participants departed in two cars.

Benjamin Gerald Jacobson is a member of The Portland Adult CP Club, Portland, Oregon, and former member of the Oregon CP state board.

Second Source February 12, 1965

PORTLAND W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUB

Sharron Lorine Farrell is currently the treasurer of PDC.

First Source, February 4, 1965

The above persons participating in the PDC sponsored picket - demonstration on Sunday, February 14, 1965, were also observed by Detective Charley F. Trimble, Intelligence Squad, Portland Police Department. Detective Trimble noted that this PDC picket - demonstration appeared to be ineffective due to the small number of pickets and lack of Negro participation.

Portland DuBois Club

It's time to stop talking and start acting to end job discrimination against Negroes in Portland.

The Portland DuBois Club needs your help to get jobs for Negroes at Lampus Discount Company.

Angelos Lampus likes Negro business.
He doesn't know the difference between Black and White DOLLARS.

BUT
he doesn't hire Negroes.
DON'T BUY WHERE NEGROES DON'T WORK.

BOYCOTT LAMPUS

It takes more than a boycott to win; it takes a picket line.
We have to see that every customer of Lampus, Black or White knows that they are supporting a company that won't hire Negroes.

Picket for your rights!

FBI Chief Hoover Charges Reds Invade Negro Movements

BY JULIAN OSBERG

In 1913, a book was published, entitled "A Racial Program For The 20th Century."

The tome was written by one Israel Cohen, a Communist Party functionary living in exile in England.

The following excerpt from that book, as quoted in, "Why Earl Warren Must Be Impeached" by Myron Fagan, is very enlightening.

Said Cohen:

"We must realize that our Party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By propounding into consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by the whites, we can mould them to the program of the Communist Party. In America we will aim for subtle victory. While inflaming the Negro minority against the whites, we will instil in the whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige the Negro will be able to intermarry with the whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause."

Coincidentally, with the publication of that book, the NAACP and the Anti-Defamation League were formed.

On June 7, 1957, this same excerpt was read into the "Congressional Record" by Representative Thomas Abernathy of New York.

In 1960, the leaders of the NAACP proclaimed that no such book was ever written.

Every copy, according to Fagan, had been ferreted out by Communist agents and destroyed (it was a limited edition).

All, that is, except the copy held to this day by Fagan.

No less an authority than the great J. Edgar Hoover stated he believes that "Communist influence DOES exist in the Negro movement," and can "influence great masses of people."

The Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation made this statement to a House appropriations subcommittee on January 29, 1964.

Continued Hoover:

"The Communist Party is continually searching for new avenues in order to expand its influence among the Negroes. In particular it has sought ways and means to exploit the militant force of the Negro civil rights movement.

"We do know that Communist influence does exist in the Negro movement and it is this influence which is vitally important.

"It can be the means through which large masses are caused to lose perspective on the issues involved and, without realizing it, succumb to the party's propaganda lures."

Hoover's comments, made public in April, has been drawn into the current civil rights debate.

Some southern opponents of pro-Negro legislation have repeatedly charged that the Negro rights movement is Communist inspired, as reported in The Congressional Record.

In his testimony, Hoover said that Communists attempt to exploit "what are often legitimate Negro complaints and grievances."

He continued: "Racial incidents are magnified and dramatized by the Communists in an effort to generate racial tensions. As a result such campaigns are actually utilized as a stepping stone to extend Communist infiltration among the Negroes."

Continuing about Communists expounding our racial strife abroad, Hoover said: "Communists try to make propaganda abroad by propagating the idea that this country is against equal rights for all races."

Asked about the actual number of Communists within the civil rights movements, Hoover said the actual number of Communist recruits among Negroes was not important.

But his facts to indicate the inroads the Communists have definitely made in the civil rights movement caused some irritation among Washington officials when the statements were released to the news media.

Senator Mike Monroney, Democrat of Oklahoma, wrote to Hoover last summer and it was this letter that prompted Hoover's appearance and statement before the subcommittee.

Further documentary proof that the Communists have been attempting to gain control of the civil rights movement is offered by the Communist Party "Worker's Library Publishers" who issued a booklet entitled: "The Negroes In A Soviet America."

When it was published in the late 1930's, it urged the "Negroes of the South to rise up for a Soviet state and apply for admission to the Soviet Union!"

The booklet contained explicit assurances that the "revolt" would be supported by all American Communists.

On page 38, it "promises" a Soviet Government would confer greater benefits on Negroes than upon whites, and that, 'Any act of discrimination or prejudice against a Negro will become a crime under the Revolutionary Law'!"

If Americans take a look at Soviet propaganda throughout the years in countries which the Communists have taken over and subjugated, the precise same propaganda was expounded by the Communists; but the word, "Bulgarian," "Hungarian," or "Czech," was substituted for the word "Negro!"

Have the Communists, then as charged by J. Edgar Hoover, infiltrated the Negro Civil Rights movements?

Have they managed to infiltrate the leadership of colored groups and encouraged some members to preach violence, stall-ins, sit-ins and what have you which in some cases are doing the Negroes more harm than good?

It is time for the clear thinking American Negroes to take another look at what is going on.

Communists in colored groups can only lead to tragedy and genocide.

Tomorrow may be too late.

During the course of another investigation conducted by the FBI, Jackson, Mississippi, HUGH POLLARD, Desk Sergeant, Greenwood Police Department, Greenwood, Mississippi, on July 20, 1964, made available to a Special Agent of the FBI a list of demonstrators arrested by the Greenwood Police Department on July 16, 1964. This list set forth name, race, age or date of birth and address of those arrested. Among those listed was "SALLY BELFRAGE, white, [redacted] New York, New York."

On July 22, 1964, Miss MONTE CARR, Greenwood Police Clerk, made available to a Special Agent of the FBI a list of sentences received by the demonstrators in City Court on July 20, 1964. Among the names and sentence received was the following:

"SALLY BELFRAGE, $100 and Thirty days."

SALLY BELFRAGE was interviewed by MIKE WALLACE on Channel 13, WNTA - TV on Thursday, April 9, 1959, 10:30 P.M., to 11 P.M., at which time he stated in his interview, "You went to Russia as part of the American Delegation to the Moscow Youth Festival" to which BELFRAGE concurred. WALLACE also stated, "You have been exposed to certain extremes. You were the American-born daughter of CEDRIC BELFRAGE, a British subject who edited the left-wing 'National Guardian' magazine here in America, and who was deported -- your father was deported in 1955, after refusing to tell a Senate Subcommittee whether he was or had been a Communist Party member."

Characterizations of the Moscow Youth Festival (under caption "Sixth World Youth Festival) and of the "National Guardian" appear in the appendix of this report.

The "New York Times", issue of August 15, 1957, listed SALLY BELFRAGE as one of 41 Americans who left for China from Moscow on August 14, 1957.

daughter, KARIN, age [redacted] was then a junior at Connecticut College for Women. Informant also stated that WILLIAM KUNSTLER and his brother, MICHAEL KUNSTLER are partners in a law practice in New York City. b6 b7C

The "Standard Star", New Rochelle, New York, a daily newspaper, in its issue of February 29, 1964, columns 1 through 8 on Page 9, contained a photograph and article on WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, captioned "Civil Rights Lawyer is With It All The Way." The article mentions that KUNSTLER is a Civil Rights lawyer, a Port Chester resident and author who is working on an account of his experiences with Civil Rights cases which book will be called "Freedom Lawyer." The article quotes KUNSTLER "A Lawyer must take every case that comes along. It is a solemn duty, and it is cowardice not to -- even if the community thinks you're a Red or something. Everyone is entitled to representation - and good representation, not just somebody who's assigned."

The article mentions that KUNSTLER has represented newsman WILLIAM WORTHY, who defied a State Department ban on visiting Red China in 1956 and was appealing a conviction for going to Cuba without a passport which was revoked after the initial conviction.

The article also states that KUNSTLER was counsel to the Freedom Riders in 1961 and since then counsel to Reverend Doctor MARTIN LUTHER KING and his Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Civil Rights cases stretching into the thousands and criss-crossing the South.

"The Worker," an East Coast Communist semi-weekly newspaper, dated June 24, 1962, on Page 4, columns 1, 2 and 3, in an article captioned "Twenty-Five Law Professors Endorse Black's Dissent in McCarran Decision", mentioned that 25 law professors had endorsed Justice HUGO L. BLACK's dissent from the five to four Supreme Court decision of June 5, 1961, requiring the Communist Party to register with the Government. The article continued in part that, "the 25 professors in a statement published by the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) said the majority of the court had 'retreated from the explicit provisions of our national constitution'." JEFFREY ALAN SACHAR JEFF SACHER

JEFF SACHAR

SACHAR was arrested July 16, 1964, by Drew, Mississippi Police Department for "willful and Unlawful Use of Sidewalks and Streets." SACHAR advised he was Coordinator for Sunflower County, Mississippi, COFO, and stated he is also a member of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and Southern Christian Leadership Committee (SCLC) of Sunflower County.

On August 27, 1964, JANET JEMMOTT, SNCC, Greenwood, Mississippi, advised Special Agents of the FBI that SACHAR returned to his residence in New York City on August 21, 1964.

Records in the office of the registrar, Reed College, Portland, Oregon, on November 30, 1961, disclosed that JEFFREY ALAN SACHAR, the son of LOUIS and FRANCES SACHAR, [redacted] b6 b7C New York, New York, was a freshman in September, 1961, at Reed College.

SACHAR

JN T-32 on December 27, 1961, reported that on December 12, 1961, at a regular meeting of the Seattle Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) at Seattle, Washington, after consideration of his application for membership in the SWP and the Young Socialist WASH Alliance (YSA) submitted by JEFFERY SACHAR, Reed College student of Portland, Oregon, SACHAR was accepted unanimously for membership in the Seattle Branch, SWP. According to informant it was brought out during discussion of his application that on the preceding night at a meeting of the YSA at Seattle, SACHAR was accepted for membership in the YSA. (U)

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order No. 10450. Characterization of the Seattle Branch, SWP, and of the YSA, as well as of the Seattle Branch, YSA, are attached to this report.

Informant on March 9, 1962, reported that during discussion relating to SACHAR at a meeting of the Seattle Branch, SWP, on December 12, 1961, in connection with his application for membership in the SWP, it was noted that SACHAR had listed as an organizational affiliation the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). (U)

JN T-33 on October 16, 1961, advised that at a meeting of the Seattle Council, FPCC, held at a Seattle residence on October 13, 1961, the acting chairman of the meeting reported upon recent appearances of BERT WAINER in the Portland, Oregon area in which he attributed his remarks to JEFF SACHER (Phonetic), the latter of whom he stated acted as host for WAINER in Portland. The acting chairman read a letter received from SACHER, identified as a student at Reed College, Portland, in which SACHER indicated that the latter had played the leading role in organizing a FPCC Student Council on the Reed College campus. (U).

A characterization of the Seattle Student Council, FPCC, appears in the appendix.

JN T-34 on June 29, 1959, advised that BERT WAINER was elected as an alternate member of the National Council, SWP, at the SWP National Convention held June 26 to 29, 1959, at Washington, New Jersey. (U)

JN T-35 on December 18, 1961, reported that on December 15, 1961, while in conversation with several Communist Party (CP) members, BEN JACOBSON remarked that if anyone wanted to participate in FPCC activities they could contact JEFF SACHAR, Reed College student, who was heading up the group.

BEN JACOBSON as of December, 1961, was known to JN T-36 and JN T-37 as a prominent Oregon Communist Party member and leader.

JN T-38 on May 27, 1963, advised that a prominent member of the Youth Club of the Communist Party in Portland recently had remarked that about a year before his departure from Portland in late December, 1962, JEFF SACHAR had asked DONALD HAMERQUIST to be allowed to join the CP. To delay the request, HAMERQUIST had SACHAR complete an application form which HAMERQUIST explained had to be processed in New York. Subsequently, after about a year's delay, HAMERQUIST confessed to SACHAR that he had torn up the application and that he, HAMERQUIST, would never allow SACHAR to enter the Party. SACHAR was extremely upset over this refusal and left Portland the following day.

On May 7, 1963, ARRON COHEN, an admitted member of the CP from 1947 to 1957, and from December, 1961, to October, 1963, advised on April 24, 1963, a meeting of the youth organization known as Burning Issues was held at its headquarters at 80 Clinton Street, New York, New York. Prior to the meeting, JEFF SACHAR, [redacted] New York, who was at the meeting place, was advised that he was not wanted at the club house because it was certain that he was working for the FBI. According to COHEN, SACHAR went into emotional tantrums. He also was accused of causing dissension between "Casa Cuba and Fair Play for Cuba". It was also found that SACHAR had been keeping a notebook of meetings he had attended and the names of others who were also in attendance. b6 b7C

Characterizations of the organizations Casa Cuba Club and Burning Issues appear in the appendix.

[JN T-39] reported (U) in March, 1964, that when SACHAR first arrived in Portland to attend Reed College he was an organizer for the SWP and he reportedly had carried a loaded weapon, a situation which seriously concerned DONALD LEE HAMERQUIST, Oregon CP youth leader. SACHAR at this time was concerned lest some CP member kill him. Informant stated that SACHAR was suspected by CP leaders of being an informer for various reasons including involvement in all types of "ultra-left" activities. Informant went on to relate that in recent months SACHAR became more and more active in promoting CP causes notwithstanding the suspicion with which he was regarded by CP leaders.

JN T-40 in July, 1962, advised that JEFFREY ALAN SACHAR of Oregon was among a number of individuals scheduled to attend the Eighth World Youth Festival at Helsinki, Finland, in July, 1962. SACHAR was regarded by the National CP United States leaders to be "anti-Party" and/or "trotskyite." (U)

Washington, in its November 5, 1964, issue contained an article which concerned a "freedom Party Mock Election" in the State of Mississippi on Monday and Tuesday (November 2 and 3, 1964) wherein 61,000 people voted. The article stated that two students from the University (of Washington)aided in election and that one of the students was RICK SALING who left for Mississippi three weeks ago to work under the COFO. The article also indicated that the students who went to the "election" were reportedly on their way home.

The October 8, 1964, issue of the "University of Washington Daily," an official student publication on the University of Washington Campus at Seattle, Washington carried an article on Page 1 entitled "Red Speaker Will Test Rule by Monday Talk", wherein it was stated that HENRY WINSTON, a "spokesman and member of the United States Communist Party", would speak at 3:30 P.M., October 12, 1964, at Meany Hall on the University of Washington Campus. It was pointed out that this speaker would be sponsored by the Young Socialists.

JN T-41 advised on September 14, 1964, that the Young Socialist Group is a duly recognized organization on the campus of the University of Washington. Informant also advised that RICK SALING was, at that time, the Vice-President of the group.

JN T-42 in August, 1961, advised that a meeting of the National Committee, Communist Party, United States of America, was held on August 12 - 13, 1961, whereat HENRY WINSTON was elected to the positions of member of the National Committee, National Executive Committee, and Vice-Chairman, All Communist Party of the United States of America.

JN T-43 on October 12, 1964, advised that HENRY WINSTON spoke before an audience of about 700 to 800 students at the Meany Hall on the University of Washington campus on the afternoon of October 12, 1964. Informant advised that RICK SALING, President of the Young Socialist Group, introduced WINSTON and said that the purpose of having speakers such as WINSTON was for educational purposes and not political purposes. SALING gave a brief biographical sketch of WINSTON and pointed out that WINSTON had served a prison sentence for violation of the Smith Act.

CHARLES M. SMITH

JN T-44 advised on June 29, 1964, he had obtained information to the effect that approximately 21 to 23 white students would leave Knoxville, Tennessee to arrive at Gulfport, Mississippi to work in connection with the Mississippi Summer Project (MSP) during the summer of 1964. According to this informant, CHARLES M. SMITH from Austin, Texas, was among this group of persons who would work on this Project. This Informant also listed SMITH as one of those in attendance during a period of orientation at the Highlander Center at Knoxville, Tennessee during the early part of the summer, 1964.

JN T-45 advised on October 14, 1952, that the Highlander Folk School located near Monteagle, Tennessee was an institution with classes conducted on a seminar basis, supported primarily by donations from individuals and from labor unions and to some extent by the Farmers Union. According to this Informant this school has had Communist Party members on its staff as instructors in the past and has also followed the practice of welcoming Communist Party members as students, although apparently the Communist element has never completely controlled the institution.

JN T-46 furnished information on February 24, 1953, to the effect that LOUIS BUDENZ, admitted former editor, the "Daily Worker," an East Coast Communist newspaper, and also former official of the Communist Party, had earlier advised on November 21, 1952, that the Highlander Folk School was pro-Communist, although reportedly BUDENZ did not elaborate regarding this school.

The July 8, 1962 issue of the "Knoxville News-Sentinel," a newspaper published at Knoxville, Tennessee, carried an article reflecting the land on which the Highlander Folk School was formerly located had been sold at public auction under court decree by the State of Tennessee. This article also revealed that one MYLES HORTON, the Director of this school during its entire existence, had been granted a state charter to form an organization at Knoxville, Tennessee called the Highlander Research and Educational Center.

JN T-47 set forth information on April 1, 1964, that the name CHARLES M. SMITH appeared as a listing on an up-to-date mailing list of the Communist Party. According to this informant, many of the persons whose names appear on this list are not aware that their names appear on such a Communist Party mailing list. (U)

Informant advised on October 18, 1964, that on the same date CHARLES SMITH had met with JOHN STANFORD at the STANFORD residence located [redacted] San Antonio, Texas. According to this informant SMITH indicated he had been working in Mississippi on the Mississippi Summer Project, and on this occasion conversation was held between SMITH and STANFORD regarding a number of topics including the writing of KARL MARX. (U)

This informant stated a telephone call was made on the same date by JOHN STANFORD to RENE SANDOVAL, [redacted] San Antonio, Texas, and shortly following this call, SANDOVAL appeared at the STANFORD residence. Informant also stated after being introduced to one another, SMITH and SANDOVAL held a conversation regarding the founding of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America. Informant quoted SMITH as saying he saw no difficulty in organizing a chapter of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America at the University of Texas, Austin, Texas. (U)

JN T-48 advised on January 7, 1960, that JAMES E. JACKSON, Secretary of Negro and Southern Affairs, Communist Party, United States of America, identified JOHN STANFORD as a member of the National Committee, Communist Party, United States of America, and District Organizer in Texas. (U)

JN T-49 advised on September 16, 1964, that JOHN STANFORD was the main leader of the Communist Party in San Antonio, Texas, and has been a leader and member of the Communist Party at San Antonio, since at least July, 1957, to the present. According to this informant, STANFORD has been a San Antonio representative on the State Committee of the Communist Party in Texas since July, 1957. Informant stated during January, 1962, the State Committee and its offices were technically abolished, although it was agreed that the committee with its officers would continue to function. (U)

OMERBERG, MAYNARD

CONFIDENTIAL

On July 21, 1964, Sergeant NORMAN H. MOORE, Director, Fire and Police Research Association, 3354 Glendale Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, advised that he had received information to the effect that numerous volunteer workers of the COFO had been recently arrested in Drew, Mississippi, for alleged local law violations during a civil rights demonstration.

Sergeant MOORE continued that two Los Angeles attorneys had recently arrived in Drew, Mississippi, to represent these arrestees. One of these attorneys was MAYNARD OMERBERG, 6290 Sunset Boulevard, Los Angeles, California.

JN T-81 (GEORGE HECKERT, Chief Investigator, State Bar of California, San Francisco, California) advised on April 9, 1964, that MAYNARD OMERBERG, as of January 15, 1964, was a member in good standing of the Hollywood-Beverly Hills Chapter, National Lawyers Guild.

JN T-82, on October 12, 1964, made available a copy of an advertising brochure issued by Discussion Unlimited, Incorporated (DU) which announced that DU was holding an open meeting in the school auditorium of Fairfax High School, 7850 Melrose Avenue, Los Angeles, at 8:00 a.m., Friday, October 16, 1964, featuring "A dramatic presentation of the real events which occurred during the great Mississippi Summer Project of 1964," which will be titled, "Mississippi 1964- A Story of Courage."

The announcement indicates that MAYNARD OMERBERG, Los Angeles Attorney, who was a volunteer legal aid in Mississippi will be among those who will take part in this October 16, 1964, public meeting.

A characterization of DU appears in the appendix of this report.

JN T-83 advised on April 29, 1948, that MAYNARD J. OMERBERG was a candidate for election to Congress from the 15th Congressional District of California on the Independent Progressive Party ticket during 1948. Informant indicated that the Communist Party in Los Angeles had instructed its members to support OMERBERG in his campaign for public office.

A characterization of the Independent Progress Party appears in the appendix.

RORABACK, CATHERINE GERTRUDE

CONFIDENTIAL

JN T-84 advised that CATHERINE RORABACK continues as a practicing attorney with offices located at 185 Church Street, New Haven Connecticut.

"The Hartford Times," a daily newspaper in Hartford, Connecticut, in its issue of Monday, September 14, 1964, page 12, contained an article entitled "Attorney Ends 2 Weeks In Civil Rights Work.", which stated that she spent two weeks in the State of Mississippi under the sponsorship of the Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee to render help with southern civil rights cases.

WORDEN MOSHER, in 1949, reported that CATHERINE RORABACK was an active member of the People's Party of Connecticut. MOSHER stated at that time that the People's Party of Connecticut was infiltrated and controlled by the Communist Party.

WORDEN C. MOSHER, [redacted] New Haven, Connecticut, was a member of the Communist Party (CP), in the New Haven, Connecticut, area, from late 1939, until August, 1950, and during the period December, 1940, to August, 1950, he furnished information to the FBI. b6 b7C

JN T-85 (U) advised in 1951 that CATHERINE RORABACK was at that time Secretary of the People's Party of Connecticut.

The "New Haven Register," a newspaper published daily at New Haven, Connecticut, reflected in its issue of June 11, 1954, that CATHERINE RORABACK was counsel for JOSEPH DIMOW and ALFRED MARDER, two of the seven individuals who were arraigned on that date, in United States District Court, New Haven, Connecticut, on an indictment charging them with conspiracy to teach and advocate the overthrow of the United States Government.

JN T-86 advised on April 24, 1955, that he considered CATHERINE RORABACK to be a Communist Party sympathizer who was using her legal knowledge to aid the Communist Party. This informant based his conclusion on his knowledge of RORABACK's activities in and on behalf of Communist Party front organizations (S) (U)

JN T-87 advised that CATHERINE RORABACK was an active member of the National Lawyer's Guild as of 1951. CONFIDENTIAL (U)

ABRAHAM AARON WEITZMAN Miss N.J

MARTIN WEINRAUB, Attorney, Lawyer's Constitutional Defense Committee, temporarily serving at Columbus, Mississippi, advised a Special Agent of the FBI on September 29, 1964, that ABE WEITZMAN left Mississippi on August 31, 1964, when he flew home to Linden, New Jersey.

On September 10, 1964, RICHARD BOOTH, City Attorney, Aberdeen, Mississippi, advised that he had been contacted regarding several Civil Rights matters by ABE WEITZMAN. Based upon WEITZMAN's apparent lack of knowledge of basic legal principles, BOOTH concluded that WEITZMAN was not a lawyer and has not practiced law. He further advised that WEITZMAN is not listed in Martindale-Hubbard National Directory of Attorneys.

JN T-88 advised on July 21, 1955, that during the period 1947-51, he attended CP meetings at the home of ABE WEITZMAN. (U)

On November 7, 1956, JN T-89 advised that the name of ABE WEITZMAN was in possession of CLARA DOLGOW as of that date. (U) N.J

JN T-88 advised on July 21, 1955, that CLARA DOLGOW was a CP member from 1947 to 1951, and had attended a CP meeting as recently as June 29, 1955. (U)

Informant advised on November 27, 1956, that on November 12, 1956, ABE WEITZMAN contributed $5.00 to a fund for MORTON SOBELL. (U)

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG and MORTON SOBELL were convicted in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on March 29, 1951, on a charge of Conspiracy to commit espionage on behalf of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. The ROSENBERGs were sentenced to death on April 5, 1951, and MORTON SOBELL was sentenced to 30 years imprisonment on the same date. JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were legally executed at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, New York, on June 19, 1953. MORTON SOBELL is currently serving his sentence at the United States Prison Medical Center, Springfield, Missouri.

E. MEDICAL COMMITTEE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS (MCHR) CONFIDENTIAL

There are set out below the identities of individuals together, with a brief summary, who participated in the Mississippi Summer Project under the sponsorship of the MCHR.

BERNE, JOEL DR.

JN T-90 on October 20, 1964, advised that Dr. JOEL BERNE was in Clarksdale, Mississippi, for a period of approximately one week during the month of July, 1964. Informant advised Dr. BERNE departed Clarksdale on or about July 20, 1964. Informant said that Dr. BERNE of New York, New York, had advised he was in Clarksdale, Mississippi, for the purpose of acting as liaison agent between civil rights workers and the medical community in Clarksdale.

JN T-91 advised on October 6 and 10, 1958, that he, together with DAVID LYONS, brought JOEL BERNE into the Young Progressives of America (YPA) probably in about 1949. Informant further stated that he and DAVID LYONS also brought JOEL BERNE into the Midwood Club of the Labor Youth League (LYL) in about 1951 or 1952.

JN T-92 advised that on January 27, 1956, DAVID LYONS was then serving as the Organizational Secretary of the Kings County, New York, LYL.

JN T-93, on May 5, 1964, advised that JOEL BERNE attended the annual meeting of the Physicians Forum held on April 24, 1964, at 8:30 p.m. in the New York Academy of Medicine Building, 2 East 63rd Street, New York City.

Characterizations of the Young Progressives of America and the Physicians Forum appear in the appendix of this report.

ACTION FOR YOUTH (AFY)
aka Socialist Youth Unions of Philadelphia (SYU), Youth for Equality and Peace (YEP), Sunday Study Group, Winter Discussion Series 1957-1958.

On July 8, 1962, BARBARA L. TICHONUK, [redacted] b6 b7C Potsdam, New York, whose husband, JOHN M. TICHONUK, testified before the Subversive Activities Control Board on June 5, 1963, that he and his wife had been Communist Party (CP) members for the past seven years during which time they furnished information to the FBI, advised the SYU was the Philadelphia affiliate of the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee. Mrs. TICHONUK advised this group had been known during 1957 and 1958 first as the "Winter Discussion Series 1957-1958" and later as the "Sunday Study Group."

A source advised on March 19, 1958, the above group adopted the name, Socialist Youth Union of Philadelphia (SYU), at a meeting held March 16, 1958.

A second source advised on April 25, 1958, that DOROTHY RUBIN, a member of the Youth Club, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), reporting on CP youth to the Fourth Congressional District Section Committee, CPEPD, on April 23, 1958, stated the purpose of the SYU was to train young selected progressives for ultimate development into good Marxist-thinking CP members who will be capable of assuming leadership in the CP.

On January 6, 1961, a third source advised the SYU had changed its name to Youth for Equality and Peace (YEP), then decided against this name and reverted to SYU.

On June 21, 1963, a fourth source advised SYU maintains a headquarters at 1426 West Bristol Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

On October 14, 1963, a fifth source advised that this group changed its name to Action for Youth (AFY) on October 11, 1963. The source advised the group still maintains its headquarters at 1426 West Bristol Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and continues to be the Philadelphia affiliate of the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC).

CASA CUBA CLUB

CONFIDENTIAL

On July 26, 1961, a source advised that the Casa Cuba Club (CCC), 691 Columbus Avenue, New York City, was originally founded as a social club by persons of Cuban background living in the New York City area, and was generally regarded as the focal point for Cuban social activities in New York City. During the years when FIDEL CASTRO was struggling to overthrow the BATISTA government in Cuba, the general membership of the CCC was predominantly sympathetic to the revolutionary aims of CASTRO and supported CASTRO's 26th of July Movement by contributing funds and clothing for the needy and oppressed peoples of Cuba.

After CASTRO came to power in Cuba, on January 1, 1959, and it became apparent that he was establishing a Communist form of government in Cuba, the membership of the CCC gradually declined in numbers, and the loyal supporters of CASTRO, and the leaders of the 26th of July Movement, New York City, assumed leadership in the activities of the CCC.

A second source advised on August 20, 1962, that at a CCC meeting, held on August 14, 1962, CCC member (and later Vice-President) HUGO JIMENEZ, spoke of the need to follow Marxist-Leninist policies.

On October 22, 1962, this same source advised that CCC President JOSE GARCIA, at a CCC meeting held October 17, 1962, discussed holding weekly classes or indoctrination meetings on Marxism-Leninism.

This same source also advised on a number of occasions during October-November, 1962, that the CCC participated in pickets held in New York City during that period to protest United States policy during the crisis which arose from Russian missiles being stationed in Cuba.

On March 26, 1963, a third source advised that at a CCC meeting held on March 20, 1963, CCC Vice-President HUGH JIMENEZ said the CCC should concern itself with orienting its membership in socialism and communism and prepare them for their eventual return to Cuba, to fit into the new society that is now Cuba.

CONFIDENTIAL

CASA CUBA CLUB

On May 22, 1963, the second source advised that newly-elected CCC President JUAN GONZALEX MONAGAS announced, at a recent CCC meeting, that there would be a series of fifteen forums held at Casa Cuba during the next few months, designed to assist members in understanding the purposes of socialism.

The 26th of July Movement was a revolutionary organization founded and led by FIDEL CASTRO, present Prime Minister of Cuba. It was dissolved during 1962 when it was absorbed into the Integrated Revolutionary Organization in Cuba, along with the Communist Party of Cuba, and the other principal political parties.

CITIZENS COMMITTEE TO PRESERVE AMERICAN FREEDOMS

CONFIDENTIAL

"The (Communist) party's front operations in the Southern California District today are  confined to four major organizations," which include the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms.

"The Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms  specializes in propaganda aimed at abolishing the Committee on Un-American Activities and discrediting the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Created in Los Angeles in 1952, the front organization is run by Frank Wilkinson, an identified Communist who recently resumed the full-time, paid post of executive secretary after approximately a year's leave of absence to assist in a similar campaign by another front in New York City, the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee.

"When the Committee on Un-American Activities held hearings in Los Angeles September 2-5, 1958, to inquire into the nature of the party's recent organization in California, the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms sponsored a series of public meetings to protest the hearings and the very existence of the committee. Communists subpenaed as witnesses were guests of honor.

"At this time, leaders of the party's Southern California District were mobilizing Communists in the area for participation in an intensified campaign to abolish this committee of Congress. How the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms served the party in this effort was revealed by (Communist Party) District Chairman Dorothy Healey in a report to the party's Southern California District Council on September 21, 1958. Mrs. Healey declared that the party preferred public protest meetings to be held by the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms rather than under party auspices because Communists could attend without danger of being exposed as members of the party. She also noted that Communists scheduled as congressional committee witnesses could not appear beforehand at openly Communist rallies without creating the impression that the party was conspiring with witnesses to withhold information from the committee."

NEW HAVEN CHAPTER OF THE FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (FPCC) ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

LOUIS A. SISKO, [redacted] Fairfield, Connecticut, advised on December 10, 1960, that WILLIAM WINNICK announced that a meeting would be held at his office, 1220 Chapel Street, New Haven, Connecticut, on December 11, 1960, for the purpose of forming a local chapter of The Fair Play For Cuba Committee.

The December 15, 1960, edition of the "New Haven Evening Register," newspaper published daily at New Haven, Connecticut, announced that a New Haven Chapter of The Fair Play For Cuba Committee had been recently formed with WILLIAM WINNICK as Secretary. The article reflected that the Committee believes that Premier FIDEL CASTRO's regime in Cuba is making progress and is not getting "fair play" in the United States. The article further reflected the group would be affiliated with The Fair Play For Cuba Committee nationally and would distribute literature, make available motion pictures and speakers and would hold rallies.

A source advised on December 27, 1960, that members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New Haven, Connecticut, decided in early December, 1960, that the SWP should be represented in the FPCC and they selected WILLIAM WINNICK, as the SWP member, to establish this representation. This source advised that WINNICK became the head of the New Haven Chapter of the FPCC in December, 1960, and held the office of Secretary of the Chapter. According to this source, the New Haven Chapter of the FPCC has maintained headquarters in WINNICK's office at 1220 Chapel Street, New Haven, Connecticut, and this address has been shown on literature distributed by the New Haven Chapter of the FPCC as its headquarters.

The same source advised that some members of the New Haven Chapter of the FPCC, including some who are also members of the SWP, have participated in a public demonstration, public meetings and debates and in a picket of United Nations Headquarters, and in all of which activities they supported the position of the CASTRO Government and opposed the position of the United States Government. According to this source, WINNICK was primarily responsible for the organization of all of these activities.

SIXTH WORLD YOUTH FESTIVAL

CONFIDENTIAL

The April 29, 1957 issue of "The New Leader," a weekly publication of the American Labor Conference on International Affairs, pages eight and nine, carried an article entitled "Moscow's Youth Festival." The article stated that communist parties and fronts throughout the world were trying to bring 30,000 young people to Moscow for the Sixth Festival of Youth and Students for Peace and Friendship, a biennial communist charivari which has taken place in Iron Curtain cities since 1947. The article stated that during the two weeks of the Festival, the Kremlin would undertake to prove to thousands of young people from the free world that the future belongs to Soviet Communism. The article concluded by stating that the few million dollars which the Kremlin and its satellite countries were raising for this festival would probably be one of their cheapest investments in terms of political dividends.

The "Daily Worker," an East Coast Communist newspaper which ceased publication on January 13, 1958, issue of May 3, 1957, page two, carried an article concerning the Moscow Sixth International Youth Festival, which stated that the Festival is scheduled to be held in Moscow from July 28, 1957, to August 11, 1957, and that the Russians expect some 35,000 visitors from 120 nations to attend.

STUDENT COUNCIL, FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (SC, FPCC)

The initial publication of this organization, "Student Council, Fair Play for Cuba," Volume 1, No. 1, is dated November 4, 1960, and states that "this bi-monthly publication will be used to publish accurate information about Cuba, analysis of current events in Cuba and Cuban - U. S. relations, and for reports of the progress and activities of the newly organized Student Council chapters." The publication further states that student chapters have been formed or are being formed at many universities, and that thus far students at more than 20 colleges and universities had begun activities to get fair play for Cuba. It was suggested in the publication that information to start a Student Council chapter could be obtained by directing an inquiry to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, 799 Broadway, New York 3, New York.

On December 2, 1960, a source learned that ROBERT TABER, Executive Secretary of the National FPCC, had remarked on November 12, 1960, that the FPCC had established chapters in eight cities and 40 college campuses in the United States.

On January 15, 1961, a second source advised that TIM WOHLFORTH, National Chairman of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) had commented that the YSA had been singularly successful in assisting in the formation of the FPCC Student Councils throughout the country and active within these councils.

With regard to the YSA, the following is to be noted:

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), Page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15 - 17, 1960, a national organization entitled, "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA), was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue said that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, Page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary Socialism.

A third source advised on May 11, 1960, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City, by youth of various left Socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised that the YSA is dominated and controlled in this leadership and ranks by members of the SWP. The source added that the SWP considers the YSA as the leading force in the radical youth field and its current and future hope in regard to recruits and the promulgation of the SWP movement throughout the United States.

The headquarters of the YSA are located at 10 East 23rd Street, New York City.

The YS is a monthly publication, self-described in the December, 1960, issue as the official organ of the YSA.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Racial Matters

Detective Anton Weidinger, Bureau of Special Services (BSS), New York City Police Department (NYCPD), furnished the following information on February 19, 1965:

Fifteen boycotting students picketed Public School 88, located at 215 West 114th Street, New York City, from 8:00 AM to 8:40 AM, on February 19, 1965, in support of the school boycott which was spearheaded by the City-Wide Committee For Integrated Schools (CWCIS). Milton Galamison, Pastor of Siloam Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, New York, is Chairman of the CWCIS. The above picketing demonstration was orderly and no incidents occurred. Attendance figures at Public School 88 on February 19, 1965, showed a drop of nine per cent from normal attendance of 88 per cent.

Detective William Gorman, BSS, NYCPD, furnished the following information on February 19, 1965:

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters

Proposed Boycott of New York City Schools By City-Wide Committee For Integrated Schools, February, 1965

65 54 11

A large group of boycotting students began assembling at Siloam Presbyterian Church, 260 Jefferson Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, commencing at 9:00 AM. The number of students at the Church reached approximately 200 by 10:00 AM, at which time they departed from the Church and proceeded to the Board of Education headquarters, 110 Livingston Street, Brooklyn, New York. About half of the students dropped out while marching to the Board of Education headquarters.

A picketing demonstration was then staged by the students at the Board of Education commencing at 10:45 AM, where approximately 75 students picketed in an orderly fashion, confined to the Boerum Place side of the Board of Education building. The pickets were chanting "Jim Crow Must Go". A small group of students congregated at a parking lot across Boerum Place from the picket site, but were quickly dispersed from that area by mounted police. At approximately 11:40 AM, the picketing tapered off with groups of ten to twelve students at a time being escorted away from the Board of Education by foot and mounted patrolmen. The picketing had terminated at noon, February 19, 1965.

Thirteen adult demonstrators were arrested by the Bureau of Attendance officers at the above demonstration for violation of Section 3212, State Education Law (Inducing minors to absent themselves from school). BSS identified these individuals as follows:

Sandra Sabler

Confidential source number one advised in August, 1963, that Sandra Sabler, on July 31, 1963, attended a meeting of the Executive Board of Advance Youth Organization (AYO), held at 80 Clinton Street, New York, New York.

Confidential source number two advised on February 14, 1964, that Sandra Sabler attended the AYO Convention, held February 8, 1964, at 80 Clinton Street, New York, New York.

The AYO is characterized in the Appendix.

Jerald Covici

On May 27, 1963, confidential source number three advised that Jerald Covici attended a forum sponsored by the Brighton Beach Communist Party (CP) Club, held May 26, 1963, at 3200 Coney Island Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

On February 27, 1964, confidential source number four made available information to the effect that a meeting of the Flatbush Club, Kings County CP, would be held on the evening of March 4, 1964, at "Jerry's house". On the evening of March 4, 1964, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed Jerry Covici among a group of approximately seven individuals seated in the living room of his residence at 1072 East 10th Street, Brooklyn, New York.

In a syndicated article appearing on page 2 of the "Clarion Ledger", a Jackson, Mississippi, daily newspaper, dated January 25, 1965, it was indicated that certain attorneys will work in Jackson, Mississippi, taking depositions (in an effort to obtain evidence in support of the allegation that Negroes had been improperly deprived from registering to vote in the November, 1964 election in Mississippi). The article stated that among the attorneys directing the case are Arthur Kinoy and William Kunstler.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on October 29, 1962, that a rally was held on October 24, 1962, sponsored by the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee at the Manhattan Center, 34th Street and Eighth Avenue, New York City. William Kunstler spoke at the rally and told the audience that the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) interferes with social progress and the brotherhood of man. Kunstler called for the abolition of the HCUA.

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 3, 1962, that Kunstler had had the "Daily Worker" delivered to his home in Port Chester, New York.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

A characterization of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee is in the appendix attached hereto.

On August 30, 1960, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Arthur Kinoy had attempted to set up a Communist Party (CP) Club of professionals following the 16th National CP Convention in 1957.

OTHER Removed per Court Order

It will be recalled that when King returned from abroad in December, 1964, after receiving the Nobel Peace Prize, extensive arrangements were made for the welcoming-back ceremonies. One of the individuals involved was Michael Nisselson, a Security Index subject of the New York Office who is self-employed as a fund-raiser with offices at 501 Madison Avenue, New York City, and residence at 110 Elk Avenue, New Rochelle, New York. Nisselson has had a long background of communist associations and has been reliably described as having been a concealed communist in 1950.

In view of Nisselson's residence in New Rochelle; the current fund-raising activities on the part of the SCLC in New Rochelle; and Nisselson's December, 1964, "connection" with King, appropriate discreet investigation should be conducted to determine what, if any, part Nisselson is playing in the current fund-raising activities at New Rochelle. If possible, develop any available information indicating any direct personal or business ties between King and Nisselson. Keep the Bureau promptly advised of any pertinent developments.

There follows a summary of a meeting of the National Board of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA) held February 13-15, 1965, at the Manhattan Hotel, 45th Street at Eighth Avenue, New York, New York, as reported by a confidential source, who was in a position to furnish reliable information on each date.

First Day's Session
February 13, 1965

Henry Winston was designated Chairman of this session which began at 10:10 a.m. Mortimer Daniel Rubin read the agenda as February 13 - the fight for the Party; February 14 - Viet Nam and February 15 - Steel Union Developments.

Gus Hall stated he would first comment briefly on the main report to be delivered by Rubin. Hall reported the Secretariat of the Party has necessarily been studying the Party because of new opportunities presently existing in the country. Henry Winston took the initiative of the study six or seven months ago. Danny Rubin, Jack Stachel and Helen Winter are also to be thanked for their contributions. The main report is an assessment of the problems that need to be resolved and it brings a new level of understanding of the importance of the struggle for the Party and its relationship to the masses.

The Party must further develop its long range strategic concepts and relate tactical positions to long range concepts. The Party must master the art of speaking in the language of the people. More emphasis must be placed on mass struggles and the tactics of the Party must be better explained, better timed and more flexible.

Up to November 3, 1964, the main tactical emphasis was the defeat of the ultra-right and now the emphasis has shifted to exerting mass pressure to change the course of the administration. Some comrades had this tactical emphasis in reverse, saying "we" should have attacked the administration before the election and that there was no great electoral mandate or contribution from labor. The task of the Party is to articulate what is in the minds of the masses and the Party must have patience in discussing tactical approaches and methods.

Hall continued the Party does not write enough about class struggle questions and socialism. The Party takes for granted that everybody knows its strategic policy. Strategy and tactics are especially important to the Party and mistakes have been made in this field in the past.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

For example, in the civil rights struggle, the Party condemned racism as evil, but did not relate it to capitalism. The Party did not sufficiently explain the daily economics of exploitation with regard to taxes, profits and prices. The Party should have reacted sharply to the Johnson Administration's policy on the longshore strike. It was a strike-breaking policy.

The concept of unity of strategy and tactics must be explained to the young comrades. The ruling class fear the Communist Party more than any other group because of its strategy and tactics. The Party must project and react to the new power structure in the South, what that change means to unions, what it means to the ultra-right and to the role of the working class.

Hall stated the Party must be the leader of mass movements and the opportunity exists to develop grass root movements. The Party must start with the idea that capitalism is evil and struggle and mass activity is necessary.

Hall concluded by stating there is a possibility of having a national convention of the Party for the last week of December, 1965, subject to a study of the legal aspects of the situation. Hall urged that committees be called up, now, in preparation for the convention.

At the conclusion of Hall's remarks, Mortimer Daniel Rubin delivered the main report.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Rubin reported the Party must be re-geared with growth as the result. The Party needs to be rebuilt in membership, financial support and in its literature field. Important relationships have been made by the Party in the field of civil rights and with labor. There is a continued growth of public speaking engagements, mass meetings and more dialogue. The upward trend of the Party has been weak. Dues payments by Party members have been irregular. Many people work closely with the Party, but do not pay dues and are not considered members. The role of the Party is to know the needs of the worker. The Party must point the way forward at every stage of the struggle and to initiate the struggle for specific needs.

Rubin discussed the inadequacy of a mythical Party club noting that it did not have sufficient contact with the Party leaders, was not familiar with discussions of the National Board, could not discuss experiences in trade union work because there was no Party publication in which to publish their experiences and that the mythical club had no education or literature director.

Rubin continued, the Trade Union Commission should draw up a program by April 1, 1965, for industrial concentration in the Mid-West in building left forms and building shops and industrial clubs. The Civil Rights Commission should draw up a program by April 1, 1965, as to left forms and initiatives in the language of the civil rights movement.

The Party must break through in Negro communities. Priority must be given to building Negro cadre and working with Negro youth. This summer the Party must make a gigantic effort in education. Expenses must be given to

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization

certain youth to spend time in concentration areas and there will be traveling teachers. Every youth leader in the country must be involved. Attention must be given to recruiting and attention must be given to merging youth from newly left backgrounds into the Party. Also, the youth must be integrated into the Party.

The Party must fight for legality and this includes the court fight and the fight against economic pressure. Problems are created by comrades in mass movements by not being able to show their Party membership. Broad united front action must be taken and the Party must explore the status as to the ballot. A left electoral coalition must be formed.

"The Assembly of the Accused" is going to meet in Washington and that same week end in New York, there will be activity around the McCarran Act.

A convention should be held in December, 1965, and the Party should operate publicly. The greater legality the Party attains, the easier it will be to overcome the separation between Party work and mass work. The one-sided conception of the role of Communists must be broken down. There must be an expansion of Party democracy and the vitality of Party life must be expanded and this can be helped by convention preparations and more draft resolutions. Rubin suggested that the National Board, at its next meeting, discuss developments in the trade union movement.

Rubin concluded with the following proposals:

1. A summer youth project - the Secretariat should establish a youth committee to work on it. 2. "The Assembly of the Accused" - Arnold Johnson, Dorothy Healey and others will work on the McCarran Act. 3. The convention in 1965. 4. Establishing a committee to work on the left electoral coalition. 5. The Trade Union Commission and the "Org" Commission should concentrate on left forms and draw up something by April first. 6. The Civil Rights Commission should draw up a program for the Negro field by April 1st. 7. The "Org - Ed" Commission has the responsibility for establishing "Party Affairs" as the organ of the Party. 8. A discussion by "Org - Ed" on club functions.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -

At the conclusion of the report, Claude Lightfoot asked to speak. Lightfoot said the Party must update its position on civil rights. The Negro people are trying to achieve freedom within the framework of capitalism. The Party must show them that equality is not achievable under capitalism. Lightfoot also agreed that the Party's long range goals must be given more prominence.

Following a break for lunch, Irving Potash acted as chairman when the meeting resumed.

Arnold Johnson was the next speaker and reported on the McCarran Act. The "Repeal Committee" of Chicago will have a full page ad in the "Washington Post" with names of prominent people calling out against the McCarran Act. The ad will be out in the next few days and reprints for mailing will be made. In New York, an objective of the Citizens Committee For Constitutional Liberties (CCCL) is to have a dinner for 750 people to raise funds.

A characterization of the CCCL is attached.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

There should be an appeal to all organizations to come out against the McCarran Act and to involve people to dramatize the problem. Pressure must be brought on the administration.

Phil Bart supported an independent political committee to work on the elections. Bart said a national convention deserves great consideration but suggested that no one come out and say that the convention will definitely be held but that the Party is working on a long range formal program.

Helen Winter recommended building a Labor-Negro coalition around electoral issues. She discussed the need for educating Party members and recommended that reports from meetings of National CP leaders be made available to club members. She said the Party club must be concerned with community activities and select their area of concentration. Winter said there should be no publicity concerning a proposed national convention of the Party.

George Meyers recommended that the Party look upon itself as a national organization and recommended greater coherence in the Party. Meyers urged that all Party members work together and help each other.

Mike Zagarell reported on his tour to various Party districts. He reported he found major areas in which nothing was being done in the youth field and suggested that older comrades find ways to give concrete aid to the youth. There is a need for a public voice of the Party to help in youth work. A convention would give the Party a real push among young people.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Betty Gannett regarded the picture of a CP club as drawn by Danny Rubin was frightening. She said that New York Party clubs are not properly organized and that there are not enough full time workers handling Party work. Gannett stated that the Party leadership must have mass contacts in order to give a proper image to the young people.

William Weinstone said the Party grows to the extent it participates in mass struggle. He claimed the "enemy" has isolated the CP and there must be breakout. This is to be done by fighting for a shorter work day. They must find ways to build within mass movements. The press must be built, and pamphlets must deal with immediate issues. There must be participation in elections and a limited front must be established . They must work with progressives and the left.

Gus Hall informed the meeting that the tax case against CP is to be tried and there are two volunteers to register the CP. He saw this as a serious effort by Government to continue harrassment. He suggested mass political pressure might intervene to block a new indictment. The meeting adjourned at 5:10 p.m., resuming February 14 at 10:00 a.m.

Second Day's Session
February 14, 1965

Philip Bart acted as Chairman of this session.

Albert "Mickie" Lima spoke glowingly of the possibilities of doubling party membership in the California area, particularly with regard to youth. He said that in Santa Clara they have developed to where they are exerting some influence. They seem to have a stable membership and have people in which to develop an effective leadership. The older people are now able to make contributions. The youth sector now has its own clubs and are effective. They have been able to get proper recognition of the party, although they do not officially represent the party.

Lima stated that the youth have pushed "People's World" and party literature. Their activity has greatly increased the image of the party. Lima expressed the opinion that in the next year there will be a substantial growth of youths in the party and said he was speaking in terms of doubling the membership in the district. "People's World" has increased its circulation by at least 1,000 youth readers. The need is to develop themes for youth along the lines of what affects them today rather than speaking of fascism. The youth have never experienced fascism and do not know how it affects them.

Lima continued that there were three areas for consideration in terms of how to overcome the lag in party functioning:

1. The legal status and how to plan a long-range breakthrough.

2. The split in the world communist movement. This situation, he said, was shaking confidence and was difficult to explain. He said it was a negative factor.

3. The new stage of history, particularly with regard to the Negro struggle, and how to take advantage of this new stage in history.

"People's World" is a West Coast Communist newspaper.

James Tormey spoke briefly concerning the Negro American Labor Council (NALC), particularly with regard to its efforts in the housing field and in job discrimination. He said they do exert influence in these areas.

Dorothy Healey inquired whether the party was solving its problems. She noted that there were a number of problems to discuss but questioned whether the party was giving leadership in the concrete approach to these problems. She expressed the opinion that the leadership did not pressure each other in order to give more leadership. The feeling is, she said, "Don't attack me and I won't attack you."

Healey said that the party should address themselves realistically as to what they have in the way of membership and what can be mobilized. She said that Danny (Rubin) is not experienced in handling party organization. She asked what he (Rubin) learned from his own report, noting that for him to draw up the report he had to depend on what others told him. She recommended that Danny (Rubin) attend various club meetings and county meetings, not to participate, but rather to listen and learn.

Healey commented that the reports given reflect different considerations, the national office versus the district and for this reason she is in favor of a party convention. She said the national office did not reflect the feelings of the district and the discussions thus far have been more in the abstract. The question is can the party do what it proposes. She said the electoral question was confusing and not definitive. The party has to recognize the need to explore other avenues in its fight for socialism. The party, to be productive, must move outside the party organization. She admitted that the legal question makes this difficult.

Healey stated that the party does not measure up to the potential available, to develop something wherein "we" are the center, but not exclusively CP. Healey said that the party does not concretely discuss what is practical and concluded her remarks by saying that what needs to be done is to understand:

1. What are the continuing problems of the party.

2. What are the problems unique to the present period.

Robert Thompson stated that he was in agreement with the main report but felt the main problem facing the party today was cadre training. He said a way must be found to get going on a concentration program. The party must set goals for itself and then find the ways and means to achieve these goals.

Thompson recommended that a study be made of the actual situations existing and take from this study what is positive. He said a study should be made of the situation as it exists in Harlem and the different groups that are there and to take from it what is positive and achievable in the civil rights movement. He said the same would be true in all fields of party work.

Irving Potash said that the problem of the party's legality must be carried on. There is a need to implement a concrete policy. Too many people equate militancy with leftism. Militancy, he said, is not the opposite of responsibility.

Potash continued that recruiting can be a threat to security and there are people who will not distribute "The Worker" because of the security problem. It was Potash's contention that there was no reason why "The Worker" could not be handled openly. He recommended that the party membership operate more openly. Potash commented, with regard to the age of the comrades, admitting that it was an obstacle but said they must be organized to do the most they can.

Jack Stachel said that he agreed with Irving (Potash) on his statement with regard to militancy and leftism. He said the party must recognize that there is an "old left" and a "new left" and despite mistakes made in the past in regard to mass organizations, the party must work to achieve unity with the left and the mass organizations. The party, he said, must function as an organization in its own name in addition to the work in mass organization.

STACHEL said that the party does not have a functioning apparatus in trade union work, not since Irving (Potash) left (as trade union director) about one year ago. He characterized this as one of the party's most important fields of work.

James Jackson said the party should concern itself with issues regarding socialism. In the United States, the working class is making major strides towards socialism. Jackson felt that on the question of party organization, efforts should be made to enlarge the circulation of "The Worker".

Carl Winter said that there was a need to distinguish between strategy and tactics and a lengthly discussion could be held on this question alone. Winter said some comrades view strategy as an ultimate socialist objective. A proper development of tactics depends on the strategic aim and the failure to understand this causes serious errors to be made.

Winter stated that the party needs to be built in order to take a more active part in the American way of life. He said "we" have to concern ourselves with how to change the party. The party needs to concern itself with growth among youth, Negroes and the working class. There is a need to get different kinds of members into the party and to use what we have to get these members.

Winter suggested that the party pick one area for its work, either in youth, trade union or civil rights activities. He said he was in favor of a youth division in the party. There is a basis, he said, for a separate structure for youth within the party.

Henry Winston stated that the problem for the party is to break out of its isolation. The idea of a convention is a sound one. There is a need for a party program and in the process build bridges, not alone for the mass movement, but to develop a role for the party. Winston was particularly impressed with Lima's remarks concerning the possibility of doubling party membership in California.

Mortimer Daniel Rubin, by way of summary, stated that some districts did not turn in studies for his report. He said the discussion was helpful and the criticism constructive but noted that some of those criticising did not submit plans. Rubin expressed the opinion that what the leadership does or does not do is reflected throughout the party.

He felt that one of the major problems was adjusting and accommodating to situations as they occur. He said that some comrades have stated that with regard to youth recruiting, that it could not be done because of job security, while others felt that the most promising youths "should be salted away and not recruited." Rubin said that this was the wrong approach. Many youths today are happy in the party despite the economic and security problems. He concluded by remarking that there was a need for long range planning of party building.

Gus Hall said there was no one way of handling all national problems and each district must work out particular problems. The party must present an educational program. He called for a summer program to get 100 youth cadre . Hall said the key is to become a party of action. Many will say that they are not a party of action.

Hall said that there was something missing in their discussions, adding that age was not a political discussion but that they make it one. He said "we" exaggerate the age question and the ability of the party to do anything. This has a minimizing effect. He felt they could do things in the electoral field without endangering the party. There is a tendency on the part of some people to say we cannot increase the growth of the party and this is wrong.

Hall expressed the opinion that for party growth and influence it must become active in the electoral field. He concluded by remarking that there were two types of people in the party: 1) the unmobilized and 2) the rest of the party. This has created a vacuum which needs to be cleared through understanding.

Michael Davidow said that the party needs to enunciate their policies with respect to nationalism, socialism and the like. He urged the party to debate with the opposition and to write more articles. Davidow said that there is a lack of system andmethod of work in his district and all efforts must be made to systemize in order to operate more effectively.

Davidow commented, with regard to the "old members", that the county chairmen realized the necessity of holding meetings in the afternoon and weekends. He said the older comrades are not engaged in activities other than attending meetings.

At the conclusion of this session the following proposals and motions were made. The source, however, was unable to report, in all instances, whether these motions were carried:

1. Have a summer youth project. The secretariat to set up a committee to provide for it. People from the center are to come to youth classes. Motion approved.

2. Organize and support an assembly for an all-out campaign against the Mc Carran Act. This to be held March 15, 1965, on the eve of the trial.

3. Prepare for party convention in December, 1965. The secretariat to begin such planning. Motion approved.

4. Establish a committee to investigate the possibilities of a left electoral coalition.

5. The Civil Rights Commission plan a program with specific points of concentration for the party. Motion approved.

6. "Party Affairs" be re-established as an internal party organ. Motion approved.

7. The question of the war on poverty be a concrete item in the party program. Motion approved.

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

Third Day's Session
February 15, 1965

Albert "Mickie" Lima acted as chairman of the morning session. Gus Hall stated that Robert Thompson would open the session and give a report on Viet Nam.

Thompson stated that it was hard to assess what has taken place in the last week or two with regard to Viet Nam. The war has reached a difficult stage and will either become wider or remain limited in scope. The American forces have tried to change the area of war from a ground war to an air war because of the United States preponderance of air power. This preponderance will remain so for some period of time. That is where the United States wants to fight the war. He characterized this as American Imperialism.

Continuing, Thompson remarked that the North Viet Nam situation poses many dangers, but it is not of an immediate danger. Limited wars can be won such as in Cuba and Algeria. One factor in all of this is the solidarity of the socialist countries against the imperialist forces.

Thompson expressed the opinion that the reason for the United States offensive in North Viet Nam is to prepare for a negotiated peace settlement. The bombing of North Viet Nam was an imperialist provocation. This will be a long fight involving many dangers. He said the various peace organizations have been undertaking important actions and "we" should get expressions from those sectors not reached by the peace movement and the trade union movement. He said that attempts should be made to get trade union figures to speak out publicly against the United States role in Viet Nam. He said the party should organize the "apparatus" and get discussions started, and "our approach" should be mainly critical. The ultra right is putting a lot of pressure on the administration to push the war into North Viet Nam, and they are against negotiations.

Arnold Johnson stated that various undertakings are being planned by Sane (Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy), Women's Strike for Peace, and others regarding Viet Nam. He said a certain section of the country is calling for an immediate withdrawal of the United States from South Viet Nam. There are differences in the administration. Senator (William) Fulbright continues to present a difference and this is important. The Jewish community is for peace and in Washington, large sections of the administration have differences regarding China, etc.

James Jackson said they must differentiate this crisis from the nuclear weapons crisis of Cuba, adding that the situation is grave enough without exaggerating it. He urged the withdrawal of (Ambassador Maxwell) Taylor and others whom he said have been failures all along the line and have advocated the theory of military strikes. Jackson expressed the opinion that there were pressures by McNamara (Defense Secretary), Taylor, and others to make this a strategic showdown.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

Gilbert Green said that there cannot be a backdown and any kind of negotiated settlement for Viet Nam, like there was in Korea, would be a tremendous setback for the Vietnamese people. He said there can be no settlement until all United States troops have been withdrawn. Green commented that the Soviet Union stated that there can be no talk of better relations with the Soviet Union while relations with other socialist states are worsening. He said this was very important.

Green continued that what has been made clear is that the Chinese are not war mongers. They have acted in a very responsible way under great provocation.

Carl Winter said he wanted to express his agreement with those who have said "small wars can be won". He said that on the main question, there is a mass pressure for peace in the country. Johnson recognized it in his campaign. "Our" unique contribution in the election was our saying that people should never put their trust in Johnson, but should exert continuous pressure to obtain their goals. He felt that they must keep in the forefront the continuing danger of the ultra right. He said "The Worker" could produce dramatic service if it produced on its pages what other newspapers will not.

Michael Stein commented that they have to point out that the main danger is the ultra right, both in its ability to influence the administration from within and with out.

Irving Potash opened his remarks by also stating that he agreed that small wars can be won. He said he also agreed with those who proposed a broad educational mass campaign. He said "our press and statements" must become a guide, first to "our people" and to those in peace movements.

William Weinstone called for a broad peace offensive as well as the immediate distribution of leaflets. He said the ultra right must be attacked and the whole administration must be blamed for the Viet Nam situation and not merely certain individuals. He felt they should condemn the action in Viet Nam and work for a negotiated peace. He said the situation is still fluid, and the American people should call upon the President to live up to his campaign promises.

Betty Gannett said they should denounce the war in Viet Nam. It was her contention that the United States wants to go to the negotiating table with strength and because they are losing, are now stepping up the war. She said the ultra right wants to hit industry and destroy North Viet Nam. Pressure should be exerted on the Johnson administration not to proceed so far that retreat is not possible. The American people will then be involved in something which could lead to annihilation. Gannett said that there was a need for a peace movement that will act swiftly to convince the American people of their danger.

Henry Winston said that President Johnson is conforming more to the Goldwater policy which he said was in violation of his mandate from the people. He said the party should call for American withdrawal, and efforts must be made to get public expressions from the labor movement. He said the Communist Party should issue 100,000 copies of a leaflet on Viet Nam.

Mortimer Daniel Rubin said he was in agreement that the aggressive action on the part of the United States will precede negotiation. The pressure of the voice of the American people will be a factor in determining what the policy will be. He said "we" should see if someone from the "Russian Bloc" will speak out. This will help open doors for mass actions. He also expressed the opinion that the United States should leave Viet Nam before any negotiations start.

Rubin said "we" should consider the question of more demonstrations and look into the possibility of getting Madison Square Garden.

Re WFO letter 2/10/65, requesting Miami to check Eastern Airlines re RANDOLPH BLACKWELL.

On February 16, 1965, CHARLES J. POWERS, Supervisor of Passenger Certificates, Passenger Statistical Section, Accounting Department, Eastern Airlines, Miami International Airport, Miami, made available to SA RAYMOND L. O'KELLY the passenger tickets for Flights 555, 515, and 323, Washington, D. C., to Atlanta, Georgia, for January 11, 1965.

A review of these tickets revealed that an R. BLACKWELL was on Flight 555, tourist-class, which left Washington National Airport for Atlanta at 5 P.M., on January 11, 1965. His flight payment was by Eastern Travel Card Number EA 021870nEA 223031.

POWERS determined that this travel card was issued to RANDOLPH L. BLACKWELL, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), 334 Auburn Avenue, N.E., Atlanta. POWERS advised this card was one of a series issued to the SCLC, Atlanta, and he described the SCLC as "a group of Negro ministers."

There were no tickets for MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., ANDREW YOUNG, or ROBERT ABERNATHY on any of the above three flights, either for tourist or first class.

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters CONFIDENTIAL

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states. (U)

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. (U)

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957. (U)

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly -- openly." (U)

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates U and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CPUSA. (U)

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CPUSA, died in New York City, on the night of August 22, 1964. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in December, 1949, that Harry H. Wachtel, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild. (U)

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild is attached hereto. (U)

On March 5, 1944, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that the name Harry Wachtel was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party (CP) at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York. (U)

Regarding Harry Wachtel's wife, Leonora, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP. (U)

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president, and serves to raise funds for the SCLC. (U)

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, N.Y. (U)

1. APPENDIX

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED (MMI)

The March 13, 1964, edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in time of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them. (U)

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principals." The principal place of worship to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York. (U)

The May 23, 1964, edition of the "New York Amsterdam News," a weekly Negro newspaper published in New York City, contained an article by columnist JAMES BOOKER in which he indicated that he had heard that the visit by MALCOLM X with Muslim leaders during his African tour has changed him to become soft in his anti-white feelings and to become more religious. (U)

On October 6, 1964, a confidential source advised that the MMI is apparently affiliated with the true orthodox Islamic Religion through its affiliation with the Islamic Foundation (of New York), 1 Riverside Drive, New York City. The only teachings of the MMI are on the Islamic Religion. (U)

A second confidential source advised on October 20, 1964, that the headquarters of the MMI are located in Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York, where they were established on March 16, 1964. These headquarters are shared with the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU) which is also headed by MALCOLM X. (U)

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on February 8, 1965 that the Communist Party of New Jersey (NJCP) did not hold a formal State Board (SB) meeting on February 6, 1965 because of poor attendance, but four members of the NJCP SB discussed NJCP affairs on that date. The source advised that Irving Potash, SB chairman, mentioned that differences existed between him and NJCP members at Paterson, New Jersey. Potash has met with Richard Sargent, a member of the NJCP Club at Paterson, New Jersey. Sargent had also been the leader of a group known as the Congress of Racial Equality group at Paterson, New Jersey. Sargent was recently convicted on charges growing out of a riot at Paterson, New Jersey. Sargent has now been abandoned by his fellow NJCP members at Paterson, and is suffering from a recurrent TB condition.

Potash intended to supply Sargent with a physician. He also intends to get him an attorney to handle an appeal of his conviction growing out of the Paterson riot.

ReWFOairtel 1/14/65, copies to New York and Atlanta, which reported on the presence of the unknown male in the Washington, D. C., office of Joseph Forer, an attorney with a communist background. Forer gave the unknown male the address and telephone number of a female in New York City (372 Central Park West, RI 9-7086). He apparently gave this information because the unknown male goes to New York sometimes.

Subsequent investigation disclosed that the unknown male is quite likely identical to Randolph L. Blackwell, a former member of the Communist Party who is close to Martin Luther King, Jr., and is employed in the offices of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Atlanta, Georgia.

New York letter 2/23/65, copy to Atlanta, reported that the above-indicated New York City address and telephone number is that of Mrs. Annie Stein. Stein is on the Security Index and has been described as a hard-core communist from 1937 to 1943. Her sympathies and activities in the communist field have continued to the present time.

The New York Office should be extremely alert to any possible future contacts between Stein and Blackwell, Stein or King, or, for that matter, between Stein and any of King's associates. Any information developed to reveal any influence of Stein on King and his activities, directly or indirectly, would be pertinent to captioned matter.

ReNYrep SA John C. Seaton 2/12/65.

A characterization of Selma Sparks appears on page 148 of rerep. It reports that when she was interviewed 4/5/62 by Bureau Agents, she stated she had never been a member of the Communist Party (CP) but believed she had attended meetings in the past where individuals for the CP were present. She said she does not feel the CP is a definite threat to the security of the country, that she is interested in discriminatory practices against Negro people in the U.S., and is not pleased with the way our Government is handling matters pertaining to the Civil Rights of Negroes.

Bufiles reveal that Sparks is on the Security Index, your office origin. She is employed as a writer on the editorial staff of "Challenge," a publication of the highly subversive Progressive Labor Movement. Her current subversive character is amply revealed in her filed. For example, a column under her by-line appeared in the 9/12/64 issue of "Challenge."

It is believed that a far more current and substantial characterization of Sparks could have been reported in rerep. This is for the future guidance of SA Seaton.

Reurlet 2/17/65 which requested authority to interview eight named individuals, formerly associated with the Communist Party Bath Beach Club (CPBBC) for information concerning the possible membership in the Communist Party (CP) on the part of Harry Wachtel.

Relet set out the verbatim contents of two letters contained in your file concerning Leah Wechsler, housewife, 100-57362. One of these letters is dated 1/3/44 and is probably from Harry Wachtel to Leah Wechsler. The other letter, postmarked 12/16/43, is apprently from Charles Miras to his wife, Leah. The Bureau considers the contents of these letters incriminating relative to Harry Wachtel, particularly if it can be positively established that Harry Wachtel wrote letter number one.

You are, therefore, instructed to immediately submit to the Bureau, Attention FBI Laboratory, the pertinent correspondence as well as all available samples of known handwriting of the individuals involved. Particularly note the period of time when your communications originated and obtain samples of that period. In event known specimens not available, immediately initiate appropriate investigation to obtain same.

The following concerns your request for authority for interviews. Interviews with Charles and Leah Miras should be held in abeyance until after the handwriting examinations have been made so that information developed from the examinations may be utilized, if appropriate, in those interviews. It will be necessary to request specific authority for these two interviews at such time as you deem appropriate.

Of the remaining six individuals, it is noted that the current residence and employment of Harry Tobman is unknown; the same is applicable for Martin and Esther Wagner. Information as to the residences and employment of these individuals should, of course, be immediately obtained.

RE: CIRM

Relet stated that it was desired that all individuals except Anita Immerman (housewife) and Leah Miras (employed by attorneys) be interviewed at places of employment as it was "felt interviews with these people would be more successful if contacted and interviewed at their places of employment.". More specific information will be necessary in order for the Bureau to concur with your belief and in the absence thereof, the interviews are authorized only away from work. Under the conditions set forth above, interviews with all but the Mirases are hereby authorized with the proviso that the current employments which are to be determined concerning some of the individuals are not of a nature which will necessitate further Bureau consideration.

In conducting the interviews it should be recognized that information could conceivably get back to Harry Wachtel indicating a current Bureau interest in the CPBBC. This could conceivably lead to an effort to unjustifiably criticize or embarrass the Bureau. Therefore all possible steps should be taken to preclude such an eventuality. Among things to consider should be that of avoiding any direct attention toward Wachtel during the interviews. If questions are asked relative to Wachtel, his name should be included among many others. Similarly, if photographs of Wachtel are displayed, they should be included among many others. These suggestions are not considered all inclusive. The Bureau will expect that sound, mature judgment is exercised in these interviews.

Action instructed in this communication should be given prompt attention and the Bureau kept advised of all pertinent developments.

ReBulet to NY, 2/8/65; BUDED 3/1/65.

Files of the NYO have been reviewed in an effort to locate individuals who might be in a position to furnish information concerning HARRY WACHTEL and his possible association with the Bath Beach Club of the CP of which his wife LEONORA was an officer in 1944. During the same period in which LEONORA WACHTEL was reportedly an official in the Bath Beach Club, the name of HARRY WACHTEL was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County CP. Inasmuch as WACHTEL's wife was an official in the Bath Beach Club of the CP, it is felt that WACHTEL himself might have been a member of this club or might have been associated with it in some fashion.

The following are individuals who might be in a position to furnish information:

ANITA BARON IMMERMAN	Legislative Director of the Bath Beach Club in 1944
LEAH WECHSLER MIRAS	Executive Secretary of the Bath Beach Club in 1944
CHARLES MIRAS	Husband of LEAH MIRAS
MEYER ROSEN	Secretary-Treasurer of the Bath Beach Club of the CP
DAVID ROSENBERG	Chairman of the Bath Beach Club of the CP in 1944

In regard to LEAH WECHSLER, the following information was obtained from a review of WECHSLER's file. On 1/14/44,

FRANK W. LICHTE, agent in charge of the Investigative Unit of the Brooklyn Edison Co., made available an envelope containing papers and documents relating to LEAH WECHSLER. One letter dated 1/3/44, and having as its letterhead the seal of the US Army was as follows:

"Dear Leah,

"Would you please carry to the Bath Beach Victory Club my sincerest thanks for the gift of two very, very exciting and useful books. You may be certain that they will find their way-both by direct passage and by indirect transmission of the contents-to the many receptive fellow soldiers.

"Many people remember the soldiers and the servicement. But few appreciate the heroic job done by the people in your club. They are indeed unsung heroes. Having been such an unsung hero before, I know that the work is not done for medals or praise-but for a purpose. Yet, I want them to know that we in the service do rely on them...I can almost say we rely on them as much as they rely on us. This trust we repose in you-has been executed most satisfactorily in the past. I refer specifically to an historical election.

"But as the hour nears for the decisive offenseive against the heart of the enemy, your job becomes ever more critical. Just as the military victory is the task of the armed forces-so does the shape of the post war world-the world we are fighting for-depends on your efforts. I have confidence, born of personal experience with you, that this mutual cooperative task will be executed successfully.

Yours for victory"

The signature on this letter appeared to run off the edge of the paper. The parts which were on the paper were "HAY WACHTE". At the time that this information was received the observation was made that this name was probably WACHTEL in view of the fact that among these same papers the name LUCY WACHTEL, who appeared to be a member of the Bath Beach Branch CP, was found.

The same source furnished another letter which was postmarked 12/16/43, and had the return address CHARLES MIRAS, Sp. (T) 2/C, USNR, and was addressed to "LEE MIRAS". The pertinent portion of this letter is as follows:

"The question of Lucy is always one that takes up a good deal of space so in order to avoid packing my letter with same I'll just say that I'm inclined to agree with her sister-in-law about her analysis of Lucy and camp following. Me think the lady protest too much is very apropos in this case. Firstly the girl is immotionally unstalbe and as such unreliable. Essencially she means well but has so many faults that I wonder if she does more harm than good. If it weren't for Harry I don't think she would be worth much to the movement. He certainly brings out whatever is good in her and is I suspect trying to remedy her faults. There has been some improvement in her since we first met however much water must flow. Certainly I do not feel that she should be considered the leader of the various girls with husbands in the service because she doesn't set a very good example. Witness your last letter on the subject and her sister inlaws reaction to what you said. More when we see each other so that I can keep my promise."

With respect to HARRY WACHTEL's wife, LEONORA, she is also known as LUCY.

Regarding ELSIE ZUCKER, nee WACHTEL, a sister of HARRY WACHTEL, it is to be noted that the records of BSS, NYCPD reflect that she was a member of the Inwood Club of the CP in May, 1944, and February, 1945.

NY 2026-S* furnished information on 5/9/57, that ELSIE ZUCKER had moved out of the Inwood area in the early fall of 1954, and that she had been a paper member only of the CP for four years.

Bureau permission is requested to discreetly interview those people who were associated with the Bath Beach Club of the CP and who are mentioned in this communication in an effort to develop information concerning HARRY WACHTEL. ~~WACB from ten days of the date of this communication attempts~~

~~will be made to interview these individuals~~.

Since the primary effort in interviewing the individuals mentioned in this communication is not to try to develop them as potential informants but only to elicit information with regard to HARRY WACHTEL, it is felt interviews with these people will be more successful if they are contacted and interviewed at their places of employment or in the case ANITA BARON IMMERMAN, a housewife at her residence. However, LEAH WECHSLER MIRAS, who is employed by attorneys, should be interviewed away from her employment, and her husband, CHARLES MIRAS, should be interviewed away from his residence. Bureau authority is also requested for the above.

Mr. DAN C. PRICE of the Washington Hotel advised SA C. EDWIN GLASS, JR., on February 19, 1965, that if the hotel could be of assistance to the Bureau he thought they would not cancel the reservations made by JOHNSON because the hotel had already confirmed the reservations. SA GLASS advised him that although the Bureau appreciated his cooperation, we did not want his decision about the assembly to be affected in any way by the Bureau's interest in the affair. He was advised that the Bureau's inquiries about the affair were not meant to imply that we wanted the hotel to do anything that they would or would not, have done prior to the inquiry. He said he understood that, but wanted the Bureau to know that the hotel would not have accepted the reservation had it been aware of the true nature of the meeting and that they desired to cooperate with the Bureau in any way they could.

The following information was furnished by WF 1491-S*.

MEYERS planned to telephone HELEN GUREWITZ on 2/19/65. The purpose of the call was not known.

MEYERS mentioned that "we" had a hold-up at the book shop in Baltimore "the other day."

MEYERS tried to contact JOEL DRESSLER at SNCC. DRESSLER had worked for SNCC. SNCC, however, did not know how to reach him. They apparently told MEYERS, however, that they would try to reach him and call MEYERS. According to MEYERS, DRESSLER had been trying to reach MEYERS. He called MEYERS the night of 2/17, but MEYERS was out. MEYERS left the phone number of JOSEPH FORER with SNCC and told FORER that if DRESSLER calls, FORER was to tell DRESSLER that MEYERS was in town. MEYERS said maybe he would call FORER before 5 p.m. in case DRESSLER called. MEYERS told FORER that ARNOLD JOHNSON wanted him to see some of these people, and to talk to some of the civil rights groups, and see if they would be interested in going to "this thing" on the 15th.

MEYERS said he was going to see GEORGE MURPHY on 2/18/65. He wanted MURPHY to talk to HOWARD MURPHY (in Baltimore) about some matter. HOWARD MURPHY was contacted, but did not want to get involved because he was busy on other things. The source was not sure of what MEYERS was trying to interest MURPHY in, but thought it might be the case of the GILES brothers, Negroes, who were convicted of raping a white girl. FORER is the attorney for the GILES brothers. The MURPHY family is connected with the "Afro American Newspaper."

MEYERS said he wanted to get a letter out on the Mc Carran Act concerning finances and checked with JOSEPH FORER about anything special to include in the letter. FORER told him that the CP is being retried and that the Hall Davis Defense Committee has financed all 44 cases brought by the government, including the test case in the U. S. Supreme Court and 43 cases now pending at different stages.

FORER told MEYERS that the retrial of the CP is set for March 16, but these things are not definite as to when they will start. He said it is scheduled to start March, 16, and as far as he knew it would start then; but he added that at the last minute the court can put it off.

MEYERS mentioned to FORER that he did not think that he (MEYERS) should touch the GILES case and FORER agreed. MEYERS told FORER that SAM (SCHMERLER) is doing a little (apparently referring to the GILES case - although the source was not sure).

MEYERS asked FORER if it looked like the meeting on the 15th is going to go through, apparently being under the impression that the assembly would be post-poned if the CP trial is not held as scheduled. FORER then told him the trial was scheduled for the 16th, but was subject to change.

Following this, subject matter, MEYERS said he would do what he could. He said he was going back to that guy on the state legislature to see what happened there. He said he also might see "PARHAM?" himself on a couple of those other things one of these days. The source did not know what MEYERS was referring to.

Concerning JOEL DRESSLER, WFO has not conducted a security investigation on him. WFO files reflect that he attended a party at FORER's on 2/28/64. The party was for the striking miners from Eastern Kentucky. GEORGE MEYERS had been interested in doing something for these miners and HELEN GUREWITZ had been active in arranging the party at FORER's for them. At the party, DRESSLER spoke and said he was with SNCC. He urged those present to contact him as he would be a committee of one to research legislation in Congress which insures benefits for the miners and he said he would be available to receive letters, money, and food for the miners.

"The Washington Post" 9/15/63, p. B-1 contained an article stating that JOEL DRESSLER, 21, 1108 Kingswood Drive, Falls Church, Virginia, was arrested at Belair, Maryland, while protesting the developer's refusal to sell to Negroes. The article said DRESSLER had been arrested a week prior to this arrest under similar circumstances.

"The Washington Post" 2/13/65 and 2/14/65, p. A-10 and A-11, respectively, contained articles stating that JOEL DRESSLER, 22, a junior at George Washington University, was one of seven G.W.U. students who were fasting while asking for a cease-fire in Viet-Nam and for arbitration by the UN or other international agency.

Because of the nature of WF 1491-S* no dissemination should be made of information from this source, except that contained in the enclosed LHM unless the information is verified through other sources.

On February 19, 1965, Dan C. Price, Resident Manager, The Washington Hotel, 15th and Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D.C., advised that the Assembly of the Accused had reserved the North Room at The Washington Hotel for 7:00 p.m., March 15, 1965. The reservation form was submitted by Armold Johnson who gave his address as 23 West 26th Street, New York City, telephone number MU 5-5755. Johnson said there would be 75 to 100 people. He requested special space for television. The reservation was confirmed by the hotel on February 17, 1965.

Mr. Carl Fellman, Caterer Manager, The Washington Hotel, with whom Johnson talked about the reservations, advised that he specifically asked Johnson if his organization was anti communist and Johnson said that it was.

On February 18, 1965, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that George Meyers was in Washington on February 18, 1965. Arnold Johnson had asked Meyers to talk to some of the civil rights groups and see if they were interested in going to (the Assembly of the Accused) on March, 15. Meyers tried unsuccessfully to reach a contact of his at the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

"The Worker," an East Coast communist newspaper, issued of September 22, 1964, page 7, column 1, described Arnold Johnson as the National Public Relations Director of the CP, USA.

The current Manhattan telephone directory lists the national office of the CP, USA at 23 West 26th Street, New York City, telephone MU 5-5755.

The informant advised that according to information he had received, the demonstration had already been planned by the West Side Civil Rights Committee and the Seven Arts Congress of Racial Equality when the CP Club, West Side Section learned of it and decided to participate. The informant said that to his knowledge the decision to participate was made solely within the club and had not originated at a higher level of the Party. b7D

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. ~~S~~ (U)

It is noted that in the past, it has been determined that when King and Jones refer to "our friend" and "our man," they are referring to Stanley Levison. (U)

San Diego, California
February 15, 1965

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE DEMONSTRATION, SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, FEBRUARY 12, 1965

On February 12, 1965, the San Diego Chapter of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) staged a protest march from Horton Plaza in downtown San Diego at 4th and Broadway to the main Post Office at 815 "E" Street, where they picketed, sang songs, and made speeches protesting the lack of Federal assistance for Negro voter registration in Selma, Alabama.

The demonstrators met and organized in Horton Plaza at 10:30 AM. They proceeded to the Post Office at 8th and "E" Streets and commenced picketing in front of the building. Speeches were made by ROGRE BARCLAY, Chairman of the San Diego Branch of SNCC. Among the signs carried by the marchers were the following "One man, one vote"; "Land of the free?"; "Uncle Sam is in Viet Nam, why not Mississippi_"; "FBI fights communism, why not the Klan_." BARCLAY carried two letters to the offices in the Post Office of U. S. representatives LIONEL VAN DEERLIN and BOB WILSON. 67 persons took part in the demonstration. Most of these were of high school and college age. Among those participating were ARTHUR STEVENS, THERESA VIDAL, and WILLIAM BEARD.

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that ARTHUR STEVENS is Chairman of the Communist Party in San Diego and THERESA VIDAL is an active member of the Communist Party in San Diego. Another confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that WILLIAM BEARD is an active member of the Socialist Workers Party in San Diego.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The main part of the demonstration broke up at 11:50 AM, with the exception of six persons who continued to picket. The picketing was to continue for 24 hours.

On February 13, 1965, Inspector C. S. WEBB, Postal Inspector's Office, Main Post Office, San Diego, advised that picketing by six or seven persons did continue through the night and that these persons left the Post Office at twelve o'clock noon.

There were no incidents during any part of the demonstration and on February 13, 1965, Sergeant GEORGE ORR, San Diego Police Department, advised that there had been no arrests.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The information set forth is based on the comments and views of local government officials, police officials, leaders of various racial groups, established sources and public source information, and pertains to the racial situation as of the time the comments and views were expressed. The possibility that the racial situation in a particular area may abruptly change at any time must be taken into consideration.

The Bureau and all Offices should, in light of the above, upgrade the classification of aforementioned letterhead memorandum of 2/12/65, to ~~secret~~ because of the detailed nature of the information which very possibly was discussed with only a few individuals, including [redacted] a most valuable source. It is believed a ~~secret~~ classification is necessary to insure security of the source, which if compromised could jeopardize our Nation's security. b7D

Detroit and New York in addition to changing the classification of aforementioned letterhead memorandum to secret should add the Bureau property statement to the same letterhead memorandum.

Copies of the aforementioned letterhead memorandum were designated for the same Detroit and New York files as designated herein.

Chicago copies have been corrected.

The LHM was classified "~~Confidential~~" and contained detailed information furnished by [redacted] b6 b7C b7D a most valuable informant of your office. Because of the detailed nature of the information and the possibility that [redacted] may have discussed the matter with but very few individuals, it appears that it may be necessary to upgrade the classification of the LHM in order to insure security of the source. You are requested to give this matter appropriate consideration and advise the Bureau of your judgment.

The LHM failed to contain the required Bureau property stamp. Same is being added at the Bureau.

It is noted that the information in the LHM pertains primarily to communist influence in CORE and the cover airtel contained a statement to that effect. It is believed, therefore, that it would have been more appropriate to have titled referenced communications the same as instant communication. In this respect, it is also noted that reairtel did not designate a copy for Bufile concerning Cominfil of CORE.

Furnish Bureau requested information promptly as dissemination is being held in abeyance. Also advise other recipient offices of referenced communications concerning any changes made.

A Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed a picketing demonstration by boycotting students at City Hall Park, New York City, on February 24, 1965. The demonstration, in support of City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools, commenced at approximately 11:00 a.m. and terminated at 12:40 p.m.

Approximately fifty students and five adults participated in the orderly demonstration. Five persons were arrested by the Bureau of Attendance officers for violation of Section 3212, State Education Law (Inducing minors to absent themselves from school).

Patrolman TIMOTHY RYAN, Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, advised on February 25, 1965, that the following people were arrested during the above picketing demonstration:

Lawrence Sorrells, [redacted]

All sources utilized in this memorandum have furnished reliable information in the past.

On February 16, 1965, a source advised [redacted] OTHER Per COURT ORDER ALIP

He stated the attorneys were needed in Mississippi to gather legal evidence to be used to unseat the five Mississippi Congressmen whose seating in Congress is being challenged by the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party.

Manes stated the attorneys limited their work in Mississippi to the collection of legal evidence that there has been "massive discrimination against Negroes and that Negroes in Mississippi have been disenfranchised because of customs, practices and laws." Manes said the challengers have been granted forty days to collect and present their evidence, after which the Congressmen will be allowed forty days to refute the evidence, then the challengers will be given an additional ten days to rebut this evidence.

Manes stated interviews conducted revealed it was important for Negroes to meet the rigid requirements for voter registration. He blamed some of the difficulty of the Negroes upon segregated schools. He stated there was evidence of economic reprisals against Negroes who attempted to register, and there had been terrorist activity against them by groups such as the White Citizens Councils.

Manes stated "in Canton, Mississippi, the White Citizens Council leaders have urged that we let the 'duly constituted authorities' handle voter registration in Mississippi." Manes stated this was a farce as the "duly constituted authorities" were the White Citizens Council leaders themselves. He stated often these leaders would handle alleged civil rights violations from their inception through the court trial. Likewise, these leaders would often be in the position of "meting out justice" to Negroes who were arrested.

SUBJECT: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

This memorandum recommends investigation by New York Office, including interviews with former Communist Party (CP) members, in an effort to possibly establish former CP membership on the part of Harry Wachtel, a New York City attorney who is a close advisor of Martin Luther King, Jr.

Investigation had disclosed that in 1944 Wachtel's wife, Leonora, was an officer of the Communist Party Bath Beach Club (CPBBC) in New York City and a likelihood that Wachtel himself was also a CP member. We had the New York Office review files of CPBBC members during pertinent period in order to identify individuals having a potential for the information we seek. New York now requests authority to interview eight such persons, one of whom is presently on the Security Index (David I. Rosenberg, employed as a draftsman). Others are: Anita Immerman, housewife; Meyer Rosen, bookkeeper for City of New York; Harry Tobman, employment unknown; Martin and Esther Wagner, employments unknown; and Charles and Leah Miras (his employment unknown - she is employed by attorneys). All except Charles Miras and Tobman were previously interviewed. Only one, Rosen, admitted past CP membership when interviewed in 1954; he refused to be reinterviewed in 1961.

New York Office has also located in its files two pertinent letters: (1.) Possibly from Harry Wachtel to Leah Miras and (2.) From Charles to Leah Miras. Contents of letters incriminating to Harry Wachtel if handwriting examinations prove he wrote letter number one.

We believe that it would be very worthwhile to our investigations of the communist influence in racial matters and King if it could be established that Harry Wachtel was once an actual CP member. We, therefore, propose that the desired interviews be conducted. It is recognized that a degree of risk is involved as information could conceivably get back to Wachtel concerning the Bureau's current interest in members of the CPBBC and Wachtel could connect same with his current activities on behalf of King. We will, of course, alert New York to this possibility and instruct all possible cautions be exercised. In any event our proposed interviews are in accordance with the discharge of our designated

Proposed Boycott of New York City

Racial Matters

Confidential source number 1, advised on February 23, 1965, that on February 10, 1965, a meeting of the New York State Communist Party (CP) Commission on Schools was held at 552 Riverside Drive, New York City. There was a discussion on the current school boycott. It was stated that the role the CP is playing in the boycott was "minimal", in that very few CP members have been involved and none in any policy-making positions. It was stated that this is undoubtedly due to the fact that Milton Galamison makes his own policy. NY

It was also stated that the boycott was not succeeding and that Milton Galamison was not using the proper tactics. A different focus was proposed for the boycott. The idea was to move the focus from the children and shift it to adults. The members of the School Commission, New York District CP, pledged themselves to accomplish this objective.

Source further stated that Rae Hendrix, NY as of February, 1965, was serving as city-wide coordinator of the school boycott for Milton Galamison. Rae Hendrix was assisting Galamison at school boycott headquarters, Siloam Presbyterian Church, 260 Jefferson Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. Reverend Milton Galamison is Pastor of this church. The source further stated that Thelma Hamilton was active in the leadership of the current school boycott.

On December 20, 1962, Albert Jackson, a member of the CP from 1945 to 1952, and from 1958 to 1962, advised that Rae Hendrix, female Negro, was a member of the CP in Harlem, until the summer of 1961, when she dropped out to join the factional group, the Progressive Labor Movement.

On March 4, 1963, Albert Jackson stated that prior to leaving the CP, Rae Hendrix was one of the CP staff in Harlem whose job it was to make up programs for discussion by the CP Regional Committee.

Confidential source number 2 advised on March 30, 1964, that on March 23, 1964, it was learned that a delegation of CP members would call on Thelma Hamilton on March 28, 1964, to give her a check and let her know that it was help from the CP. On March 28, 1964, a check was presented to Thelma Hamilton, who was informed that this money was from the CP because they knew she needed help. Thelma Hamilton accepted the check with profuse thanks.

Confidential source number 3 advised on September 25, 1963, that it was determined on September 15, 1963, that Mrs. Hamilton, Apartment 6E, 345 Dumont Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, was a customer receiving "The Worker" and/or the mid-week edition of "The Worker".

"The Worker" is an East-Coast Communist newspaper.

The New York "Daily News", February 20, 1965, page 2, in an article concerning a picketing demonstration by boycotting students at the Board of Education Headquarters, 110 Livingston Street, Brooklyn, New York, conducted on February 19, 1965, carried a picture of Mrs. B. Devine, handing out subway tokens to students who came to the demonstration at the Board of Education.

Confidential source number 2 on March 1, 1965, identified this photograph as Mrs. Bunnie Devine, member of the CP, New York District Committee, and active on the New York CP District School Commission.

Reurlet 3/5/65 which advised that a letter dated 1/3/44 which appears to have been written by Harry Wachtel to Leah Wechsler "is not available for examination."

The Bureau desires to be advised as to the reason the letter is not available for examination.

In addition, it is noted that no comment was made in relet concerning the letter postmarked 12/16/43 which was apparently from Charles Miras to his wife. Advise as to what action your office is taking pursuant to instructions contained in Bureau letter 3/1/65 concerning this second letter. Should it also not be available for examination, furnish reason therefor. The Bureau will give appropriate consideration to interviews with Charles and Leah Miras after reply to the above is received as well as after the other interviews authorized for your office have been conducted.

NOTE:

Bureau letter 3/1/65 authorized certain interviews of individuals formerly connected with the Communist Party in New York who might have information concerning possible Communist Party membership during the 1940's on the part of Harry Wachtel, a current advisor to Martin Luther King, Jr. New York was also requested to submit for handwriting examination twoletters which, according to Bureau files, were in the possession of the New York Office and which were incriminating to Wachtel.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

New Haven, Connecticut

March 2, 1965

COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
CONNECTICUT DISTRICT
NEW HAVEN DIVISION

On February 27, 1965, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on that date SIDNEY RESNICK stated that HENRY WINSTON, whom he described as a "Communist spokesman and a former Smith Act prisoner", would appear at New Haven, Connecticut, on Saturday, March 6, 1965, at 8:00 P.M. in order to deliver an address entitled "What's Ahead for the Negro Freedom Movement - A Marxist Viewpoint". According to RESNICK, attendance at the affair will be by invitation only and a charge will be made of 50¢ for adults and 35¢ for students. WINSTON's appearance at New Haven is under the auspices of the New Haven "Worker" Committee.

On January 2, 1964, a second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated that SIDNEY RESNICK is in charge of the distribution of Communist Party literature within the CP of Connecticut.

During August, 1961, a third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated that at a meeting of the National Committee of the CP, USA, on August 12 and 13, 1961, HENRY WINSTON was elected a member of that committee, the National Executive Committee and Vice Chairman of the Party.

PERSONAL ATTENTION

ReBulet (0-1) 3/2/65 requesting advice as to when the quarterly report due at the Bureau 2/1/65 would be submitted. Reurlet 3/4/65 replying that a report in this matter had been submitted 1/8/65 and that, therefore, "It is felt that the next report should be submitted to reach the Bureau on or before 5/1/65." It was stated that this would be done UACB.

To review briefly the chronology of events concerning the submission of reports by your office in captioned matter, the following is noted. Original Bureau instructions by Bureau letter 8/28/64 were to the effect that all offices would submit the original CIRM report by 11/1/64 and quarterly thereafter with due dates being the first of February, May, August and November of each year. Because of the temporary physical disability of the Agent handling this matter in your office, additional time was permitted to submit the initial report. The ensuing delays necessitated the exchange of several FD-205s and 0-1s between the Bureau and your office as well as Bureau airtel 12/29/64 which emphasized the necessity to avoid any additional delays. The report was eventually submitted under date of 1/8/65.

The Bureau is not authorizing the further delay you suggest in your letter 3/4/65. It will be necessary for your office to as soon as possible fall in line with the other offices in submitting these quarterly reports. The next such report should be submitted by 4/1/65 and thereafter reports should be submitted by the due dates of the first of May, August, November, etc.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information on March 2, 1965:

With relation to the current school boycott being conducted by Milton Galamison and his group, the City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools (CWCIS), the Communist Party locally did not at first want to support the boycott because there was no unity among the various civil rights groups with reference to this endeavor. However, since Milton Galamison has gone ahead and is conducting the boycott, the position of the Communist Party is that they have to support it.

The following two Communist Party members have performed various services on a voluntary basis, such as clerical work or picketing in behalf of the CWCIS:

Bunnie Devine - member of the 6th Assembly District Group, Kings County, New York Communist Party.

Ida Posner - member of the Brownsville Group, Kings County, New York Communist Party.

Further, according to the same confidential source, Bunnie Devine is a member of the New York District Communist Party Committee, and Ida Posner is a member of the New York District Communist Party Board.

RE: COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
CONNECTICUT DISTRICT
NEW HAVEN DIVISION

On January 2, 1964, the second source advised that SIDNEY TAYLOR is a member of the State Board, CP of Connecticut. (U)

According to the first source, approximately sixty persons attended the address given by HENRY WINSTON. SIDNEY RESNICK made a plea for contributions to "The Worker" and stated that the quota set for Connecticut had been raised for the year 1965 to $850.00, which was $100.00 more than that set for 1964. The source said that ROBERT EKINS was in attendance at the affair and that he brought a contribution of $125.00 from the Hartford, Connecticut area. A total of $353.25 was collected during the course of WINSTON's appearance. (U)

On April 11, 1958, a fourth source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated that ROBERT EKINS was designated as one of three CP members in Connecticut who were to receive copies of materials and directives from the National Office of the CP, USA for dissemination to party groups in Connecticut. (U)

A fifth source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated on October 10, 1959, that PHIL BART, National Secretary of the CP, USA, had made the statement that EKINS had joined the CP twenty-two years ago and had given the prime years of his life to the party and desired to continue as a member. (U)

According to the first source, SIDNEY RESNICK was pleased with the amount collected and stressed the fact that all in attendance should subscribe to "The Worker" which is one of the few newspapers in the United States not owned by monopolies. (U)

RE: COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
CONNECTICUT DISTRICT
NEW HAVEN DIVISION

According to the first source, HENRY WINSTON was introduced by SIDNEY TAYLOR who pointed out that as a Communist leader, WINSTON fought for and was jailed for social reforms which since have been enacted into law. TAYLOR said that WINSTON was brutally beaten while confined in jail as a result of which he became blind and that WINSTON was selfless in the struggle for social justice and economic opportunity. The source said that WINSTON received a standing ovation before he began to speak. He was described by the source as a capable speaker with a good memory for events and one who apparently knows his subject. (U)

According to the first source, WINSTON said that February, 1965 is a Negro history month, that the Negroes have made tremendous contributions in every field and have constantly fought for human and civil rights which would not only benefit them but would also benefit the entire country as a whole. He said that there are those in this country who would maintain the status quo, such individuals being the monopolists and the capitalists. WINSTON said that suggestions have been made to arm the Negroes, however, such action would only play into the hands of the Southern communities who control their local governments completely. He said that suggestions have also been made to make the Negro economically self-sufficient, however, such suggestion would be an impossibility in a country where 180 million white persons are neighbors of the Negro. He said that the better solution would have the Negro enter politics thereby giving him a greater say-so in the formulation of laws thereby aiding integration and causing better educational facilities to be offered to him. This he described as a giant step towards socialism. (U)

RE: COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
CONNECTICUT DISTRICT
NEW HAVEN DIVISION

According to the source, [WINSTON said that trade unionism must lead the way in the South which so far has been sparsely organized. He said that although he knows it is extremely difficult to gain entry into small towns which are controlled, it had also been difficult to organize the Ford Motor Company which he had helped to do. Even though this task had been difficult, the Ford Motor Company is presently organized. (U)

WINSTON then described the present situation in Viet Nam. He said that eight-five percent of the persons in that country do not want their cities bombed since they realize that such action can only lead to thermo-nuclear war. He said that President LYNDON B. JOHNSON has disregarded the mandate given to him by the people of the United States, by directing that North Viet Nam be bombed. According to WINSTON, the United States is the only country in the world which believes that it is taking the right course and that U THANT, General Secretary of the United Nations, has made the statement that the news media within the United States keeps "us fed" with wrong facts. According to WINSTON, due to pressure brought upon him, U THANT modified this statement the following day. WINSTON said in a ridiculing manner that the United States wanted to insure free elections in South Viet Nam, however, they know that a free election in that country would unify both North and South Viet Nam. He said that the Communists desire only peace in the world with no nuclear war but that the United States is exploiting the fact that in their opinion China and the Soviet Union are at odds with each other. He said that the United States is not sincere in its "peace efforts" and that they want the "so-called infiltration" stopped in Viet Nam before they discuss peace and enter into negotiations. (U)

WINSTON said that the Soviet Union had prevented the United States from ousting FIDEL CASTRO from Cuba, that the Soviet Union had shipped tanks to Algeria, which action prevented a war there and that the Soviet Union was then (U) sending anti-aircraft guns to North Viet Nam in order to help that country. He said that in view of the above, it is the Soviet Union and "we Communists" who are helping the fight for independance all over the world and he added that the white people should realize that they constitute only ten per cent of the world population and that consequently all people should and must live together in harmony. (U)

According to WINSTON, "we" must bring pressure into any organization possible, whether it be fraternal, social or a service organization. This pressure must be brought to bear on political leaders in order to see that "foreign countries" of Alabama and Mississippi adhere to the Constitution of the United States. (U)

According to the first source, WINSTON said that pressure is again being brought to bear on the CP through the McCarran Act in order to force the Party to register pursuant to that act. He said that the showdown in this respect has been put off from March, 1965 to November, 1965, and that the United States Government has directed that two leaders of the Party must register it. He said that "we" are going to see that "they are disappointed and that the issue would again involve a long legal battle.

According to the first source, the meeting adjourned at 10:30 PM. The source said that according to WINSTON, the latter was completely blind in his left eye and could only distinguish light and dark with his right eye. (U)

Security Matter - Communist

"The New York Times", Friday, March 5, 1965, Page 69, Column 1, carries an article captioned, "Dr. King Reports Change in South". The article reports that King affirmed in New York, New York, on March 4, 1965, his conviction that more and more responsible people in the Southern states favored and supported the restoration of racial peace on the basis of social justice and equality.

[redacted], who head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was in New York City to receive the Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Award for "enhancing the dignity of man". The United Jewish Appeal Women's Division of Greater New York presented the award, the article states.

King, according to the article, received a standing ovation from 4,000 women at the meeting, in the New York Hilton Hotel, after he had completed his acceptance speech. In the speech, he appealed for the abolition of what he called the three universal ills that afflict mankind today - "racial discrimination, poverty and war".

According to the article, it was at a news conference following his acceptance speech that King referred to the changing attitudes of Southern whites on the question of race relations.

King indicated that he believed white resistance to the Civil rights movement had begun to recede, although he stressed, on the other hand, the immense difficulties that remain.

He said that in Alabama he was receiving increased sympathy from white people for the Civil rights cause.

In support of his views that the Civil rights movement has resulted in progress, King said that most of the communities in the deep South had been complying with the Public Accommodations Section of the Civil Rights Act.

King said during the news conference that he would join with the Marchers who will leave Selma, Alabama, next Sunday (March 7, 1965) on a trek to Montgomery, Alabama, to petition Governor George C. Wallace to put an end to discrimination and remove obstacles to the registration of Negro voters in his state.

In conclusion, the article noted that King was scheduled to leave New York on Friday, March 5, 1965, for Washington, D. C., to confer with President Johnson on the proposed new voting-rights legislation.

Sergeant Robert J. Johnson, Intelligence Unit, Salt Lake City, Utah, Police Department, Mr. John M. Driver, [redacted] who is President of the Salt Lake City Branch, National Association For The Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and Mr. Albert B. Fritz, [redacted] a member of the Board of the Salt Lake City Branch, NAACP, furnished the following information on the evening of March 7, 1965:

The Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP held its demonstration as planned in Salt Lake City on March 7, 1965. The participants met at about 2:30 p.m. in front of the Federal Building, 125 South State Street, Salt Lake City, and marched from there to the Administrative Building of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS), 47 East South Temple, Salt Lake City, where a prayer service was held. Approximately 150 to 200 people participated in this demonstration, of which approximately two-thirds were members of the white race and one-third were members of the Negro race. Quite a few of the participants appeared to be university students.

After the prayer service the participants returned to the front of the Federal Building and disbanded. The demonstration was orderly and there were no incidents.

Mr. Driver and Mr. Fritz furnished the following additional information:

Subsequent to the demonstration approximately fifty of the participants met at the Young Women's Christian Association, Salt Lake City, under the auspices of the Salt Lake City

NAACP. The purpose of this meeting was to make plans for Monday, March 8, 1965. It was decided that those who could should observe the activities of the Utah State Legislature at the Utah State Capitol on March 8, 1965. Those who did this should also engage in such lobbying activities as appeared possible. It was decided that the appearance of the participants at the Legislature should not be in the form of a demonstration and that no action should be taken which would give the appearance of a demonstration. It was also decided that the LDS Headquarters, 47 East South Temple, Salt Lake City, would be picketed under Salt Lake City NAACP sponsorship from 4:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. on March 8, 1965. The regular meeting of the Salt Lake City NAACP is scheduled for the evening of March 8, 1965, at which decisions will be made with respect to activities for the period March 8 through 11, 1965, insofar as demonstrations are concerned. No demonstration will take place on March 8, 1965, if LDS Church authorities issue a statement of the Fair Employment and Fair Housing laws presently being considered by the Utah State Legislature. The NAACP does not at the present time, however, consider that it is likely such an endorsement will be issued.

SA T-1 and SA T-2 furnished the following information on March 7, 1965:

The following people were observed participating in the demonstration of the NAACP in Salt Lake City on March 7, 1965, but did not appear to have any responsibility in connection with this demonstration, except as participants:

Ethel C. Dale
Joseph A. DiLenti
Robert Archibeta
Joseph Cayetano Dunne
Lois Dunn

None of these were observed at the NAACP meeting at the YWCA subsequent to the demonstration on March 7, 1965.

Joseph R. DiSandi was a member of the Utah State Board of the Communist Party (CP) of Utah in July, 1963.

Robert Archuleta was a member of the Utah State Board of the CP of Utah and was the Secretary-Treasurer of the CP of Utah in July, 1963.

Ethel C. Hale was a member of the CP of Utah in July, 1963.

Lois Dunne and her husband, Joseph Seymour Dunne, were former members of the CP of Utah who had ceased activity because of the labor union activities of Mr. Dunne. Their CP membership was under consideration by the CP of Utah but had not yet been resolved in July, 1963.

Lt. W. R. Garrison, Operations Officer, Intelligence Corps, Fort Douglas, Utah, and Sergeant Robert J. Proposed Boycott of New York City Schools by City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools, March, 1965
Racial Matters

On March 8, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs plan to hold a demonstration at the Board of Education, 110 Livingston Street, Brooklyn, New York, on March 8, 1965.

On March 8, 1965, Detective Timothy Ryan, Bureau of Special Services (BSS), New York City Police Department (NYCPD), advised that Phyllis Kalb notified the NYCPD on March 8, 1965, that the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) were to sponsor a picket demonstration at the Board of Education, 110 Livingston Street, Brooklyn, New York, on March 8, 1965, between 4:00 PM and 6:00 PM. The purpose of this picket was to demonstrate support for the school boycott which is currently spearheaded by the City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools under the direction of Reverend Milton A. Galamison.

A characterization of the DCA is attached hereto as an appendix. All sources utilized in this characterization have furnished reliable information in the past.

On March 8, 1965, Special Agents (SAS) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed a picket demonstration of the Board of Education, 110 Livingston Street, Brooklyn, New York. The picketing, participated in by 17 to 20 youths, commenced at 4:15 PM and lasted until 5:10 PM, at which time the demonstrators dispersed. The demonstrators chanted, "Jim Crow must go" and "Segregation must go", and carried signs urging integration in education in the New York City school system. Groups represented in this demonstration were Flatbush Youth for Human Rights, Bensonhurst Youth for Human Rights, Student Committee against Social Injustice, Student Committee for Integrated Schools and the DCA. Phyllis Kalb and Judy Finn acted as spokesmen for the demonstrators.

Judy Finn

On November 13, 1964, a third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Judy Finn was in attendance at a meeting of the City Executive Council of the New York City W.E.B. DuBois Clubs held in Brooklyn, New York, November 8, 1964.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On March 2, 1965, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that as of March 2, 1965, Jack Kling, a Communist Party (CP) of Illinois State Board member, had in his possession a copy of a report of Bayard Rustin, the individual who assisted in organizing the "March on Washington" and who is a prominent civil rights leader, which report was delivered by Rustin at the "State of Race" conference sponsored by the Negro American Labor Council (NALC) in New York City on January 30, and 31, 1965.

Rustin's report is entitled "The Influence of the Right and Left in the Civil Rights Movement" and was characterized by Kling as a report which was of value to the CP in its Negro Civil Liberties Movement. According to the source, Kling had obtained this report for the purpose of circulating it among the Illinois CP leadership for their understanding and utilization.

Source further advised that in commenting on Rustin's report, Kling stated that he thought it was an excellent report and that the CP should use it as an outline for a program of action in the civil rights field. Also in his comments concerning this report, Kling stated relative to Rustin that Rustin was a former member of the CP.

To anticipate some conclusions, ~~it seems to me~~ that many of the old definitions and distinctions about "Right" and "Left" no longer apply. In general, the problems which do exist do not result from infiltration by tightly disciplined agents of an outside organization, or other organizations. Rather, they spring in large part from the honest, confused frustrations of sincere people. Consequently, a program to deal with this situation cannot be based upon organizational measures - expulsions, membership screenings, etc. Instead, it is necessary to get to root causes, like the slow pace of integration in a time of accelerating aspiration - as in the state of Mississippi.

But even if there are these subtle aspects to the problem, it is important that we discuss it. First of all, the Rightists and reactionaries continue to utilize the charge of Communist domination and have even spread some suspicion in our own ranks. Only candid discussion can deal with such an attack. Secondly, internal confusion has arisen around the issue, and we must be clear on exactly where we are. Thirdly, by approaching the question of "Left" and "Right" seriously, we can confront the real, and often new issues under the old labels.

The American Right

In the Twentieth century, Southern racism was quite distinct from Northern ultra-conservativism with its Rightest economics. Many a Dixiecrat - the virulent race hater Bilbo among them - championed both white supremacy and positive social welfare programs.

During the post-War years, this traditional pattern broke down. In the 1964 elections, the new trend came to a head with the coalition of racist politics and Rightest economics under the banner of Barry Goldwater. The Goldwateritos now claim that 26 million Americans proved themselves conscious, ideological conservatives on election day. That, as the various polls have demonstrated, is untrue. Yet, the fact remains that the Rightest-Racist coalition succeeded in capturing one of the two major political parties in America.

Moreover, there is a very real sense in which the racist political appeal is greaterthan appears at first glance. Nationally, the voter was given a choice between Johnson and Goldwater. If an individual shared Goldwater's hostility to the Civil Rights Act of 1964, or feared a Negro moving into the neighborhood or getting a job, he could vote for Goldwater and express those sentiments, but at a price; i.e., hewould be casting his ballot for a man who was also utterly irresponsible on the question of war and peace, whose primitive, contradictory economics threatened economic crisis and depression, and whose mental powers seemed to be those of an amiable incompetent. Thus, many Americans suppressed, but did not give up, their "backlash" feelings and voted for Johnson.

This can be clearly seen in California where although Johnson scored a notable victory, Proposition 14 was carried and Pierre Salinger lost the election, in part because of his stand on the Referendum. And on local issues during the next four years, when the price of a backlash sentiment is not a vote for Goldwater, we can be sure that the Right will have a powerful appeal.

This Rightest threat basically comes from outside the movement. As November demonstrated, Negro voters and organizations were overwhelmingly anti-Goldwater. Thus, taking Rightist in this Goldwaterite-Ultra sense, there is no internal threat within the movement but a most serious, and in many ways new Rightest challenge to the nation as a whole.

Secondly, and this illustrates the imprecision of the old definitions, where on the old Right-Left spectrum does one place the nationalist trends in the movement?

In one sense, the anti-integrationist ideology of some of the nationalists has led to a programmatic agreement between them and some of the segregationists. There have even been occasional public alliances of black and white race separatists. On the other hand, many nationalists insist that they are much more radical than the "middle class" leadership of the established organizational, and they attack from the "Left". So, once again, it is necessary to see the new reality which the old terms can no longer contain.

First of all, let me distinguish four different strands in the phenomenon of nationalism.

There is a healthy nationalist emotion, a race pride, a total psychological rejection of white supremacy. It expresses itself in hair styles, African art and history, and in a new elan. It is positive and it is good. Secondly, there is a kind of nationalism which seeks to build black, middle class enclaves and to solve the issue of race by avoiding it. It amounts to an abstention from the struggle and is a negative, if not too widespread, strategy for withdrawal. Thirdly, there is a literal nationalism, often expressed in neo-Marxist terminology, which has captured a section of the Negro intelligentsia. It is intense, contradictory (some of its best known advocates have inter-racial marriages) and of considerable importance since it involves some of the most talented Negroes whose intellectual abilities are needed by the movement.

Fourth, and finally, there is the organized nationalist movement in all of its forms. The programs of these groups are often confused yet certain themes persist: Buy Black; a Black state or enclave; an identification with the new African nations; a hatred of the "white devil." Underlying all these points is the conviction that there are no present alternatives, within a framework of democracy, non-violence and integration, for the Negro. Out of this despair, there comes an identification with the most violent and extreme tendencies of African nationalism, like the Mau Mau. Sometimes even the African history is distorted, as in the assertion that Jomo Kenyatta was exactly the kind of brutal terrorist that his British persecutors and their perjured witnesses said that he was when they jailed him. But, more importantly, the nationalists advocate the guerilla strategies which may have made sense when a 90% or 95% African majority was seeking national liberation from a colonial minority but have little relevance to the plight of that 10% of America which is black.

COPY

Clearly, this fourth type of organized nationalism poses a problem to the movement. Yet, the source of its strength is not conspiratorial or foreign. The nationalist emotion first really appeared right after World War I when Negro migrants from the South found in northern cities, not a promised Land, but a de facto racist economy and society. Similarly, today, the influence of the various forms of organized Nationalism is greatest among the ghetto poor and workers who experience the contradiction between the talk of a "Negro Revolution" and the reality of Negro unemployment, housing and schools in their daily lives.

The Nationalists will not be won to our cause because we maneuver shrewdly. Neither will they be convinced by scholarly analyses of their errors. As long as the intolerable conditions of ghetto life continue and worsen, the Nationalists cannot be written off. And conversely, the minute we begin to really move on the issues of unemployment, slum housing, and slum schools, we have the most powerful anti-Nationalist argument in the world.

Let us turn now to the "Left". I put the term in quotation marks because it has been used to mean so many things. And I think it important that we distinguish between three phenomena which are often carelessly lumped together under the single label of "Left". There is, first of all, the traditional Communist Left; secondly, the "Ultra Left"; thirdly, the "Unaffiliated Left."

I. The Traditional Communist "Left"

Since the end of World War I, the most successful organization proclaiming itself to be part of the Left was the Communist Party. By "Left", the Communists meant unquestioning subservience to the Soviet Union. In domestic American political terms, the Communist Party was fairly early transformed from a revolutionary and insurrectionary movement into the American propaganda agent for Moscow's line of the movement. In pursuit of this aim, Communists acted as disciplined, and often secret, members of a Party "fraction" within other organizations. They took the Civil Rights cue, not from the situation of the Negro, but according to the needs of Moscow. So it was that the Communists attacked the March on Washington Movement of 1941 and charged those who sought the "double V" of victory at home and abroad over racism with being disrupters; so it was that they fought against the struggle for Fair Employment Practice legislation during the War.

Since this mode of operation posed the problem of an organized, coherent group taking orders from outside, many Civil Rights, liberal and labor organizations were forced to build counter-fractions to deal with the situation. The basic tactic was that of "in fighting", and usually no holds were barred on either side.

In 1956, a Communist Party which had already lost three fourths of its peak, 1944, membership, was shattered by the Khrushchev revelations about Stalin and by the Polish October and the Hungarian Revolution. Entire sections of the Party quit in disgust, including almost the entire staff of the Daily Worker. More recently, the orthodox Moscow Communists expelled supporters of the Chinese Communist position and further weakened themselves. As a result, the Communist Party is now at a historic low point within the Civil Rights movement.

Therefore, the problem of the traditional "Communist" Left is not that of combatting a disciplined "fraction" by organizational means. And, as will be seen, such a strategy would not only ignore the real problem, it would exacerbate it.

II. The "Ultra Left"

There are other organizations -- "Chinese" Communists, Trotskyists, etc. -- which criticize the Communist Party for being too moderate and which retain the Communist mode of factional struggle within other organizations. However, these groups do not have a significant following among Negroes; they are even smaller than the Communist Party; and they do not occupy any positions of organizational power within the Civil Rights mainstream. By far and large, such groups have concentrated on an appeal to the nationalist sentiment among Negroes.

The foregoing analysis of the traditional "Communist" and the "Ultra" Left does not mean that there are no Communists of any kind infiltrating the movement. There are. But it does mean that people like J. Edgar Hoover, who have a vested political interest in minimizing the strength of the Communists, have distorted the problem. I suspect the complex reality can best be put in terms of the Harlem riot last summer.

As even the FBI admitted, no group, not the Communists nor anyone else, "organized" that upheaval. It grew out of the intolerable conditions of the ghetto and the hatred of policy brutality; it involved many socially desperate youth who, as dropouts, are without a future at the age of sixteen or seventeen. Various elements attempted to close on the situation, among them criminals whose main concern was looting and some "Ultra" Left organizations. The latter organizations could not start the riots, nor control them. They could only seek to try to fan existing emotions. If, once again, there were an adequate program and struggle against the ghetto conditions, such groups would become utterly irrelevant; and if there is not, there is no way of stopping them from trying to capitalize on the situation.

III. The "Unaffiliated Left"

By the "Unaffiliated Left" I mean groups of people within the movement who are bound together, not by membership in an organization, but by sharing common experiences, emotions and politics. There are two types of thinking on this "Unaffiliated Left" that are most important.

a) The Thirties Veterans. One encounters people who went through the Thirties together (or sometimes their children), who were in or around the Communist or fellow-traveling movements but who no longer belong to any organization. These people often act in common, yet they are not under orders from any Central Committee. They usually regard Communist totalitarianism as "progressive" but proselytyzing this point of view is not their main activity. They believe that white liberals, the Negro middle class, the union bureaucrats and many other participants in the movement can, and should be, bluntly criticized; but to talk of "Communist" or "Ultra" tendencies within the movement is "red baiting." Thus, anyone with Communist or pro-Communist leanings is granted a privileged sanctuary where, immune from criticisms, he can criticize everyone else. The distinguishing political characteristic of the Thirties veterans is that they have no concept of coalition and alliance with the major forces in the society. Most of them did not understand, for instance, that Johnson, for all his faults, was infinitely better than Goldwater. In their America, there is nothing to choose between LBJ and Goldwaterism which means that the overwhelming majority of the American people are politically hopeless. From this despairing vantage point, the Thirties Veterans come to think of a Genocide resolution at the UN as more important than the Civil Rights Act and to engage in an elitist politics of maneuver.

The Thirties Veterans are not a numerically large group in the movement. But they are sophisticated, organizationally skilled, and their significance is in terms of their influence rather than their strength. They obviously cannot be dealt with by any organizational means since they are not themselves formally organized. The problem which they represent can best be confronted by dealing with those to whom they attach themselves; the "Spontaneous Left."

b) The Spontaneous Left. This is perhaps the most important group on this spectrum and the hardest to define. It is not organized and it contains considerable differences within itself. The Spontaneous Left is critical of "white liberalism," the established Civil Rights leadership, and prides itself on "militancy," which is defined as intransigence and the refusal of all compromise. While calling for a mass movement, the Spontaneous Left tends to isolate itself because of its rejection of all possible allies: labor, the churches, the liberals, etc. On many issues, the political positions taken by this tendency are the same as those urged by the "Ultra" Left, by the Thirties Veterans or even by the Nationalists. This has led many people who are familiar with the facts of life in the Thirties and Forties to assume that this must be the result of conspiratorial, Communist-type infiltration. This is not the case.

The Spontaneous Left appeals to young people who, first of all, are convinced that Civil Rights and genuine equality will require significant changes, not simply in Southern prejudice of bigotry generally, but in American society and the American economy. I share this point of view.

But then these people go on to despair -- and they sometimes do not themselves know that this is what they are doing. They reject all allies within and without the movement, black and white. Racism, they say, is not a negotiable issue; it is absolutely wrong and therefore any compromise, and demand sort of total and immediate freedom, is a sell-out. Of course racism is absolutely wrong, but the effective implementation of the moral rights of a 10% minority requires allies and politics. The Spontaneous Left does not see the necessities and complexities of the struggle. It therefore accentuates the negative: "social dislocation" as the only tactic (social dislocation is, as I have so often pointed out, one of the most important tactics, but not a panacea); the refusal of partial and limited victory. Sometimes a positive program is put forward, but it is usually a fantasy about guerilla strategies, or a revolutionary upsurge of the black and white poor against the whole society, the Civil Rights and labor movements included.

As critical as I am of this point of view, I insist that we distinguish its extreme, and oversimplified, abstractions from its genuine insights. This is necessary because the spirit and the people of the Spontaneous Left are very important to the movement. Our progress is slow; sometimes our allies drag their feet; and sometimes we ourselves fail in leadership and imagination. What is not true is that democracy and non-violence have irrevocably failed. If they have, so then has the Negro failed for there is no other way to win. And the only way to prove that democracy and non-violence still have meaning is to demonstrate their effectiveness in action by achieving significant change.

The key to the phenomenon of the "Spontaneous Left" is not in Moscow, Peking or Havana. It is in Harlem and Mississippi. And the only effective answer to blind-alley approaches is solid progress which makes a tangible difference in the daily lives of Negro citizens.

That the Civil Rights Act was an historic step forward is undeniable. Indeed, historians will record that the decade between the Supreme Court school decision and the Civil Rights Act witnessed the destruction of the legal foundation of Jim Crow. This achievement, of course, has been registered in response to the massive pressures generated by the Negro and his white allies. I am not in sympathy with those who would decry the Civil Rights Act as an opiate, ignoring the possibilities it opens up for us - possibilities of shifting our focus to new problem areas. The Act has been rightly described as a prologue - it sets the stage.

But we must be ready for the first act - ready with the program and the actors. Here I want to be brief, but it is pointless to outline the problems posed by the Right and the Left without suggesting solutions.

Possible Solutions

A. The Civil Rights Movement Alone:

1. Throughout the country, but particularly in the South, massive voter registration campaigns must be mounted. An estimated 3.6 million Negroes of voting age remain to beheard from in Dixie. Their potential political power must be mobilized - through a variety of techniques: demonstrations, litigation, or whatever seems appropriate in given situations. Above all, I am convinced, the civil rights organizations must be unified in this effort - in Mississippi and elsewhere - combining our various specialized skills and techniques. We simply cannot afford disunity and divisiveness in this critical area.

2. I believe we must begin now to prepare the Negro community for vigorous enforcement of the fair employment section of the Act, which will take effect in July. I understand that the Civil Rights Department of the AFL-CIO has already begun to prepare local labor bodies for full compliance. We have an obligation to educate and mobilize our community on this issue, so that they will be ready to demand their rights - again, through a variety of techniques, including boycotts.

3. Police brutality, North and South, is another area in which the civil rights movement as such can make progress. We must everywhere be part of the cry for civilian review boards - not in the naive belief that they are a panacea but in the conviction that police conduct isnot the exclusive responsibility of commissioners and politicians. Police must be answerable to the citizenry they presumably protect, and if they have been educated to any other concept of their role, now i sthe time to re-educate them.

B. The Civil Rights Movement and its Allies:

These, then are some of the major areas in which the Negro community, relying on a diversity of means, can push forward. Let us frankly admit, however, that there are limits to the progress that the civil rights movement can achieve on its own. After all, the fundamental limitation of the Civil Rights Act is precisely that it is a Civil Rights Act, whereas the most serious problems confronting the Negro community today are not, strictly speaking, civil rights problems. They are social and economic problems deeply rooted in our economic life. They are problems of employment housing, and education. The Civil Rights Act does not abolish slums, create jobs or provide decent housing.

To achieve these goals requires an alliance between Negroes and organized, progressive forces in the white community. This principle governs the second group of programs I would advocate.

1.- We have to develop employment policies which go beyond the placing of individual Negroes into professional jobs. It is not enough to exhort Negro youth to stay in school. We must insist on a sufficient degree of economic planning to enable us to know what jobs will be available for them upon graduation. We must have answers for the mass of unskilled and semi-skilled Negroes who are imperiled by structural changes in the labor market as a result of the technological revolution.

COPY

2. Full and fair employment and the upgrading of wages are essential if civil rights are to be meaningful. The voice of our movement should be loud in demanding implementation of the proposals of the Senate Sub-committee on Manpower and Employment for an additional $5 billion in social investment per year as a means of creating jobs and beginning the elimination of slums.

3. We should be joining with labor, liberals and others in a campaign to extend coverage of the Fair Labor Standards Act to all workers;

4. And to increase the minimum wage to $2.00 per hour.

5. We should be demanding immediate passage of an accelerated public works program and repeal of Section 14b of the Taft-Hartley Act.

6. We should be in the front ranks of the fight for Medicare and medical programs for poverty-stricken children as steps toward a national health plan.

7. We should be mobilizing support for the expansion of the Economic Opportunity Act, insisting on the rights of the poor, black and white, to be involved in the decision-making process.

8. We must be open to new ideas - to the proposals, for example, that youngsters be paid to go to school.

9. Finally, we need to be demanding of government - at all levels - a serious timetable for the elimination of slums.

COPY

CONCLUSION

Automation and the like are not exclusively Negro problems. Nor is the educational crisis, or the growth of slums. Of course, we cannot take all of society's burdens on our shoulders. On the other hand, enlightened self-interest dictates that we come up with some far-reaching answers or find ourselves stymied. For in a modern, automating society, there are limits to self-help.

And in such a society, the economic realities are such that, in seeking answers for the Negro, we will in fact be refashioning national policies for the benefit of the white dispossessed as well. We can help stimulate motion in sections of the white population - in the labor movement, among liberals, religious groups, and so forth. Whoever doubts this need only ask why we have a "war on poverty" today, if not for the civil rights movement and its reverberation throughout the country.

We need to stimulate such motion for another reason. We cannot talk about the democratic road to freedom unless we are talking about building a majority movement in America. This means that we need white allies. It means we must be united with them in demanding a program for reconstructing American life.

Such a program in my view, will not only answer the frustrations which breed no-win policies, they will also undercut the danger on the right - or at least its political potency. We must create a situation in which backlashers are politically neutralized by having to pay too high a price for the exercise of racist impulses. The program for racial equality must be so intertwined with progressive economic and social policies as to make it impossible to choose one without the other. I know of no better educational technique.

PROPOSED DEMONSTRATIONS AT FEDERAL BUILDINGS, LONG BEACH, AND LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA
MARCH 9, 1965

The following information was made available by two sources who have furnished reliable information in the past:

The combined forces of the United Civil Rights Committee (UCRC), Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), intend to hold a "sympathy march and demonstration" at the Federal Building, Civic Center, Los Angeles, California, March 9, 1965. This demonstration is intended to show the sympathy of the above organizations with the Negroes demonstrating in Selma, Alabama.

A third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, indicated that WILLIAM C. TAYLOR, Vice Chairman of the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP), was contacting CP members "to get as many out as possible to participate in the demonstration at the Federal Building at noon, March 9, 1965."

During the early morning of March 9, 1965, an anonymous telephone call was received by the Long Beach Resident Agency of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Long Beach, California, indicating that a similar demonstration would be held at the Federal Building in Long Beach starting at approximately 11:30 a.m.

The Los Angeles and Long Beach Police Departments are cognizant of the proposed demonstrations, and intend to afford them appropriate coverage. Operations Sergeant Harry I. Muus, 115th IMTC, Region II, United States Army, Pasadena, California, was furnished the foregoing information at 7:55 a.m., March 9, 1965.

ReNYtel to Bureau, Atlanta and Mobile 3-14-65 wherein was reported remarks made by Bayard Rustin, a close advisor to Martin Luther King, Jr., in connection with the current situation in Selma, Alabama. According to Rustin, King is convinced that if there is marching and "nose to nose" that "these people" are going to pull a trick that might end up in a lot of people getting hurt. According to Rustin, King indicated that "these people" are young "Sniccites" who have been challenging King's leadership.

For background information of Mobile, Bulet to Atlanta and New York 3-12-65 referred to friction developing between King's organization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). Plans were being initiated to have the noted singer, Harry Belafonte, act as an intermediary in order to pacify strained SCLC-SNCC relationships. New York and Atlanta were instructed to be alert to additional information concerning this friction and to consider possible counterintelligence tactics which might be employed by the Bureau.

It appears from the contents of retel that some of the SNCC followers may attempt to precipitate some action in Selma which might lead to violence. Mobile is, therefore, instructed to immediately contact appropriate sources available

Re New Haven letters to Bureau 2/1/65 and 2/4/65.

On 3/1/65, the photograph of ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN was exhibited to Captain ROBERT HUNT and HARRY CURRAN, both officers of the Stamford, Connecticut, Police Department. Neither were able to identify the photograph of LOWENSTEIN as an individual who accompanied MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. at the Kennedy International Airport, New York, New York, on 11/30/64. Captain HUNT pointed out that on the latter-mentioned occasion, his function was merely to assure that KING met his schedule and that consequently he did not have any lengthy conversation with either KING or any members of his entourage.

By letter to Bureau dated 2/26/65, the New York Office advised that the Special Agent who observed MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. arrive at Kennedy International Airport, New York, on 11/30/64, was unable to identify the photograph of LOWENSTEIN as an individual who met KING at that time.

EX. 108

REC-40 100-442529-810

By letter to Bureau dated 2/16/65, Atlanta pointed out that a review of Atlanta files on MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., failed to reveal any information regarding an article written for him immediately prior to 11/26/64 which would clarify the matter of identification of AL LOWENSTEIN.

Referenced letter dated 2/1/65 revealed that LOWENSTEIN graduated from Yale Law School, New Haven, during 1954 and various employments on his part were set forth therein, until his resignation as Assistant Professor, North Carolina State College, Raleigh, North Carolina, on 7/1/64. LOWENSTEIN visited at Yale for a period of six weeks until January, 1965, when he apparently departed New Haven in order to travel either to Los Angeles or Hollywood, California, in connection with the production of a motion picture regarding a book recently written by him. Referenced letter pointed out that LOWENSTEIN has apparently spent little time within the State of Connecticut following his graduation from Yale University during 1954.

By letter dated 1/18/65, the New York Office submitted a rationalization as to the possibility of ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN being identical with AL (LNU), mentioned in Bureau letter to New York dated 1/8/65. From information developed by New Haven in this matter, this office is in agreement with the rationale set forth by New York, and it is believed that ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN is identical with AL who was in contact with MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Since LOWENSTEIN has apparently spent little time within the State of Connecticut subsequent to 1954, and since he is no longer in this area, it is not believed that New Haven is in a position to identify the article purportedly written by him in behalf of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

In view of this, no additional investigation is being conducted in this matter by New Haven, UACB.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain Communist Party leaders as being "to the left" of the Communist Party in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. ~~(S)~~ (U)

All sources utilized in this memorandum have furnished reliable information in the past.

Appearing in the "People's World" (PW) of February 13, 1965, was an article which reported fourteen attorneys from the Los Angeles area had volunteered to go to Mississippi to gather evidence to substantiate the challenge of the present "all-white Mississippi congressional delegation." The article reported local recruiting was sponsored by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), Lawyers Division. (See attached article).

The PW is a West Coast communist weekly newspaper.

Appearing in "The Los Angeles Daily Journal" of February 14, 1965, was an article reporting that Rev. FRED L. SHUTTLESWORTH, secretary of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and assistant to Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, would be in Los Angeles directly from Selma, Alabama, and would speak at an ACLU luncheon on February 23, 1965, in Los Angeles. The article continued that ACLU attorneys ED MOSK, ALAN NEIMAN, and GEORGE SLAFF, three of the fifteen Los Angeles attorneys who went to Mississippi, would speak on their personal observations of efforts of Negro citizens in that State to vote. A source advised in the early 1940's, MOSK was associated with LEO GALLAGHER, Attorney, who handled the cases of many communists in California during that period. MOSK served in the Office of Strategic Services during World War II, and thereafter in the American Military Government in Germany.

In 1947 a source advised MOSK was a member of the Hollywood Arts, Sciences and Professions Council (HASP-see appendix).

Another source advised in 1947 that MOSK was a sponsor of the Civil Rights Congress (CRC) in Los Angeles in 1947.

The CRC has been designated by the Attorney General of the U. S. pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Another source advised that in July, 1948, ED MOSK became the first chairman of the Independent Progressive Party (IPP - see appendix), and in August, 1948, was a member of the IPP, State Executive Committee.

Other sources advised MOSK was connected with or was a member of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG - see appendix) in 1946, 1951, 1954, 1956, and from 1962 to 1964.

In 1954 another source advised MOSK attended meetings of the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms (CCPAF - see appendix) and was reported to be a reader of CP literature and a CP sympathizer.

In August, 1956, another source advised that one ED MOSK, Attorney, was to be contacted by the Los Angeles County CP for a fund donation, further that MOSK was to be contacted when alone and not with his wife present. Source had no further information and could not state whether the contact had been made.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE

GEORGE SLAFF

GEORGE SLAFF, who was born May 22, 1906, in Passaic, New Jersey, who graduated from Harvard in 1926, and from the Stanford Law School in 1929, was in 1938 a principal attorney for the Securities and Exchange Commission, and later was principal attorney for the Federal Power Commission. He was a member of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) in 1940, was chairman of the Hollywood-Beverly Hills Chapter, NLG, in 1949 and was on the Executive Board of this chapter in 1950. He was a member of the NLG in 1953.

From 1948 to the present, SLAFF has been legal counsel for Samuel Goldwyn Productions, Hollywood, California.

In February, 1942, Slaff furnished a statement to the Federal Power Commission, categorically denying he had ever been a member of an organization which advocated the overthrow of the government by force and violence.

In 1942, source, a fellow employee of SLAFF, advised SLAFF was considered an extreme radical, if not a communist, by a large number of his associates in the Federal Power Commission. Source further advised SLAFF believed completely in government ownership of utilities and big business.

Appearing in "The Hollywood Reporter" of July 27, 1964, was a news item which reported that GEORGE SLAFF, General Counsel for Samuel Goldwyn Productions, had been re-elected "v-p" of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) of Southern California, for the fourth consecutive year.

Appearing in the "Los Angeles Times," February 13, 1965, page four, was a letter from SLAFF which indicated he was president of the ACLU of Southern California and which indicated disagreement with investigation of "far-right" organizations by the "House Un-American Activities Committee," HUAC. SLAFF was critcal of the "HUAC" in general, stating that exposure and punishment were outside the power of Congress and wrote, "The entire history of the HUAC bears out the conclusion that this has been its chief purpose."

OTHER removed per court order

On February 16, 1965, another source advised [redacted] stated the only other attorney from the San Fernando Valley area of Los Angeles who went to Mississippi to assist in taking depositions from witnesses concerning discrimination against Negro voter registration was IRVING ROSENFELD of Van Nuys, California.

[redacted]

IRVING ROSENFELD

In 1953 a source advised IRVING ROSENFELD was a team captain of the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) Club of the Labor Youth League (LYL - see appendix) in early 1953. He attended LYL meetings in 1951 and 1953, and was a member of the Executive Board, UCLA Club, LYL, from June to September, 1953.

In May, 1961, another source advised that on May 20, 1961, at a meeting of the National Executive Board, NLG in Chicago, Illinois, appointments were made by the NLG president to a "committee on international law" subject to approval by the individual named. IRVING ROSENFELD, [redacted] Burbank, California, was named to a special subcommittee on "atomic disarmament." b6 b7C

In 1962 ROSENFELD was a member of the Hollywood-Beverly Hills Chapter, NLG.

The "New York Guild Lawyer," March - April, 1962, issue, self-described as a publication of the NLG, reported the results of the February, 1962, elections of the NLG. Among those listed was IRVING ROSENFELD, Los Angeles, who was elected to be a member of the Executive Board, NLG.

Appearing in "The Los Angeles Daily Journal" of December 27, 1962, was an article which reported in part that ROSENFELD had been elected a new Board member of the NLG in Los Angeles for 1963.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE

As of April 9, 1964, a source advised IRVING ROSENFELD, [redacted] Van Nuys, California, was a member of the Hollywood-Beverly Hills Chapter, NLG. b6 b7C

In August and November, 1956, ROSENFELD was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI in Denver, Colorado, at which time he admitted attending LYL meetings, but stated he never considered himself to be a member. He furnished names of other individuals in attendance at these meetings. He stated his LYL activity ceased when he entered law school in 1953, stated the reading of transcripts of Smith Act trials "opened his eyes" and was of the opinion the LYL was an organization dominated and controlled by the CP. He stated he believed the CP and its front organizations constituted a threat to the internal security of the U. S.

Appearing in "The Los Angeles Daily Journal," February 17, 1965, was an article which reported that attorneys HENRY W. SANDS and CHARLES B. STEWART, JR., related their experiences in Mississippi working to gather evidence to unseat Mississippi Congressmen. The article reported that both spoke before a Federal Bar Association luncheon in Los Angeles on February 16, 1965. (See attached article). Mr. MANUEL F. LIODAS, retired Special Agent of the FBI and praticing attorney in Los Angeles, attended this luncheon and advised the above attorneys gave a scholarly speech about their activities, sticking largely to the subject of their speech and showing slides about the situation of the Negro in general in Mississippi. Mr. LIODAS furnished a leaflet from the Federal Bar Association, announcing the above luncheon which advertised the topic of the speeches by the above attorneys was "The Hearings to Unseat Mississippi's Five Congressmen," and indicated the two attorneys had been "deposing witnesses in the area of West Point, Columbus, and Mc Comb, Mississippi."

CHARLES B. STEWART, JR.

Appearing in "The Los Angeles Daily Journal" of February 1, 1965, was an article reporting recent NLG elections in Los Angeles. Among the new officers was listed CHARLES B. STEWART, JR., vice president of the Los Angeles NLG.

14 LA lawyers head for Dixie

LOS ANGELES — Fourteen lawyers from this area have volunteered to go to Mississippi, where they will join attorneys from other parts of the nation in gathering evidence to substantiate the challenge of the present all-white Mississippi congressional delegation.

Local recruiting of attorneys is sponsored by the American Civil Liberties Union lawyer's division. It is working in cooperation with the Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee which has initiated legal action contesting the Mississippi congressional elections. Negroes have been systematically excluded from these elections. It is charged there have been unconstitutional registration and election procedures as well as intimidation.

The Mississippi Freedom party has challenged the present members in the House of Representatives. The evidence now being gathered will be presented to the House prior to this matter coming up for a vote later in the present session.

The Southern California ACLU announced it is adding two new staff members to serve as area coordinators: Mrs. Carol Bell, for the San Bernardino, Riverside and Pomona Valley areas; Mrs. Cecile Podoloff, for all San Diego county.

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 16, the Westside ACLU chapter will hold a discussion on the "Danger on the Right," with Warren L. Steinberg, a member of the Southwest Regional Board of the Anti-Defamation League as the main speaker. It will be held at the West Dale Savings and Loan Bank, 2920 S. Sepulveda.

Two UCLA students and two faculty members will discuss the free speech movement at the Feb. 19 meeting of the Wilshire Chapter which will be held at Wilshire Crest School, 5121 W. Olympic at 8:30 p.m.

At the last ACLU board meeting the following officers were elected:

George Slaff, president; Paul Ferguson, vice-president; Rosalie Goodwin, secretary and Frank Munoz, treasurer.

Fear Is Foundation of Negro Voter Registration Delay In Mississippi, Federal Bar Is Told by Attorneys

By M. R. JOURDANE
Daily Journal Staff Writer

Fear is the dominant characteristic of the Negro in Mississippi, Henry W. Sands told members of the Federal Bar Association at their luncheon meeting yesterday.

Sands and Charles B. Stewart Jr., both Los Angeles attorneys recently returned from Mississippi, related their experiences in gathering evidence for the drive to unseat the congressmen of that state.

In introducing the speakers, Edgar Boyko, second vice president of the group, explained that Title II of the U.S. Code contains a section which has never been enforced, which empowers Congress to limit the representation in Congress of any state which systematically excludes Negroes from the right to vote.

The two attorneys were part of a group who visited the state of Mississippi for the purpose of taking depositions to prove the existence of such discrimination as would enable the House of Representatives to challenge congressmen from that state elected last November.

Background

Stewart explained the historical background of voting in Mississippi. Prior to 1890, he said, all that was required to be eligible to vote in Mississippi was residence in the state for six months and in the county for one month, that the person be sane, have never been convicted of certain specified crimes, and be male.

In 1890, there were 118,170 white voters and slightly more than 189,000 Negro voters.

In the same year, a constitutional convention was called for the purpose of forming a new state constitution. Sec. 244 of that constitution made it mandatory that every person register again. It also made requisite for registration the ability to read or understand or give a "reasonable interpretation" of any section of that constitution.

The Negroes, only thirty years removed from slavery, were unable to cope with such a sophisticated document, Stewart declared.

By 1899, 82 per cent of the whites but only nine per cent of the Negroes, about 18,000 Negroes, were registered. In 1961, there were approximately 500,000 white voters and 23,801 Negro voters in the state.

No Representation

The result, Stewart said, is that the Negroes have no local or national representation.

Whenever a challenge of the vote has been made, he declared, a request has gone out to lawyers throughout the country to assist in getting depositions to present to Congress. California was well represented in the drive, he continued, with a delegation including attorneys from both northern and southern California and many court reporters.

The attitude of the white in Mississippi contrasts sharply with the deeply ingrained fear of the Negro, Sands pointed out. The contrast negates the argument that Negroes don't want to vote, he continued.

It is not apathy, but fear, he declared.

On their face, the statutes are not necessarily bad, he said. The requirement of literacy, for example, is not objectionable, he continued, since voters should be able to understand what they are voting for, if it is equally applied. It is not the statute but the application which is being attacked, he indicated.

Problems

In discussing the problems encountered in taking the depositions, Sands cited two primary examples.

"We got cooperation," he said, adding only, "by means of subpoenae duces tecum."

The procedure used, he said, consisted of selecting the worst answers given in the registration examinations and examining the registrar as to whether or not he would accept them. The registrar, as he answered, did not know whether the answer had been given by a white or a Negro or whether he had previously accepted or failed the applicant.

Of 35 answers presented to one registrar, he failed 26, all of whom had been given by white voters. Of the remainder, he passed one written by a Negro whom he had previously disqualified.

In the other example, Sands told of one witness, a Negro woman whose home was bombed in the middle of the night. She called the FBI. The local sheriff responded and arrested her husband for operating a garage without a license. By 2:30 the following afternoon, he was sentenced to six months in jail. As a result, he lost his job.

"The word spreads," Sands said, "of bombings, lost jobs, arrests."

Cross Examination

On cross-examination by the opposition, the woman admitted that she had been coming into the courthouse all her life for licenses and similar reasons, "and had never been treated discourteously." The first time she had trouble was when she came to register to vote, she said.

But, re-direct examination, Sands said, developed that her idea of "courtesy" was "not being nasty."

"Every time she entered the courthouse, she was intimidated," he concluded.

Expressing his own fears during the period he was in Mississippi, Sands told of watching a scaffold being built outside the courthouse, suspicious actions of persons, which appeared to be threats, and a hasty ride to a neighboring town when everyone mysteriously disappeared from the streets and he and his group feared for their lives.

Sands concluded his address with slides, showing living conditions in Mississippi and the conditions under which the civil rights workers live and operate.

Lawyers go to Mississippi

Fourteen lawyers from the Los Angeles area have volunteered to go to Mississippi to furnish legal assistance to the challenge presently being made to the recent election of several of that state's congressional representatives.

The project, sponsored here by the ACLU Lawyer's Division, is in cooperation with the National Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee which has brought proceedings pursuant to Title 2 U.S.C. sections 201-226 contesting elections from which Negroes are alleged to have been regularly and systematically excluded by illegal and unconstitutional registration and election procedures and by intimidation.

The challenges are being made by candidates of the Mississippi Freedom Party, who have served notice that they will proceed to take oral testimony to substantiate the charges.

The volunteer attorneys are needed to assist in the taking of depositions in the forty day period allowed under the statute. This period has already begun.

Attorney Hugh Manus is coordinating the project here.

A source advised on March 11, 1965, that Henry Winston on March 11, 1965, had contacted James West, Chicago, Illinois, and indicated to West that he, Winston, had received a telegram from Detroit, Michigan, advising him that the National Council of Churches had called a conference of protest in Washington, D.C., for the AM of March 12, 1965. Winston advised West that he had learned that a train load of labor leaders and ministers were scheduled to leave Chicago, Illinois, for Washington, D.C., 10:00 AM on March 12, 1965. Winston indicated that the Chicago group upon arrival in Washington, D.C., would attempt to see the President of the United States on the Selma, Alabama, racial situation and other related questions, particularly "that bill" which is supposed to be considered this week end.

Source further advised that Henry Winston inquired of James West whether similar matters were occurring in Chicago and West responded affirmatively, indicating that over 100 ministers, clergy and rabbis and had already departed Chicago, Illinois, for Selma, Alabama, relative to the racial situation there.

According to source Winston indicated his approval and advised West that William Allan, Detroit, Michigan "Worker" correspondent, was scheduled to accompany a group (from Detroit, Michigan) to Washington, D.C., to report for "The Worker."

ENCLOSURE 100-442529-816

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist Newspaper.

Concerning Henry Winston, it is to be noted that a second source advised on March 11, 1965, that Henry Winston is a member of the Communist Party, USA, National Board.

Concerning James West, it is to be noted that a third source advised on March 11, 1965, that James West is Organizational Secretary of the Communist Party of Illinois.

On March 11, 1965, Matthew Ahmann, Director of National Catholic Conference for Interracial Justice, Chicago, Illinois, advised that the National Council of Churches has urged the clergy from around the United States to meet at the Church of Reformation, 212 East Capitol, Washington, D.C., at 10:00 A.M., March 12, 1965, to discuss the Selma racial situation with the hope and expectation of gaining an audience with the President of the United States on the Selma question.

On March 11, 1965, Dr. Edgar H. S. Chandler, Executive Director, Church Federation of Greater Chicago, Ill. and Advisor on Religious Affairs to the United States Information Agency, D.C. advised that he will attend the National Council of Churches, Washington conference as would five or six other members of his church. Dr. Chandler stated that it is his understanding that approximately twelve other church leaders of the various denominations in the Chicago area would also be part of a Chicago delegation to this Washington conference. Chandler also stated that approximately 1,000 ministers from all over the nation were expected to assemble in Washington, D.C., for this conference. Chandler noted that the Chicago group to this conference was scheduled to depart Chicago, Illinois, via plane at 7:00 A.M. on March 12, 1965.

Information developed above concerning the proposed Washington conference was furnished to the following agencies in Chicago, Illinois, on March 11, 1965:

Sergeant Charles Muller, Region 1, 113 INTC Group

ReMMlet 3/16/65, copies to Mobile and Atlanta.

Relet reported the results of the interview conducted with [redacted] of Homestead, Florida, who advised that in 1950, he was convicted in Alabama on a state charge of obtaining money under false pretenses and was sentenced to three years. In 1951 he was released from Kilby Prison, Montgomery, Alabama, with a full pardon. Within a few months after his release, he was visited by one Eddie Mathews, a former inmate of Kilby who had been recently released and believed by [redacted] to be a narcotics addict. During this visit, [redacted] got the impression from statements made by Mathews, specifics not recalled, that Mathews was attempting to recruit [redacted] into the Communist Party (CP). The subjects of communism, Marxism or socialism were not mentioned.

[redacted] and Mathews had another meeting about ten years ago when Mathews invited [redacted] to a meeting concerning theestablishment of some sort of an interracial group. This meeting was held in downtown Montgomery and one of the individuals present was Martin Luther King, Jr. According to [redacted] at no time during this meeting were the subjects of communism, Marxism, socialism or the Soviet Union mentioned. After this meeting was over, Mathews was critical of [redacted] for not showing more interest and Mathews asked [redacted] to join the CP. This was the last meeting between [redacted] and Mathews.

[redacted] claimed that one of the individuals, a female, present at the Montgomery meeting several months later attempted to recruit [redacted] into the CP. He claimed that the woman told him that if he joined she would pay him $5,000. [redacted] refused the offer. Information is contained in relet which partially identified the unknown female.

[redacted] stated that his purpose in now furnishing this information to the FBI was because of the racial problems in Alabama at the present time which may involve some of the individuals who were present at the Montgomery meeting. b7D

On the basis of the information contained in relet the only information identifiable with [redacted] in Bufiles is that pertaining to the National Bankruptcy Act investigation of [redacted] conducted by the Miami Office in 1962, reference to which was made in relet.

The Bureau's Identification Division contains a record concerning one [redacted], FBI Number [redacted] Note that relet contained the spelling of the surname [redacted] whereas the spelling in Bufile [redacted] as well as in the identification record is, with only a single exception, [redacted] Enclosed for the Miami and Mobile Offices is one copy each of the identification record, FBI Number [redacted] A review of this record reveals a number of arrests and convictions and if it were established this record is identical to the individual who furnished the information set out above, considerable question would arise as to the reliability of the source.

On the basis of the very sparse information furnished by Miami concerning Mathews, it is most difficult to make a search of Bureau indices. However, the files of the Identification Division contain a record, FBI Number [redacted] of an individual who may be identical to the Mathews referred to by [redacted] This individual, it is noted, has served time at the Kilby Prison. Enclosed for Miami and Mobile are one copy each of the identification record, FBI Number [redacted] Also enclosed for these two offices is one copy each of a photograph of Mathews taken in 1958.

Because of the relatively small likelihood that the information obtained from [redacted] is true, the Bureau does not desire any extensive investigation to be conducted. It is believed, however, that such limited investigation as outlined below should be made in order to bring this matter to a logical conclusion with a minimum of effort.

Letter to Miami

b7D

Miami should immediately recontact [redacted] and secure from him sufficient identifying data concerning Mathews to enable the Mobile Office to check Mathew's prison record for information which may lead to his present whereabouts. The photograph enclosed should be helpful in establishing whether or not the subject of the FBI Number [redacted] is identical to the individual referred to by [redacted]

After the results of a recontact with [redacted] are obtained, Mobile should determine, if possible, his present whereabouts and have him interviewed in order to pin down the facts in this matter. On the basis of the information contained in relet, identifying the unknown female who allegedly attempted to recruit [redacted] into the CP, Mobile should attempt to fully identify this woman and check its files concerning her.

Fuller identifying data concerning Mathews and the unknown female should be furnished the Bureau for a check of Bureau indices.

Both offices should be alert in its interviewswith [redacted] and Mathews to the possible applicability of Title 18, Section 1001 of the United States Code.

The following observations should be brought to the attention of the Agent who conducted the interview of [redacted] and prepared relet as well as the approving official. This is for their future guidance. It is believed that the interview with [redacted] was incomplete in a very basic factor; namely, information concerning Mathews. Such vital information as race, approximate age and so forth were missing, thus making it most difficult to check Bureau files. Also, relet appears to serve the purpose only of purveying information without regard to any recommended or suggested action. In the future, when obtaining information in similar situations and forwarding same to Bureau and other offices, some positive suggestions and/or recommendations should be made so that any indicated investigation might be conducted without delay and without the necessity for the Bureau prompting same.

SUBJECT: CIRM.

On March 15, 1965, [redacted] b7D and advised SA [redacted] as follows:

On June 2, 1950, [redacted] was convicted in Alabama State Court on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, and was sentenced to three years in prison. On January 11, 1951, he was released from Kilby Prison, Montgomery, Alabama, with a full pardon, and then established residence in Montgomery. [redacted] a white male, born [redacted] Selma, Alabama, had previously spent his entire life in the Selma, Alabama, area.

Within three or four months after his release from Kilby Prison, he was visited by an EDDIE MATHEWS, a former inmate who had recently been released from Kilby Prison, and who is believed by [redacted] to be a narcotics addict. At this time [redacted] lived in the [redacted] in Montgomery. During the conversation with MATHEWS, MATHEWS made statements such as "...never have to work again," and "...going to antagonize to bring us money." [redacted] could not recall the specifics of the conversation, but from these statements, and others not recalled, made by MATHEWS, he had the impression MATHEWS was asking him to join the Communist Party. The subjects of Communism, Marxism or Socialism were not mentioned during the conversations, and when [redacted] showed no interest in the subject matter, the visit was terminated by MATHEWS. MATHEWS again visited at the [redacted] residence shortly thereafter, but only Mrs. [redacted] was home, and MATHEWS did not stay. b7D

[redacted] Approximately [redacted] MATHEWS invited [redacted] whose name is not recalled, and whose office was located [redacted] This doctor was approximately fifty years old at that time.

[redacted] He could not be more specific concerning his impression or any statements made which caused the impression. He said it may have been occurrences after the meeting which, in retrospect, furnished him with this impression.

After the meeting was over, MATHEWS castigated [redacted] for not showing more interest in inter-racial indeavors. MATHEWS then made statements concerning his never having to work again, and asked [redacted] to join the Communist Party. [redacted] said he is positive that his recollection was correct and accurate, and that MATHEWS used the term Communist Party as the organization which he wanted

[redacted] to join. MATHEWS did not go into any other details about the Communist Party, and when [redacted] indicated he was not interested, MATHEWS dropped the subject. This was the last time that [redacted] has seen MATHEWS. At that time, MATHEWS lived near Court Street, in a light grey or white, two-story frame house, and was not known to be employed. b7D

A white woman, name not recalled, about 5' 5" tall, red hair, about 55 years old now, who had been married, but was then divorced or living apart from her husband, resided near the Park Zoo in the Southeast Section of Montgomery, not then employed, but formerly connected with a beauty parlor in Montgomery.

Several months after the aforementioned meeting, this woman was particularly adamant that [redacted] join the Communist Party. [redacted] said the woman told him that if he joined her group, he would never have to work again, and that he could be "one of the local leaders in Communism." [redacted] said this woman discussed the Communist Party, but he can recall no details. He said she finally offered him $5,000.00 to join the Communist Party, but [redacted] said he was not interested in joining. According to [redacted] this woman was related in some manner to a white man, name not recalled, who was the Manager of the largest department store in Montgomery, which was possibly called the Montgomery Fair Store.

This Unsub male was also present at the aforementioned meeting. To the best of [redacted] recollection, this individual lived on Narrow Lane Road.

[redacted]

There were several other Negroes present, about whom [redacted] recalled no information. b7D

[redacted]

[redacted] was thoroughly questioned concerning all information pertaining to allegations of CP membership and activity. He could not offer any additional information to substantiate his statements, and said part of his life and his associates at that time were something he had made a determined effort to forget.

His only explanation as to why MATHEWS and the Unsub woman attempted so hard to recruit him into the Communist Party was that he was a non-drinker, and despite his prison record, a stable and serious minded individual.

[redacted] said his purpose in furnishing the information to the FBI was because of the racial problems in the Selma - Montgomery area, which may involve one or more of the individuals mentioned above.

Miami files reflect that in 1962, [redacted] was the subject of a National Bankruptcy Act case in this office [redacted]. In this case, the Assistant United States Attorney declined prosecution as there was a question of reasonable doubt that [redacted] testified falsely in the bankruptcy proceeding.

[redacted] appeared to interviewing Agent to be a sober and emotionally stable individual; however, his recollection of past events was extremely hazy, and he appeared to rely on impressions rather than on actual facts presented. He was difficult to pin down as to specifics, and blamed his generalities on the passing of time. He reiterated several times that he was only interested in furnishing information so that the Bureau would have knowledge of any possible Communist influence in the Selma - Montgomery, Alabama, racial problems.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

Confidential sources of this Bureau who have furnished reliable information in the past have supplied the following information.

On March 16, 1965, Bayard Rustin and Harry Wachtel discussed President Johnson's speech before Congress on March 15, 1965, concerning civil rights legislation. Wachtel said that the speech covered every part of the "battle front." Both agreed that the speech was the most forthright ever made by the President. They did, however, also agree that "compliments" should wait until they saw what the bill being proposed by the President contained.

Rustin and Wachtel discussed what they should do in light of the President's willingness to "go all out" for the Negro. Wachtel suggested that Rustin seek permission to speak before one of the Congressional committees that will consider the legislation. In this connection Rustin said that the "battle" has shifted from Selma, Alabama, to Washington, D. C., and that they, therefore, need to get a group of senators and representatives to meet with Martin Luther King, Jr. Wachtel indicated that this could be arranged very easily.

Rustin and Wachtel are frequent advisors to King. Rustin is a former member of the Young Communist League, an organization which has been designated as subversive pursuant to Executive Order 10450. In 1949 Wachtel was a member of the National Lawyers Guild, an organization which was described as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities in 1944. In addition, Wachtel's wife, Leonora, was a member of the Communist Party, USA, in 1944.

SECURITY MATTER - C

On March 8, 1965, a source advised (C) (U) the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) conducted a protest demonstration in sympathy with the Civil Rights movement in Selma, Alabama, at the United States Federal Building located at 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

At approximately 2:30 PM, a group of approximately seven persons was observed picketing the Federal Building at 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, and these individuals carried signs which read as follows:

"Peace in America First"
"Marines to Selma, Alabama"
"Why Viet Nam, And Not Selma"

These seven individuals representing SNCC who participated in this demonstration included among them Monroe Sharpe, Nate Jackson, Earless Ross, Carol Redmond, and Ted Pearson. Also observed passing out leaflets to passers-by was Dennis Schreiber. Also observed but not participating in the picket was Pieter Clark.

This SNCC demonstration lasted until approximately 4:00 PM, March 8, 1965, at which time the group departed the area without incident.

The leaflet distributed during this picket reads as follows:

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

"How would you feel if your elderly mother had been savagely beaten with clubs and whips by men on horseback as she knelt to pray? How would your feel if your own child was hospitalized after being strangled with tear gas?

"This happened to 600 people Sunday -here in America. This happened because these people ask for their right as citizens to be allowed to vote. Is Selma, Alabama in the U.S.A.?

"You know the answers to these questions, but Selma is far away. You know this is not justice, but it has not touched you personally.

"Isn't it time you took a clear look at what is happening? The U.S.A. is supposed to be a democracy that is run by the people. YOU are the people. YOU must protest if the government fails to do its job. If you do not, you are clearly saying that you like what is happening in Selma. If YOU do not protest YOU will be to blame for the consequences. 'This nation cannot continue half-slave and half-free.'

"The Marines are now being sent to 'free' Viet Nam. It is questionable if Viet Nam wants them. Here in America nobody is being sent to free Alabama when this is obviously needed. Does this make you proud to be an American?

"What can YOU do to protest? Send a telegram to YOUR President: L.B. Johnson, White House, Washington, D.C. and tell him how YOU feel about Selma.

Concerning Ted Pearson, referred to above, it is to be noted that a second source advised on March 9, 1965, that Ted Pearson is a member of a Communist Party (CP) of Illinois youth group. (U)

Concerning Dennis Schreiber, referred to above, it is to be noted that this second source advised on March 9, 1965, that as of August, 1964, Dennis Schreiber attended a meeting of the Executive Board of the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR). (U)

Attached hereto is a characterization of the CCDBR.

Concerning Pieter Clark, referred to above, it is to be noted that a third source advised on March 9, 1965, that Pieter Clark in 1962 was a member of an unnamed communist group which then existed in the Chicago, Illinois, area and which purported to follow the communist line of the Chinese Communist Party. This same source also advised that between June, 1964, and August, 1964, Pieter Clark was in Cuba where he was part of a student delegation that had traveled to that country under the auspices of the Student Committee for Travel to Cuba (SCTC). Citizens Committee Protest Demonstration
Kingston, New York March 11, 1965
Communist Infiltration Racial Matters
Internal Security-C

On March 11, 1965, Special Agents (SAs) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), observed that a group approximating 65 individuals, gathered at the United States Post Office, Kingston, New York, shortly after 3:00 PM, this date. At approximately 3:40 PM, this group, to which others joined, marched down Broadway, Kingston, New York to the Old Dutch Church, Main and Wall Streets, where they went inside and held a short meeting. The demonstration and march was held to protest police brutality and violence in Alabama. The group dispersed shortly before 5:00 PM.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Bertha Kricker and Julius Sippen were two of the individuals who participated in this march. According to this source, this demonstration was originally scheduled to take the form of a picket line in front of the Post Office but was changed into a march shortly before 3:00 PM.

No unusual incidents occurred and there was no violence. It was estimated that a total of about 100 persons participated in this demonstration.

Regarding Bertha Kricker, a second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 18, 1958, that Ralph Kricker, husband of Bertha, had remarked on August 14, 1958 that he and his wife have been Communists since their college days. This source stated that Bertha Kricker, on August 14, 1958, said that she, with her husband, attended a Communist Party (CP) meeting where the rules were read and she had protested some of the rules. Bertha Kricker was told that if she didn't follow the CP line, she would be expelled from the Party.

RACIAL DEMONSTRATION
UNITED STATES POST OFFICE BUILDING
DENVER, COLORADO
MARCH 12, 1965
RACIAL MATTERS

On March 12, 1965, a source advised that the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) plans to hold a demonstration at the United States Post Office Building commencing at 1:30 p. m. this same date. Source advised he learned this demonstration was to be a "chain-in" demonstration.

On March 12, 1965, at 1:30 p. m., Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed an integrated group of approximately nineteen or twenty male and female individuals who met in front of the Main Branch, United States Post Office, 19th and Stout Streets, Denver, Colorado. This group immediately formed a "chain-in" picket line by having eleven members of the group chain themselves to the pillars on the outside of the Post Office Building, each holding up a letter which, combined, spelled out "FREE ALABAMA." Other individuals present handed out literature which was captioned "CHAIN IN" to demand freedom for Alabama. This leaflet, a copy of which is attached hereto, states demonstration was by the Denver Area Friends of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

During this demonstration all chanted and sang various "freedom-type" songs and chanted statements such as: "J. Edgar must go; Scott Werner must go; George Wallace must go." Werner is Special Agent in Charge of the Denver FBI Office.

The group remained peaceful and remained outside the Post Office Building until approximately 3:00 p. m., at which time they unchained themselves and entered the main lobby of the Post Office Building where they gathered together in a group and sang some more "freedom-type" songs. After approximately ten minutes of this activity, they walked up the stairs to the second floor, outside the courtroom of the Honorable Alfred A. Arraj, United States Federal Judge, who was holding court at the time, and sang a "freedom-type" song outside his courtroom.

At approximately 3:25 p. m., the entire group departed and dispersed by 3:30 p. m.

It was noted that among those present at this demonstration were Howard Wallace and Allen Taplin, both of whom appeared to be leading the demonstration.

The source mentioned above advised both are members of the Denver Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP), with Allen Taplin being the organizer of this Branch. Bill Perdue, also a member of this Branch, participated in the demonstration, along with Harry Nier, whom the source identified as the former Chairman of the Denver Chapter, Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). Also participating in this demonstration were Clifton Whitley, Mamie Whitley, and Jan Phillips, all described by the source as members of the Denver Area Friends of the SNCC.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Documentations of the Denver Branch, SWP and Denver Chapter, FPCC, are attached hereto.

Harold Lee Moore

The following further details and observations of the New York Office are being set forth as of interest to the Bureau concerning the modus operandi and apparent strategy of representatives of the demonstrators to gain access to our space.

Within a few minutes after all of the marchers had been assembled by the police within their allotted area alongside our office building and were being confined within that area by police and wooden barricades, a spokesman for the marchers informed police officers they had a "petition" which they wanted to present to Assistant Director J. F. MALONE. This information was promptly communicated to Mr. MALONE who went immediately to the elevator lobby of our building in order to meet the marchers' representatives and to accept their petition, since it was apparent the delegation wanted to do no more than present the so-called petition to Mr. MALONE. Since we had previously arranged with the police that no more than three of the representatives would be admitted to our office space as a delegation, the police permitted three individuals access to the elevator lobby on the street floor of our building where they met Mr. MALONE. These representatives immediately stated they had three other people, for a total of six, which they desired to be admitted to our building. Mr. MALONE inquired as to the necessity for six people coming in when their only ostensible purpose was to present him with a petition. The spokesman at the time, MARION BARRY, a field representative of SNCC, said to Mr. MALONE that he could not express himself very well and wanted other individuals to assist in conveying his message to the FBI. BARRY'S utterances to this point would convey the obvious impression to anyone that he is, if anything, a very eloquent individual. Two other representatives of the marchers at this point had approached the police immediately outside the doorway, asking to be admitted with the three who were inside, and Mr. MALONE agreed to letting those two come in to accompany the other three in the elevator lobby while they presented him with their petition. When the other two were admitted, one of whom was an extremely heavy Negro male weighing approximately 290 pounds, and the other a white female, both rather shabbily dressed, neither gave any outward appearances of being leaders or eloquent spokesmen for the group. An experienced eye would immediately size them up as troublemakers. The five then asked to be taken upstairs to Mr. MALONE'S office.

One of the original three was Rabbi ABRAHAM HESCHEL of the New York Rabbinical Association, and he asked that the group go upstairs to our offices. Mr. MALONE immediately explained to the Rabbi that certain representatives of the group had obviously deceived him in transmitting their initial request that they merely be permitted to present a petition to Mr. MALONE, and that Mr. MALONE had come to the building lobby to meet them for this purpose and to accommodate them in their request. Mr. MALONE then agreed to the Rabbi's request to go to our offices for a further interview, if such was desired, but Mr. MALONE suggested that the Rabbi be accompanied by only two other individuals, one leader from CORE and one leader from SNCC, since these were the two dominant organizations represented in the marching group. The two last-arrived individuals, the heavyweight Negro male and the woman, protested vigorously atthis exclusion but finally accepted Rabbi HESCHEL'S suggestion that they agree to Mr. MALONE'S suggestion that three would be sufficient to come upstairs. The three who came up, Rabbi HESCHEL, MARION BARRY of SNCC, and GEORGE WILEY of CORE, were interviewed in our office space for approximately forty-five minutes, as set out in the attached letterhead memorandum, and thereafter left with no problem or incident.

It is the observation of the New York Office, based upon the happenings during the above-described period and based upon experiences of similar groups within recent days in the Justice Department building in Washington and in the Federal Court House building in New York City, that the delegation which called on our office very likely wanted to plant certain of their members in our offices in a sit-down demonstration. Had we admitted five or six individuals as they requested, very likely three or more of them would have tried to stage a sit-down in our space. MARION BARRY had to be physically escorted from the office of the United States Attorney in New York City recently in a similar demonstration, and it was apparent that the heavyweight Negro and his female companion who tried to enter our space would serve no other purpose as a member of the delegation. Under the circumstances, it is felt that our decision to admit a very small number of the group to our office space as representatives, no more than two or three, was a wise decision, and this experience will certainly be considered in any future activities of this nature.

Freedom March Sponsored by Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, to Federal Bureau of Investigation, New York Office, March 9, 1965, Racial Matters

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed the following "freedom march" and demonstration held March 9, 1965, sponsored by Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). The marchers assembled simultaneously at two assembly points in Manhattan, at 3:30 p.m. on March 9, 1965, and converged on FBI, New York Office headquarters, 69th Street and 3rd Avenue, New York City, where a picketing demonstration was conducted from 5:00 p.m. until 7:15 p.m.

Handbills distributed widely at both assembly points, namely Bryant Park, mid-Manhattan, and 125th Street, Harlem, announced "we march for the black people of Selma to demand direct federal action now to protect lives of the Negroes of Alabama, and their right to march in peaceful assembly; to demand the immediate arrest of Sheriff Jim Clark of Dallas County, Alabama; to demand the dispatch of federal registrars to enable the Negroes to register to vote without being intimidated.".

The handbills further noted that the march was sponsored by SNCC, 100 5th Avenue, New York City, and supported by Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), 38 Park Row, New York City.

Approximately 80 youths, mostly of college age, formed the contingent which assembled at 125th Street, and 5th Avenue, Harlem. They carried signs showing affiliation with SNCC and CORE. The Harlem group reached the FBI, New York Office at 5:00 p.m. and commenced to picket in an orderly fashion, behind police barricades on the 3rd Avenue side of the FBI headquarters.

A group estimated at 450 to 500 individuals assembled in Bryant Park, 42nd Street and 5th Avenue, New York City. At that point placards were distributed reading "1865 to 1965, too long, vote now", "a crime to vote in land of the free", "we protest police brutality in Selma".

Other participating organizations in the march besides SNCC and CORE were "Catholic Worker", Rabbinical Assembly and W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA).

The Bryant Park contingent left that area at 4:10 p.m. and marched in double column north on 5th Avenue to 69th Street, and then east to FBI headquarters. This column of approximately 500 marchers reached the New York Office at 5:30 p.m. and there joined the picketing demonstration already underway by the Harlem group. The number of demonstrators at FBI headquarters, New York City, swelled to approximately 600.

Communist Influence in Racial Matters

Freedom March Sponsored by Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, to Federal Bureau of Investigation, New York Office March 9, 1965

At about 6:00 p.m. a delegation of the marchers approached the entrance of the FBI, New York Office, 201 East 69th Street, and made it known that they had a document they wished to present Assistant Director John F. Malone. Assistant Director Malone met these people in the lobby of the New York Office for the purpose of receiving whatever they had to offer. At this time, Rabbi Abraham Heschel indicated a desire to speak with Mr. Malone in his office, and Mr Malone agreed to speak with him and one representative from SNCC and one from CORE.

In addition to Rabbi Heschel, who is a member of Rabbinical Assembly, 3080 Broadway, New York City, George Wiley of CORE, 38 Park Row, New York City, and Marion Barry of SNCC, 100 5th Avenue, New York City, accompanied Mr. Malone to his office. This delegation explained the purpose of the demonstration which was primarily to request, through Mr. Malone, to have the Federal Government intervene in anyway possible to assure the civil rights of the Negroes in Alabama.

Mr. Malone explained to them the jurisdiction and responsibility of the FBI. At this point the delegation presented to him two documents. The first document was statement by the Rabbinical Assembly on the occasion of the New York march to the office of the FBI in which it was stated that the brutal and inhuman attack on peaceful Negro marchers in Selma, Alabama, violates every religious and democratic tenet of our civilization and cannot go unanswered. It was also stated that the Rabbinical Assembly was taking part in the demonstration to lend their voices to the demand that the Federal Government take all measures at once to safeguard the constitutionally guaranteed rights of all citizens to asemble peacefully in order to state their grievances. In the statement, the Assembly called upon the FBI to take a direct hand in bringing the perpetrators of the attack on innocent men and women to justice and called upon the Government to protect the rights of all its citizens.

The second document was in the form of a letter on the stationery of SNCC to the FBI, New York, attention Mr. Malone, dated March 9, 1965. In this letter, it was pointed out that SNCC knew that the FBI was "conducting an investigation" of police brutality in Selma in connection with the halting of a march to protest denial of the vote. SNCC, indicating that it has worked in Selma since the fall of 1962, stated that they had repeatedly been outraged by the failure of federal agents to take action under Section 3052, Title 18, of the United States Administrative Code as amended in 1951, which gives the FBI the same powers as United States Marshals to arrest on the spot those who are depriving others of their civil rights. Continuing, SNCC in its letter urged the FBI to arrest Sheriff James Clark of Dallas County, Alabama, whom they described as the prime instigator of violence in Selma.

At 6:45 p.m. this delegation departed from the New York Office. Along the line of march and during the demonstration in front of the FBI headquarters, the marchers sang freedom songs and chanted slogans

"freedom now", "let's go", and "out of Saigon, into Selma". The picketing demonstration at New York Office headquarters terminated at 7:15 p.m. Approximately 100 New York City police, with the use of barricades, effectively controlled the marchers during the demonstration.

Detective Barnathan, Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, advised that no arrests were made and no incidents of violence were reported.

MALONE, TO HAVE THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT INTERVENE IN ANYWAY POSSIBLE TO ASSURE THE CIVIL RIGHTS OF THE NEGROES IN ALABAMA.

MR. MALONE EXPLAINED TO THEM THE JURISDICTION AND RESPONSIBILITY OF THE FBI. AT THIS POINT THE DELEGATION PRESENTED TO HIM TWO DOCUMENTS. THE FIRST DOCUMENT WAS STATEMENT BY THE RABBINICAL ASSEMBLY ON THE OCCASION OF THE NEW YORK MARCH TO THE OFFICE OF THE FBI IN WHICH IT WAS STATED THAT THE BRUTAL AND INHUMAN ATTACK ON PEACEFUL NEGRO

MARCHERS IN SELMA, ALABAMA, VIOLATES EVERY RELIGIOUS AND DEMOCRATIC TENET OF OUR CIVILIZATION AND CANNOT GO UNANSWERED. IT WAS ALSO STATED THAT THE RABBINICAL ASSEMBLY WAS TAKING PART IN TODAY-S DEMONSTRATION TO LEND THEIR VOICES TO THE DEMAND THAT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TAKE ALL MEASURES AT ONCE TO SAFEGUARD THE CONSTITUTIONALLY GUARANTEED RIGHTS OF ALL CITIZENS TO ASSEMBLE PEACEFULLY IN ORDER TO STATE THEIR GRIEVANCES. IN THE STATEMENT, THE ASSEMBLY CALLED UPON THE FBI TO TAKE A DIRECT HAND IN BRINGING THE PERPETRATORS OF THE ATTACK ON INNOCENT MEN AND WOMEN TO JUSTICE AND CALLED UPON THE GOVERNMENT TO PROTECT THE RIGHTS OF ALL ITS CITIZENS.

THE SECOND DOCUMENT WAS IN THE FORM OF A LETTER ON THE STATIONERY OF THE SNCC TO THE FBI, NY, ATTENTION OF MR. MALONE, DATED MARCH NINE SIXTY FIVE. IN THIS LETTER, IT WAS POINTED OUT THAT SNCC KNEW THAT THE FBI WAS "CONDUCTING AN INVESTIGATION" OF POLICE BRUTALITY IN SELMA IN CONNECTION WITH THE HALTING OF A MARCH TO PROTEST DENIAL OF THE VOTE. PICKETING DEMONSTRATIONS, ATLANTA, GEORGIA, MARCH 8 AND 9, 1965, OUT OF SYMPATHY TO SELMA, ALABAMA, ALLEGED ACTS OF BRUTALITY

On March 8, 1965, Lieutenant MAURICE REDDING, Atlanta Police Department, advised that he had received information from one HERMAN PIERRA to the effect that the Committee of Appeals on Human Rights (COAHR), had on the campus of the Atlanta University, Morehouse College, Clark College, and Spelman College been organizing a protest picketing demonstration. According to Lieutenant REDDING, PIERRA estimated approximately 100 picketers would appear at the Old U. S. Post Office Building which also houses the United States Attorney's Office as well as the United States District Court Offices and would demonstrate that date from approximately 10:30 A. M. until about 5:30 P. M.

The March 8, 1965, issue of "The Atlanta Journal", a daily Atlanta newspaper, an article appeared reflecting approximately 30 negro and white students from the Atlanta University area silently picketed the Federal Court House in Atlanta, Georgia, on Monday, and their picket protested alleged police brutality in Selma, Alabama. According to the article, the protesters were hastily organized on the evening of March 7, 1965, by COAHR, which organization is headed up by one ROBERT TERRELL. TERRELL was quoted in the article as stating that the picket was a part of a general protest originating in the Selma, Alabama Office of the Student Non-violent Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC). TERRELL advised that SNCC had set out an appeal for simultaneous protests to occur in various cities in the United States.

The article further advised according to Mr. TERRELL the United States Court House was the target for this picketing demonstration as it contains the Office of the United States District Attorney, the man who prosecutes criminal cases for the Federal Government.

PICKETING DEMONSTRATIONS, ATLANTA, GEORGIA,
MARCH 8 AND 9, 1965

In the March 9, 1965 issue of "The Atlanta Constitution," a daily Atlanta newspaper, appeared an article reflecting that approximately 35 white and Negro youths picketed the Old Post Office Building on March 8, 1965. According to the article, the group presented United States Attorney CHARLES GOODSON with a copy of a letter originally forwarded to the United States Attorney General NICHOLAS KATZENBACH, which letter protested Dallas County, Alabama Sheriff JAMES CLARK'S roll in Sunday's racial strife in Selma, Alabama. The article quoted United States Attorney stating the group who met with him assured him they were not complaining about being deprived of any rights in the Northern District of Georgia but that their complaint was entirely relating to Alabama. Mr. GOODSON was quoted further stating this group desired Federal intervention in Selma. Physical observation by representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on March 8, 1965, reflected that a picket protest demonstration was carried on by varying numbers of white and Negro youths, who appear generally to be of college age who were carrying numerous signs; some of which read as follows:

"JIM CLARK must go"
"Stop JIM CLARK"
"Stop brutality"
"Stop the reign of terror in Selma"
"Stop CLARK - and brutality"
"It is you obligation to act now in Selma"
"Bring troops to Selma"

From 10:30 A. M. on March 8, 1965, until approximately 5:30 P. M., same date, the number of picketers participating varied from 30 to 49 individuals. They were observed to walk in an orderly fashion on the curb side of the sidewalk at approximately five or six foot intervals on Walton Street, Forsyth and Poplar Street in Atlanta, Georgia, which streets bound the United States Post Office Building. No incidents or unusual disturbances were observed to occur.

On March 8, 1965, Lieutenant M. REDDING of the Atlanta Police Department advised that the picketing demonstrations at the Post Office Building were uneventful, that there were no incidents of violence reported and that the picketers complied with local ordinances relating to picketing demonstrations.

PICKETING DEMONSTRATIONS, ATLANTA, GEORGIA
MARCH 8 AND 9, 1965

Representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed that from approximately 3:00 P. M. until 3:45 P. M. on March 8, 1965, one Mr. HERBERT SHAPIRO, a faculty member at Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, appeared and participated in the picketing demonstration.

Atlanta confidential source 1 on March 3, 1961, advised that he considered HERMAN SHAPIRO to be a Communist Party member in Rochester, New York, based upon current Communist Party discussions and attendance at Communist Party meetings during 1960 and 1961. He advised that on July 11, 1960, that SHAPIRO and his wife had contributed money to the Communist Party in Rochester, New York, for dues and Communist Party literature. (U)

On March 9, 1965, representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed a picket demonstration occurring around the Federal Post Office Building, which demonstration took place from approximately 1:00 P. M. until 5:30 P. M. that date. Again it was noted there were approximately 30 to 35 demonstrators, many of whom were the same individuals who had appeared the previous day and generally speaking, the same picketing signs were carried. It was observed that one LAWRENCE ERIC GOLDMAN, who did not appear on the picket line was actively engaged in running the pickets. GOLDMAN was making arrangements for transportation of the demonstrators back to the campus and assigned those participating in the demonstration to the various lines as well as giving them signs to carry.

RUSSIA

Atlanta confidential source 2 in May, 1962, advised that a functionary of the Communist Party, USA, recommended LAWRENCE ERIC GOLDMAN as one of the group of fine youths who leaned toward a left, progressive or socialist outlook. Source stated that GOLDMAN may attend the Eighth World Youth Festival in Helsinki, Finland, during July and August, 1962, and afterwards, tour the Soviet Union. (U)

PICKETING DEMONSTRATIONS, ATLANTA, GEORGIA
MARCH 8 AND 9, 1965

Atlanta confidential source 3 in September, 1962, advised that LAWRENCE GOLDMAN, also known as NICKY, departed New York City on July 25, 1962, en route to the Eighth World Youth Festival in Helsinke, Finland, and subsequently attended the festival and participated in part of a tour which was to visit the U.S.S.R. and the German Democratic Republic (East German).

The Eighth World Youth Festival is characterized in the Appendix attached hereto.

It was further observed on March 9, 1965, that Professor HARRY C. STIENMETZ, Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, was observed in the vicinity of the picketing demonstration on several occasions driving his car full of students to participate in the picketing demonstration.

On December 22, 1952, ANNIE KINNEY advised that HARRY STIENMETZ was a member of the Communist Party, San Diego, California, during the period of 1933 through 1945. She identified STIENMETZ as being from San Diego, California, and as having attended a Communist Section Meeting comprised of various locals of the American Federation of Teachers Union, Palo Alto, California.

The American Federation of Teachers was designated by the California Committee on Un-American Activities, Page 115 of the 1943 Report, to be a committee front organization for the Teachers of America. The June 20, 1954 edition of the "San Diego Evening Tribune" contained an article reflecting that the Third District Court of Appeals had on that date unanimously upheld the Constitutionality of the discharge of STIENMETZ from San Diego State College. According to the article, he was dismissed for refusing to say if he was or had been a Communist.

On March 9, 1965, no incidents or disturbances were observed to occur during the picketing demonstration.

PICKETING DEMONSTRATIONS, ATLANTA, GEORGIA
MARCH 8 and 9, 1965

During the picketing demonstration of March 9, 1965, memeographed leaflets were distributed to passers-by which leaflet explained the purpose of the demonstration as being in reponse to the brutal treatment of the people in Selma, Alabama, who had attempted to conduct a peaceful demonstration from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama, on March 7, 1965. The leaflet pointed out that these incidents were further evidence of brutality inflicted upon Negroes by Sheriff CLARK, and as a further indication that he is unfit to hold public office.

On March 9, 1965, United States Attorney CHARLES GOODSON advised that a delegation of four or five individuals had contacted him on March 8, 1965, and included in this delegation was ROBERT TERRELL, Executive Secretary on the Committee of Appeals for Human Rights. Mr. GOODSON stated their entire complaint related to incidents in the Selma, Alabama area and that he had proceeded to point out to this delegation that his jurisdiction was limited solely to the Northern Federal Judicial District of Georgia. Mr. GOODSON advised the delegation was courteous, did not in any way disrupt office routine or various other Court functions and at the conclusion of the audience departed from the Federal Post Office Building without incident.

Mr. ROBERT SCHEFFLER of the 111th Intelligence Corps, Third Army Headquarters, Ft. McPherson, Georgia, Mr. A. B. WENTZ, Secret Service, Mr. LEONARD HERNDON, Chief Deputy United States Marshal, and Lieutenant MAURICE REDDING of the Atlanta Police Department, were all advised of the proposed picketing demonstrations at the United States Court House Building.

STATION WDTM-FM
DATE 2/28/65
PROGRAM FORUM
TIME 10:15p

TOPIS: ALLAN STONE interviews RUSS NIXON, editor of the National Guardian, and HERBERT APTHEKER.

STONE: Good evening, this is ALLAN STONE. Welcome to FORUM. On tonights program we're going to have two pre-recorded interviews, the first with RUSS NIXON. MR. NIXON is the General Manager of the newspaper The National Guardian and he comes up for trial on the 18th of March for contempt of Congress for failure to testify at a House Un-American Activities Committee private hearing, or closed hearing, and we'll let the interview speak for itself. The second interview on tonights program will be with the eminant historian and Marxist scholar, DR. HERBERT APTAKER(sic) (APTHEKER). DR APTAKER was in Detroit recently, speaking and concluded a national tour on Negro History.

At the WDTM microphone today is RUSS NIXON, who is the General Manager of the National Guardian newspaper, a news weekly which has been described by some people as left-wing and by it's own staff as progressive. Welcome to WDTM RUSS NIXON.

NIXON: Thank you very much, I'm glad to be here.

STONE: Ahh, as some of our audience knows, MR NIXON is in a position of being accused of being in contempt of Congress because of a refusal to testify in private, I believe, along with two other people, about his activities concerning the trip of Professor (KAORU) YASUI of the Japanese Peace Movement. Now that's very brief and perhaps inacurate, let me ask RUSS NIXON to describe just what happened.

NIXON: Well it's brief but it's not inacurate, maybe some of your listeners will recall in November, 1963 Professor YASUI, who is the head of the Japanese Peace Movement and Dean of the Law School at Hosei University, came to the United States and he came to Detroit. It was a tragic day, we were hear on the day that President KENNEDY was assasinated. We had meetings here, a meeting at Wayne State University, and this was part of a national tour. It is stemming from this visit and the efforts that were necessary to have him permitted to make this visit that we now find ourselves charged with contempt of Congress. We go on trial on March 18th, in Washington D.C., and we could be subjected to a year jail sentence and $1,000 fine.

I think it's important that I tell you what I mean when I say "we". There are three of us involved, one is MRS. DAGMAR WILSON, who is famed throughout the world as the founder of the Women Strike for Peace.

NIXON: (re WILSON) She's an artist, a designer, and known as probably the leadingfigure in the American Peace Movement. The second collegue of mine in trouble, as it were, is a woman, MRS. DONNA ALLEN who is one of the leaders of the Women Strike for Peace and who is the Legislative Chairman of the Womens International League for Peace and Freedom, she's an economist she has just published a book on fringe benefits, it's being printed and published by Cornell University. They're the three of us who are involved.

Now to make the story very quick, Professor YASUI was blocked from coming here, and getting his visa be the standard provisions of the existing Immigration legislation, the WALTER-MC CARRAN Act, which was passed at the height of the MC CARTHY period in 1952. And since he is blocked, we were told by the government he visited China, he visited the Soviet Union and was engaged in certain peace activity. It became necessary to, in a formal way, to ask the State Department to waive this blockade and permit him to come. Well when we were informed of this, on one visit MRS. ALLEN went with me to the State Department and on another visit MRS. WILSON went with me. They were interested because their groups and their members were attending his speeches and they wanted to hear him. Subsequently, we convinced the government that it was, in their own terms, quotation "in the public interest" for Professor YASUI to come here and they waived the opposition to his coming and he made a successful trip.

STONE: Now this is a perfectly legal maneuver on your part, any citizen can go, if this is an administrative ruling, and ask that it be changed?

NIXON: Yes. Well, it's not only legal, it's the only way that you can proceed, as a matter of fact, this is what we were told we would have to do by the State Department. Ahh, now we come to the next chapter. The House Un-American Activities Committee, which as many of my listeners will know, is a committee of Congress that has been, for a long time, investigating people who they don't like, who they say, are left-wing, who have ideas that they say are un*American, and an increasing number of people are saying that this is un-American in itself, to try and investigate the ideas of people. This committee subpoenaed us to come to Washington to a secret hearing and what they told us they wanted to inquire about was our effort in having gone before the State Department to achieve the visa for Professor YASUI.

STONE: Ahh, MR. NIXON, you said a secret hearing, now was this the wording in the subpoena or did they put it in a different way? Now as I recall they term their private hearings executive sessions, is that true?

NIXON: Yes Sir.

STONE: Now was this the way the subpoena read, or were you under the understanding that when you got to Washington that this was just a hearing.

NIXON: Well actually, the subpoena did not say anything about what type of a hearing it was, but we were given to understand, verbally, before we went there that it was to be an executive session. Now that means the doors are locked, that there's no public transcript, the press is not present, the public is not present, and nothing can be revealed publically about the hearing.

STONE: Is this information, however, available to members of Congress on request? For instance, a Congressman, not on the committee, wanted to get the transcript of a hearing of an executive session of another committee of Congress, could he demand this, or just ask for it?

NIXON: Yes, your suggestion is that it is only partially secret, it's secret in a rather biased fashion and you're quite right. In addition to that the committee itself can, by a vote of the majority, which would be five people, release the full transcript anytime they wished, a partial transcript, or summaries. Ahh, for these reasons and many others we felt that we didn't want to say whatever we had to say on this behind closed doors and we thought that this was a rather star-chamber, sneak play which deserved public exposure, and so we insisted that we would not proceed with this until we were able to do it in public and they refused this and subsequently, and very quickly they said well since you refused you're in contempt of Congress and we've now been indicted, fingerprinted and we go on trial on March 18th.

STONE: Now there's something ~~different~~ about this contempt citation that's a little different than the usual, it was not voted on by Congress, was it?

NIXON: I can see you've done your homework, you're quite well aquanted with this. That is a special feature in this case, in ordinary cases the entire membership of the House of Representatives, 435 members, debates and votes on a contempt citation. In this instance, Congress was not in session so they did not vote and the Speaker of the House of Representatives interpreted his position merely as a messanger boy to transmit the contempt action of the committee, without any further consideration to the Justice Department. Many Congressmen are disturbed about this because this means 5 members of Congress could commit the entire United States Congress to an effort to put a citizen in jail on a controversial issue of this sort before a comm[illegible]

NIXON: Several Congressmen, Congressman BURTON of San Francisco, Congressman RYAN of New York, and others, have put bills into the hopper in Washington that would change these rules. So this action by four-five men could not be repeated and so that it would be necessary in the future for the entire house to act on any such question.

STONE: I noticed that one of the bills, al least, was attempted to be made retroactive which would make null and void the contempt ahh -

NIXON: Yes sir, quite right, these bills would be retroactive to the day that Congress recessed in 1964 and that would quash these contempt citations.

STONE: Is this an unprecedented step by the ahh, ahh, Congress or has there been some sort of an attempt before to work on these things the way it was done without being, going through the regular procedure.

NIXON: No, this is quite unprecedented, Congress has usually acted on these matters. Also unprecedented, I think is the challenge we're making to their right to force private citizens into secret hearings against their own will. I should tell you that we're going to fundamentally test the entire operation of the committee, in other words we're going to say in our trial, and if we have to go the the Appeals Court, to the Appeals Court and to the Supreme Court, we're going to say that it is unconstitutional to have a committee investigating and considering legislation that would violate the First Amendment by imposing restrictions on the right of speech, free press, free assembly, free petition. We're going to make a fundamental challenge to the committee.

STONE: What would happen, let me project a bit, what would happen, for instance, oftentimes there are some people who request private hearings and would be willing to testify just theopposite of you, now what happens if the committee fells that the information that they are requesting from someone is not in the public interest to reveal at that time because they are planing legislation or planing material or perhaps even hoping to turn over material to the appropriate police officials for further arrests?

NIXON: Well that in a way is what is going to be tested here, it's a challenge and a controversy between this kind of contention by the committee and the right of a private citizen to be protected in certain ways against a committee of this sort. I can tell you that it was clearly established in the discussions which we had and the record that we now have of those discussions that there was no national security information involved.

STONE: Well they did ask you some questions and I got the impressions that there was a different type of response from the three people, MRS. ALLEN, MRS. WILSON and yourself, what did you say or not say before the committee.

NIXON: There's really no difference between the three cases and that's reflected in the fact that now all three cases have been consolidated, our trial will be a common trial and our defense will be a common defense. The differences are very minor. I refused to even take the oath. MRS. WILSON and MRS. ALLEN took the oath and then refused to answer any questions whatsoever. The question that was asked of MRS. WILSON, which she refused to answer was simply that they had had testimony in these previous secret hearings to the effect that she had gone with me on a certain date in November, 1963 to the State Department on behalf of Professor YASUI's visa. That's the only substantive question that was asked.

STONE: Ahh, and you said, did you give the committee assurances that you were willing to testify in public as to this particular issue.

NIXON: Well there should be no misunderstanding about that, we did not, and I certainly did not say that I would answer any and all questions that they might want to ask, I would have considered, I can tell you, their questions as they came/ But what we said was that we would take the oath and we would proceed with the hearings and testify, as we considered their questions in public. This was all that was involved, we just would not proceed.

STONE: Ahh, I see. Well now ahh, lets sum up the thing, now you went to the State Department on behalf of your newspaper along with two people who are prominent in the American Peace Movement simply to change an administrative ruling of the State Department as to the acceptability of Professor YASUI of the peace movement of Japan to make a tour of the United States for the National Guardian, is that correct?

NIXON: That's correct. I do think it's important for people to understand the general value and meaning of this issue. I just noticed that yesterday the Michigan Democratic Party in it's state convention in Grand Rapids voted to support the abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee, other state Democratic Parties have done so. And former President Truman, you know called this, just recently, he said the House Un-American Activities Committee is the most un-American thing in America.

NIXON: That is our position and we're determined to wage this fight in such a way that it will not only protect the three of us but all citizens from the attack of this kind of smearing, witch-hunting and basically un-American inquiry. Because what we need here is [redacted] freedom of descent, freedom of speech political freedom that's not subject to this kind of intimidation.

STONE: Today we've been talking with RUSS NIXON, who is the General Manager of the newspaper, the weekly newspaper, The National Guardian published in New York, who is to go on trial March 18th along with MRS. DAGMAR WILSON and MRS. [redacted] what is her first -

NIXON: DONNA ALLEN. Her husband is a professor at Michigan State University, incidentally.

STONE: - ahh who are also accused of being in comtempt of Congress for not being willing to testify in private, or an executive session before the House Un-American Activities Committee. We want to thank RUSS NIXON for coming to WDTM today.

NIXON: Thank you very much.

STONE: Today we are talking to DR. HERBERT APTHEKER, the Director of the American Institute of Marxist Studies and the Literary Executor of the estate of W. E. B. DUBOIS, at least the literary part of it. W.E.B. DUBOIS is one of ~~xhx~~ America's scholars on the Negro History and the Negro question and today we'll talk with DR. APTHEKER about W.E.B. DUBOIS and the history of the Negro people, especially that in the United States, and perhaps talk about the civil rights movement and its affect and where its going and what is the role of history and scholarship in this movement. Welcome to WDTM.

HERB: It's a great pleasure to be here.

STONE: What does it mean exactly the Literary Executor, what does this charge you with, Sir?

HERB: DR. DUBOIS had an enormous collection of papers and letters, I estimate perhaps as much as 250,000 altogether. When he left the United States for Africa he directed that all these papers and letters be put into my custody. I am charged now that he has died with preparing these for publication in a life and letters of the great doctor.

STONE: Could you tell us, give us a thumbnail sketch for the audience as to who W.E.B. DUBOIS was and his importance in American letters?

HERB: I'd like nothing better. The only problem in answering your question is the thumbnail. DR. DUBOIS is one of the great titans of world history. He was born to ALFRED and MARY BURKHART(phn) DUBOIS, a rather poor Negro couple, scratched out a living in farming in Great Barrington, Massachusetts, in February, 1868. He died in Accra, the capital of Ghanna in West Africa in August 1963. The day before the great civil rights demonstration in Washington. DUBOIS was the founder of the modern Negro liberation movement in the United States. He was the founder of the present African Liberation Movement, and to be the acknowledged inspirer of two such world shaking epochs indicates that we are dealing here with a man of the stature of LINCOLN or LENIN. He also was a fantastic scholar, he was a poet, he wrote plays, some of them produced in Hollywood Bowl. He wrote two novels in his early life, he did another, a trilogy, when he was in his 80's, called BLACK FLAME. He began his teaching career as a professor of Greek and Latin, he was fluent of German and French wrote in both languages and lectured in both languages. He produced Harvard Historical Studies Number one in 1896. That was his PhD dessertation, he's the first Negro to receive a PhD at Harvard. He really pioneered in a half a dozen fields of scholorship too.

HERB: He produced the first book in what is today called Urban Sociology, the book is called The Philadelphia Negro and it was written while he was the University of Pennsylvannia, published in 1899. He wrote al east two classics that it seems clear will live forever one was first published in 1903, the great and lyrical souls of black folk, which went into 28 editions be the original publisher and is now ahappily available in a 50¢ paperback. And probably his magdum opus, certainly in the field of history, his great black reconstruction first published in 1935 and now also available in a somewhat more expensive paperback. The Souls of Black Folk is magnificent writing, some of the essays are so beautiful it is impossible not to weep, such as On the Passing of the First Born. The historic point of Souls of Black FolE is that it threw down the gaunTlet of Negro protest in the beginning of the 20th Century and specifically contested the leadership and the ideas of MR. BOOKER T. WASHINGTON. The great point of Black Reconstruction, published as I said in 1935, is that it challenged successfully as it has turned out, the racist, white supremist school of American historiography which up to that point was quite dominant, particularly challenging it in the very sensitive areas of the Civil War and the reconstruction periods.

STONE: Ahh, may I interrupt and ask you did not DR DUBOIS have something to do with the early history of the NAACP?

HERB: Oh yes, as I said he was the founder of the modern Negro liberation movement and DUBOIS was decisive in the founding of the NAACP. Historically thw two individuals most important were probably WILLIAM ENGLISH WALLING, a white man and a Socialist, and DR. DUBOIS, who by the way at that time was also a memebr of the Socialist Party. DUBOIS had founded in 1905 a militant civil rights all-Negro movement called the Niagra movement and that entire organization, it's whole membership, joined at his urging, the NAACP when it was first concieved in 1909 and incorporated in 1910, and he was a member of the Executive Board in the beginning.

STONE: He was also editor of their ahh, their ahh magazine, wasn't that true?

HERB: Yes. He was the founder and the editor of the Crisis from 1910 through 1934.

STONE: What about his relationship with the American Civil Liberties Union, was he also not instrumental and being prominent in that organization?

HERB: Yes he was very active in the ACLU.

HERB: He always continued his active interests in civil liberties and he himself was frequently victimized,he was once actually arrested by the United States Government, indicted, fingerprinted, mugged and tried when he was past eighty, and of course aquitted. He was charged with being a foreign agent, which is about like charging ABRAHAM LINCOLN with the same crime.

STONE: This bring me to the next point in that obviously here's a man of stature, even if one were simply to go to the library, any modern library, and look at the list of books and when they were published and the titles and so forht, would give you an idea of his stature, when then is he so little known and noted in the general American press and specifically by fellow Negros

HERB: Well there are two reasons why he has been underplayed, which would not apply to the minimization among Negroes, although its part of it. The first reason is that he was a black man, a black man in America is, as DUBOIS said himself, beyond the veil, or as WRIGHT said he's in an iron cage. TED WARD said he was in a big white fog. Whatever the image the point is that he is, as it is said, in his place and his place is forgotten he is not himself supposed to be active or creative, he's supposed to be manipulated and docile and passive, etc. Well this means that he is to be forgotten. So in general the Negro has been omitted in terms of any active position in the American social order or American history. This is less true now for obvious reason but it's still true generally, that's one thing. The other is that DUBOIS was not only a black man he was a black poet, a black genius and a militant anti-colonialist, anti-imperialist, anti-racist, Socialist, and late in his life, Communist.

STONE: Could this be part of the reason for his being underplayed in American letters and the American press the fact that late in his life and what seemed to be the journey towards the end of his life more and more to the position of the Communists or the American Marxists.

HERB: Oh there's no doubt that his general left oriantation induced and intensified the boycotting of him and the hounding of him as I said he was actually arrested. He was barred, he was treated like PAUL ROBESON for essentially similar reasons, maybe a little worse than ROBESON, I don't think MR. ROBESON was ever actually arrested, he was just exiled. So yes that is a fundamental thing, although they could not really quiet the man he ran for Unites States Senator when he was past eighty and got 250,000 votes, which is not very bad for a man who doesn't exist. And even the New York Times as late as 1948 when it wanted an expert summary of where the Negro was, turned to DUBOIS, he did a feature for the Times magazine as late as 1948.

STONE: One other thing that I'd like to ask in terms of the fact that DUBOIS is not known generally and that is what is being dome to bring to light the genuine history of Negroes in the United States, their culture, their capabilities and their history, what, I know that you 're involved in this and could you give us a brief summary of the picture as far as the growing enlightenment to Negroes themselves of their own past history and to the American public in general?

HERB: Again the problem in this question is the necessity of brevity but let me sayx what I can within our limits, first while there is now a great excitment about Negro history its kind of been discovered since the Negro movement is so vast that even the New York Times can no longer hide it, and its almost become lucrative now so that makes it a real American enterprise. Neverthe less its very important to bear in mind that Negroes in the first place have paid great attention to their history and there were many Negro historians before the Civil War and during the Civl War, people like GEORGE WASHINGTON WILLIAMS and ~~JOSEPH~~ JOSEPH T. WILSON, FREDERICK DOUGLAS, himself. Now the two great pioneers in this effort were aboveall CARTER G, WOODSON. The late DR. WOODSON, a Negro scholar, who lived most of his life in Washington, founded Negro History Week in 1926. He founded the association for the study of Negro life and history whichnis still very much in existance, he founded a learned journal, called the Journal of Negro History, which has been published quarterly ever since 1915. DR. WOODSON was a very outspoken man and he founded the association and Negro History Week as partof the liberationeffort. The second giant in this field, as I've already said, is DU BOIS who got his PhD in history at Harvard, and well he wrote about 18 or 20 books in various fields, most of them were in history. There were many other distinguished Negro scholars in history like RAFORD(phn) LOGAN, CHARLES WESLEY, ALRUTHEOUS A. TAYLOR, who's no longer living, he used to be a FISK, and younger men of great competence such as LORENZO GREEN, BENJAMIN QUARRELS and JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN and others. These are all Negro people and they naturally pioneered in this effort and they ~~xxx~~ carry much of the load. There have also been white ~~x~~people who have participated, this was true even before the Civil War too, some of the white abolitionist were interested in Negro history a man like JOSUAH COFFIN, for example.

STONE: May I ask since we're running short of time, what your view is as to the practicality of getting this kind of information in to the general school curiculum, in the grade school and the high school where not only Negroes can learn their own history as part of the American history as they are part of America, but the general public, the school public itself can learn thi do you have any suggestions?

HERB: I would say that in answer to this that it seems obvious to me that if we are to have integrated education we must have integrated text books. It impossible to think of education cleansed of racism being conducted with textbooks which exude racism either by omission or by commission. I myself, I am an optomist, if I weren't I would have long since changed my mode of living. Things have been accomplished in the past 25 years in this whole area of Negro history, they are being accomplishe now. Whatis needed is pressure, agitation, demonstration, a most effective form, organized. And I would emphasize the power of mothers, of women who see what their children are being fed, Negro and white women. The children are being fed racism. The mothers are very concerned as to what their children eat or do not eat but sometimes there isn't the same concern or expression of concern as to what the youngsters are taught and not taught in school. If church groups and ladies auxilaries and PTA, plus the existing civil rights organizations really exert pressure, really inquire carefully into the contents of the instruction textbooks considerable advances can be made. I repeat, however, that the effort to clean the curriculum is part of the whole effort structurally and substantively to produce an egalitarian rather than a race supremist education.

STONE: Then you would say the mothers, the poeple who can express their direct concerns on the school systems must be to focal point of the effort to change the general school picture to get this information about Negro history and its relationship to general American history into the classroom, or at least present it to the students for their acceptance.

HERB: They must, I think, be the spearhead of the agitation of the activity. This does not mean that the rest of us must not be active and I would here suggest myself that scholars and teachers, historians and writers, it behoves them to interest themselves in this and to activate themselves just from the viewpoint of truth to which presumeably scholars are dedicated.

STONE: Well DR. APTHEKER I thank you very much for joining us here on WDTM and I would like to just indicate that your position is Director of the organization you call AIMS, which is the American Institute of Marxist Studies, and to tell ouraudience that you are on tour now, I believe, of lecturing about the history and the culture the Negro people and that you are the Literary Executor of the W.E.B. DUBOIS, who, as we have discussed is one of the outstanding Negro historians and scholars We want to thank you so much for visiting us, we could do a whole series of programs with you if there were time and perhaps sometime in the future a true dialouge between all points of view will becomes once more possible.

STONE: As of now you're speaking in the Mid-West area. Where do you speak next in this area, where would people be able to hear you, let's say after you leave Detroit?

HERB: Well after I leave Detroit Imafraid that's about it, this is a termination of a lecture, although I will be lecturing at Queens University in Kingston, Canada, but actually after that I will be going home, that is to New York.

STONE: And your books are available, could you give us the titles of one or two of them so that people might like to follow up.

HERB: Oh, I'd love to, I'll mention a few one is a documentary history of the Negro people in the United States, which is in two volumes and in paper, Citidel published it. The other is American Negro Slave Revolts, apaper and cloth by International and just last week a new book of mine which happenes to be the 17th that I have published, published by Humanities Press and it is called One Continual Cry, a phrase taken from DAVID WALKER's APPEAL To the Colored Citizens of the World, 1829, and I discuss that remarkable 1829 product written by a Negro and als reprint it for the first time in over 100 years.

STONE: Well thank you very much. We've been talking with DR HERBERT APTHEKER and this is EX ALLAN STONE.

On Sunday, March 14, 1965, confidential sources 1 through 4, who have furnished reliable information in the past, participated in and furnished information regarding a demonstration which consisted of a march sponsored by the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), to protest the recent events in Selma, Alabama.

At 3:30 p.m., approximately 25,000 people gathered at 125th Street and Seventh Avenue, and marched up Seventh Avenue to 135th Street, to Lenox Avenue, and back to 125th Street and Seventh Avenue, for a rally outside the Hotel Theresa. Special Agents of the FBI noted that in the forefront of the march were approximately 500 white members of the clergy and nuns. Marchers carried placards and signs calling for voting rights in Alabama.

At the rally outside the Hotel Theresa, the master of ceremonies was actor Ossie Davis. Among the speakers were James Farmer, National Director of CORE, John Lewis, Chairman of SNCC, Bayard Rustin and Jesse Gray, leader of the Harlem Rent Strike. Among goals called for by these speakers were: Federal intervention in Selma; imposition of moral, social and economic boycott against Alabama with a suspension of all business activity in Alabama by trade unions; equal voting rights and opportunities for Negroes. Farmer also declared that within a week there will be a triumphant march from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama.

The rally was terminated at 7:30 p.m., with no incidents.

A fifth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 14, 1965, the following individuals, whom source stated are members of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA, were observed in attendance at the above described demonstration: (C) (U)

A characterization of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America is contained in the Appendix attached hereto.

Lt. Anthony Bouza, Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, advised March 14, 1965, that a group of 300 persons under the sponsorship of United Neighbors For Education and Integration, marched from 161st Street and Grand Concourse, Bronx, New York, to join up with the marchers in Harlem. No incidents occurred.

A seventh confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised during the latter part of 1963, that a Communist Party functionary stated Ossie Davis was then a CP member (S) (U).

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights." In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL) and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party." He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker," February 11, 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America, held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

An eighth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly -- openly."

A ninth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A tenth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CPUSA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CPUSA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

An eleventh source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been organizer for the Harlem Region of the CP, but that position was terminated during November, 1958.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are seven copies of a letterhead memorandum noting the facts of a Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) demonstration which was held Saturday, 3/13/65, at the McCormick Place Exhibition Hall, Chicago, Ill. At the time the demonstration occurred, McCormick Place was the site of the Chicago National Boat, Travel, and Outdoors Show which included an exhibit of the State of Alabama. During this demonstration, arrests were made for criminal trespass and disorderly conduct by the Chicago Police Department and among those arrested was the following who has subversive affiliations:

PEGGY TERRY

Also included in this letterhead memorandum is information received from [redacted] (first source) which indicated that HELEN QUEEN, CP of Ill. member, had on the evening of 3/12/65 attempted to raise support of West Side CP of Ill. members for this 3/13/65 McCormick Place demonstration by CORE. b7D

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

On March 13, 1965, Officer Frank Connelly, Chicago, Illinois, Police Department, advised that the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) was on that date organizing a protest demonstration in sympathy with the racial situation in Selma, Alabama, and that the demonstration was to take place in the vicinity of McCormick Place, Chicago, Illinois, where the Chicago Boat Show was then currently in progress. Officer Connelly advised that information was available indicating that the demonstrators would possibly attempt to enter the Boat Show and demonstrate in the vicinity of the State of Alabama courtesy booth. Officer Connelly stated it was believed that this demonstration would begin to occur some time around 2:00 p.m. of March 13, 1965, and would continue until 10:00 p.m., March 13, 1965, which was the time the Boat Show was scheduled to close for the day.

A source advised on March 13, 1965, that ~~Helen~~ MRS. DANIEL QUEEN ~~Queen~~, a member of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois Garfield Club on the West Side of Chicago, had, on the evening of March 12, 1965, contacted CP of Illinois members on the West Side of Chicago and advised them of the CORE demonstration which was being organized to occur during the a.m. of March 13, 1965, and requested these CP members to attend this demonstration as well as contact other CP members and urge their participation in the demonstration.

ENCLOSURE

During her statements concerning this proposed demonstration, Helen Queen also indicated that during the late evening hours of March 13, 1965, the CORE demonstrators proposed moving to the vicinity of the Federal Building, 219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, where an all-night vigil would be attempted.

On March 13, 1965, Officer J. Campbell, Chicago Police Department, advised that at approximately 3:40 p.m., March 13, 1965, forty individuals were participating in a demonstration at McCormick Place, Chicago. Officer Campbell stated that these individuals were arrested while conducting this demonstration for failure to obey police orders from refraining from further picketing. Officer Campbell noted that the pickets had entered McCormick Place Exhibition Hall and had engaged in singing and chanting in the vicinity of the State of Alabama courtesy booth. Officer Campbell noted that although no acts of violence had occurred, the Alabama booth had been temporarily closed and order restored.

Officer Campbell further noted that following the arrests, a small group of pickets remained at McCormick Place until approximately 4:00 p.m., when all left the vicinity. Officer Campbell noted that the persons arrested included twelve men, fourteen women, and fourteen juveniles and that of the total number arrested, approximately half were of the white race. Officer Campbell advised that the adults were to be charged with disorderly conduct and criminal trespass and the juveniles arrested were to be referred to juvenile authorities.

On March 14, 1965, Officer Charles Jones, 21st District, Chicago Police Department, advised that the following individuals, all juveniles, had been arrested on March 13, 1965, in connection with the CORE demonstration at the State of Alabama courtesy booth, McCormick Place Exhibition Hall, Chicago:

The "Chicago Sun Times" issue of March 14, 1965, page 3, columns 1-5, carried an article entitled, "40 Arrested at Boat Show Sit-In."

The aforementioned article notes that the Chicago Police Department had arrested 40 demonstrators Saturday, March 13, 1965, who had assembled at the State of Alabama exhibit at the Chicago National Boat, Travel and Outdoors Show being held at McCormick Place, Chicago. The article indicated that most of those arrested were carried out of the Hall one by one after refusing to leave their position near the Alabama exhibit. The article indicated that several of the 40 arrested were arrested outside of the Hall when they laid in front of the wheels of police squadrons which contained other arrested demonstrators.

The aforementioned article noted Lieutenant Thomas Nolan of the Chicago Police Department stating that 14 of the arrested demonstrators who were juveniles had been taken to the Prairie Avenue police station where they were released to their parents' custody. The article indicated that the adults, consisting of ten men and fourteen women, were taken directly to the station lock-up. The article stated that these individuals were charged with criminal trespass and disorderly conduct and bond was set at $200 with arraignment scheduled for Sunday, March 14, 1965, in Holiday Court.

The "Chicago Sun Times" article indicated that the demonstration had been called by CORE and that the pickets had begun to gather at McCormick Place at the 11:00 a.m. show opening time. The pickets carried placards on which were inscriptions such as "Alabama is a disgrace to the U.S." and "Free Selma First."

Concerning Peggy Terry, [redacted] mentioned above, as one of those arrested during this demonstration, it is to be noted that a second source and third source advised on April 2, 1960, and May 25, 1960, respectively, that as of that time Peggy Terry was a member of the CP of Illinois. CHICAGO, IL
HQ OF 100-6

A fourth source advised on June 4, 1964, that as of that date Peggy Terry was then Recording and Corresponding Secretary of the Women's Peace and Unity Club (WPUC), Chicago.

Appended hereto is a characterization of the WPUC, Chicago.

On March 15, 1965, a fifth source advised that he had been contacted on the evening of March 12, 1965, by Helen Queen, a member of the CP of Illinois Garfield Club, West Side of Chicago, and Helen Queen had apprised him of the proposed McCormick Place demonstration to be held by CORE on March 13, 1965. Source advised that Queen had indicated that she was contacting West Side CP of Illinois members and her friends in order to gain support for this demonstration. This source further advised that he had determined that Helen Queen had no authorization from the Chairman of the Garfield Club, CP of Illinois, to conduct the contact of West Side CP of Illinois members to obtain their support for this demonstration and that her actions in doing so were the acts of an individual and did not have the sanction of the Garfield Club, CP of Illinois.

ATTENDED

The first source, mentioned above, on March 15, 1965, advised that on March 14, 1965, the CP of Illinois held a city-wide CP press meeting at 333 West North Avenue, Chicago, IL. This source stated that among those in attendance at this meeting was Daniel Queen, husband of Helen Queen, and that during the course of the evening Daniel Queen mentioned his wife's attempts to organize support for the CORE demonstration held at McCormick Place on March 13, 1965. In discussing this demonstration, Queen indicated that apparently those contacted had misunderstood as to the location where they were to assemble for this demonstration because Helen Queen's efforts in this regard were completely unsuccessful in that very few people showed up. This same source also indicated that during the discussion Queen indicated that the demonstration which was conducted had several organizations represented but that these organizations acted independently of each other and there was a complete lack of coordination. Queen also advised that due to this lack of coordination, the proposed all-night vigil which was to be held that same evening at the Federal Building had not occurred. During these discussions, Queen indicated that he, himself, had not participated in the demonstration.

APPENDIX

WOMEN'S PEACE AND UNITY CLUB, Formerly known as the Chicago Women for Peace

The aims and purposes of the Chicago Women for Peace (CWP), as set forth in its self-identified publication "Chicago Acts for Peace" (CAP) May, 1951, issue, describes this organization as a "service center for women working for peace." This publication described the CWP as being affiliated with the American Women for Peace (AWP) and as cooperating with the American Peace Crusade (APC).

The January, 1954, issue of "CAP" announced the dissolution of the AWP and the affiliation of the CWP with the APC Council in Chicago.

A source advised in November, 1956, that the CWP remained affiliated with the APC, Chicago, until the organization dissolved in September, 1955. The CWP continued with no national affiliation until September, 1956, when a "reorganization and name change took place," and it became known as the "Women's Peace and Unity Club" (WPUC). The reason given for this "reorganization and name change" was that the CWP had been formed to end the Korean War, and since that war was over and there was a "measure of peace in the world," women's interests were more centered on such issues as civil rights, desegregated and better schools, juvenile delinquency, equal opportunities, housing and cost of living. Source advised that the only actual "reorganization" of the CWP was the change of its name to WPUC.

A second source advised in October, 1956, that the Communist Party (CP), Illinois-Indiana District, had ordered the dissolution of the CWP because it no longer served the purpose of the Party since it was a "left-wing" peace group. Though the CWP refused to dissolve and chose to continue in the form of the WPUC, it continues to be a "communist front organization" whose policies and activities are directed by CP members.

A third source advised on May 15, 1964, that the WPUC, as of that date, continued to operate in the Chicago area as a peace organization under the direction and control of CP members and its objectives continued to be the same.

The AWP and APC have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA. (U)

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

Harry Wachtel is the Executive Vice President of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York. He resides at 29 Split Rock Drive, Kings Point, Long Island, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in December, 1949, that Harry H. Wachtel, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild. (4)

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild is attached hereto.

On March 5, 1944, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that the name Harry Wachtel was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party (CP) at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York. (4)

Regarding Harry Wachtel's wife, Leonora, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP. (4)

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president, and serves to raise funds for the SCLC.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED EXCEPT WHERE SHOWN OTHERWISE

The "Chicago Sun-Times", a Chicago daily newspaper, issue of March 10, 1965, page three, column one, carried an article entitled, "Sympathy Sit Knots Loop". This article indicated that on March 9, 1965, civil rights demonstrators had flung themselves down in the street at the State and Madison intersections, Chicago, Illinois, in a protest demonstration in sympathy with the Selma, Alabama Negroes and had thereby caused a massive jam at the height of the evening rush hour.

This article also indicated that due to this action, 24 persons were arrested and charged with resisting arrest and disorderly conduct. Also, five of these individuals were charged with damaging city property for kicking off the back doors of the squadrol of the Chicago Police Department that had taken the arrested individuals to the Central District Station at 1121 South State Street, Chicago.

This article indicated also that of those arrested, many were members of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) or members of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE).

The article referred to also mentioned that during the course of the arrests, two policemen, Cornelius Morgan and Robert Reding, both of the Central District were treated for bites on the hand at the Wesley Memorial Hospital, which resulted when these officers made their arrests.

ENCLOSURE

In describing the incident, the article in the "Chicago Sun-Times" indicated that initially about 15 young women assumed sitting positions in the middle of the intersection at State and Madison and were subsequently joined by 15 to 20 young men who crawled under Chicago Transit Authority buses that had been halted by the first group.

The article stated that about half of the demonstrators were of the white race and the rest were Negro. The article indicated that this condition continued until 6:00 PM when the traffic situation was restored to normal.

The article quoted a Lieutenant Stanley Bizarek of the Central District Station, Chicago Police Department as stating that there were between 50 and 60 demonstrators at the intersection when the demonstration first began and many of these demonstrators had originally been with a group who had picketed the United States Courthouse.

b7C

Also, the article quoted a Mrs. Daisy Mae Oliver, [redacted] who resides at [redacted] Chicago, as stating that the demonstrators decided on their action at State and Madison because "not enough people were around to be aware of our protest at the Federal Building."

ILL.

Also quoted in the article was a statement by Lieutenant Bizarek to the effect that at the height of the demonstration there were approximately 20,000 to 25,000 persons present to witness the protest and the lieutenant also indicated that there were no serious injuries.

The article concluded by identifying the following individuals as those arrested during this demonstration:

This article also indicated that Thomas Bohanon and Ron Woodard had said that they had just returned from civil rights work in the State of Mississippi. The article also noted that Ron Woodard, Gene Jones, Monroe Sharpe, Karl Meyer and Garfield Harris were the five individuals charged with damaging city property.

Concerning Beth Joffe, referred to above, it is to be noted that a source advised that Beth Joffe attended a Christmas party held on December 16, 1960 by the Modern Teens Club of Chicago, Illinois, at a private residence located at [redacted] Chicago, Illinois. (U)

A characterization of the Modern Teens Club is appended hereto.

A second source on October 17, 1962, advised that on October 9, 1962, a meeting of the Pete Levin Communist Party (CP) Club was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. This source advised that during the discussion at this meeting, the question of obtaining a new membership for the Modern Teens was discussed and among those suggested for membership in the Modern Teens was Beth Joffe. (U)

Concerning Ed Heisler, mentioned above, it is to be noted that a third source advised on March 8, 1965, that as of that date, Heisler was a member of the Chicago Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

Attached hereto is a characterization of the Chicago Branch, SWP.

In connection with Ed Heisler, who was identified above as a reporter for "The Militant" Newspaper, it is to be noted that "The Militant" is the weekly newspaper of the SWP.

The SWP is designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In connection with Thomas J. Bohanon, referred to above, it is to be noted that a fourth source advised on January 26, 1962, that as of October, 1961, Thomas Bohanon was a member of a youth group within the CP of Illinois. (U)

Concerning Karl Meyer referred to above, the "Chicago Sun Times" magazine section, issue of April 15, 1962, pages 12 and 13, carried an article captioned "Despite Setbacks, He Keeps Marching For Peace." This article identifies Karl Meyer as a University of Chicago graduate who is a son of William H. Meyer, a former United States representative from Vermont. This article also identifies the senior Meyer as a Conscientious Objector in the World War II draft and identifies Karl H. Meyer as one of the leaders of a peace march which had taken place in October, 1961, where the participants had walked from San Francisco, California to Moscow, Russia. This article indicated that Karl Meyer had been jailed seven days in his quest for peace and that he stood for global disarmament and the end of the manufacture and testing of atomic weapons.

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA,
MARCH 15, 1965

On March 15, 1965, from 8:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m., upwards of 5,000 to 7,000 people marched around City Hall of Philadelphia in a demonstration to memorialize the Reverend JAMES REEB, Civil Rights worker killed in Selma, Alabama, who died March 11, 1965, and to dramatize the current voters registration activity of the Civil Rights groups in Selma, Alabama.

Lieutenant GEORGE FENCL, Philadelphia Police Department, Commissioner's Office, advised on March 15, 1965, that shortly before Noon, upwards of 2,000 demonstrators joined the marchers around City Hall, after having formed at the Uptown Theater, Broad Street and Susquehanna Avenue, and marched the approximately two miles to City Hall. This group swelled the total taking part to an estimated 7,000, according to Commissioner HOWARD LEARY, of the Philadelphia Police Department.

Lieutenant FENCL advised that with the huge crowds, there was traffic congestion; however, the demonstration from start to finish was orderly with no arrests or incidents.

A Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed JAMES DOLSEN, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN AYCOX, JOAN AYCOX, RITA "ROOKIE" GABOW, JARVIS TYNER, and ARLENE TYNER taking part in the march around City Hall.

Dear Mr. Watson:

~~Confidential~~ sources of this Bureau who have furnished reliable information in the past have supplied the following information which may be of interest to the President.

On March 16, 1965, Bayard Rustin and Harry Wachtel discussed President Johnson's speech before Congress on March 15, 1965, concerning civil rights legislation. Wachtel said that the speech covered every part of the "battle front." Both agreed that the speech was the most forthright ever made by the President. They did, however, also agree that "compliments" should wait until they saw what the bill being proposed by the President contained.

Rustin and Wachtel discussed what they should do in light of the President's willingness to "go all out" for the Negro. Wachtel suggested that Rustin seek permission to speak before one of the Congressional committees that will consider the legislation. In this connection Rustin said that the "battle" has shifted from Selma, Alabama, to Washington, D. C., and that they, therefore, need to get a group of senators and representatives to meet with Martin Luther King, Jr. Wachtel indicated that this could be arranged very easily.

Rustin and Wachtel are frequent advisors to King. Rustin is a former member of the Young Communist League, an organization which has been designated as subversive pursuant to Executive Order 10450. In 1949 Wachtel was a member of the National Lawyers Guild, an organization which was described as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities in 1944. In addition, Wachtel's wife, Leonora, was a member of the Communist Party, USA, in 1944.

This information is also being furnished to the Attorney General and other officials of the Department of Justice.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE:

Classified "~~Secret~~" as the basic information is from NY 4212-S*, a source of continuing value relative to the racial situation. The unauthorized disclosure of this information could impair the source's security and thus possibly injure the national defense. Information obtained from NYairtel and letterhead memorandum 3/18/65. COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF NEGRO AMERICAN LABOR COUNCIL
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

On March 17, 1965, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows:

At a meeting of the Executive Board, Chicago Negro American Labor Council (NALC) Chapter, held on March 16, 1965, Ulus C. Crowder, a member of the Chicago NALC Executive Board, reported that while in recent contact with A. Philip Randolph, National Chairman of the NALC in New York City, Randolph advised that he does not want the National NALC Convention scheduled for May 29-30, 1965, in Detroit, Michigan, to be held in Detroit because of the Trade Union Leadership Council group that is in existence there; that Randolph originally wanted the National Convention of the NALC for 1965 to be held in St. Louis, Missouri, but since the St. Louis NALC Chapter has advised that it is impossible for them to sponsor the Convention, Randolph, therefore, desires that the Convention be held in Chicago.

The Chicago NALC Board decided that the Chicago Chapter does not have the time, money, or forces to sponsor the Convention scheduled for May 29-30, 1965, and therefore will propose to Randolph that he postpone the National Convention until 1966.

Reurairtel 3/23/65 enclosing letterhead memorandum (LHM) entitled "Communist Party, USA, National Negro Commission Meeting, March 20-21, 1965, New York, New York," which sets forth information furnished by [redacted] b7D

Re LHM gives little information as to what actually transpired at the Party's National Negro Commission two-day meeting, which was billed as an extremely important meeting and the only full meeting of the Commission scheduled to be held during 1965.

Your office should promptly contact [redacted] b7D for additional details relating to the Party's National Negro Commission meeting. Specifically, [redacted] should be requested to comment on the following points:

(1) [redacted] b7D should be requested to furnish a summary of the reports made by Claude Lightfoot, George Morris and Earl Durham, notwithstanding informant's comment that the reports concerned facts which had already been made known to the world through news media.

(2) What comments were made by Gus Hall? It is noted that although Hall was present during the entire meeting, [redacted] b7D made no reference to any comments made by Hall.

(3) What was the significance of the remark made by Henry Winston that at the present time the Communist Party would have to be extremely cautious about involvement in the Negro movement? Did Gus Hall and other Party functionaries agree with Winston's remark?

(6) What comments were made concerning the demonstration in Selma, Alabama? Was there any indication that Party members were participating or planned to participate in the Selma demonstration? Was anything said at the meeting to indicate that anyone in the Party was giving guidance to anyone concerning this or other civil rights demonstrations?

(7) What does the Party intend to do with the resolution it plans to prepare on the various aspects of the Negro struggle?

The Bureau is holding dissemination of re LHM in abeyance pending receipt of the results of your contact with [redacted] b7D In view of the foregoing, you should handle this matter promptly and resubmit an LHM incorporating the requested information. The LHM should be submitted by airtel to the Bureau by 3/30/65 and preferably before that date.

Reurairtel and letterhead memorandum (LHM) 3/15/65 reporting on captioned demonstration. Reairtel noted that, according to a police source, approximately 17 individuals of a total of approximately 400 participating in the demonstration were individuals with subversive connections. The subversives took no leadership role, but were merely participants. Reairtel stated that inasmuch as the Erie County Communist Party (CP) had no advance plans with respect to the demonstration and the members who did take part did so because of a notice in the local press, the identities of the 17 participants were not being included in the LHM.

Attention is invited to Buairtel 3/16/65 to Albany, copies to all continental offices, "CIRM," It is imperative that there be reported to the Bureau in a manner suitable for dissemination all subversive participation in demonstrations such as that reported by your referenced communication. The fact that the Erie County CP had no advance plans and that the members learned of the demonstration through the local press has no direct bearing on the fact that subversives did actually participate in the demonstration.

By return airtel submit a supplementary LHM containing the identities of the subversives known to have participated and including brief, timely characterizations of these individuals.

The meeting of March 20, 1965, got under way at about 10:15 a.m. with CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT requesting nominations for chairman. TOM DENNIS from Detroit was subsequently selected as chairman for the session.

DENNIS then informed those present that the agenda for the meetings would consist of a report by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, CP National Negro Commission Chairman, which would be an analysis of a political situation in view of the Negro struggle. DENNIS then said that GEORGE MORRIS would talk about labor and the Negro alliance and lastly, EARL DURHAM would talk on civil rights.

During the morning LIGHTFOOT and GEORGE MORRIS made their respective reports and in the afternoon DURHAM talked about civil rights. All of the reports concerned facts which had already been made known to the world through news media and emphasized the fact that the American Negro was on the move in quest of full equality as an American citizen.

During the second day, March 21, 1965, CHARLENE MITCHELL acted as chairman.

Just prior to the morning session HENRY WINSTON pointed out that President LYNDON JOHNSON was sending Federal troops to Selma, Alabama, to assist the civil rights marchers who were walking to Montgomery, Alabama.

During the rest of the day there was a full discussion on the reports made the previous day and again the facts brought out were the same as those presented in various news media.

Following the discussion HENRY WINSTON told those present that before the U. S. Government had brought the most recent conspiracy charges against the CP, a CP National Convention had been planned but this had to be abandoned in view of the trial.

WINSTON then stated that "we" feel that the Party has a good opportunity to defeat the McCarran Act and that after the CP triumphs in the trial to be held next Fall, a CP National Convention will be held. WINSTON said that after the Party had won out, it would be legal and would no longer be subjected to harrassment by the Federal Government. WINSTON stated that after the McCarran Act had been defeated, the Party could hold its National Convention, project a program of action and find its way into the main stream of the Negro people's movement.

WINSTON stressed that at the present time the CP would have to be extremely cautious about involvement in the Negro movement and he was going to set up a subcommittee of JAMES JACKSON, TOM DENNIS, EARL DURHAM, and ALVA BUXEMBAUM to study the Negro struggle and prepare a resolution on various aspects of the Negro struggle.

The meetings were closed with CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT talking about his recent trip to a number of African nations.
